Nepolapitelné „židovské řešení“

Myšlenky na „Postscript k ‚Třitisícileté hádance‘“ Igora Šafareviče Nedávno jsem poskytl překlad závěrečných poznámek Igora Šafareviče k jeho vlastnímu dílu „Třitisíciletá hádanka“, které se zabývají židovskou otázkou, ve kterých se snaží vysvětlit možná řešení do budoucna. Nejprve si prosím přečtěte původní text .

Kdybych chtěl, mohl bych klidně napsat žhavou recenzi na Igora Šafareviče a jeho dílo a nechat to tam. Ten muž byl uznávaný akademik, génius ve svém oboru a dost odvážný na to, aby řešil židovskou otázku tak, jak to dělal. Ale přenechám tento úkol jinému spisovateli a místo toho se zaměřím na dílo, které nám zanechal, a zeptám se, zda existují nějaké nové poznatky, o které se musí Šafarevič podělit s lidmi ze Západu, nebo zda existují rozdíly v jeho charakterizaci Židovská otázka a její návrh řešení.

Šafarevič je oknem do ruského chápání židovské otázky ze sovětské éry. Když si ho přečteme, můžeme sami rozhodnout, zda tito Rusové pochopili problém, kterému čelili, podobně, jak jej nyní chápeme. Například západní kontrasemité dobře vědí o problému dvojí loajality a fenoménu židovské krypty. Šafarevič poukazuje na to, že Židé nemají rádi, když jsou uznáváni za to, že jsou Židé, a často považují odhalení za přímou urážku nebo dokonce hrozbu. Řekl jinak: „Ale říkejte mu Žid a budete se divit, jak ucouvá, jak je zraněný, jak se najednou scvrkne: „Byl jsem odhalen.“

Také myšlenka, že Židé potřebují lidi, aby pracovali, dřeli a bojovali za ně, je bod, který dobře chápou jak západní, tak ruští kontrasemité žijící pod židovskou okupační vládou. Je opravdu neuvěřitelné vidět, jak tolik lidí z různých zemí, období historie a intelektuálních tradic bylo schopno dojít k podobným závěrům o Židech.

Zde by snad bylo poučné udělat okliku a porovnat závěry Šafareviče se Solženicynovými. Ten druhý, pokud vůbec něco, bagatelizoval vinu Židů a jejich destruktivní chování. To znamená, že i když jejich zločiny nezakrýval ani se je nesnažil zabít jako výplody pomýlených úmyslů, nakonec došel k závěru, že Židé jsou jako božský druh trestu vypuštěného na Rusy za jejich vlastní hříchy. Při rámování svého vyprávění použil velmi známý křesťanský metafyzický rámeček. Stručně řečeno, Židé byli Božím nástrojem (nebo nástrojem Boha působícího prostřednictvím Satana) k potrestání svého lidu a vytváření dalších křesťanských mučedníků prostřednictvím protivenství.

Shafarevič však zaujímá více biologický pohled na věc, což je perspektiva známá většině západních kontrasemitů, bezpochyby. Shafarevič používá metaforu býložravec/masožravec, aby popsal vztah mezi pohany a Židy. Ale pokud hledáme inspiraci ve zvířecí říši, napadají nás paraziti jako lepší analogie pro Židy a jejich chování. To také úhledně vysvětluje předpokládané limity jejich plodnosti. Společnost, pokud je konceptualizována jako živý organismus, by rychle dosáhla parazitického přetížení. Hostitel by podlehl nemoci a nakonec by se zhroutil.

Aby však naše nová metafora fungovala, musíme zvážit koncept, který předložil jiný ruský myslitel Lev Gumilyov. Konceptualizoval společnost jako živý organismus, respektive, že vlastní etnická skupina je extenzí sebe sama. Jeho úvaha je jednoduchá: kmen pomáhá chránit jednotlivce. Kolem jednotlivce se rozrůstá kmen a poté společnost jako ochranná kůže kolem kance. Ještě lépe, jednotlivce lze přirovnat k buňkám v těle. Kasty nebo typy jedinců jsou v této metafoře orgány. Lidé musí spolupracovat jednotně, aby kolektivní tělo i jednotlivé buňky přežily. Lidé jednoho etna jsou tedy shromáždění na hluboké úrovni jeden k druhému a ne pouze atomizovaní jedinci, kteří náhodou sdílejí nějaké proteiny s lidmi kolem sebe, jak naše společnost nyní konceptualizuje věci. Pro nacionalisty by to byla velmi silná metafora, kterou by si nejprve internalizovali a pak ji použili.

Shafarevičovým velkým cílem, řešením, které nabízí nám, velkému stádu býložravců, jak nás charakterizuje, je znovu se naučit, jak uzavřít řady kolem sebe a znovu se naučit, jak mezi námi rozeznávat predátory.

Na této myšlence není teoreticky nic špatného. V praxi se však ukázalo, že přimět lidi, aby přemýšleli o svých společných zájmech, o zájmech slabších složek naší společnosti a o osudu našich budoucích potomků, je poměrně obtížné. Zejména mnoho západních bílých se brání myšlence, že patří k něčemu vrozenému, co je větší než oni sami, z čeho se nemohou jednoduše odhlásit změnou své ideologie, profese nebo nákupem nového oblečení. Západní běloši, jakkoli mají sklony k individualismu, dávají přednost shromažďování kolem ideologie místo identity. V praxi to znamená, že přistěhovalec z Tchaj-wanu se správnými názory a hodnotami je přijat do zdvořilé bílé společnosti. Ale bílý muž, který mohl mít předky dokonce i na Mayflower ,by byl vyhozen ze zdvořilé společnosti, jakmile by vyslovil politicky nekorektní názor. Třeba o židovské moci.

Už jsme to viděli nesčetněkrát.

Otázka *jako*živení národního nebo rasového vědomí v zemi radikálních individualistů sužovalo kontraseimity přinejmenším poslední půlstoletí. Možná je to kvůli této hyperindividualitě, že výzvy k uzavření řad dopadají na hluché uši. Navíc jednotlivec bílý může hodně získat odsouzením svého lidu. My se v celospolečenském měřítku nacházíme v klasickém scénáři vězeňského dilematu. Dávalo by smysl, aby bílí v dobré víře spolupracovali s ostatními bílými a zlepšili si svůj úděl spoluprací, ale v naší otrávené kultuře honba za racionálními, individuálními zájmy diktuje, aby bílí mezi sebou bojovali, aby dokázali, kdo je nejméně rasistický a nejtolerantnější získat mírnější tresty od vězeňského dozorce. V Sovětském svazu to bylo stejné, i když vládnoucí ideologie byla poněkud odlišná.

Docela dilema.

Vzhledem k tomu, že řešení „uzavření hodnotí“ je hlavním cílem Shafarevičova argumentu, je zklamáním, že tráví tak málo času mluvením o metodách, které by nám mohly pomoci uzavřít řady proti hanebnému vlivu cizinců, ao tom, jaké překážky nám v tom brání.

Kdybych měl jednu kritiku Shafareviče, bylo by to to, že jeho psaní trpí stejným problémem, jakým trpí spisy mnoha jiných badatelů. Tito lidé jsou schopni dělat herkulovskou práci, pokud jde o pečlivé prosévání obrovských pásů informací jako výzkumník a organizátor dat. Kde však pokulhávají, jsou řešení, která následně navrhují. Možná je to proto, že hledání řešení vyžaduje zcela odlišný soubor mentálních dovedností, přičemž analyzování a pitvání je zcela odlišné od syntézy politiky nebo praxe.

Dalším důležitým bodem, na který se Shafarevič zaměřoval, je myšlenka, že Židé si sami vysvětili roli kněží pro celé lidstvo, kteří jsou oddáni svržení idolů jiných národů, ať už jde o původní bohy nebo původní kulturu. To je nyní v našich kruzích dobře známé jako „Tikkum Olam“ nebo židovská oddanost „uzdravení světa“, tj. přetvoření světa, aby lépe vyhovoval jim a jejich agendě. Židé se také považují za „ničitele idolů“. A v jejich židovském pojetí mohou „idoly“ znamenat jakoukoli myšlenku nebo kulturní praxi, která není schválena židovskými autoritami.

Také, i když monoteismus není židovským vynálezem, Židé jistě podporovali uctívání jednoho boha, svého boha, Jahve, nad všechny bohy ostatních národů. Je smutné, že první křesťané, kteří se postavili Jahvehismu, prohráli svůj boj s křesťanskou ortodoxií a vrtošivé etnické božstvo Starého zákona se stalo naším Bohem.

Předsokratovští řečtí myslitelé, zoroastriáni a gnostici naopak věřili, že skutečně existuje mocné, ale zlé, materialistické, malicherné božstvo, které vládne tomuto světu. Polyteistické árijské pohanské náboženství považovalo bohy za svévolné a kruté. To vše se však začalo měnit s Platónem. Tento slavný Řek byl rovnocenným filozofem stejně jako politickým aktivistou a sociálním plánovačem ve stylu Klause Schwaba. Platonův „Velký reset“ začal tím, že se dohadoval o zákazu Homérovy Odyssey a snažil se bojovat proti pochybovačným postojům rolníků k bohům. Platón věřil, že kritika boha (bohů) a jejich záměrů by měla být v jeho kněžské utopické společnosti zakázána.

Shafarevič demonstruje vědomí toho, jak hluboce byl obecný nápor západního myšlení ovlivněn judaismem a Platónem. Jsme produkty platónského, judaistického a poté křesťanského (odnož judaismu) myšlení, říká, a trajektorie naší společnosti byla definována spojením těchto intelektuálních a náboženských tradic.

Nedávná odborná analýza Starého zákona však odhaluje, že byl pravděpodobně napsán mnohem později, než Židé historicky tvrdili. Ve skutečnosti učenci z „minimalistické školy“, jako je Russel Gmirkin, přesvědčivě tvrdí, že Bible byla napsána ve druhém století před naším letopočtem a inspirována Platónovým dílem . Tóra, mýtus židovské nacionalistické nadace, vzala za svůj hlavní princip Platónovu myšlenku vyššího monobožstva. Platón nebyl prvním monoteistou, ale byl jedním z prvních, kdo trval na tom, že jednobožstvo musí být všemocné i dobré. Byl také prvním, kdo nastínil program ve stylu WEF pro radikální transformaci společnosti pomocí psycho-náboženských taktik k manipulaci s populací.

Židé si rádi připisují zásluhy za vynález monoteismu, ale jak zdůrazňuje Shafarevič, připisují zásluhy téměř všemu. Jejich úspěchy bagatelizuje tvrzením, že Židé v moderní historii pozorovatelně vynalezli nebo přispěli velmi málo a byli schopni dělat to, co dělali, pouze pomocí nástrojů, které jim byly předány hostitelskými kulturami, ve kterých se ocitli. Kontroverzní příklad Starého zákona by přesně zapadal do tohoto pozorovatelného fenoménu, kdy Židé jsou schopni pouze přijmout, upravit nebo převrátit to, co již existuje. Je to přece guláš z vypůjčených a v některých případech převrácených legend a mýtů od lidí, se kterými se v průběhu své historie dostali do styku. Židé pak tvrdili, že jejich kopie předcházela originálům a připisovala si zásluhy za to, co ukradli. Klasický židovský tah. Výsledkem bylo, že jsme skončili s pohodlným židovsko-centrickým vyprávěním o teologii a historii, ve kterém Židé vynalezli monoteismus, měli nejstarší psaný náboženský text, byli vyvolení Bohem a tak dále.

Shafarevich si nebyl vědom této konkrétní revizionistické školy biblické učenosti, když psal a prováděl svůj vlastní výzkum. Jeho vlastní analýza Starého zákona by však pohoršila mnoho generických západních konzervativců a dokonce i zkušených protisemitů. Nemělo by být překvapením, že sovětští učenci měli svobodu zpochybňovat některá základní tvrzení křesťanství, a dokonce povzbuzování k dekonstruování svatých textů, jako je Bible. V důsledku toho se skepse vůči židovské náboženské historii stala v SSSR přijatelnější. Amerika naproti tomu zůstala převážně protestantská. tj.

starozákonní a nikdy neměl období státem nařízeného ateismu, během něhož byla Bible delegitimizována a zbavena své posvátné dýhy.

To vysvětluje jeden z jemných rozdílů mezi ruským a západním kontrasemitským myšlením.

Většina západních kontrasemitů se také ze strachu z rozhoupání lodi snaží držet dál od náboženských debat, nebo spíše od toho, aby kladla příliš mnoho otázek o Starém zákoně. V současné době však existuje znepokojivý trend kontrasemitů, kteří se identifikují se starozákonními Židy tím, že tvrdí, že ve skutečnosti byli Skandinávci nebo Němci a že současná populace Židů jsou „padělky“ z Chazarie.

Je snadné pochopit, proč jsou mnozí k této ideologii přitahováni.

Přece jen je poněkud zvláštní být nacionalistou a poté přijmout národní mýty a etnické božstvo nepřátelského národa za své. Ještě těžší je připustit, že naši předkové žili v prostředí s nízkou informovaností a byli před staletími jednoduše podvedeni.

Nyní se mnoho kontrasemitů pokusilo zcela obejít diskusi a jednoduše se pokusilo zaměřit na podporu etnického sebeuvědomění. Znovu se však setkáváme s opakujícím se problémem nízké úrovně etnocentricity mezi západními bílými.

Pokud mezi etnocentričtějšími skupinami lidí funguje jednoduchý přístup „uzavírání řady“, možná má smysl pracovat s obilím a ne proti němu, když jde o navrhování řešení pro národy, které se z toho či onoho důvodu zdánlivě rozvinuly. extrémně nízké úrovně empatie k vlastním příbuzným.

Zdá se, že místo toho, aby byli přitahováni myšlenkami identity, jsou tyto národy přitahovány k náboženskému typu/ideologickému myšlení. I když jsou sekulární. Koneckonců, sekulární náboženství jako Social Justice Warriorism a kult globálního oteplování nyní dominují bílé západní zdvořilé společnosti.

Takže bod, kterým se zde řídím, je poměrně jednoduchý.

Možná by řešením pro národy, které se snaží sblížit se kvůli nízké úrovni etnocentricity, mělo být dělat to, co umí nejlépe, a znovu si osvojit náboženské myšlení a náboženskou horlivost puritánského stylu, k čemuž se přirozeně tak dobře hodí. Pokud to však má být provedeno, možná má smysl přestat předstírat, že jste skutečnými Židy, a začít se místo toho soustředit na to, abyste se stali skutečnými křesťany. Mým příspěvkem do debaty o možných řešeních židovské otázky by bylo doporučení Marcionitského křesťanského myšlení s jeho odmítáním Starého zákona a postavením Krista vedle Jahveho jako teologicky zdravý a duchovně vylučující alternativní přístup k náboženství.

I když náboženské myšlení má jistě své nevýhody, zdá se, že je schopno čas od času přesvědčit svědomité lidi o možnosti, že destruktivní samoúčelné činy mají vážné metafyzické důsledky. Šafarevič i já se opět shodujeme, že jediný způsob, jak se vymanit z politického, ekonomického a sociálního vězení, které pro nás Židé postavili, je uzavřít řady a naučit se spolupracovat s našimi vlastními lidmi. Ale jediný způsob, jak přimět bílé, aby spolupracovali a přemýšleli o záchraně víc než jen své vlastní kůže, je přijmout osvědčené postupy, které podporují kooperativní chování, trestají sobectví, které slouží samoúčelnému, a vylučují Židy tím, že je uznají jako smrtelné nepřátele.

Jak nebo skutečná praxe uzavírání řad a podpora spolupráce mezi našimi vlastními je to, co bychom nyní měli rozvíjet a diskutovat. Je smutné, že na této frontě bylo dosaženo velmi malého pokroku na Západě i na Východě.

Šafarevič a do jisté míry i Solženicyn odvedli statečnou práci při výzkumu židovské otázky a upozornili miliony lidí na celém světě na zločiny Židů a hrozbu, kterou představují. To, co se jim nedaří, je posouvat míč mnohem dál, než jen popsat problém a vrhnout světlo na taktiku Židů a jejich konečný program zničit a předělat naši společnost, aby lépe sloužila jejich vlastním zájmům. Abychom pokračovali v analogii, tito výzkumníci přihráli míč dopředu na nepřátelskou polovinu hřiště a doufali, že ho někdo z jejich týmu zvedne a donese ho po zbytek cesty k cíli. Díky tvrdé práci výzkumníků, jako je Shafarevič, nyní jasně rozumíme židovskému problému. Každý, kdo hledá svatý grál, kterým je židovské řešení, však

Solzhenitsyn... ultimately concluded that the Jews were like a divine sort of punishment unleashed on Russians for their own sins. He used a very familiar Christian metaphysical framework when framing his narrative. That, in short, the Jews were God's tool (or the tool of God working through Satan) for punishing his people and creating more Christian martyrs through adversity.

The Jews themselves pioneered this kind of Talmudic double-down-talk: the Assyrians etc. didn't beat YHVH by conquering his Chosen Ones, they were actually being used by YHVH to punish his Chosen Ones for not worshiping him enough (cf. "Vote harder!").

IF "Christian Nationalists" ever took power, they would quickly maintain or re-institute the entire Judaic regime (abortion, transsexualism, porn, drugs, support for Israel, etc.) as actually God's tribulation of his Elect through his Chosen Instrument, so as to perfect them before his return.

"He did this to present her to himself as a glorious church without a spot or wrinkle or any other blemish. Instead, she will be holy and without fault." Ephesians, 5:12

"And the same shit all over again" — Karl Marx, Critique of the Gotha Programme almost everyone knows what the only permanent solution to the JP is.

Hitler et al. tried to do it, but barely got started before losing the attendant war.

and by starting in on the Jews and not finishing, the Nazis gave them the A#1 victimology entitlement group status that the Jews are now using to finish off the Whites and their civilization.

The classical solution worked pretty well. Why was it lost?

They claim to be a separate people, so disenfranchise them.

And let them set up ghettos where they will be ruled by their rabbis with power of life and death.

Only escape, getting protection from the State, is to take off their hats and abandon Judaism.

Today, in the modern world with modern communications, that would work in a flash. The Satanism called Judaism would quickly disappear.

So why was that easy solution lost? Democracy!

This remarkable essay covers a great deal of useful ground in a mere 2600 words, and is much more informative and thought-provoking than many recent offerings on Unz.com. I will definitely keep an eye peeled for other writings from this author.

cheesus k reist what a terrible idea Rolo Slavskiy is pushing here – to fight Jewish influence by trying to sell some kind of supposedly ‘anti-Jewish’ version of Jewish-book Jewish-saviour Christianity

this is one of the dumbest things I have read by an Unz writer in a long time any form of Jewish-drenched Christianity, is a foothold for Jewish cultism to reassert itself ... and in any case Christianity is in final-surge, swan-song-soon-amongst-whites phase, something less visible to an Eastern European like Slavskiy, or to USA bible-country folk there’s need for spirituality, but the offer as Christianity fades, should be a Western version of meditation-yogic-reincarnation religions, so people can still maintain comfort in life beyond death and spiritual magic, without Jewish-Abrahamic terrors like ‘eternal hell’ and other holy book barbarisms

the ‘fix’ to ethnic assault is underway somewhat naturally now – whites are realising they are being attacked and waking up, and, curiously, finding some new allies as Latinos and Asians also start to feel attacked in parallel ways ... eventually we can normalise the idea that everyone has a right to their ‘own culture’ and some stability in the world, including white people ... if we can survive the propaganda and censorship schemes of the elite

Dalai Lama himself boldly spoke in anti-Soros fashion saying that ‘Europe should be for Europeans’ ... guess he’s a ‘racist’ too now lol

I fail to understand how offering to foot the bill to send them all to what would become Israel would have changed much in the long run.

Anything else related to the jews that Hilter was supposed to have started and not finished is just more subversive historical revisionism.

The obvious solution is to give up your stupidstitions with religion the most prominent. It is bunk from stem to stern and once you give it up, the world becomes a more understandable place. You will also begin to understand that the religion of government is just as pernicious and false.

Ukraine is being set up to become the European “israel”. Despite “aliyah” being desired by jews, (((they))) actually HATE israel’s climate and middle eastern nature.

Ukraine is the perfect place for European jews to establish their criminal enterprises on the European continent as (((they))) will have the whole European and Asian continents within their reach.

Israel 2.0 is being created as we speak.

Thank you for the interesting article. I'm still digesting these ideas and don't have anything particularly interesting to say. It will probably take a few more years to finish digesting.

For a while now (about 10 years) I have understood Plato (and to a lesser extent, Aristotle) to be proto-Christians, so I am skeptical of the claim that Christian civilization is just a bad rip off of Jewish ideas (something we often hear from Jews). I'm happy to see a distinguished academic push back against this.

Very few educated people believe in, or have any interest in the childish ideas like mathematical (or worse, physical) platonism. These ideas were useful hundreds of years ago, but thankfully are seen as painfully naive now. It seems to me that believing in the Jewish God (as Christians do) is simply the same retarded belief on steroids.

As I said, I still need to work through these ideas.

Hmm. The state is supposed to protect it's own real citizens. Those finding themselves under the power of rabbis to execute them (they really did, per Shahak) can cease to be Jews and that power vanishes.

Oh, you're defending your role as top comedian, Bill?

The elusive “jewish solution” that the author is looking for lies in a modernist revival of National Socialism, supplanting Christianity with some sort of modern reinvention of European paganism, (similar to what Stephen McNallen is doing with the Asatru Revival Movement), and the complete and total rejection of everything jewish.

This is the solution, however, as the author points out, getting Whites to move in that direction is near impossible, as Whites have been subjected to the greatest “brain washing” operation known to humanity. As the author aptly notes, the internal “operating system”, (carefully installed by jews over many many years), that modern Whites operate under works against them rather than for them. A complete and total re-installation of this operating system is in dire need.

One thing the author fails to mention is the completely ridiculous “holocaust” narrative that gives jews unlimited victimhood currency and at the same time is used as a weapon to fend off Whites from “closing the ranks”. Anyone with an open mind and about an hour of their time will immediately begin to see just how false, ridiculous, exaggerated and made up the entire narrative is. Revealing the holocaust narrative as largely false will also break the jewish soul and identity forever. The total destruction of Israel would soon follow.

Regardless of the viability of any solution to the jewish problem, what is true is that whites are indeed waking up.

One thing the author fails to mention is the completely ridiculous “holocaust” narrative that gives jews unlimited victimhood currency and at the same time is used as a weapon to fend off Whites from “closing the ranks”. Anyone with an open mind and about an hour of their time will immediately begin to see just how false, ridiculous, exaggerated and made up the entire narrative is. Revealing the holocaust narrative as largely false will also break the jewish soul and identity forever.

Regardless of the viability of any solution to the jewish problem, what is true is that whites are indeed waking up.

I don't have the details at my fingertips so can't cite a reference, but ... dim and distant memory (too young to even talk) ... the German rabbis insisted that the Jews are a separate race. To Hitler that meant they were not of the German race, therefore were not Germans. They were foreigners in Germany when a war was on.

So, not German citizens, had no rights, definitely no right to vote in any election at all. Disenfranchised.

The word race has a specific meaning. It does not include separating people by religion. That's why it's annoying to have people here claim that jews are their own race just because they have their religion and are a tight knit clan. This does a disservice to any conversation that brings up that canard. There is also no German race.

The majority of jews are clearly caucasian. It's their clan behavior and inbuilt prejudice for their own kind AND against the other that causes all the issues. The folks around here that are Hitler cheerleaders are ignoring his contribution to WWII. All the top participants from the various countries involved were all responsible for the carnage against the civilian population that had no say in starting the war or its prosecution, but got killed in large numbers. None of them, win or lose, deserves any accolades.

Hitler's contribution to WWII? You mean how he freed the entire British Army at Dunkirk?

Or do you mean how he refused to break international law by bombing another country till Germany was already being heavily bombed?

Which?

Neither. His contribution is the slaughter of his own kind through his third reich fantasy. He had a messianic vision to set up the Germans as some super race much like the jews consider their tribe exceptional or the US's exceptional rhetoric. All these "leaders" are just instigators of conflict that drags their populations into situations few want.

Akhenaton/Aten or Zoroaster are probably older than monotheist Judaism. The latter was polytheistic at first.

The Ashkenazi question is open to debate but modern genetics seem to favor something like Middle East 50% German 10% Slavic 10% and 30% Roman/Italy. I guess that goes back 2000 or 3000 years.

However the word Ashkenazi might relate to Gomer and Cimmerians. And Ashkenazi were associated with both Germany/France but also the Scythians before the Khazars.

We still don't know enough about history. Tribes adopted other religious and culture ideas.

The Old Testament might have several gods mention and Yahweh, El, and what about possible mixing into a new god.

The debate on Jesus and God being the same is still questionable. I know most Christians accept it.

I find the God or Gods of the Bible (both Testaments) to have both "good" and "evil" characteristics. I don't understand why Christians fail to see it.

ANARCHISM. Thinking that anarchy is a possible and even desirable social system. Anarchy is a Greek word meaning a system, or rather a disorder, in which there is no compulsion and therefore no deontic authority of sanctions. Anarchy is obvious superstition, at least as far as it relates to complex societies. In 5,000 years of human history, not a single case is known in which anarchy was not combined with an enormous mass of injustice, murder, etc. and the rapid collapse of society. One can therefore be an anarchist only on condition that another superstition is assumed, namely the belief in progress. It is noteworthy that anarchists do not always deny the necessity of all authority, but only of the authority of sanctions. It seems to them that a voluntarily recognized authority should suffice and that people will submit to it, even if they are not threatened by any sanction. But that is superstition too. It is known that in every society, without exception, there is a certain percentage of unpunished or criminal individuals who do not submit to the will of the majority. In our time it is even more obvious than it used to be.

The reason for the spread of tango superstition is perceiving the existing order and ruling power as unfair, which in many cases may be right. But anarchism is not a remedy for this evil, because it usually leads to more misfortunes than those from which it would like to free people.

Marxism was instrumental in popularizing anarchism. For Marx himself adopted the ideals of anarchists as the goal of politics. In his opinion, in the “paradise on earth” that communism is supposed to be, there will be no more state * or any compulsion at all. His goal, then, is quite clearly anarchy. One of the freaks of Marxism is that by proclaiming such an ideal, adhering in theory to anarchic superstition, in practice, wherever he is in power, he practices extreme totalitarianism.

A dozen years before Vatican II she stated that: “Right now they are in the highest places in the Church” — where they were working to bring about change in order to weaken the Church’s effectiveness against Communism. “...The Jews themselves pioneered this kind of Talmudic double-down-talk: the Assyrians etc. didn't beat YHVH by conquering his Chosen Ones, they were actually being used by YHVH to punish his Chosen Ones for not worshipping him enough...”

True, but that is the way religious people often try to “explain” misfortune. It is “God’s punishment” for not being pious enough. (Muslims tried to explain their frequently lost wars against Israel in the same way).

I think this idea that YHWH was using the peoples around them against Israel led to the conclusion that he had power over them and thus was not only “the God of Israel” but of the whole world. Thus YHWH became a universal God, though still connected to a “chosen people”, a contradiction in Judaism to this very day: YHWH is a tribal and a universal God at the same time. Only Judaism’s two daughter religions became truly universal by cutting off tribal connections to Judaism, Christianity partly so (“Christians are the new Israel”), but Islam wholly so.

When I raised the question of understanding the Jewish problem at one of the Russian-language forums, I was recommended

Description of the book “The Book of Kagal [3rd ed., 1888]”

Description and summary of “The Book of Kagal [3rd ed., 1888]”

The third edition of the Book of Kagal was published under the editorship of Alexander Brafman, and contains not only significant additions to the original text of the book, but also recommendations to the Russian government on how to really destroy kagals in Russia. Unlike the first edition, which is subtitled “Materials for the study of Jewish life”, this edition was published with the subtitle “The World Jewish Question”, which in itself determines the change in the very essence of the book.

If the first edition, widely distributed on the Internet, describes only certain unpleasant everyday and behavioral traditions of Jews, then in the third edition these sketches are supplemented with historical material and statistical data from various studies of the catastrophic economic situation of the local indigenous population (within the “pale of settlement”) under the yoke of the Jewish kagals, or as they are now called — Jewish communities.

After the coup d’etat of 1985-1991, Zionist organizations became more active on the territory of the USSR, which disguise themselves as various “foundations”, “human rights organizations”, “institutes of public opinion research”, etc. The goal of these parasites is the same — the revival and strengthening of Jewish communities (Kagals) and their taking control of all life in the country. How the capture of the country by the Kagals takes place is shown and proved in great detail and absolutely reasoned in the 3rd edition of the Book of Kagal.

Whites live in a state of moral confusion, caused by Jewish activism. Reject moral relativism, reintroduce moral clarity and the Jews will appear for what they are. You also have to assimilate that national-socialism isn't a solution, it was a wild German autoimmune reaction caused by the Weimar degeneration.

Restore moral clarity among your kin and they will realise how evil is the 'new normal' and they will realise who is behind it. However, they won't outright reject the 'new normal', for that fortitude is needed and therefore moral cowardice consisting in seeking accommodations with the 'new normal' has to be castigated.

I have spent thirty-six years of my life in the West and I doubt Westerners have it in them. There are imho only two possible outcomes for the Jewish created moral crisis – it is above all a moral crisis – of “liberal democracies”: implosion or nuclear war.

Incidentally, when Jew's or their Shabbos Goyim, speak of the "holocaust" ask "yes... and?" If silence follows, then suggest — "gypsies, homosexuals, johavah's witnesses, 7th day Adventists, socialists, communists, & 100000's of miscellaneous?"

Thanks to RoatanBill for pointing out that Hitler was no hero. I adhere to Greg Hallett's theory that he was a British agent whose job was to castrate France and decimate Central/Eastern Europe for the Anglo-Zionist empire. He pulled Germany out of the Depression because he was funded by London and New York bankers. The artificial prosperity of Germany in the 30's was necessary for the construction of a war machine that could be used first on Russia and then on Germany itself. Germans, with their slave/herd/masochistic/autistic Kantian character, were perfect cult inductees. The goal was to kill as many people as possible, destroy the last remnants of the Old World, and ensure that Germans, Russians, Czechs, Poles, ordinary (non-Cabalist) Jews, French, etc. would never be able to unite. A Hitler was necessary to sweep away Europe and prepare the ground for the dystopian consumer society that we now live in, and which will soon be mothballed in favor of an even more naked serfdom.

Rolo Slavskiy asked that we read Shafarevich's "The Three-Thousand-Year-Old Enigma" before we read Slavskiy's article. I did so. I endured the chunky, much vapid discursiveness of Shafarevich's work until I encountered an assertion that pissed me off. This assertion:

But we must not forget that the very physical and mathematical concept of the world, within which we all worked, was created by the Western European (Romano-Germanic) peoples. And representatives of other nations — Jews, Russians, Chinese, Indians, etc. — are only continuers of an already established tradition.

That assertion is an outrageous falsehood that, likely, reflects a racially arrogant false belief that Western (White) civilizations and Western (White) peoples are, and have been, superior to the peoples and civilizations of China and India.

Algebra was invented in northwest India. In the 7th through 6th century BCE, Indian mathematicians determined the general quadratic equation for both positive and negative roots.

Around 350 BCE, Jain mathematicians devised notations of simple powers and exponents of numbers (squares, cubes.....), which enabled them to define and operate algebraic equations.

In the 8th century BCE, Indian mathematicians determined the square root of 2, two centuries before Pythagorus was born.

In the 6th century BCE, 2300 years before George Boole "invented" Boolean logic (Boolean algebra), Pā ini (520–460 BCE) used Boolean logic (Boolean algebra).

About 2400 years before the advent of electronic computers, Pā ini used a precursor of Backus–Naur form (used in computer programming languages).

The Chinese invented or established much of math markedly before Europeans did. A few (of many) instances:

- By 1000 BCE, the Chinese had established a fully developed a decimal system.
- The Chinese invented Pascal's Triangle centuries before Pascal was born.
- The Chinese invented algebraic geometry (a.k.a. "analytic geometry") about 4 centuries before Descartes was born.
- Hundreds of years before the Christian Era, the Chinese invented decimal multiplication and negative numbers.
- The Chinese invented the Pythagorean theorem about 700 years before Pythagorus was born.
- The Chinese invented the rule of double false position (or double false position method) about 200 years before the Christian Era (about 2,000 years before the births of Gauss and Jordan, for whom the method's European version was named — Gauss-Jordan — in Europe.
- The Chinese invented the Horner method of solving higher numerical equations about 600 years before Horner was born.

The Chinese must be credited with numerous other mathematics advances. But I shall stop here, because the preceding list suffices to shame Shafarevich and Slavskiy.

The question of how to rekindle national or racial consciousness in a country of radical individualists has plagued counter-Semites for the last half-century at least.

The “radical individualists” have an advantage when the social system breaks down. They are not dependent on the system, and tend to survive better. The American frontier was, of necessity, composed of radical individualists who were also radical collectivists, capable of (for example) barn raising as a cooperative enterprise, also of military organization as a defense against Indian raids.

Groups of survivors would tend to organize along ethnic lines, if only to survive attacks against other ethnic groups. These groups are not doing that now only because the full weight of the State comes down to stop such organization. Where the full weight of the State does not come down, as in the various favored minority groups, ethnic organization is not only evident, but unmistakable.

Internationally, we’re seeing such self-organization along ethnic lines in the Russian Federation. Note that the result is not extermination, but rather separation. Different ethnicities have their own areas, if they are cohesive enough to defend it.

So, that’s how you rekindle national or racial consciousness in a country of radical individualists. Simply let society fail, shake and bake for maybe 300 years, and, bingo, you have your result. Granted, it’s brute force and massive ignorance mixed in with considerable and unavoidable cruelty, it it’s what’s worked the last several times around.

If you want a Jewish specific case of a social failure, consider the Kitos war. Jews were something like 20%-30% of the Roman Empire before this war, which was started by the Jewish diaspora in Crete, where every last non-Jew was killed, often in the Roman tradition as an event in a public arena, which ended the last Roman strategic offensive (against what is now Iraq) and put the Empire permanently on the defensive, and which ended Judaism as a major influence in the Empire. It also ended any possibility of shutting off the endemic wars with Persia, which were later (under Heraclius) the proximate cause of the reduction of the Roman empire to a Byzantine rump state. The Kitos war, and subsequent Roman reaction, eventually led to the survival of only three Jewish groups to the present. The Kitos war/loss and the later Roman loss of Europe also led to the formation of the West as it now exists. Starting that war was perhaps the most disastrous of all Jewish initiatives ever, even the two Jewish wars that preceded it and the Heraclius war that followed it.

Couldn't happen again? Try pushing around nuclear powers, Iran and Russia, and see what happens. If you want real doom and gloom, see Roubini's 2022 book, and remember that Roubini has a good track record and that I've tended to be an optimist

Change yourself and such change the Jewish World; “it is a Jewish World” – (Russia is fighting off a Jewish attack). Is Russia not fighting off a Jewish attack since 200 years or is it 3000 years? (re. “200 years “together””)

Change yourself by starting with family and friends in loyalty. Loyalty to your family and friends instead of “freedom” (conditionally granted by the Jew).

Unconditional loyalty to your children is the way to go. That is why Jew & hyena try to disturb families permanently (e.g. by forcing mothers to work outside).

The family is the key and the Jew knows how to disturb the family.

Get married, have children and stay loyal to your children (and wife) no matter what.

Make sure wife and children are poverty proof.

And work, work and work more and be there for your children. (Wives are like children in many ways – need time and explanations).

That is the start of change – fortifying the own family.

No Jew media, no Jew pharma, no Jew religions; be the God, the guru of your own family.

Well the modern world is undeniably the creation of West European peoples, not of Indians or Chinese, who were transformed by contact with the former. Whether those Oriental peoples had already invented much in mathematics, that did not propel them into modernity. All “progress” in India and China is due to copying the West. Perhaps Europeans are “superior” after all?

There have been anarchic societies so the bulk of your first paragraph is bullshit. Even wikipedia has information on it. These societies didn't last because they were probably overrun by warlords of their time. I'd like you to present the evidence of in which anarchy was not combined with an enormous mass of injustice, murder, etc

Now let's look at modern times where information is more reliable since we are living through it. In just the 21st century, the US is responsible for the deaths of 20,000,000 people according to a now deceased researcher at the University of Hawaii, professor Rummel.

<https://www.hawaii.edu/powerkills/> Can you come up with anything during any time in history to compare to such evil, evil sponsored by gov't.

Right now, we have the gov't of Russia running roughshod over the civilians in Ukraine. We have the gov't of Ukraine doing the same thing. The gov't of the "west" are supplying weapons, currency, mercenaries, etc to make sure that the civilians in Ukraine keep getting killed. I don't care about the morons in anyone's military since they are the "carriers" of the mental disease known as gov't that keeps murdering people and then they inspire shallow thinkers to champion all the death and destruction by studiously avoiding any mention of it.

I advocate the idea of anarchism which amount to not taking orders from the most degenerate fools in any society, the political class. I don't expect anarchism to win out because the average person is too indoctrinated to consider what a world would be like without all the human filth at the top and the bottom. I champion the concept of anarchism so people start to think about how their love of “authority” is the world’s major problem because that “authority” is insane.

The US is even now gearing up for a conflict with nuclear Russia. Given your love of gov’t, it is you who will be responsible for what follows since it is you who provides support for the constant death and destruction that gov’t have engaged in in the latter 20th and current 21st century. To ignore all the carnage while singing the praises of the most comprehensive killing machine ever invented, you have the morals of a sewer rat.

Remember that you are soul, you are ensouled and on the way up. That is why the Jew hates the white, light and bright and seeks their destruction. (Jew wants to be „The White“ only and exklusively, hence his „inclusion“ doctrine for the other).

This here – earthly life – is a short intermezzo, a very short tribute; the 100 year old will tell the listening children that life is so short.

Jew is also ensouled and regularly imprisoned in an entity (or more) on the way down. His destiny is the home of his father (Lucifer), the one he serves all his life at the cost of the other. Judaism is not a religion. The Talmud is a mafia codex. Judaism is Mafia. Judaism is inflation (hello Mr. Censor Kike Hudson!). Forget the Jew, avoid the Jew, his „products“, his religions, his „markets“, his vicious politics. Even to talk and waste words about the sucker is a sucker. Avoid any cooperation and association with Jew & hyena – starting with tax evasion. When in Jewish occupied land do as the Jew – stop paying tax (to Jew & hyena governments). He will tax via inflation anyway, hence avoid his fake dollars etc. pp.

@Franklin Ryckaert

During the Second Jewish World War the Franklins forced Indians to pull up their railway tracks for canons for the occupiers...

India was once the pinnacle of humanity till the most violent Jewish (“British”) occupation took over and sucked the country dry (for how many centuries? 500 years?) and corrupted everyone and everything into total poverty and starvation.

Starvation is an absolute game changer...

Now India is coming back to haunt “The West” with their “smart Indians”...

India is a nuclear power, mastering hypersonics etc., has a huge middle class and is just about to put up the next Brit prime minister...

Jewmerica is a nuclear power, not mastering hypersonics and getting poorer and more violent by the day.

By the way in India too the family seems to be the top priority.

“...India was once the pinnacle of humanity...”

This is how Babur, who established Mughal Rule in India in 1526 (so long before those evil British could “destroy” it), described the “pinnacle of humanity”:

...“Hindustan is a country of a few charms. Its people have no good looks, no good manners, no genius or capacity. There are no good horses, no good dogs, no grapes, muskmelons or good fruits, no ice or cold water, no bread or cooked food in the markets, no hot baths, no colleges, no candles, torches or candle sticks. In places of candle and torch they keep lamp-men to carry oil-lamps from place to place. There are no running waters in their gardens or residences. Their residences have no charm, air, regularity or symmetry. Peasants and poor people move about mostly naked. The males use mostly languta and the females covered their body only with one cloth...”

Jews and Gypsies .... What are their differences and what are their similarities?

And perhaps Mankind has more than just these two. Perhaps there is a third and even a fourth ethnic tribe that we can add to this list of Jews & Gypsies? For example, perhaps there are ones to be found among the many ethnic tribes of Asia and Africa. Anyone?

Finally, is “the best JQ solution” a three-pronged approach?

— 1) Separate From the Tribe: A combination of targeted sexual outbreeding (as opposed to inbreeding which is not allowed or made to seem very ‘unfriendly’, or ‘shameful’, ‘separatist’, and especially ‘racist’). The Social Sciences can be used in this regard and put to this service.

— 2) Assimilate Into the Larger Tribe: An intentional watering down and then intentional chipping away at each and every particular cultural/religious/language practice? Thus over time, the eventual dissolving of their entire culture completely? Christianity can be used in this regard and put to this service.

— 3) Culturally it Pays To Separate & Assimilate: That is, Specific Actions are taken to intentionally create the right social structure condition whereby their passionate love of money will be used to strongly incentivize them to be in service to #1 & #2 above. These created social structures can be small, medium, and large. The right social structure reflects that if you are not outbreeding from the tribe and watering down culturally, then you can’t make money, indeed, it is taken away from you and all power is lost. Both carrot & stick. It is right here that the small white identity movement can then become HIGHLY FOCUSED on creating these small and large ‘social structures’ that work towards these ends. First comes mores, then simple customs, then codified transactional practices, then a moral framework, a legal framework, etc.

(Now the question of which other ethnic group is ideal to receive JQ assimilation is completely unanswered, but I don’t think it is an unimportant question or unscientific question. There probably is a lot of data out there, if we know where to look)

@Ann Nonny Mouse

Speaking of dim memories, when I was in college we were assigned a book on the causes of WW II that delved into the reasons Germans were fed up with the Jews. In the aftermath of WW I, when so many German farmers had died on the battlefields, the Jews, who sat out the war at home as they do every war, foreclosed on the dead soldiers' farms and homes with abandon and relished in throwing German widows with children in the street.

Jews are mankind's most egregious predators and yet, because they control nearly every determinant of public opinion, they're collectively treated as the ontologically pure victim supplanting all others. There aren't five members of Congress or talking heads on TV, for example, whose actions and words don't effectively replace Christ with the Jews.

Everything Jews hold dearest is the new American Way—war profiteering; abortion; sexual mutilation of the troubled children most deserving of our society's protection; usury; pornography; rank commercialism replacing all holy days but theirs; ad nauseam.

I want to warn my fellow White people, and dear antisemites, that I am a Jew, so everything I say should be taken with suspicion or disregarded entirely – I am more than likely trying to brainwash you and weaken you so I can take control of your tender and defenseless young minds

Well, the author is certainly correct that the only chance Whites have to develop a corporate identity is through religion and ideology – only, this is the only way any people develop a corporate identity, contrary to the fantasy concept of some kind of “natural” ethnocentrism

As the worlds countless civil wars and fratricidal bloodlusts amply demonstrate, there is no such thing as natural ethnocentrism. Ethnocentrism is itself an ideology one must be educated/propagandized into, or adopt philosophically.

Likewise, each self-conscious nation is an amalgam of physical types, often quite disparate phenotypically (the blond, fair skinned, blue eyed Englishman alongside the strikingly different black haired, brown eyed, olive skinned Briton), united by a corporate idea. (The contrast of types is even more striking in Spain or Italy or Israel).

So far so good for the author’s thesis.

One major aspect of returning to health for White people is surely to abandon crude biologism of the kind that deconstructed their identities to begin with and return to an appreciation for “Mind”, so to speak.

The turn away from Mind and towards crude biological reductionism is surely one of the major causes of White decadence to begin with.

However, the real problem with the author's thesis is that he is attempting something I might describe as "limited universalism" – Whites are invited to identify with something more universal than their narrow selves, but this impulse is supposed to be carefully circumscribed, and stop at the level of race.

Problem is, as the history of all religion shows, once the genie of universalism is out of the bag, it has a momentum all its own – once you learn to see beyond the narrow confines of your petty self, you have set out on the path towards empathy and compassion for all races and peoples.

Tribalism is merely a stage on the way to universalism. Once you abandon individualism, you have embarked on a path whose inevitable end is universal compassion and empathy.

Moreover, all "higher religion" culminates in identity of Self with World (tat tvam assi, You are That, I am Atman), which isn't very conducive to the flourishing of racism.

There used to be a commenter on this site named Rosie, who was a White racist but also a feminist, who was aghast at the general hatred for women manifested by White racists, as exemplified by Andrew Anglin and his ilk.

Rosie wanted desperately to keep the racism, but not the woman hatred – I tried gently explaining to her that once you let the demon of exclusivity out of the bag, it has a momentum of its own.

The same impulse that makes someone hate other races, will make a man hate and fear, and want to subjugate and control, women – because to a man, women are no less the "other" than other races.

Of course, she refused to accept the inescapable logic of this – but on some level she must have, because she no longer posts here, it seems.

People who advocate for a return to a Pagan style national consciousness – or what they imagine this to be – and away from the universalism of Christianity forget that late antique Paganism was already universalist and remarkably similar to Christianity.

When the emperor Julian tried to stamp out Christianity and return the empire to Paganism, his version of Paganism was remarkably similar to the Christianity he was trying to displace!

The fact is, that limited national consciousness is a stage on the path towards universalism, as history shows, and today it is only possible for peoples on the periphery, or who are on earlier stages of the historical path – or during brief periods of recrudescence, as in the mid-20th century.

Which is not to say some group of Whites cannot form a national consciousness, somewhere – only, this is unlikely to galvanize the larger part of the White world, or attract the more talented and spiritually ambitious members of the White race.

This is also not to say that we won't undergo again a period of recrudescence – those always happen, but are always limited in scope and duration, a sort of step back before history advances – and there are signs that as the old “idea” that held together our civilization, the idea of technological progress, falls apart as an animating principle, in the chaos and confusion people are searching for an anchor.

Now we live in times of the breakdown of the old animating principle of civilization, and during a period of confusion and chaos. It's natural to want to seek safety in old forms.

But what will truly revitalize the White race and imbue it with a renewed sense of mission – and what will truly revitalize all other races as well and the whole world – is a new “grand idee”, a new universal principle or idea upon which one can build a new civilization – with a new promise and a new hope of Heaven.

The whole world groans under the death of the old promise of Heaven, technological progress. Some countries are in denial, like China, but they suffer just as much from the loss of an animating principle, however desperately they cling to absurd technocratic policies like Zero COVID – indeed, that policy demonstrates better than anything the death of the grand old idea of technological progress in absurdity and pettiness.

The Whole World waits in anticipation of something new that will be revealed – some new concept of Heaven that can inspire and galvanize.

I can't claim to have any idea what it will be, but I suspect it will be at once ancient and strikingly new.

One forgets that towards the end of the Ancient World, on the cusp of Christianity, there was a sense of exhaustion and weariness, as the old cultural forms and animating principles had played themselves out. Nietzsche said that had Christianity not come with a new hope, there would have been mass suicides, as friends made suicide pacts to leave a world overshadowed by a sense of sheer futility.

Today, we find ourselves once again facing this ancient but ever new situation.

It's the institution of gov't that is there for capture to use its violent nature for profit at the expense of the decent people in the society.

I'm still waiting for any proof of your ludicrous assertion that anarchism is a murder machine. You can't produce any proof because you are full of shit.

Anarchists did not try to carry out genocide against the Armenians in Turkey; they did not deliberately starve millions of Ukrainians; they did not create a system of death camps to kill Jews, gypsies, and Slavs in Europe; they did not fire-bomb scores of large German and Japanese cities and drop nuclear bombs on two of them; they did not carry out a 'Great Leap Forward' that killed scores of millions of Chinese; they did not attempt to kill everybody with any appreciable education in Cambodia; they did not launch one aggressive war after another; they did not implement trade sanctions that killed perhaps 500,000 Iraqi children.

In debates between anarchists and statist, the burden of proof clearly should rest on those who place their trust in the state. Anarchy's mayhem is wholly conjectural; the state's mayhem is undeniably, factually horrendous.

He plays down their accomplishments by stating that the Jews have observably invented or contributed very little throughout modern history and were only able to do what they did using the tools that were handed to them by the host cultures in which they found themselves. The controversial example of the Old Testament would fit neatly into this observable phenomenon of Jews only being able to adopt, modify or invert what already exists. It is, after all, a goulash stew of borrowed and, in some cases, inverted over the course of their history.

1) As to “contributed very little”, I beg to differ. Heinrich Heine, Stefan Zweig, Franz Kafka, Felix Mendelssohn-Bartholdy and Gustav Mahler are top notch.

2) As to “legends and myths from the people that they came into contact with”, this is true enough:

“Cette vision est bien sûr basée sur celle de la théologie idéologique de l’expansion des Empires mésopotamiens pour le compte de leurs Reichsgötter, respectivement Assur et Mardouk, cf encore Enūma eliš VI 95-110: i–hu-ru-nim-ma DINGIR.DINGIR GAL.GAL (etc) // This vision of course is based on that of the theological ideology of the expansion of the Mesopotamian Empires for the account of their Reichsgötter, respectively Assur and Marduk, cf again Enūma eliš VI 95-110: i–hu-ru-nim-ma DINGIR.DINGIR GAL.GAL (etc)“, in: Die Entstehung einer Weltreligion VI, Verlag Schiler & Mücke, Berlin und Tübingen 2021, p. 482.

I just don't know why Jews always try to destroy the societies/countries that accepted them. Why do they never appreciate what others do for them and why is it never enough done for them? Poles were giving lives to save them from nazis and other Jews ( prof Henry Makow writes about it) but know they say "Poles din't do enough". It was the death punishment for helping Jew in Poland. Would any Jew give life to save non Jew? I don't think so. Cruel kapo from Auschwitz concentration camp was freed by Israeli judge and the excuse was "he did it to save his life". So, a Jew can do anything to save his life but non Jew has to sacrifice his life for a Jew? This all doesn't make any sense unless Jews believe they are superior race /or the only humans ( the rest are animals- as Yuval Harriri believes) .

The same was happening in Poland when Poles were fighting in uprisings for Poland independence. Jews were telling occupation forces who is in underground fighting them and then when Poles were taken to Siberia's prison camps they will buy for pennies their homes. Another problem that bedevils the White Nationalist movement, that is amply evident here but shows up throughout the movement, is what I'd call a paucity of mythological imagination – or an impoverished psychological sense.

In mythological terms, who willingly wishes to see themselves as herbivores – who willingly defines their “essence” as being sheep who are natural prey to their antagonists?

For Jews, in mythological terms being sheeplike is a term of humiliation – Jews who did not resist Hitler are said to have gone to the gas chambers like sheep, and it's considered shameful and humiliating, an aberration even, something that needed immediate correction to restore a more “normal” state.

Yet here, the author encourages White people to see themselves precisely as “innate” herbivores!

What sort of psychology would reflexively reach for that term as for the most potent myth on which to build a national struggle? In one stroke, you've eliminated the possibility of talented and spiritually ambitious White people being attracted to your movement.

Proud, self confident people don't want to define themselves as herbivores lol

This is the problem for White nationalism more generally. Steve Sailer and Jared Taylor, for instance, define the essence of Whiteness as the ability to build pleasant environments in which to live.

Taylor especially loves to trot out his observation that you'd rather live in socialist Scandinavia than a capitalist African country, so it's not political systems but race that is determinative.

That point certainly isn't proven, but the larger issue is that in mythological terms, this isn't galvanizing – it's vapid!

We should know by now that man's moral and spiritual imagination needs to be fed, and a "grand story" that is merely about comfort or "pleasantness" isn't up to the job. No one will sacrifice for that.

For that matter, if comfort and pleasantness are our sole yardstick, it makes most sense to simply surrender to whatever power calls the shots.

Similarly with the invitation to see oneself as a herbivore who is being preyed on by Jewish wolves – quite aside from the lack of dignity or "mythic grandeur" in being sheep, the appeal is primarily to mere self-preservation.

But if mere self-preservation is our yardstick, it's easier to just submit – there is no call to heroic resistance.

If you want to inspire a capacity for self sacrifice and heroic resistance to the ruling regime, you need to feed men's moral and spiritual imagination – not merely appeal to some materialistic factor.

Despite its pretensions to re-galvanize White people, White Nationalism can be seen as just another branch of modern decadence in the Nietzschean sense – in that it embodies weakness and a sense of exhaustion, it has no grand spiritual narrative but focuses on materialistic factors, often quite petty, and creates a self-portrait of Whites (herbivores, manipulable, weak, mediocre) as deeply unflattering as its worst detractors might wish.

Probably the first step is to abandon crude biologism and restore Mind to it's central place in the economy of human life.

Come up with a Grand Spiritual Narrative – but then, such a narrative would naturally not be able to be confined within the narrow bounds of racial grievance, which is ultimately not very noble or grand.

Ultimately, people crave nobility and grandeur, and petty resentments can only hold them for so long. Christianity was, at the very least, noble, grand, and universal.

Whatever will come to replace it has to be similar. Removing parasites or whatever will not, I think, cut it.

“Society, if it is conceptualized as a living organism, would quickly reach parasitical overload. The host would succumb to disease and keel over eventually.”

This is one of the best points.

The West is now like a mad beast in its death throes. The parasites have walked it into a swamp, and now its only hope is to gain time by cannibalizing itself, while hoping to cause the collapse of others to continue its feeding frenzy.

It is exactly Christianity that admonishes its believers to see themselves as “sheep” and sweet Jesus as their “shepherd”. It is not for nothing that a Christian cleric is called a “pastor”.

Notice that Catholic bishops carry a shepherd staff, that is because we are supposed to be his “sheep”. See picture:

You are correct, and I was actually going to write about this in my original comment.

In the Psalms and other Jewish writing, Jews are also portrayed as sheep in relation to God, who is the shepherd.

To be “God’s flock” does not strike me as degrading, rather even the opposite – but to define your relationship to your supposed enemy as cattle in relation to a predator, and not as a temporary situation but as reflecting your deep nature, does strike me as degrading.

Doesn’t it strike you that way?

From the mythic narrative point of view, I think it shows really poor grasp of human psychology.

To be honest, the whole antisemitism narrative – at least the “strong” antisemitism narrative – seems inherently degrading as it currently stands.

There are different stories you can tell yourself.

The story that modern Western decadence is the result of a glorious Faustian cultural efflorescence that surpassed every other culture but ultimately reached too high, and tragically contained within itself the seeds of its own demise, has not only the virtue of being historically accurate but is a lofty self-image.

On this basis, the work of Western regeneration can begin in a positive, realistic way, based on lessons learned.

The story that European peoples are notable chiefly for creating pleasant living conditions, but are otherwise mediocre, and who are mentally weak and easily manipulated and dominated by a handful of Jews who managed to completely brainwash them and take over – is both degrading and massively does not match the historical, literary, intellectual, or artistic record (for one thing, the literary record makes clear profound disillusion with European culture trends much predated Jews rise).

It should even be possible to be antisemitic in not this degrading sense – however, it is true that having antisemitism as your central explanatory principle necessarily involves degrading oneself.

Serbs never attacked Germany. Serbs never posed anything remotely resembling a threat to Germany yet Germany attacked Serbs thrice in the 20th century. Greeks never posed a threat to Germany yet Germans invaded Greece too. With all due respect for the positive contributions to the Mankind by Germans throughout History and though I'm not exactly fond of the Ashkenazim, excuse me for not being grateful for the over 1 milion deaths Germans have caused among Serbs in the course of the 20th century.

Truth is, there might be a future for national consciousness and the national idea, but I think it would have to be in the context of a wider universalist moral vision.

In other words, I don't think nationalism as crude biologism and entirely for the purpose of sustaining or defending a particular race – for simple materialistic reasons – is a big enough or noble enough vision to sustain a high civilization, which always orients itself towards an “ideal”.

Even Jewish nationalism exists within a larger universalist context of God's people being a light unto the nations who show the way etc, etc.

Arrogant, sure, but it's a moral vision.

Europe, too, colonized the world based on a sense of civilizing mission.

Sure, in all cases this idealism conceals much selfish greed and hypocrisy – but it is also very real to many people.

To sustain a sense of nationhood, one must have an “ideal” that your nation is specially oriented to, and a universal vision for humanity and an understanding of your special role in relation to that universal vision – which must ultimately be moral and spiritual.

Unity within diversity.

“Hearth and home”, and self preservation in general, are natural impulses.- but for that reason, can only flourish in the absence of powerful forces that attack them, and those will always arise.

Even without external attack, such basic aspects of life don't fully satisfy us.

National consciousness can't just be based on biology – it must be based on an “ideal”, it seems to me.

It's a striking thing, surely, but has anyone noticed that national consciousness in the West was destroyed alongside religion and idealism of any kind – under the corrosive acid of Darwinism and materialism?

Racial nationalism or Biological Nationalism – utterly divested of any and all idealism – seems a peculiarly modern attempt to establish spiritual entities on materialistic foundations – and similarly doomed to failure.

The fact is, that limited national consciousness is a stage on the path towards universalism, as history shows...

Rich, coming from a self-avowed “fellow white,” who is an ardent Zionist, LOL.

The Whole World waits in anticipation of something new that will be revealed – some new concept of Heaven that can inspire and galvanize.

No, the whole world waits for “fellow whites” to stop gaslighting us about the Big Lie, Tikkun olam, Hebrew for “fixing or mending the world.”

“Fellow whites” are responsible for the slaughter of tens of millions of innocent Goyim with phase 1 of Tikkun olam, Communism. We’ll see how many the slaughter in phase 2 of Tikkun olam, Wokeism.

We’re tired of being Tikkun olammed to death. So, I for one would strongly urge European peoples to say thanks but no thanks to any of your future phases of Tikkun olam. We simply tired of being gaslighted.

Jews have to be “the bride at every wedding” and “the corpse at every funeral”.

It's in their blood. Jews are parasites, living off their respective “host” countries.

Once jews achieve control, they always overstep their welcome in their host country and eventually the “host” expels the parasitic jewish invaders.

All one has to do is look back through history and observe the excesses of the Wiemar Republic which the jews used to their own advantage. The average impoverished German did not have “a pot to p!ss in” while his wealthy jewish neighbors were trading food for land.

It is a loosely-guarded secret that most European jews HATE the physical landmass of israel as it is too “middle eastern” (arabic) for European jews...

Parasitic jews have already set their sights on Ukraine, which is an ideal headquarters and epicenter for jewish criminal enterprises as it is located on the European continent. The USA is already embroiled in the Ukraine war which is about to explode into WW3. It starts out with military equipment and hardware “help” as well as shekels.

There are no easy solutions for the parasitic jew problem, but solutions are indeed necessary.

Staying out of (another) European war for the benefit of the jews is imperative.

Jews always destroy the societies that they invade as it is in their Talmud to do so.

You see, according to the Talmud, gentile “souls” are on the level of livestock, “to be used for the benefit of the jews”.

According to their Talmud, the jewish “soul” is on a “higher plane” than the gentile soul, and as such, gentiles are to be used and abused by jews.

To this day, jews have never repudiated slavery, and claim when their “messiah” arrives, each jew will be awarded many gentile slaves.

It’s jewish supremacy that is alive and well.

...until I encountered an assertion that pissed me off. This assertion:

But we must not forget that the very physical and mathematical concept of the world, within which we all worked, was created by the Western European (Romano-Germanic) peoples. And representatives of other nations... are only continuers of an already established tradition...

That assertion is an outrageous falsehood...

I totally agree. Romano-Germanic peoples? No mention of the unparalleled contributions by the Greeks.

Introduction to 15 Famous Greek Mathematicians and Their Contributions:

The word Greek comes across our educational years time and time again. In history we read about them in Roman, Byzantine and Ottoman Empire, in religion we read about the legendary Greek Gods, in language we read about their symbolism and literature. The Ancient Greeks are famously known for their history, literature, arts, science, philosophy and religion. However there is one field the Greeks have mastered in, mathematics that we do not appreciate as much as we should be.

Therefore this article summarizes the greatest personalities in the ancient Greek history. Being a mathematician is not an easy task but the Greek seems to have mastered in the field. Here is a list of the top 15 famous Greek mathematicians and their contributions!

“...The folks around here that are Hitler cheerleaders are ignoring his contribution to WWII...”

Would you care to elaborate on that???

Hitler made more peace offerings, even at the peak of German power, than all other “statesmen” combined. There never were even any reasonable counter offers!

Of course, you may assert that Hitler’s efforts to consolidate Europe’s German speaking regions into the German Reich was war mongering but, this freely chosen association voted on by the various regions to join the Reich, was part and parcel of the Treaty of Versailles, or maybe it was part of Wilson’s 14 point plan; I forget. Nonetheless, this freedom of populations to associate was a result of WW I.

In explaining Solzhenitsyn's take on God's role in using Jews (or anyone else for that matter) in punishing his people (Christians) for their sins, there would be quite a difference in the extended approach. The Biblical Jewish approach would be -OK, we digressed in our observance of Torah and all the mitzvot connected to it. We really screwed up, so now we have the Babylonians, Romans, Nazis Tsars and other assorted goyim kicking our asses. But does the Jew really change? I may be totally off base, but Jews have a very limited perspective on an afterlife. Their concepts are very underdeveloped. Because of this, they do not have the fear (or as much fear) of hell and eternal punishment or the joy of heaven and eternal life with the divine to provide motivation in pursuing a substantive change in behavior. The Christian, when confronted with adversity, be it in the form of natural disasters or religious persecution, is far more conscious of a far more developed heaven/hell dynamic, and therefore more motivated to correct whatever wrongs he/she may have done in the past.

You are absolutely right that Nazi Germany was build with heavy aid by finance power from NY and London especially big business. They were not alone in receiving aid, look at the Red machine also.

A. Sutton explains the British wanted to push the Germans east at all costs (partly succeeded).

The British establishment also wanted: France weakened, the countries in between Germany and Soviet to be eradicated and Soviet Union destroyed.

I cant tell if Hitler was an agent but the Nazis were aided greatly in the 20s and 30s and went their own way by the beginning of the war.

Europe became a ruined continent, tens of millions Europeans slaughtered, dozens of cities disappeared.

And the Americans and Jews won. The first became the dominant power, largely undamaged.

The second group got Israel and the Jews became ultra rich and powerful. Today Europe is under their boot.

Hitler send millions of the best men to their death. Stalin did the same. Completely mismanaged situation. Apparently they are heroes to some sadly.

Anarchists and Marxists are basically buddies on the far left end of the spectrum.

Anarchists and many libertarians are utopians who dont understand reality. Very similar to the Marxists. They dream of things which cant function on large scales. They will be coopted by other systems.

Governments (or organized power) are natural whether they are small or big regardless. There needs to be authority and order. Does it mean I praise governments no. But in a world where governments exist power, other governments will naturally try to balance things and become powerful.

The American militia experiment was abandoned and they changed to the standing army for a reason. If you want anarchy in a country, you will have to compete against foreign governments and organized power from elsewhere and lose.

Ok, but you're misunderstanding me.

I'm trying to help you do White Nationalism right

You guys are doing such a bad job of it it's painful to watch.

There's a reason you're failing to attract high quality Whites.

You can't just be negative. Resentment and anger are fine up to a point – but all true nations and civilizations are based on striving for an “ideal”. You can't just do biological reductionism, either, and talk only of material factors.

You need a moral vision.

Your vision of the relationship between Whites and Jews is so flattering to Jews and so insulting to Whites that no self confident White person will have any interest – you can't make Whites look like total dorks and Jews all look like the Fonz, down to actually calling Whites actual herbivores!

You gotta give Whites at least something cool and badass about them – and no, making nice cities won't cut it.

Now, there can be lots of hypocrisy and failing to live up to ideals and the like, but you gotta have those ideals to begin with.

Now, it may be galling to take advice from a Jew on how to be an effective antisemite, but you guys are so into self-humiliation when it comes to Jews that I can't imagine you'd much mind – if anything, your innate masochism will appreciate it.

So no biological reductionism but a spiritual and moral vision, and a mythic self-narrative that is not completely humiliating to your side.

This isn't a hard bar to cross! Basic, nation-building stuff here, folks, err, fellow White people.

No mention of the Anschluss. How convenient for you.

Let's back way the hell up. Hitler was the Capo di tutti capi of the German mafia known as it's gov't. He was a thug. He had issues with the other mafia Dons in Poland, and elsewhere that eventually led to fighting that killed millions of innocent civilians that never asked to be part of any insane war. Hitler, Mussolini, Stalin, Roosevelt, Churchill, etc were all involved in inciting a war that decimated their home populations which means they were all mass murderers. There isn't an innocent "leader" among all the warring countries.

You apparently come from the position that the assholes known as "leaders" have the right to drag their populations into some conflict that will kill many of them and destroy massive amounts of infrastructure. This is a common position from people that are statist lacking morals and believe that declaring war somehow justifies all the carnage. It doesn't matter which asshole started it, the end result is mass death and destruction because some "leaders" decided to flex their muscles, muscles in the form of the human shit that IS every country's military.

I come from the position that it's the advent of "leaders" that are directly responsible for every war ever initiated and their grudges also stem from the advent of "leaders" that can't get along. Their squabbles exist because they exist and only because they exist.

Let's look at Ukraine. It's the "leaders" in both Ukraine and Russia that have decided to roll over the civilians in Ukraine and enslave parts of their home populations as conscripts. No one has the right to do this. This is done by "leaders" that have manufactured a faux right by virtue of them being thugs that are the heads of their criminal mafias commonly referred to as governments. That's what all governments are, common criminal enterprises indistinguishable from the common mafias.

The grudge was the Ukraine "leader" murdering ethnic Russians in the east. The solution decided upon by the "leader" in Russia is not to take out the "leader" and his murdering supporters in his military, but to roll through Ukraine destroying civilians and their property. It's the "leaders" that invent the grudge and then their version of a solution that kills not just their mafia members, but the common people. If Putin and Zelenskiy wanted to kill each others militaries and then each other, I would say go for it because they are both worth shit.

The irony is too much... never building a truly great civilization of their own, your people have specialized for over two millennia in infiltrating, subverting, and destroying our advanced civilizations. But if you ask them they'll say they were just guilty of bringing us Tikkun olam.

Need proof? Listen to how they trained one of their pet Shabbos goys, Chris Cuomo, on the blessing of Tikkun olam:

My father learned from his counsel, the Rabbi Israel Moshowitz... a great man, that all that matters are the ideas of tzedakah and tikkun olam, that we are here to repair the universe and complete the work of creation. It is up to us to refuse to surrender to the ugly and obvious, and to push for better and more decent dealings no matter our disagreements. We are better than what is put out there and celebrated as free speech.

That is a beautiful quote, thank you.

It's only a shame Cuomo needed a Jew to tell him something like this. These ideas are equally embedded in Christianity, Islam, Buddhism, and Hinduism – all higher religions.

The Jewish version you just quoted is good, but I am partial to the Buddhist version. In this version, a Bodhisattva earns the right to Nirvana, but out of boundless compassion agrees to reincarnate repeatedly in order to save every last sentient being.

Now that's some impressive Tikkun Olam!

As for myself, in my own small and limited way I am doing Tikkun Olam by helping you build a better White Nationalism – which can only be by embarking on a spiritual and moral quest, a White Nationalist version of Tikkun Olam, if you will.

You guys are still foundering about in the shallows of materialism and crude biological reductionism, calling yourselves herbivores and generally insulting yourselves, at best, talking about parasites – not inspiring stuff here.

This Jew has taken pity on you and has decided, Bodhisattva like, to render assistance where there is dire need of it.

Austria-Hungary was hardly a German Empire. Hitler did not consider it to be and he refused to serve for them, joining the Bavarian army instead.

Hitler attacking Yugoslavia can not come as a surprise when that country first makes a deal with Germany, then has a revolution (engineered by England) joining Germany's enemies right on the eve of a major operation. Greece had nothing to do with Germany, it was Mussolini's adventure and they had to come clean it up. Hitler always spoke of the Greeks with respect.

In every case Germany are not seeking any conflict in these areas but are dragged in by foolish moves of others. Their fault is to rely on these nations in the first place.

That “gypsies, homosexuals, johavah’s witnesses, 7th day Adventists, socialists, communists, & 100000’s of miscellaneous” suffered a “holocaust” is a falsehood of the 1st order. Some of them were detained in work camps for a period of time, where they did very well and suffered hardly at all except for the fact of being detained. The gypsies were not even required to work because they were too untrustworthy. They lived in separate family camps — perhaps so they wouldn’t rob and steal from non-gypsies. After the war, they caught on to and copied the Jewish model of wildly exaggerating their “losses” by around 10, and even more. The real number of total gypsy fatalities, around 20,000 (most of them from natural causes), morphed into 200,000 once the enemies of Germany showed them how to work the scam. They’re naturals at it and have done very well, now given ‘special treatment’ in post-war Germany. The gypsies, and the Jews too, can claim nothing but benefit from their “ordeal.”

There was nothing wrong with the pagan faith that Christianity so slyly supplanted.

There is no reason the peoples of the west cannot return to the native faith of their ancestors, a faith which evolved to speak their truths and serve their interests, not those of foreign tribes.

Under Hellenic polytheism, western civilization reached its apex in the later centuries BC. During the renaissance, Hellenic polytheism experienced a near revival.

When enough sober men and women recover their faith in the Dii Consentes, the world will finally wake up from its millennia-long monotheistic nightmare.

| Muslims tried to explain their frequently lost wars against Israel in the same way

Muslims frequently lose wars against IsraHell because it and its fellow pagan in-his-image sodomites are joined at the pelvises. Fighting such powerful Evil is almost impossible, as the miracles of yore don't happen anymore.

The best Muslims can do for now and in the foreseeable future is to fight this pagan godless Evil asymmetrically, and wear it down. The Taliban & perhaps the Hezbollah have shown us such a way.

And, we bide our time. Who knows what the Almighty One has in store for us true monotheists and our enemies, at least as far as this worldly existence is concerned.

There is no such doubt for the Hereafter though... Paradise for True Monotheists... a Blazing torment for the enemies of the One and only.

Remember, you accursed Islamophobes chose this fate.

Two errors and one anticipatory defense

Error #1

I wrote: “The Chinese invented the Horner method of solving higher numerical equations about 600 years before Horner was born.” I ought to have written: “The Chinese invented the Horner method of solving higher numerical equations about 750 years before Horner was born.”

Horner was born 9 June 1786. <https://mathshistory.st-andrews.ac.uk/Biographies/Horner/> In “Shu Shu Jiu Zhang” (1247), Qin Jiushao rendered a array of Horner-type methods that solve polynomial equations. Qin Jiushao derived his method from the works of Jia Xian, an 11th Century Chinese mathematician. See Yoshio Mikami, “Development of Mathematics in China and Japan” (Leipzig 1913), <https://www.science.org/doi/10.1126/science.40.1036.676>

In my first comment (to which this comment “replies”), the third sentence is: “I endured the chunky, much vapid discursiveness of Shafarevich’s work until I encountered ana assertion that pissed me off.” The term “ana” ought to be the term “an.”

Anticipatory defense

I wrote “Pythagorus” twice in my first comment. I am aware that a common spelling (perhaps the more common spelling) is “Pythagoras.” But the term (the name) is Greek (ancient Greek); and English spellings are transliterations. I like the Latinate transliteration I use. Like me, quite enough others, even schoolmarms, prefer or use “Pythagorus.”

Thanks for the story! Incredible. Also, how about Arthur Miller's 1947 novel, Focus, in which a goy whose eyes go bad and has to wear thick glasses is mistaken for one of the poor, innocent Jews who had to sit out WW II making money in New York City. The gist of the story is that all Americans—like the ones still coming home in 1947 from the battlefields of Europe in coffins, having given their lives in the tragically mistaken belief they were saving the Jews—that all Americans were even worse Nazis under the skin than the Germans, including unborn white American babies, if you can believe the depths of Jewish hatred for their benefactors. Always, without fail across two thousand years. What sick, depraved people.

And let's not forget that the Jews hold the Germans forever and collectively guilty for the grotesquely exaggerated Holocaust while it's impermissible to say that the Jews as the leaders of communism are, on their own lights, forever and collectively guilty for the mass murders of tens of millions of Russians and Ukrainians—here we go again—, making Jews and not Germans far and away the worst butchers in human history.

There's also the idea that any criticism of the Jews acting collectively is anti-Semitic and immediately ruled impermissible, yet it follows if that is the case that the Jews have never done and can never do anything wrong. I doubt this contradiction will last much longer as the means of holding Western Civilization hostage to Jewish predation.

Jews admit to using ridicule to shut down the KKK. Ridicule works and we see the jew Aaron on this thread still trying to use it with his homosexual little yellow faces.

I constantly ridicule whites and jews who try to claim jews are innocent. Ridicule works. No one wants to be seen as a moron and when people see someone ridiculed they back away so it does not happen to them. Anyone who tries to claim jews are not leading the anti white parade should be called a moron or a retard followed by hard truths about jews behavior. You will alienate the target but others reading what you wrote will be curious. All one has to do is plant the seed and people will find out all by themselves that jews are toxic for non jews. I had a women tell me I was wrong about jews so I offer her $1000 dollars if she could prove me wrong with some logical facts. She went on line for an hour and then came down and told me I was right. Usually jews will prove my point by ignoring everything written to continue trying to apply ridicule to cover their lack of an argument. At this point any white defending jews is a moron and other whites seeing it pointed out want to avoid like treatment.

Jews are desperate because their ridicule is no longer working. Fox News will allow you to name the jews as leading the anti white parade. It is also easy to prove jews are pushing the homosexuals as normal claim as well and the Fox crowd does not like it. Ridiculing jews and their protectors is the best way I have found to red pill a white person on the jews behavior.

I get way more thumbs up when I tell the truth about than I get down votes on Fox News comment sections. Jews always over step their boundaries and they always fall from the catbird seat. Kanye West has red pillled way more than half the blacks if you read the comments on twitter about his claims jews are leading non whites in an anti white parade. Facts don't work on their own but facts coupled with ridicule work.

If you are jew wise and not on Fox News comment sections you are preaching to the choir. Fox readers are the target audience for truth about jews. All of them hate blacks so they are way more easily swayed about jews than your average normie.

Western Whites, prone as they are to individualism, prefer to rally around ideology instead of identity. In practice that means an immigrant from Taiwan with the right talking points and values, is accepted into polite White society. But, a White man, who may have had ancestors come over on the Mayflower even , would be kicked out of polite society as soon as he voiced a politically incorrect opinion. Like, say, about Jewish power.

I say:

This so-called “polite White society” is just a bunch of White mugs that are all kinds of smug because they have been clamoring ill-gotten gains out of the asset bubbles created by the monetary policy extremism of the privately-controlled Federal Reserve Bank.

Once the globalized asset bubble implosions pick up steam, this so-called “polite White society” will be screaming like harpies and rabid dogs to bring back their various monetary policy-induced magic money fountains.

The Jews causing all the trouble are ruling class Jews. These ruling class Jews in European Christian nations such as the USA, England, Germany, France, Australia, Canada, Italy and all the rest are evil, demonic Jew nation-wreckers and they must be financially liquidated and forcibly exiled to concentration campgrounds in sub-Saharan Africa. It’s the only way to be sure.

The Biden Asset Bubble in stocks and bonds and real estate — commercial and residential — will implode with tremendous force and it will dislodge from power the evil and treasonous JEW/WASP Ruling Class of the American Empire.

Joe Biden — politician globalizer whore — has been backing every asset bubble ever created since 1971 by the privately-controlled Federal Reserve Bank, and Biden will preside over the mother and father of all asset bubble implosions when the Biden Asset Bubble breaks and the White Upper Middle Class Snot Brats sit in the suburbs and moan.

This is the third frigging asset bubble, starting in the 1990s, that the plutocrat- and privately-controlled Federal Reserve Bank has inflated using monetary extremism — low or zero or negative interest rates, asset purchases, quantitative easing, dollar swaps, direct central bank purchases of sovereign and corporate debt, balance sheet ballooning, bailouts...etc. — and enough is enough, DAMMIT!

FINANCIALLY LIQUIDATE THE WHITE UPPER MIDDLE CLASS SNOT BRATS NOW

TEN PERCENT FEDERAL FUNDS RATE NOW

FIRE SALE THE FED'S ASSET PORTFOLIO NOW

WHIP INFLATION NOW BY POPPING THE ASSET BUBBLES

QUANTITATIVE TIGHTENING NOW

EVIL, DEMONIC GLOBALIZER JEWS MUST BE FINANCIALLY LIQUIDATED AND FORCIBLY EXILED FROM ALL EUROPEAN CHRISTIAN NATIONS

Why I Hate Religion, But Love Jesus

In the scriptures Jesus received the most opposition from the most religious people of his day. At it's core Jesus' gospel and the good news of the Cross is in pure opposition to self-righteousness/self-justification. Religion is man centered, Jesus is God-centered.

Whether Jews were gassed or not, undisputable is that the inmates of the concentration camps were treated horribly badly. Long hours standing in roll calls, insufficient food and clothing, unhygienic sanitation, and overwork took their toll on many of them. And those were the “lucky” ones premitted to work.

The Tory Party in England is anti-White and anti-English.

The True Core English nation must destroy the Jew-controlled Tory Party starting now and the True Core English political party must become the opposition party to Labour in England.

The JEW/WASP Ruling Class of the American Empire and the JEW/ENGLISH Ruling Class of England are using mass legal immigration and mass illegal immigration and state-sponsored anti-White totalitarian multiculturalism to attack and destroy the historic English nation and the historic American nation.

The ruling classes of England and the American Empire are using mass legal immigration and mass illegal immigration as demographic weapons to attack and destroy the true ancestral cores of England and the USA.

Sam Huntington wrote a book called “Who Are We?: The Challenges to America’s National Identity”

Sam Huntington said the United States was a British Protestant settler nation.

Sam Huntington in Who Are We?:

The deconstructionists promoted programs to enhance the status and influence of subnational, racial, ethnic and cultural groups. They encouraged immigrants to maintain their birth country cultures, granted them legal privileges denied to native-born Americans, and denounced the idea of Americanization as un-American. They pushed the re-writing of history syllabi and textbooks so as to refer to the “peoples” of the United States in place of the single people of the Constitution. They urged supplementing or substituting for national history the history of subnational groups. They downgraded the centrality of English in American life and pushed bilingual education and linguistic diversity. They advocated legal recognition of group rights and racial preferences over the individual rights central to the American Creed. They justified their actions by theories of multiculturalism and the idea that diversity rather than unity or community should be America’s overriding value. The combined effect of these efforts was to promote the deconstruction of the American identity that had been gradually created over three centuries and the ascendance of subnational identities.

Your reply is not relevant to my comment. My comment refuted Shafarevich's assertion that ...the very physical and mathematical concept of the world, within which we all worked, was created by the Western European (Romano-Germanic) peoples. And representatives of other nations — Jews, Russians, Chinese, Indians, etc. — are only continuers of an already established tradition.

[My emphases, Loup-Bouc.]

The matter is not whether current India is, or has fallen to, the status of an inferior state that lacks modernity. And the matter is not whether the current modern world is a Western or Romano-Germanic creation.

The matter is that mathematics was NOT a creation of Western Europe or a Romano-Germanic creation. Mathematics is the brain-child of China and India (and, to a lesser degree, ancient Persia, then, later, ancient Greece, which was settled by Asians eventually called “Greeks”).

But even respecting the issue you did try to address, your argument is invalid. Your “evidence” is temporally immaterial and partly plain false.

Also, you posted a photo that is belied by the India of the 21st century (belied even by about the last 15-20 years of the 20th century). Your photo “evidence” is, at best, sophistic. It depicts a scene of the period of WWII and the first 30-35 years following WWII.

You state a falsehood and sophistry with this:

| All “progress” in India and China is due to copying the West.

Your term “progress” is sophistic. It assumes falsely, or at best, very debatably, that “progress” is defined by the state of Western European culture, science, economics, politics, and political structure

I dislike, even contemn, the political structure of current-day China. But China’s Belt and Road initiative is a laudable model of foreign policy, which the U.S. and Western Europe ought to follow, if the U.S. and Western Europe wish to survive.

You assert a risibly false proposition where you assert, by necessary implication, that China’s science, math, and technology — and related education — are inferior to those of the West.

In medicine and medical education, India has surpassed the U.S. (I lack evidence sufficient to comment on China’s medical achievements or its medical education. I regret that China has not continued to depend much on Traditional Chinese Medicine, which, though far from perfect, is demonstrably superior to U.S. allopathy of the past circa 40 years.

Also, you have not refuted the posts of @Biff, <https://www.unz.com/article/the-elusive-jewish-solution/#comment-5620518> , and @Kurt Knispel, <https://www.unz.com/article/the-elusive-jewish-solution/#comment-5620514> .

Perhaps prudence indicates my “confessing” that I am not of Chinese, Indian, Black, or any other non-White-European ethnicity. My ethnicity is Estonian and Magyar. My mother, pure Magyar, immigrated from Hungary to the U.S. My father’s father and mother immigrated from Estonia to the U.S.

I am a Francophile. My “god” is Johann Sebastian Bach. See (or listen to), e.g., this: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=vw9eEIfohj4> . In the math/logic world, I admire, most, Kurt Friedrich Gödel.

I find awesome this visual/architectural emblem of the best quality of Western European culture:

“...There is no reason the peoples of the west cannot return to the native faith of their ancestors...”

Not true. Whether you like it or not, once you have gone through the stage of monotheism, you cannot return to the lower stage of polytheism, just as it is not possible for a grownup to believe again in Santa Claus.

Besides, the various European peoples had different ancestors with different faiths, some of which such as the faiths of the Celts and the Slavs we know little about.

During the Renaissance polytheism did not experience a “near revival”, the spirit of classical art and philosophy yes, but not its religion.

| The Elusive “Jewish Solution”

What exactly is elusive about the solution ? 109 countries have already found the solution which is “pass a decree and kick them out”. They can leave voluntarily or be escorted to the airport or wharf and deported.

Trying to push them out of the West and into their own country is not going to be successful following the “legal system”. They need to be unilaterally evicted. Other countries over the past several thousand years have known this and done this.

Lets not fool ourselves in this day and age of MSM hogwash about the irrational hate of the Tribe. When Adolph shoved them out neither the UK, Canada or the US (among many other countries ) wanted them. At that time, the Goy knew that when you open your door to the least of evils, greater ones are waiting to enter.

All the conditions that existed in the 30’s Germany have manifested once again in the West, Pornography, bestiality, pedophilia, homosexuality and every other imaginable perversion and sleaze are back in force as are economic after economic wrecks with the Tribe as the driver. Thinking Joos know this and know the backlash will come.

In Europe the Moslems are forcibly pushing these folks out. Here in the US we see the beginnings of the same thing as Moslem parents dont want their kids exposed to men buggering other men and such filth in the school curriculum.

The problem with the Tribe is that they construct their own trap and step into it. The last time around they had no country of their own. Now they do, but said country is surrounded by 341M people who hate them. They wont leave voluntarily and go there because like true leeches they must have a prosperous host to suck on.

There is nothing in their land ! They do not manufacture anything. Without the billions in US aid and the protection of Uncle Sam, that country will be just another shit hole. Time will tell but they are again headed for disaster , another fiasco created with their own hands.

But !!! I digress. The solution which is known to all is Eviction by Decree ! Unfortunately, there are some situations which cannot be solved within the confines of the Law. The Tribe know this and apply illegal remedies when it suits them. 109 other countries have done the same. You mean we have forgotten the “solution” ?

I know too little about the history of mathematics to be able to respond to that. All I know is that Chinese had no influence on European mathematics and Indian (via the Arabs) added the decimal system and the invention of zero. Ancient Greek mathematics developed independently from Asia as far as I know.

To call the Indo-European ancestors of the Greeks “Asians” is deceptive. The consensus among scholars is that the original homeland of the Indo-Europeans laid north of the Black Sea, mainly in present day Ukraine and that is within Europe.

But who are “our group”? My DNA credentials would allow me to be welcomed with open arms into any modern White Nationalist group, but nearly half my background is Irish and Catholic- a grouping which was relegated to the bottom rung of my Australian society until a few decades ago, by the Protestant Anglos who ran the place.

Later it was immigrant Greeks and other southern Europeans relegated to the bottom, derisively called “wogs”.

But now we are all “white”.

Definitions and groupings change over time!

| Chinese had no influence on European mathematics

False.

| Indian (via the Arabs) added the decimal system and the invention of zero.

False insofar as it does not account that Indian math influenced much more of Western math. Example: Algebra was an Indian invention, and through Persia, then Greece, that Indian math invention made near-all of European math possible.

| To call the Indo-European ancestors of the Greeks “Asians” is deceptive. The consensus among scholars is that the original homeland of the Indo-Europeans laid north of the Black Sea, mainly in present day Ukraine and that is within Europe.

False.

No “consensus” holds that the Greeks originated “north of the Black Sea, mainly in present day Ukraine.” No “consensus” holds that “the original homeland of the Indo-Europeans laid north of the Black Sea, mainly in present day Ukraine.”

Again, you put assertions that are irrelevant and assertions that are false.

The matter is not the origin of Indo-Europeans. The matter is the origin of the ancient Greeks. The Greeks originated in Anatolia, which is part of Asia, and earlier, from the Eurasian steppe (far eastern Europe and central/north-central Asia) and Siberia, which is much of Asia, and from Armenia, other parts of the eastern Caucasus, and nearby Persia, which are parts of Asia.

In the quote that follows immediately, the term “Mycenaeans” refers to bronze age, “Homeric” Greeks (circa 1600 to 1100 BCE), the Greeks present before the Greek “Dark Age” (circa 950 and 750 BCE).

The ancient Mycenaeans and Minoans were most closely related to each other, and they both got three-quarters of their DNA from early farmers who lived in Greece and southwestern Anatolia [Asia], which is now part of Turkey [the Asian part], the team reports today in Nature. Both cultures additionally inherited DNA from people from the eastern Caucasus [Asia], near modern-day Iran [Asia], suggesting an early migration of people from the east after the early farmers settled there but before Mycenaeans split from Minoans.

The Mycenaeans did have an important difference: They had some DNA—4% to 16%—from northern ancestors who came from Eastern Europe or Siberia [Asia]. This suggests that a second wave of people from the Eurasian steppe came to mainland Greece by way of Eastern Europe or Armenia [Asia], but didn’t reach Crete, says Iosif Lazaridis, a population geneticist at Harvard University who co-led the study.

Quoted from this source:

<https://www.science.org/content/article/greeks-really-do-have-near-mythical-origins-ancient-dna-reveals> [Emphasis (Anatolia) and all interpolations (“Asia” & “the Asian part) mine, Loup-Bouc.]

Though some far eastern European blood may have been mixed with the blood of the peoples that settled Greece, that far eastern European blood reached Greece (with the Greeks) only after it mixed with the blood of Asians of the Asian part of the Eurasian steppes and the blood of peoples of Anatolia (part of Asia), Armenia (part of Asia), and far northwest Persia (now Iran, part of Asia).

Still, though Indo-European peoples’ origin was not an issue, I cannot resist debunking your assertions.

The “original” Indo-Europeans were a northwest India (Indus Valley) people. Those people were a mix of Indus Valley pre-Indo-European people and “Aryan” invaders arriving from Eastern Persia and other parts of central Asia. The invaders conquered the people of the Indus Valley and integrated and interbred with them. Thus originated the Indo-Europeans.

Those Indo-Europeans, their culture, their language spread to are affected markedly the cultures and languages of the peoples of southern Siberia, central Asia, western Asia, the Arabian Peninsula, the Eurasian steppes, ancient Greece, the Minoan culture of Crete, and all of Europe west of the Eurasian steppes.

One source states the following:

Now that we know that there WAS indeed a significant inflow of genes from CENTRAL ASIA into India in the Bronze Age, can we get a better fix on the timing, especially the splintering of Z93 into its own sub-lineages? Yes, we can; the research paper that answers this question was published just last year, in April 2016, titled: “Punctuated bursts in human male demography inferred from 1,244 worldwide Y-chromosome sequences.” This paper, which looked at major expansions of Y-DNA haplogroups within five continental populations, was lead-authored by David Poznik of the Stanford University, with Dr. Underhill as one of the 42 co-authors. The study found “the most striking expansions within Z93 occurring approximately 4,000 to 4,500 years ago”. This is remarkable, because roughly 4,000 years ago is when the Indus Valley civilization began falling apart. (There is no evidence so far, archaeologically or otherwise, to suggest that one caused the other; it is quite possible that the two events happened to coincide.)

Quoted from this source: <https://www.thehindu.com/sci-tech/science/how-genetics-is-settling-the-aryan-migration-debate/article19090301.ece> . [Except the word “WAS” (upper-cased by the author, Tony Joseph), all emphasis is mine (including upper case “CENTRAL ASIA”). Loup-Bouc.]

The above-quoted article observes that gene-research shows pertinent Indian DNA deriving also from ancient peoples who dwelt in territories that are now parts of Austro-Asia, East Asia, Tibet/Nepal, Pakistan, Afghanistan, and (Dravidian) South India. Those peoples, too, interbred with the Indus Valley

Indians, but very little and likely near-only before the Aryan invasion of the Indus Valley, and then long after the decay of the Indus Valley Indo-European civilization.

In 700 BCE, India had no “Whites.” The Aryan invasion had occurred about 4000 years earlier. The Aryans were not Europeans, but central Asians, and though very likely light-skinned, not “White.”

Some thought, have never seen any jews in person who wear the amish type gear, which though on one hand it's not ok one general label of people labeled jews in handed whatever they want, as some blanket label, that said there really isn't one group of jews.

Obviously there are those who do schemes and don't appear as or label themselves jews such as in the photo, or claim to be christian or catholic or no label, whatever job they do, point being differences, such as the ones in the garb, for instance, while people were sitting on their butts as dictators were telling us 'lockdown' and 'masks' and other incursions on us, some of the type jews who look as in the photos were defying the dictators, going to weddings and funerals and doing other things, and I don't think because they thought they were special but just because they weren't going to take that crap. Also remember seeing a photo of some people in israel protesting also, not dressed in garb but more regular looking.

Point being, different groups of jews, and some though may have faults, we could look at as example on how to assert ourselves, because most people seem to think sitting on their butt is the way to make the future. Wrong about that.

Are you a Ashkenazi Jew? if so than you are not Semite. Semite is the language and those who spoke the language and their descendants are Semites including Palestinians, Jordanians, Syrians ... Jacob's descendants.

Your Out-of-India theory of the origin of the Indo-Europeans is false and a typical “politically correct” fabrication to denigrate Europeans. Of course ultimately all peoples originally came from somewhere else, but that has to be seen in the proper perspective.

See: The Genetic Origin of the Proto-Indo-Europeans at:

<https://thuletide.wordpress.com/2022/06/22/the-genetic-origin-of-the-proto-indo-europeans-a-brief-summary-to-debunk-some-disinformation/>, especially onder nr.10.

See map of Proto-Indo-European migrations:

When we say “the Greeks came from north of the Black Sea”, we mean those Indo-Europeans who brought the Greek language into Greece. Greece was already populated by Mediterranean Whites who originally came from Anatolia and those Greek Indo-Europeans mixed with them. If that moves you to call Greeks “Asians” then that creates a false impression. The term “Asian” has no specific racial meaning and used in this way has a political motive.

Originally even the Cro-Magnon hunter-gatherers who populated Europe some 40,000 years ago came also via Turkey, but to call Europeans therefore “Asians” again has a political motive.

Hi Cohen, thanks for responding –

I am Ashkenazi, but not practicing or believing.

As for the word Semite, I simply use words in their accepted usage. Many words end up getting used in ways that are foreign to their original literal meaning.

The term antisemite was invented by a non-Jewish German in the 19th century, who wished to sound more “scientific” when discussing the issue – I think Jew-hatred would have been more earthy, salty, and true, and less sanitized and euphemistic.

Like Orwell, I think political euphemisms make crimes easier to commit.

As for Jews, I believe DNA research shows them to have Levantine heritage on the father’s side, so the term Semite is not wholly invalid.

My general approach to the Old Testament is that it is to be read allegorically and spiritually – not literally.

There is a substrate of Near East myths that were common to the region, and a mishmash of genuine history, but for the most part this stuff is spiritual allegory and not meant to be literal.

The Near East myths themselves were often, like early myths everywhere, rather crude and often unflattering to the Gods, but they contained seeds of divine gold in them that had to be spun out by later generations through spiritual and allegorical reading

Just as the crude and vulgar Greek myths eventually culminated in the beautiful and lofty spirituality of the Neo-Platonists, the crude Near Eastern myths eventually culminated in the lofty spirituality of the Prophets and Jesus – where fortuitously, the two streams met and became Christianity.

Second Temple Jewish Rabbis around the time of Jesus had already developed a rich hermeneutical tradition of non-literal spiritual reading of the OT, which passed over into Christianity.

When Paul said in regards to literal reading of scripture “the letter kills, but the Spirit gives life”, and when many Church Fathers echoed this sentiment and expanded upon it, they were continuing this Jewish tradition, and warning against literal readings.

It is only in the modern world, with our radical loss of dimension, depth, and spiritual vision, the “flattening out” of our mental life to the level of “fact” and literalism, and our tradition of arid scientism, that anyone thought of taking the OT literally.

This applies to all holy scriptures of every religion – they must be read “spiritually”, and not literally. This is a lost art today, sadly.

As for myself, while I recognize great beauty and profundity in Judaism, I am more attracted to other spiritual traditions, but I am also a syncretist who seeks to learn from all the traditions.

Did I answer your questions?

Franklyn...

From time to time we hear all this nonsense about the Chinese inventing this and that. We can now ponder the thought that they also invented Mathematics.. If you listen to the Chinese backdoor wipes you would get the impression that they discovered everything. Life as we know it, from the condoms we roll over our private telescopes to the Hubble telescope was invented by ??? The Chinese !!

Let us assume this is a fact. However inventing anything means nothing until it can be put to use. Hence, Fung Ah Fat, brewing his tea in hovel in rural Guandong Province in the year 4000BC would have noticed steam rising from his miserable pot. We could assert that steam power was observed (and invented ??) by Mr Fat. That however meant shit until that power could be harnessed to move objects. The steam engine was old by the time it was first brought to China. We can think of many more examples.

So one need not know the origin of Math. Maybe Fung Ah Fat also figured out that one fortune cookie plus two fortune cookies equals three fortune cookies. Maybe after his cup of steam tea while urinating against the side of his hut he even designed the first oil refinery. His discovery of course would be useless until the combustion engine was created.

The fact is, with all their “discoveries” China was a toilet bowl until western industry decided to take advantage of their pool of slave labour in the 1980’s. In other words for 4000 years they never managed to rise above the level of a Congolese outdoor latrine.

The sad fact is that the Chinese are no discoverers or inventors. They are copiers and all this drivel about their inventiveness is the equivalent of spraying a clear coat on a turd and calling it a nugget.

These people saw monkeys eating termites with sticks and copied that. The world has long moved on to the knives and forks but these people still dine like Chimps with their chopsticks. Fortune cookies were created by the Japanese BUTT they are somehow deemed Chinese. The noodle was taken from Italy to China by Marco Polo. What exactly are these people renowned for ?? Peking Duck and Sweet and Sour Pork ??

Thanks,

It looks like Aristotle's Ethics was integrated into Catholic teachings through Aquinas. This is probably why so many Catholics today are so interested in virtue ethics.

A couple of questions:

1. Did Maimonides serve the same role for the Jewish community?
2. Why should anyone care what Aquinas or Maimonides thought about Aristotle? Why not just read Aristotle's Ethics directly?

Somehow a Jewish or Catholic interpretation of Aristotle seems less appealing than going straight to the source.

Thank you, these examples are absolutely fascinating. The thing about Sanskrit and formal grammars is another amazing thing. Another fun example is the Chinese Remainder Theorem – pretty nifty stuff for ~300 AD.

Shafarevich is being a bit of a chauvinist. I guess he would argue the real tradition begins in Ancient Greece with axiomatic reasoning (Aristotle's rules of inference, Euclid's axioms) and was "properly" picked up by Western Europeans. Maybe this is a good argument. I don't know.

It's boring when Indians and Chinese do the we wuz kang's thing but seriously, a lot of the examples given are absolute gems, like pieces of advanced technology.

A couple of questions:

- 1. Did Maimonides serve the same role for the Jewish community?*
- 2. Why should anyone care what Aquinas or Maimonides thought about Aristotle? Why not just read Aristotle's Ethics directly?*

First, a point that is pertinent to both questions. When Aristotle departed from Athens, no longer under protection of his fellow Macedonian Alexander, who'd died, his writings were lost to western Greek culture, though not in the eastern areas of Alexander's conquests, where they continued in Arabic commentaries by the philosophers of the Islamic world – in which Maimonides, escaping Spain, found intellectual fellowship, without forsaking the sacred Torah.

But Aristotle's writings returned to Europe with the Islamic conquest of Spain, where translations from Arabic into Latin became available eventually to Aquinas, who read Maimonides as well, and also others among the Islamic philosophers.

I note this in answer to why they didn't read Aristotle's Ethics directly, nor other books of his, until after the passing of centuries, in translations from translations. Finally, some but not all of his early documents were found in somebody's storage, a basement as one hears it.

Platonic metaphysics, with its separate realm of eternal truth, in contrast to the lower world of shifting imperfections, found ready accommodation in theology, but Aristotle was a major threat, because his metaphysics is, instead, of one world, not two. As depicted in the fresco by Raphael, to be real is to be a particular thing, right here where he can reach out to put his hand on it, while beside him Plato is pointing upward and elsewhere.

And yet Aristotle could not be dismissed, upon his surprising and disturbing return to western attention, because in his metaphysics and logic he laid down the software for thinking. You don't learn syllogistic reasoning from the Bible. Aquinas, like Maimonides, and the Islamic philosophers, became a master Aristotelian, though retaining a higher and eternal world. The grand program was to write the operating manual for a civilization.

And yes, Maimonides, as a result, did foster in Judaism what might be called a philosophical leavening, which he claimed had been inherent from the beginning. The practice of learning is virtuous, and all people, Jew or gentile, can and should reach the status of prophet, a truth teller.

Thanks for this nice collection of Greek thinkers/mathematicians. Apparently, theirs was an outstanding/unparalleled contribution to the field. However, Chinese, Indian and Arab contributions are undeniable, too. Many of the modern discoveries/inventions can also be traced to multiple people. E.g. non-Euclidean geometry can be associated with three people: Gauss (a German genius), Bolyai (Hungarian) and Lobachevsky, a Russian.

<https://www.cantorsparadise.com/gauss-bolyai-lobachevsky-the-dawn-of-non-euclidean-geometry-38491218bc89>

Should we pick only one, denying the contributions of the other two? Of course not.

However, there is one race completely missing from this discussion. Hint: the Neanderthal connection. Amazingly, this year's science Nobel went to a guy who sequenced the entire Neanderthal genome and found that while all non-African people have remnants of this ancient people in their genome, sub-Saharan blacks are missing out on it. Which explains their relative primitiveness.

@DrWatson

Apparently many intelligent, well-educated people disagree with your transliteration of Πυθαγόρας (Pythagorus/Pythagoras) and your transliteration of θεώρημα (theorem/theorem). You do not appreciate that your choices “Pythagoras” and “theorem” are only transliterations, not a translations — surely not commanded by any defensible intellectual norm.

Your trouble is that you consider only your perception of the Greek spelling of the ancient Greek man’s name and the math term. You do not consider whether an English-language or French-language or Estonian-language transliteration, or even Latin transliteration, is defensibly reasonable within the intelligent linguistic milieu of the transliterator.

How incredible to judge 13 million people as though it is one person. Jews are just like Christians in that there are good, bad, and everything in between. Jews are not monolithic, they are individualistic. You are simply inciting prejudice. It is doing exactly what the controllers want, that is, to keep humanity divided, to scapegoat.

Who pulls the strings behind all the events today in the world? The Jews? No, its the Nazi/eugenicists. Did you know some Jews supported the Nazis, even today, the government of Israel has supported the Nazis in the Ukraine. But mostly it is the gentiles, the Rockefellers, Bushes, J.P. Morgan, etc., etc. No one calls out the non Jews who have committed such heinous atrocities in the past. No one calls out the Christians like Biden, Trump, and most all the leaders in the world outside of Zelensky. Zelensky is a poor example of a Jew.

There is no coordinated effort of the Jews to do bad things. So, why don't you get off the attack on Jews and other ethnicities? We are all LIFE. These superficial distinctions of color and beliefs are not of any real importance. No race or religion is composed of superior people. It's just the old U curve. Stop comparing.

I believe that we are here to embody love, not to hate, nor to be arrogant.

I agree with what you say regarding Jews as a collective, and all other human collectives. However I do think that Judaism is not a nett benefit to humanity, nor are its offspring, Christianity and Islam. All these cults do manifest some good points, but only in advocating basic moral truths known to humanity long before Judaism appropriated them. But all still manifest, particularly in their 'fundamentalist' forms, extreme xenophobia, aggression and supremacism, all of which, I think it is plain, are not of benefit to humanity.

Human genetic diversity is greatest in Africa, where, as far as we know, humanity first appeared. Do you consider that a negative?

You are dealing with a lot of messed up psychological disturbed people on this website UR, who it believe that Jewish Conspiracies are what the world, the entirety of the world is about. That it is a designed cabal. No amount of proof will ever be enough for them. It is all related. The non Jews are Shabbas Goys that are part of their scheme.

You are describing the human condition. The entirety of the human race. If there was no religion it would be the same.

1. the minority always fears the majority, even if it's been well treated. this is human nature.
2. fear and hate are the same.
3. the minority may deny this because he is unaware of it. humans are at least as opaque to themselves as to others.
4. thus when a minority has any power it is detrimental to the majority. this is true of the minority donor class as much as it is of an ethnic minority.

worse than this is:

1. jews have not always been treated well by europeans or christians.
2. they are pathologically ethnocentric.
3. they have obscenely disproportionate power for their numbers.
4. thus disaster.

no conspiracy theory necessary.

@Loup-Bouc

“Pythagoras” is NOT a translation. It is a transliteration. Any reasonably intelligent transliteration is defensible — not legitimately labelable “idiotic.” “Pythagorus is a reasonable, intelligent transliteration-choice of a very-well educated English-speaker — just as “Pythagoras” is such choice.

No educated person would spell Pythagoras “Pythagorus”, and especially theorem “theorem”.

You know what, I am starting to have more nuanced views of blacks. The 3 recent cases of outspokenness causing each a backlash in their careers earned my respect. Also, they (these 3) don't look stupid or unpleasant. I wish there were more of them like this.
