Zničení ropovodu Nord Stream bylo gangsterským činem, který odhaluje rakovinu v srdci „pořádku založeného na pravidlech“. Jak může existovat mír a bezpečnost, když nejmocnější stát světa může zničit kritickou infrastrukturu jiných zemí bez uvážení nebo soudního řízení? Pokud lze Hershově zprávě věřit – a já si myslím, že ano –, pak musíme předpokládat, že vysoce postavení poradci v Bidenově administrativě i samotný prezident úmyslně spáchali akt průmyslového terorismu proti dlouhodobému příteli a spojenci, Německu. Co Bidenovo zapojení do aktu implikuje, je to, že Spojené státy si nyní nárokují právo svévolně rozhodovat o tom, které země se mohou zapojit do obchodu s kterými jinými. A pokud je z nějakého důvodu nákup a prodej energetických dodávek v rozporu s širšími geopolitickými cíli Washingtonu, pak USA věří, že mají právo vymazat infrastrukturu, která takový obchod umožňuje. Není toto zdůvodnění, které bylo použito k ospravedlnění vyhození Nord Streamu do povětří?

Sy Hersh prokázal světu službu tím, že odhalil pachatele sabotáže Nord Stream. Jeho odhalení nejen identifikuje zúčastněné osoby, ale také vyvozuje, že by měli nést odpovědnost za své činy. Ale i když v blízké budoucnosti neočekáváme žádné důkladné vyšetřování, myslíme si, že velikost útoku byla výzvou pro lidi, kteří lpí na víře, že unipolární model může přinést morálně přijatelné výsledky. Incident ukazuje, že

jednostranné jednání nevyhnutelně vede ke kriminálnímu násilí vůči slabým a bezbranným. Bidenova tajná operace zranila každého muže, ženu a dítě v Evropě. Je to skutečná tragédie. Zde je citát z nedávného rozhovoru s Hershem:

„Myslím, že tento příběh má stejný potenciál zničit schopnost našeho prezidenta shromáždit americký lid za válkou, protože ukazuje něco, co je tak temné a tak neamerické. Víš, to nejsme my. Nemluvíme o nás. Toto je skupina zpravodajských důstojníků a lidí ze CIA...“ Seymour Hersh 2:29 min

#SeymourHersh , kterého nyní chtějí válečná média pošpinit za odhalení #Bidenova činu ekologické a energetické bezpečnosti #Terorismus , představuje to nejlepší z žurnalistiky v #USA , protože odhalil americké zločiny jako masakr v My Lai ve Vietnamu a mučení ve věznici Abu Ghraib. 2019: Trump pulls out of INF Treaty

Má pravdu, ne? Bidenova administrativa značně přepočítala, jaký dopad budou mít tato odhalení na veřejnost. Samotné poškození reputace bude obrovské, ale budou také použity jako prizma, kterým mnozí kritici vidí válku. Ve skutečnosti existují náznaky, že se to již může stát. Ruský ministr zahraničí Sergej Lavrov v neděli potvrdil, že skutečným cílem washingtonské války nebylo pouze „oslabit“ Rusko a nakonec ho rozdělit na menší kousky, ale vynutit si rozkol mezi Německem a Ruskem. Zde je to, co řekl v sobotu:

Podle Lavrova se USA rozhodly, že Rusko a Německo v posledních 20–30 letech „příliš dobře“ spolupracovaly a vytvořily silnou alianci založenou na ruských zdrojích a německé technologii.

„To začalo ohrožovat monopolní postavení mnoha amerických korporací. Bylo proto nutné to nějak zkazit, a to doslova,“ řekl ministr.

„Je tu jeden aspekt, který souvisí se skutečností, že přátelství mezi zeměmi, národní usmíření mezi nimi, jako se to stalo mezi Rusy a Němci, se stalo okem pro ty, kteří nechtějí, aby se někde na této planetě objevil někdo, kdo bude soutěžit s hlavním hegemonem, za nějž se USA prohlásily,“ dodal Lavrov. (Lavrov říká, že američtí představitelé v podstatě uznávají, že výbuchy Nord Stream byly ruční prací USA,“ Tass)

Lavrovovy komentáře potvrzují náš vlastní názor, že konflikt byl vykonstruován washingtonskými experty na zahraniční politiku, kteří si uvědomili, že německo-ruská ekonomická integrace představuje vážnou hrozbu pro dominantní roli Ameriky v globálním pořádku. To je důvod, proč se Nord Stream stal primárním cílem americké agrese, protože plynovod byl životně důležitou tepnou, která spojovala oba kontinenty a přibližovala je k sobě do hospodářského společenství, které se nakonec stalo největší světovou zónou volného obchodu. Toho se Washington obával nejvíce, a proto Biden a spol. podnikli tak zoufalé kroky, aby zabránili posílení ekonomických vztahů mezi Německem a Ruskem. Stručně řečeno, Nord Stream musel být zničen, protože Nord Stream znamenal konec unipolárního světového řádu.

Namísto toho, abychom tuto složitou teorii rozvedli, věnujte chvilku času a uvidíme, zda dokážeme zjistit něco o Hershově temném „zdroji“ informací. Dovolte mi to zarámovat formou otázky:

Proč mu zdroj Sy Hershe poskytl podrobné, přísně tajné informace o sabotáži ropovodu Nord Stream Bidenovou administrativou?

- A. Zdrojem je kremelská loutka, která chtěla rozvrátit válečné úsilí a způsobit vážné škody Spojeným státům
- b. Zdrojem je Ameriku nenávídící „komouš“, který nenávidí demokracii a svobodu
- C. Zdrojem je adrenalinový narkoman, který rád vystavuje sebe, svou rodinu, kariéru a svobodu riziku.
- d. Zdrojem je znepokojený Američan, který si myslel, že odhalení informací o zničení Nord Streamu zabrání neoconům vést zemi do katastrofické války s Ruskem.

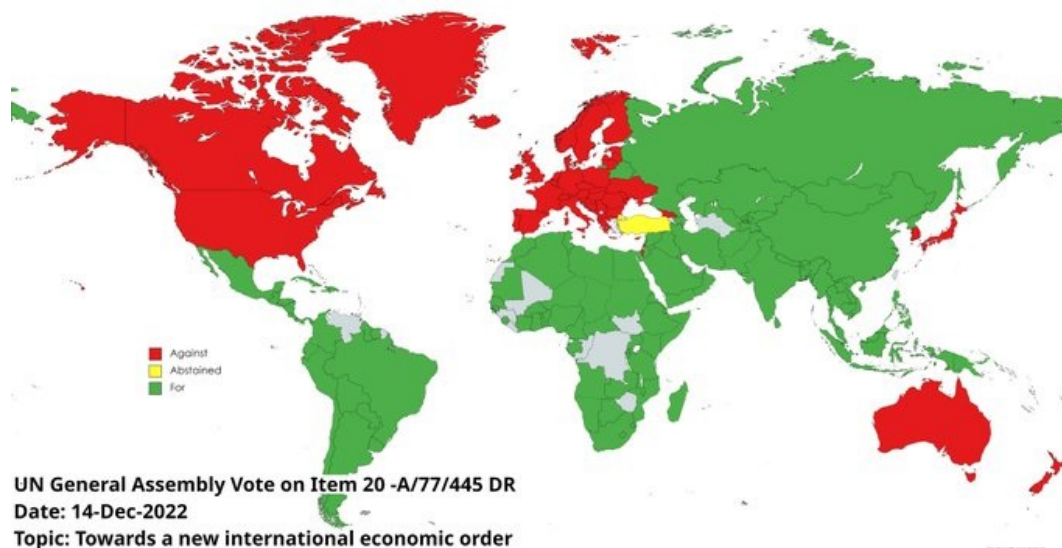

Pokud jste zvolili „d“, poplácejte se po zádech, protože to je správná odpověď. Nikdo se zdravým rozumem by nepodstoupil riziko, které podstoupil Hershův zdroj, pokud by necítil, že je země ve vážném nebezpečí. A mějte na paměti, že možná ještě ani nevíme, co to nebezpečí představuje, protože nevíme, jaké budoucí eskalace neokonzervativci plánují. Například by se mohlo stát, že americké plány již probíhají na dodávku F-16 a raketových systémů dlouhého doletu, které budou použity k úderu hlouběji do ruského území. Je možné, že neokonzervativci chtějí odpálit jaderné zařízení na Ukrajině jako součást operace „falešné vlajky“. Nebo by se mohlo stát, že Biden plánuje zorganizovat „koalici ochotných“ (Spojené království, Polsko, Rumunsko), která bude bojovat po boku amerických speciálních sil v bojových operacích na východní Ukrajině. Jakýkoli z těchto událostí představuje vážnou eskalaci nepřátelství, která by zvýšila pravděpodobnost přímého střetu s Ruskem vyzbrojeným jadernými zbraněmi. Podle vlastních slov Joea Bidena: "Tomu říkáte 3. světová válka."

Má pravdu, byla by to WW3, což by mohlo vysvětlovat, proč Hershův zdroj sebral odvahu a poskytl autorovi usvědčující informace o Nord Streamu. Mohl věřit, že svět je na rychlé cestě k jadernému zničení, a tak riskoval svůj vlastní život za náš. "Žádnou větší lásku nikdo nemá..."

A zdroj není jediný, kdo se vystavil riziku. Hersh by mohl čelit také obvinění. Ve skutečnosti bych tvrdil, že kdyby Hersh nebyl tak široce respektován jako on, pravděpodobně by právě teď sdílel celu s Julianem Assangem. Koneckonců, jaký je rozdíl mezi tím, co udělal Assange a tím, co udělal Hersh?

Nic moc, kromě skutečnosti, že Hershova hvězdná pověst ho dělá „nedotknutelným.“ (Doufáme.)

V každém případě, pokud motivem článku bylo zabránit jadernému armagedonu, pak jsme velmi vděční za jejich statečnost a nezištnost.

I tak mohly být za článkem jiné motivy, které stojí za naši úvahu. Představme si na chvíli, že Hershův zdroj má informace týkající se plánů nekonů na blízkou budoucnost. Jinými slovy, je docela možné, že hlavním impulsem pro Hershovu zprávu nebyla samotná sabotáž Nord Streamu, ale nějaký další zlověstný plán na obzoru, tedy vojenská eskalace, která by mohla spustit katastrofu nebyvalé závažnosti.

Jak jsme řekli dříve, takový plán by mohl zahrnovat F-16 a raketové systémy dlouhého doletu nebo jadernou operaci „falešné vlajky“, nebo by se mohlo stát, že Biden zorganizuje „koalici ochotných“, která bude bojovat po boku US Special Síly v bojových operacích na východní Ukrajině. Americké bojové jednotky na Ukrajině by učinily přímý střet s Ruskem prakticky nevyhnutelným. USA by to nastartovalo další světovou válku, což je to, co neokonzervativci chtějí. Bohužel mám podezření, že toto je nejpravděpodobnější scénář v blízké budoucnosti; vytvoření koalice podporované USA organizované za účelem přímého zapojení Ruska na Ukrajině. Zde je „Prohlášení tiskové tajemnice Karine Jean-Pierre o cestě prezidenta Bidena do Polska:

Ve dnech 20. – 22. února pojede prezident Joseph R. Biden mladší do Polska . Setká se s polským prezidentem Andrzejem Dudou, aby projednal naši bilaterální spolupráci i naše společné úsilí o podporu Ukrajiny a posílení odstrašování NATO. Setká se také s lidry Bukurešťské devítky (B9), skupina našich spojenců NATO na východním křídle, abychom znovu potvrdili neochvějnou podporu Spojených států bezpečnosti Aliance. Prezident Biden navíc před ročním výročím ruské brutální a nevyprovokované invaze na Ukrajinu pronese poznámky o tom, jak Spojené státy shromáždily svět, aby podpořily lid Ukrajiny při obraně své svobody a demokracie, a jak budeme i nadále stát při lidu Ukrajiny tak dlouho, jak to bude potřeba. (Bílý dům, Washington DC)

Jak se uvádí v oficiálním prohlášení, Biden bude nejen mluvit s polským prezidentem o „kolektivním úsilí na podporu Ukrajiny“, ale bude diskutovat také o americko-polské „bilaterální spolupráci“. Ale jaký typ bilaterální spolupráce chce Biden kromě více zbraní? Bojové jednotky? Je to to, co Biden hledá; koaliční boty na zemi, aby nahradily těžké ztráty Ukrajiny? Zde je článek z webu s názvem Notes From Poland, který oznamuje prudký nárůst polských náborových cílů. Není divu, že článek nevysvětluje důvod, proč Polsko hodlá do roka více než zdvojnásobit velikost své armády.

Na vojenská cvičení v Polsku může být příští rok povoláno až 200 000 lidí , včetně těch, kteří se nikdy nehlásili ke službě, ale jsou považováni za „užitečné dovednosti“. Cvičení mohou trvat až 90 dní a neúčast se trestá vězením nebo pokutou. . . .

Povolání mohou být lidé ve věku 55 let a méně, kteří prošli tzv. vojenskou kvalifikací, která je povinná pro všechny muže do 19 let a při které se zjišťuje zdravotní kategorie kandidáta a způsobilost k vojenské službě. . . .

Polsko příští rok zvýší výdaje na obranu na 3 % HDP, což je jedna z nejvyšších úrovní v NATO, aby se ochránilo před „nenasytným imperiálním Ruskem“.

Jeho nový zákon o ochraně vlasti také více než zdvojnásobí počet vojáků sloužících v ozbrojených silách

<https://t.co/KIEA1cHOo> — Poznámky z Polska (@notesfrompoland) 19. března 2022

Do roku 2009 měla Polsko povinnou vojenskou službu pro muže, ale ta byla zrušena ve prospěch plně profesionální armády. V posledních letech však rostoucí hrozba Ruska přiměla vládu, aby se snažila zvýšit velikost a sílu ozbrojených sil .

V roce 2017 byly zřízeny nové síly územní obrany. Letošní zákon o obraně vlasti předpokládá zdvojnásobení počtu ozbrojených sil ze současných 143 500 vojáků. . . .“ („Příští rok bude na vojenský výcvik povoláno až 200 000 Poláků“ , poznámky z Polska)

Očekává se, že tuto náhlou expanzi polské armády odmítneme jako pouhou náhodu, nebo je pravděpodobnější, že již byla uzavřena dohoda s Washingtonem ohledně budoucího rozmístění jednotek na Ukrajině?

Podle prohlášení Bílého domu se Biden „také setká s vůdci Bukurešťské devítky (B9)“, což je skupina devíti zemí NATO ve východní Evropě, které se staly součástí vojenské aliance pod vedením USA po skončení studeného období. války...a zahrnuje Rumunsko, Polsko, Maďarsko, Bulharsko, Českou republiku, Slovensko a tři pobaltské republiky Estonsko, Lotyšsko a Litvu. Všech devět zemí bylo kdysi úzce spojeno s dnes již rozpuštěným Sovětským svazem, později si však zvolily cestu demokracie. Rumunsko, Polsko, Maďarsko a Bulharsko jsou bývalými signatáři nyní rozpuštěné vojenské aliance Varšavské smlouvy vedené Sovětským svazem...Podívejte se:

Všichni členové B9 jsou součástí... NATO (a všichni) kritizují agresi prezidenta Vladimira Putina proti Ukrajině od roku 2014... Mírný rok NATO přijalo svou novou Strategickou koncepci, ve které se všichni spojenci shodli, že „Ruská federace je nejvýznamnější a přímé ohrožení bezpečnosti spojenců a míru a stability v euroatlantickém prostoru“ . Nyní, na cestě k summitu ve Vilniusu, bychom se měli ujistit, že Aliance je plně připravena čelit této hrozbě. („Kdo je Bukurešť Devět, země na východním křídle NATO?“, Indian Express)

Armáda rusofobů; je to to, co chtějí vytvořit?
Určitě to tak vypadá.

Možná, že děláme 'horu z krtince'; to je jistě možnost. Ale ted', když ruská armáda postupuje na všech frontách podél linie kontaktu, si myslíme, že zoufalí neoconi musí udělat něco kolosálního . Ve skutečnosti jsme si tím jisti. Podívejte se na tento klip z článku na webové stránce Larryho Johnsona „Syn nové americké revoluce“:

A ted' ty špatné zprávy. Bidenova administrativa a naši evropští spojenci se bud' připravují na velkou vojenskou akci v ukrajinské válce, nebo vědí, že se brzy stane něco špatného, pravděpodobně v Bělorusku, protože právě byla vydána varování pro cizí občany, aby odposlouchávali Bělorusko a Rusko:

Francouzské ministerstvo zahraničí vyzvalo své občany, aby neprodleně opustili Bělorusko.

Kanada vyzývá své občany, aby okamžitě opustili Bělorusko kvůli riziku svévolného uplatňování místních zákonů a nepřátelství na Ukrajině – kanadské ministerstvo zahraničí.

USA v pondělí vydaly doporučení na nejvyšší úrovni, ve kterém řekly americkým občanům, aby okamžitě opustili Rusko a přestali cestovat do země, protože ruská válka proti sousední Ukrajině pokračuje, přičemž konkrétně uvádějí riziko obtěžování a neoprávněného zadržování Američanů.

„Necestujte do Ruska kvůli nepředvídatelným důsledkům nevyprovokované totální invaze ruských vojenských sil na Ukrajinu, potenciálu pro obtěžování a vyčlenění amerických občanů k zadržení ruskými vládními bezpečnostními úředníky, svévolnému prosazování místních zákonů. , omezené lety do az Ruska, omezená schopnost velvyslanectví pomáhat občanům USA v Rusku a možnost terorismu,“ stojí v poplachu.

Nevěřím na náhody. Jde o koordinovanou akci a signalizuje, že situace v Rusku a Bělorusku se v blízké budoucnosti stane nebezpečnou. Možná to má něco společného s tím, že Spojené státy cvičí islámské radikály k provádění teroristických útoků v Rusku a Bělorusku. ( "Sy Hersh mluví a NATO varuje před eskalací války na Ukrajině?" , Syn nové americké revoluce)

Něco se chystá, i když si nemůžeme být jisti, zda se to uskuteční nebo ne. Ale – mějte na paměti – nebylo by potřeba teroristických útoků, falešných vlajek nebo dalších bojových jednotek, pokud by byl oficiální příběh skutečně pravdivý a ukrajinská armáda válku vyhrávala. Ale to se neděje. Ukrajinské ozbrojené síly špatně prohrávají a prohrávají. Ve skutečnosti nemají ani dostatečné zásoby munice k udržení dlouhodobých bojů. Zde je příběh z Reuters:

„Očekává se, že NATO požádá své členy, aby zvýšili své zásoby munice, které byly těžce vyčerpány válkou na Ukrajině ... Tempo dodávek na Ukrajinu, kde kyjevské jednotky denně vypalují až 10 000 dělostřeleckých granátů, vyčerpávalo západní zásoby a odhalilo díry v efektivitě, rychlosti a pracovní síle dodavatelských řetězců.

„Kdyby Evropa bojovala s Ruskem, některým zemím by během dní došla munice,“ řekl agentuře Reuters evropský diplomat... zásoby se kvůli konfliktu na Ukrajině ještě snižují ... Válka také vrhla pozornost na nedostatek průmyslových kapacit nezbytných k rychlému navýšení výroby, po desetiletích zmenšujících se vládních zakázek zmizelo mnoho výrobních linek...

"Nemyslím si nutně, že během příštího roku se naše zásoby masivně zvýší," řekl představitel NATO. "Veškeré další zásoby, které budeme mít, poputují na Ukrajinu." ( „Očekává se, že NATO zvýší cíle zásob munice, protože válka vyčerpá zásoby“ , Reuters)

Jak přivedete zemi do války s Ruskem bez dostatečného množství munice na boj s nepřítelem?

Ta neschopnost je ohromující a není to ani krátkodobý problém. Západní státy již nemají průmyslovou základnu, aby poskytly potřebné zásoby a vybavení pro „velké a vysoce intenzivní válčení. „Vybudování kapacity bude trvat roky. Válku mezitím vyřeší dobře vybavená ruská bojová vojska, která se bude i nadále obracet na demoralizované Ukrajince, kteří se na každém kroku stále více ocitají v přesile a přestřelce. Toto je z článku v UK Telegraph:

„Když se Rusko po významných ukrajinských bojových úspěších kolem Charkova a Chersonu v druhé polovině roku 2022 vrátilo do ofenzivy, posledních několik týdnů bylo dosud nejkrvavějších z již tak krvavé války, kdy obě strany utrpěly mimořádně těžké ztráty. Očekávejte, že se to zhorší.

Ukrajinský ministr obrany Olexij Reznikov říká, že Rusko zmobilizovalo „mnohem více“ než 300 000 vojáků, možná až půl milionu, a tito proudí na Ukrajinu v rámci přípravy na to, co se očekává v nadcházejících dnech a týdnech jako velká ofenziva. Přestože Kyjev také buduje své síly a dodává jim moderní vybavení darované Západem, Putin má mnohem větší převahu v počtu vojáků, než měl při invazi před rokem. Navzdory opakovaným optimistickým zprávám o tom, že Rusku docházejí dělostřelecké granáty – vítěz bitvy v tomto konfliktu – Putinovy válečné zásoby jsou obrovské a jeho továrny nepřetržitě pracují na tom, aby chrlyly ještě více.

Koncem loňského roku Rusko pod tlakem stáhlo své síly do silných pozic, obchodovalo se s časem, když shromažďovalo zdroje pro plánovanou ránu kladivem, zatímco drtilo Ukrajince na východě a změkčovalo je pro nadcházející útok.

Až dosud se na Západě vyprávělo, že Ukrajina tuto válku pohodlně vyhrává...Skutečnost je složitější....: pravdou je, že nedávné přísliby nového bojového vybavení pro Ukrajinu – zejména raket delšího doletu, tanků a dalších obrněných vozidel – Je nepravděpodobné, že by se naplnily včas, aby měly dopad na tuto bitvu, pokud Putin zahájí ofenzivu podle časového plánu, který Kyjev předpovídá....

Musíme být proto připraveni na výrazné ruské zisky v nadcházejících týdnech. Musíme být realističtí ohledně toho, jak špatné věci mohou být – jinak hrozí, že otřes ztratí odhodlání Západu. Loni v létě a na podzim nastal opak, když klesající podpora v některých částech Evropy a USA byla posílena ukrajinským úspěchem. ( „Vladimir Putin se chystá dosáhnout šokových zisků“, UK Telegraph)

A toto je z New York Times:

Vyčerpaní ukrajinští vojáci si stěžují, že jsou již v přesile a překonání, a to ještě předtím, než Rusko zavázalo většinu ze svých zhruba 200 000 nově mobilizovaných vojáků. A lékaři v nemocnicích mluví o rostoucích ztrátách, když se snaží postarat o bojovníky s hroznými zraněními.

První fáze ruské ofenzivy již začaly. Ukrajinští vojáci tvrdí, že Bachmut, město na východě Ukrajiny, které se ruské síly snaží dobýt od léta, pravděpodobně brzy padne. Jinde ruské síly postupují v malých skupinách a zkoumají přední linie a hledají ukrajinské slabiny.

Úsilí již zatěžuje ukrajinskou armádu, která je vyčerpaná téměř 12 měsíci těžkých bojů.

Ztráty mezi ukrajinskými silami byly vážné. Vojáci v dobrovolnickém kontingentu zvaném Karpatský Sich, umístěný poblíž Něvského, uvedli, že v posledních týdnech zemřelo asi 30 bojovníků z jejich skupiny a vojáci jen částečně v žertu uvedli, že téměř každý má otřes mozku.

V jedné frontové nemocnici na Donbasu byla márnice plná těl ukrajinských vojáků v bílých plastových pytlicích. V jiné nemocnici se na chodbách tísnily nosítka se zraněnými vojáky zakrytými termálními přikrývkami ze zlaté fólie a téměř celý den z fronty přijížděl stálý proud sanitek.“ ( „Přesílení a opotřebování, Ukrajinci na východě se připravují na ruský útok“, New York Times) Poznámka: Vytaženo z Měsíce Alabamy

A ještě jeden úryvek z Papíru rekordů:

Problém je, že Ukrajina prohrává válku. Ne, pokud můžeme soudit, proto, že by její vojáci bojovali špatně nebo její lidé ztratili odvahu, ale proto, že válka se usadila v opotřebovací bitvu ve stylu první světové války, doplněnou pečlivě vykopanými zákopy a relativně stabilními frontami.

Takové války mají tendenci vyhrávat – stejně jako první světová válka – po boku demografických a průmyslových zdrojů, které vydrží nejdéle. Rusko má více než trojnásobek populace Ukrajiny, neporušenou ekonomiku a špičkovou vojenskou technologii. Rusko má přitom své vlastní problémy; až donedávna zpomaloval jeho postup na západ nedostatek vojáků a zranitelnost jeho zbrojních skladů vůči raketovým útokům. Obě strany mají motivaci přijít k jednacímu stolu.“ ( „Rusko a Ukrajina mají pobídky k vyjednávání. USA mají jiné plány“, New York Times)

Získat obrázek? Válka se nepochybně ještě nějakou dobu protáhne, ale výsledek je nyní jistý. A jak se na východě stahuje smyčka a vyhlídky na úspěch jsou čím dál vzdálenější, myslíme si, že neokonzervativci jsou nuceni udělat něco ještě zoufalejšího, hloupějšího a násilnějšího. Očekáváme, že dalším krokem bude pokus o vytvoření koalice ochotných (Velká Británie, Rumunsko, Polsko a USA), která dotlačí zdráhavé spojence NATO k bodu zlomu tím, že postaví provizorní armádu pod vedením USA proti ruským silám na zabíjení

Ukrajiny. pole. S každou neuváženou akcí strýček Sam zvyšuje pravděpodobnost kritického rozkolu v rámci NATO, který ukončí sevření Evropy Washingtonem a položí základy pro nový pořádek.

NATO made a fatal error when it allowed ~~Turkey~~ Türkiye in. Further expansions made the treaty even worse.

An obvious answer is the Judeo-Christian Atlantic Treaty Organization [JCATO]. Excluding anti-Christian countries like Germany and Sweden would be vital. An alliance against SJW Islam, such as the EU's "Welcome Rape-ugees" failed states is an obvious win.

“If Hersh’s report can be trusted—and I think it can—then we must assume that senior-level advisors in the Biden administration as well as the president himself deliberately perpetrated an act of industrial terrorism against a long-term friend and ally.”

Great. Now we are going to be subject to this latest conspiracy theory along with 9-11, who killed JFK, is OBL really dead, etc. for the rest of time. Sheese.

Blowing Holes in Seymour Hersh’s Pipe Dream

On the surface Seymour Hersh’s story looks passable, but as you dig deeper it has more holes than the Nord Stream pipeline.

Oliver Alexander

Feb 10, 2023

I would like to preface this post by stating that I will not be making any conclusions on who is responsible for the Nord Stream pipeline explosions in this piece. While I have my suspects, all publicly available information regarding the explosions is circumstantial and there is none that conclusively points to a specific culprit. The purpose of this post is to debunk the claims made in Seymour Hersh’s Substack post titled “How America Took Out The Nord Stream Pipeline” using publicly available information.

I'll pass along these current interviews with Col. Douglas Macgregor and Seymour Hersh:

Watch Video At: <https://youtu.be/jHiiAvTtyL8>

Watch Video At: <https://youtu.be/d4BuMaGlKpo>

Ideologically, they're obviously poles-apart but they both clearly believe that our ruling political elites are totally delusional and self-destructive in their Russia/Ukraine policy. Hersh speculated that the Nord Stream pipeline attacks might lead to the collapse of NATO, something I've suggested from the moment they happened.

Its time for the citizens of the U.S to round up all those in the Bidet regime who have committed war crimes in Ukraine, round them up and hand them over to the Hague for trial.

If the Americans do this they may just save whatever good they once stood for in the eyes of the world...failure will see a line run through the American Empire as nothing but another misanthrope Empire in the history of Empires and should be dismissed and distrusted in all dealings with them.

There are several options other than the ones you laid out although I agree (d) is the most plausible. It should be combined with an option (e), ass-covering, though. The main purpose of this war appears to have been to separate Germany and Russia economically, but it easily could splinter NATO and there are rumblings this is a concern. Also take note that the rest of the media has gone to great lengths not to cover the Hersh revelation, which indicates it is true although likely quite curated in favor of the leaker and the faction he or she represents.

Along with the unfortunately plausible parade of horrors you list, let's hope the leak is a signal from a major faction such as the MIC that it is past time to negotiate and/or de-escalate.

These analyses of the NordStream pipeline bombing avoid mentioning the ideological supporting role of people who believe that their concerns about “global climate change” justify the immediate de-industrialization of modern developed countries.

Here in America (and similarly in other Western countries) there are an increasing number of state and local governments, with the support of the federal government, that want to: ban exploration for new sources of oil and natural gas; ban hydraulic fracturing that enhances oil and gas recovery from existing fields; ban oil and natural gas distribution pipelines; ban new oil refinery capacity; ban motor vehicles with internal combustion engines; ban natural gas hook-ups to new building construction; and prevent the sale of home appliances that need to be fueled by natural gas.

Thus, there are many people in the UK, Germany, the rest of the EU, and here in the USA who believe that the hostilities in the Ukraine provide a convenient pretext to force their “de-carbonization” (i.e., de-industrialization) agenda on entire societies. These people are happy to jump on the anti-Russia and anti-China bandwagons, and may even welcome nuclear war to reduce the world's population as part of their “green” agenda.

“It shows something that is so dark and so Unamerican.” – Seymour Hersh

“A fish rots from the head.” – Old Saying

The US is actually (secretly) at war with the whole world. Thus, even an “ally” whose well-being is deemed detrimental to US interests will be suddenly attacked.

Where do these motives come from? They come from the Talmud, through Jewish supremacists who are gunning to rule the world, and are currently the head of America. So any entity interfering with that goal instantly becomes an enemy. The Talmud views most of humanity as disposable sub-humans whom Jewish supremacists are permitted to betray, rob, and kill with impunity.

Like an unseen planet that is visible only indirectly through its gravitational effects on other nearby planets, the invisible Talmud supremacist cult is mainly visible indirectly through its effects on our politicians, press, and banking system. Like the case of the unseen planet, once this unseen cult’s influence is added to the picture many otherwise baffling events become easily explained.

By now I think every person reasonably informed about the realm of politics knows who the “Neocons” are. Or as Pepe Escobar now says with slightly more definition, the “Straussian Neocons”. An excellent chapter on the Straussian Neocons is in this excellent, important book by Laurent Guyenot (ably translated into English by Kevin Barrett), and available as a free PDF file here.

Putin is staring at defeat in his gas war with Europe

Mild weather this winter is set to help Europe shrug off Russia's energy threats next year, too.

February 15, 2023 10:09 pm CET

There's more bad news for Vladimir Putin. Europe is on course to get through winter with its vital gas storage facilities more than half full, according to a new European Commission assessment seen by POLITICO.

That means despite the Russian leader's efforts to make Europe freeze by cutting its gas supply, EU economies will survive the coldest months without serious harm — and they look set to start next winter in a strong position to do the same.

Since 2019 at the latest I've been repeatedly saying that Putin's failure to crush the nazis in 2014 or at least to allow the LDNR to liberate the whole Donbass in 2015 (something they were clearly about to do after the nazis were routed at Ilovaisk, Debaltsevo, and Donetsk Airport) would inevitably mean that Russia would have to fight a major war against a NATO army in Ukranazistan. For saying this I was repeatedly called an idiot or a troll, and was ordered off his site by the Faker*. Now my prediction is already fact (Russia is already fighting a NATOstani army in Ukranazistani uniform in Ukraine) so let me predict what's next.

1. Polandistan at least, with or without other NATOstani countries directly involved, will send a major force into Western Ukranazistan and occupy the whole place, Lvov for sure and likely until the west bank of the Dneiper. (This is one reason I vehemently disagree that Russia has ample time while the nazis don't. Russia also has time constraints.)
2. This force will not be capable of defeating Russia, of course, but it will not be intended to. Its purpose will be to act as human shields for the nazis and to safeguard nazi occupied territory, just as the Amerikastani occupation of Al Tanf in Syria is meant to act as human shields for al Qaeda and ISIS headchoppers.
3. From that NATOstani occupied territory missile strikes will be made on Russian forces and liberated cities, with the launchers parked next to NATOstani forces.
4. It will be declared that any Russian attack on NATOstani forces, even if inadvertently made, will be an attack on NATO. The spineless German, French and other slave regimes will have no say in the matter.
5. The only way to prevent this from happening is to destroy the communication routes between Polandistan and Ukranazistan, whether by destruction of the routes by missile strikes or (preferably) by invading from Belarus to capture the border strip, and along the border strip to link up to Transnistria.
6. If this is not done, Russia will inevitably be pushed into a situation where the only remedy is WWIII.

*This is one reason I couldn't care less about the Faker closing down his Junkyard, but far from the only one. These blowhard armchair general gasbags have never been right about a thing but they'll never admit that.

I am sure that at least 99% of the respective nations’ citizens are quite satisfied with the elite’s account. Even if some of the brighter ones suspect that it’s a pack of lies. Safety and comfort dictate accepting – or at least pretending to accept – what they are told.

If Nato intends to insert itself onto the battlefield in Ukraine to save America's world hegemony, the assaults would be led by American troops, not a couple hundred thousand Polacks. What evidence is there that the American military is being mobilised for such a stunt. Rounding up the necessary warm bodies and cold steel implements required for such slaughter doesn't take place overnight, if you will recall the wars against Iraq and other hapless targets. Even those turkey shoots required many months of moving around men and equipment long distances in great numbers on ships and transport planes. Probably numerous reservists would be in the process of being activated, or at least being given the "good news" about the latest requisition of their services and the need to resign their current day jobs. Or is this to be merely the exchange of several nuclear volleys until the smoldering planet lays silent, hot with radioactivity but freezing cold in an atmosphere with most sunlight blocked for decades to come? (One quick benefit: climate change via global warming is no longer a concern.) Will the dancing Jews of 9-11 and jubilant Neo-cons, or at least their ghosts, be going around town to trash the place in celebration. Have they ordered the champagne and put it on ice yet? The Saker (hope he gets out of country before the intel agencies collar him during these last days of his blog) always used to say that, if a major military action is about to occur, the peripheral activities will be so vast and frenetic that there will be no hiding the matter. So, those with connections to the expansive assemblage of American camps, bases, forts, ports and air fields, please clue the public in on the level of activity and the level of tension in the air. Once that EMP hits and lights, mass communication and your heating system go out, don't expect any of that to be restored in your lifetime, even if you were far from the nearest blast zone and are only nine years old. You may well envy the dead, but not to worry, you will soon join them. If you run into Madeline Albright down in Hell, ask her if this too was worth it.

((Amy Goodman's)) interview shows how stale and rehearsed Hersh's answers seem. It even looks like he is reading from script. He even claimed that Germany "had a warm fall because of climate change". LOL. This is a sure sign of a limited hangout, where other propaganda narratives are reinforced while toxic lies about the item of interest are spread under the smoke screen of sugar coated truths.

((Hersch)) also told ((Goodman)):

"The president at the last minute hesitated because he was afraid that blowing it up right after the exercise would point the finger at us, and then he wanted permission to do it any time".

Biden was afraid that Germany would "check out" after gas prices rose exponentially and the weather turned cold.

LOL. The entire panel was waiting on the decisions of the Alzheimers patient. Hersh expects us to believe that Biden is the one who made the decision to blow up the pipeline, but then needed "permission" to delay the explosion and choose exact timing. Sure, this makes sense for domestic politics, but Pedo Pete cannot even coherently string a couple of sentences together or make it on his own from his limo to the front door.

Take a look at all 10 of Biden's top Appointees.

There is a larger proportion of Jews at the top of the US government now than there was among the Bolshevics during the Russia Revolution.

Sy Hersh's "bombshell" is just a direct message from the Kabbalah loving Rabbis to the goyim.

Macgregor has been pretty spot on. Everything he says is happening can be seen on the Telegram channels. There is a lot of gruesome footage on these channels. The bodycam footage in particular is hard to watch. It's no wonder that most Ukrainian men are unwilling to fight. They have barely any supplies, training and are being sent into a meat grinder. It's pure lunacy. There are loads of videos showing these men resisting mobilization into the army. Their lives would honestly not be demonstrably different under Russian rule and they all know it. They lived under Moscow's rule for hundreds of years anyways. Moreover, all of this is destroying America's reputation. I no longer feel patriotic. Many people in the flyby states feel the same way. We aren't anti-American persay, but we sure aren't in love with America now. Washington made a grave miscalculation that will cost them their empire in my honest opinion. “The destruction of the Nord Stream pipeline was a gangster act that reveals the cancer at the heart of the “rules-based order”.

This is the problem, the rules based order is a US concoction made up of rules made up to fit any situation where the US need to by- pass the UN charter, especially the veto wielding powers of Russia and China, Putin and Lavrov have asked for copies of this ‘rules based order’ non have been supplied.

Mike Whitney's analogy of the gangster act of the US on Nord Stream is correct.

Imagine 100 shopkeepers paying insurance to the mafia, one shop keeper refuses to pay [Germany] in itself the amount of money the mafia lost would be neither here nor there, but to the mafia this would be a dangerous business threatening occurrence since one shopkeeper refusing to pay could lead to others refusing, that is why that shopkeeper usually ends up ‘sleeping with the fishes’ or gets its gas supply blown up. The quote from the article that opens this post is correct: indeed, US foreign policy is a pirating foreign policy that does decide which nations may trade with which nations, and how they may do so. Uncle Sam must get his cut somehow. And his cut must set him up for future piratical gains.

And that is not new for the Anglo-Zionist Empire. England was doing that back through the 17th century.

If you understand how WASP culture was formed directly out of Anglo-Saxon Puritanism, which was a Judaizing heresy, you will know that the fact you stress makes perfect sense: at some point the financial half of the two partners in Anglo-Zionist Empire would gain nearly total control over that empire.

You cannot solve the Jewish Problem without also solving the WASP problem.

I'm inclined to agree with you. Russia will need to ideally take Kharkov, Odessa and Kiev before western forces try to intervene. They can link up with Transnistria and fortify a new border running north there up to Belarus. The old Russian empire western most border was there anyhow. The risk for WWIII is increasing significantly everyday. I'm not sure how Russia can win this war with the West without engaging NATO directly. Some kinda Cold War will likely follow.

“First off; America did not take out The Nord Stream Pipeline.” re: Oliver Alexander, Feb 10, 2023.

It takes resources of the kind a large corporation or a government or a private-public partnership and wide ranged international relations to do something like that. The USA held no election in America for Americans to decide if the USA should take out the Nord Stream pipelines. The Seymour Hersh article describes actions of officials in various nation states as the responsible parties, but it blames the residents of America?

Americans, like the citizens of all nations, are governed by one of the nation states which comprise the +/- 256 member nation states in the nation state system. Oligarchs command both the corporations and the leaderships of the member nations of the nation state system. Hence Oligarch directorship determines nation state activity.

There are a number of independent international networks of corporations and wealthy oligarchs that operate in secret to promote and coordinate particular secret, clandestine, third party interest within the territorial boundary of each nation state. Also there are many corporations, owned by oligarchs, that have interest in Germany or that must compete with German or Russian industries who might have been active behind the scene. While the Hersh article, if accurate, may have traced the activities of some of the actors, it failed to expose the internationally hidden, behind the scene planners, writers, instigators and beneficiaries. Something is amiss!

Where did the idea to destroy German-Russian economic relations come from? I bet most Americans have no interest to disbursing USA government resources to interfere with the economies of either Germany or Russia? Americans want their tax dollars spent at home and the attentions of their political affairs directed to improve the situation at home. What's really behind this kind of activity is not yet clear.

My (e) was very similar to yours, but also different. I wrote:

E. Sy Hersh's source was told to leak "detailed, top-secret information" targeted to steer and reinforce both the narrative, and the psyop as well.

You wrote:

e. The source (like Mark Felt aka Deep Throat) is a swamp creature acting for a dissident faction within the Swamp, using Hersh as his knowing and willing cat's paw in an internal Swamp struggle, seeing how the ruling neocons are weak and their power hoard is ripe for looting.

If you will excuse me paraphrasing you, and since my post was the first "e", I would express it as:

e. The source was someone acting on orders from within the Biden regime in order to promote some narrative.

f. The source was someone acting on orders from within the US government, but outside of the Biden regime, who is trying either to disrupt or to control some of Biden's policies.

I choose e. over f. because I think Biden, and all of his enemies, are ultimately puppets of the same master. So a leak like this from an internal enemy would put the entire Ukraine war/narrative/psyop at risk. Who ever has enough power to repeatedly demand and extract billions in weaponry, ammunition and capital from every country across the west as a form of tribute to Zelensky, also has the "deep state" powers. These dark powers are not crossed lightly. Ask Seth Rich.

Hersh speculated that the Nord Stream pipeline attacks might lead to the collapse of NATO, something I've suggested from the moment they happened.

“At first you go bankrupt slowly, then all at once.”

NATO has been collapsing since 1991. Believe me, eventually historians will declare it to have died long before the present era in all but name, like the US Railroad Commission.

I won't belabor all the telltale indications of this trajectory over the last three decades. But simply note that Turkey, the second most important member, is effectively out if you're one of the few to not forget that it's supposed to be a military alliance. Obama fixed that little red wagon with his half-assed coup/assassination attempt against Erdogan that no one will mention because the primary objective of the political class in the US became making sure the first black president never feels bad about himself.

Thus, the USG planned and ordered sabotage of the NordStreams has been met with radio silence from all but the dissident corners of the ruling and governing classes because it's congruent with what NATO has become. Not to put too fine a point on it, but it morphed into the US/Western version of the Soviet Union and its Warsaw Pact. It isn't coincidental that the USG has had to apply ever more force internally in NATO members — spying, color revolutions, regime changes — to keep it stumbling along even while paying the lion's share and making sure the vassals' representatives live and work in high style. Say what you will about the former Soviet Union, it didn't overpay for compliance from the sort of filth who sell out their countrymen and their sovereignty.

Consider the following. Hersh revealed that the planning and training began long before the trigger was pulled, so to speak. Don't elide over that doozy, THE bombshell revelation is that the White House national security apparatus led. Not some obscure office in the Pentagon. Nor a “Northwoods” type bright idea which the POTUS quashed. No, while Hersh playfully describes Biden as in charge, those really running the illegitimate Biden regime carried out an attack on key infrastructure, which could have and was shutoff by Germany.

Does that sound like an alliance in anything but name.

Biden is cognitively gone. It has been a question since he was installed as to who was in control of what he said and signed at any given moment. We now know that, behind the curtain, the Germans were well aware they faced a monumental risk they never had before because those truly in control could get the POTUS to say and authorize whatever they wanted.

Worse, the Germans or anyone else sane, no longer can protect their interests by leaking the madness to the American media. No doubt they did but at this point the Washington Post and New York Times would sooner drop a dime on a whistleblower than get crosswise with this dangerous illegitimate regime.

Russia is sending a message by pounding the infrastructure around Lviv. If Polish forces move into west Ukraine, they'll be walking into a buzzsaw of Russian missiles.

The Russians and Americans have been playing this dance for years in Syria. US forces have been illegally occupying Syrian territory and drawing red lines around their ill-gotten possessions ("our forces have a right to self-defense"). Russia is wise to their scam.

Russia has stated its red line: any offensive forces within the established borders of Ukraine are fair game, be they NATO or not. The first Polish tank to cross over should be turned into a molten puddle.

So here we go again, with yet another well-meaning attempt to rationalize the crazy carryings-on in the metaverse madhouse that is the “civilized” world. These serial efforts at “making sense” of the utterly senseless appear, to us surviving Free Wild Peoples here in Indian Country, to be even crazier than the subject/object of all these pretzel-bending exercises in futile ratiocination.

Grown-up Humans have a well-developed sense of the necessary and rather severe limitations on the capacity of their rational faculties, when it comes to having actual usefully beneficial applications for engaging-with our everyday circumstances. Of All There Is, almost nothing-at-all of it can be crammed into the tiny container encompassable by the philosophers’ “pure reason.” That there is an instinctive grasp of that Natural Fact, even amongst the “civilized,” is suggested by the common recognition of a real need for them to “think outside The Box.”

Yet here we go again, again, with another bout of bouncing-around fecklessly entirely within the suffocating confines inside The Box, where insanity is rampant and most intensely pronounced among not the hapless general inmate population, but in the pampered ranks of the papered professionals comprising the “self”-satisfied/justified custodial staff....and even more so in those airless elevations occupied by the wannabe managing directors/owner-operators at the asylum’s tax-haven corporate headquarters.

So the social-Darwinist cage fight goes on, with some bloodied and battered “winner” entitled eventually to “take all” of the absolutely nothing that’ll be left at the inevitable, and imminent, DEAD END of it. Is this the best our domesticated Sisters and Brothers, with all their vaunted reasoning, can come up with by-now, at-least a thousand generations into their idolized “civilization” project?

Well, us left-over Primitive Savages have seen plenty more than merely enough now to say for-certain, thanks but NO!....thanks. We figure our best bet continues to be just feeling The Way through the wreckage the rationalists have wrought, here in the LivingLoving Arrangement of Earth and Sky.

As for the “thinkers,” they named their poison. Life Herownself, in Her Wisdom, is only too happy to at-long-last give ‘em a lethal dose. Love Hisownself, in His Mercy, is okay with letting them off the hook, finally, of their very own too-precious “self”-possession/obsession.

You've touched on a point that I believe is the Meta of this situation. The Eurocrap leaders seem all to be in the pagan environmentalist religion. Hersh sets up the limited hangout and the Europeans are all quietly happy for the occurrence because of love for Greta and the environment. Sure, the people are going to sacrifice and suffer but it will help save the environment in the long run.

Let's not forget that Putin signed the 2015 Paris agreement perhaps to forestall what we are seeing today. All the other factors are certainly in play but for the fundamentalists of the environmentalist religion there is nothing more important. Putin's real crimes are his environmental crimes. What a great opportunity this was to slow the use of fossil fuel.

"I think that there is still a tendency amongst many governments, and policymakers at large, to consider climate change as one risk amongst others," he said.

Instead, he said, we must "consider that climate change is really a matrix of risks and that all of the issues that will be key in the 21st Century — with development, security, migration, health — all of these issues will be transformed by climate change." —

We must not forget the simple historic truths of war:

Facts that are not in contention establish that wars are fought for interests;

Those interests amount to power;

"Values" are not the driving motive — power is.

States/groups unite with those who do not share their values, often against those who do — all for power.

It's not one word (rather a term), but they can be called secular moral absolutists.

In the West, religion has largely been replaced by a kind of secular morality, where the secular moral canon is determined by the media, and is continuously updated to include the Current Thing™.

The phenomenon you allude to is secular moral absolutism, and it obviously governs a lot more than just attitudes about Russia/Ukraine.

Alternatively, you could just call them NPCs (or npcists), and say they practice npcism.

It's unfortunate a myopic New York Times journalist, Seymour Hersh, overlooked the biggest crime story of the entire Vietnam War, which was that of a corrupt U.S. Congress/Senate and its complicit DeepState handlers who were fundamentally responsible for the majority of human sacrifice, suffering, and slaughter on both sides of that pointless conflict.

But here is Seymour Hersh over a half-century later, again oddly disregarding the biggest crime story of the day, and essentially the same elephant in the room, which is that of a "New World Order," with its cosmopolitan cadre of bad actors, perpetrators, and propagandists feverishly working overtime in an effort to kick civilization to the curb, and seize absolute control of humanity's soul.

NATO is the ZUS terrorist arm aka Operation Gladio and AL-CIADA aka ISIS and all the offshoots thereof, designed to destroy nations and humanity for the ZUS new world order. This was shown for all the world to see, in the Israeli and ZUS attack on the WTC on 9/11, which was blamed on muslims, to give the excuse to use NATO and the ZUS to destroy Iraq and Libya and Syria and Afghanistan and Yemen and Somalia and all of this for Israel's greater Israel agenda.

Now NATO is being used in the war in the Ukraine, with the same zionists in control, trying to destroy Russia, NATO aka the ZUS, has men and equipment, fighting against Russia in the Ukraine, acting again in their role as a terrorist kabal, destroying all that they can, under the banner of the terrorist NATO killers.

NATO is a terrorist organ and is the spawn of the ZUS, which is the head of the terrorist kabal, the real terrorists, wear suits and live in NYC and DC and Tel Aviv and London and Paris.

Agreement and appreciation for the analysis. And then for the conclusions, the questions posed. "Isn't this the rationale that was used to justify the blowing up of Nord Stream?" asked in the opening paragraph, America's rationale that military action is its prerogative to situations as it deems.

How similar is America to and with Israeli policy and its rationale, to expel or murder non-jews from Israel. Israel's leader may as well also as Joe Biden has said, "We can do it."

Consider the evidence now. The thing didn't explode by accident. Evidence show a man-made damage.

After that, evidence as to perpetrators is speculative, but circumstantial evidence is overwhelming. Is there any doubt that was done by a country with the capability to do such. Then, consider the President of the United States said America would, "...put and end to it," and, "We can do it."

Israel can murder, expel, imprison, confiscate (steal) property, et cetera, ad nauseam, of its non-citizen citizens, can militarily attack any neighbor with impunity. And now, America is doing the last of that list, which is, to attack as it wants.

The two now echo each other: "We can do it."

How ironic. Alexander then, after putting us to sleep over esoterica, never gives us his theory or opinion on who and why the pipeline was blown up. Here's a zinger: "The CIA and associated agencies seem to have had no ideas that Nordstream was a pipeline.

I don't doubt that the German greens would have loved to have sabotaged the pipeline, but this is too much:

All the other factors are certainly in play but for the fundamentalists of the environmentalist religion there is nothing more important. Putin's real crimes are his environmental crimes. What a great opportunity this was to slow the use of fossil fuel.

"I think that there is still a tendency amongst many governments, and policymakers at large, to consider climate change as one risk amongst others," he said.

There was talk about disbanding NATO when the EU was formed since it can serve as a defensive alliance. NATO facilities could remain unchanged, just change names to EU and kick out the Americans and Canadians. The EU has twice the population of Russia and six times its economic power.

| The EU has twice the population of Russia and six times its economic power.

Not a useful yardstick. The Russian military budget is less than 20% of the American, and they still produce as much, and even more quantity and quality. The Russian economy is almost entirely self-sustaining—almost the only such in the World. The quality of the Russian intellectual class, technical/trade class, far over-reaches that of Europe. Russia is not full of scrapings and dregs of humanity as is the West. Social, economic, and cultural order are multipliers of effectiveness. Patriotism is an embarrassment for a Westerner, concerning his own government. Have you investigated the differences between K-12 and university education between Russia and the West?

Economic Power? Measured how? On the official exchange rate, or the Buying Power:

Purchasing power parity (PPP) is a popular metric used by macroeconomic analysts that compares different countries' currencies through a "basket of goods" approach. Purchasing power parity (PPP) allows for economists to compare economic productivity and standards of living between countries.

((Semour Hersh)), why not put Assange on a two day leave [some-one else's suggestion here], Hersh could then occupy Assange's dungeon and take care of the cat? Two days of consistency in politics, equanimity, and a show of justice.

I guess it takes Jews to denounce Jews [having served their purpose] to keep the Jews in the news. Macgregor readily approves on principle.

One of the many problems in any narrative is the author of it [Hersh], a person, any single individual has a profile, background, an entourage, descendants and their involvements, and a stance on the most pertinent or important issues of this day [climate, Turkiye earth-quakes, Syria, Palestine, 9-11, Covidxxx, gender-identity issues]. We would like to know what Hersh holds dear [policies of the present, issues of the present], it would make for sane judgments of the public on his out of the blue North Stream scribbles and audio @AmyGoodwhine.

Point made: as with ((Kissinger)), now ((Hersh)) [eighty-five? next in line: ((Chomsky))], bodies are unearthed out of their graves. Dead people do not have agendas? Well they do, gerontocracy is about generational interests. That is how the West got converted into absurdity. When the wrong people are at the top, the effect can perdure over generations, this was sadly the case. Not the first time in history this effect is playing out.

NATO MUST BE DESTROYED!

Pot-bellied globalizer thug Madeleine Albright and Wesley Clark — because of their Jew ancestry — had no problem bombing and butchering and killing and maiming Serbians and other European Christians in the 1999 American Empire War of Aggression Against Christian Serbs because they are at war with European Christendom.

What USA patriots need to do is to get the American Empire to act more like a republic that is responsive to the civilization that created it. NATO should be terminated as it exists only to further destroy European Christendom and national sovereignty. The European Union and the North Atlantic Treaty Organization must be pushed off a cliff.

The JEW/WASP Ruling Class of the American Empire is using its control of the US government and the US military to financialize, globalize and multiculturalize every nation under its sway.

The JEW/WASP Ruling Class of the American Empire is a clear and present threat to the safety, security and sovereignty of the United States of America.

THE NATO DODO BIRD MUST BE TERMINATED

The JEW/WASP Ruling Class of the American Empire controls NATO.

The JEW/WASP Ruling Class of the American Empire attacked and destroyed the German-Russian natural gas pipelines in the Baltic sea.

The Nips and the Krauts have been targeted for energy resource destruction and industrial extortion by the JEW/WASP Ruling Class of the American Empire.

Private intelligence sources have informed me that Teddy Cruz and Rahm Emanuel were the team leaders for the demolition crew that blew up the natural gas pipelines in the Baltic Sea.

Both Teddy Cruz and Rahm Emanuel were reported to have had water-logged, squeaky shoes immediately after the pinpoint, planned demolition of the Baltic Sea natural gas pipelines.

Teddy Cruz and Rahm Emanuel are active international agents for the JEW/WASP Ruling Class of the American Empire and for the various energy and financial organizations that operate globally.

Rahm Emanuel Makes The Nips An Offer They Can't Refuse in the WSJ(December 2022):

Another lesson from Europe is that countries should import natural gas from their friends, not their enemies. Last year Russia supplied about 9% of Japan's liquefied natural gas. Australia supplied the most, over 36%. The U.S. already supplies Japan with 10% of its LNG, and we are ready to do more. Planned expansions in states such as Alaska could, based on private-sector studies, supply Japan's current and future demand at a reasonable cost with much lower methane emissions than alternative LNG. Alaska LNG can travel to Japan in six days without any strategic chokepoints and can make Japan the energy export hub for the Indo-Pacific to reduce its coal dependency. If America, Australia and other friends can supply the majority of Japan's LNG needs, why would Japan need to rely on its adversaries?

There will be definitely retaliation for this heinous crime. This pipeline was a joint project of Russia and Germany. They both must resolutely condemn this US state terrorism. So far Germany, a main benefactor of the pipeline, is ironically siding with the terrorist. Russia is waiting for Germany's real and private sentiments and in an opportune moment they will strike but this time on American soil. The fools from Washington will not stop until the destruction is brought to their land. It did not happen in WWI or WWII but it will happen in WWIII.

Since you're an apologist for Putin's illegal invasion of a country and justify his attempts to steal land while he murders civilians, why would blowing up infrastructure be that bad even if your conspiracy theory is true? lol. Since stronger countries can blow the stuff of weaker countries up and murder their civilians according to Meth Whitney, the US should blow up even more of Russia's pipelines.

Looking at the Red and Green International Order Map, it appears our Zionist overlords want to use western Goyim for their dirty work, and when SHTF, raise the Star of David flag for cover proclaiming – We're not white supremacists, they are, we're not even white, we're Holocaust survivors victims also.

The reason Jew Hersh is not in a Prison Planet Gulag like Goyim Julian Assuage is because of his Mossad handlers, they play both sides for a win win situation.

«then we must assume that senior-level advisors in the Biden administration as well as the president himself deliberately perpetrated an act of industrial terrorism against a long-term friend and ally, Germany.»

A long term vassal and potential rival, Germany :-). This is how for example the USA treats the UK:

William Rees-Mogg in “The Times”, 2006-08-07

“When Jack Straw was replaced by Margaret Beckett as Foreign Secretary, it seemed an almost inexplicable event. Mr Straw had been very competent — experienced, serious, moderate and always well briefed. Margaret Beckett is embarrassingly inexperienced.

I made inquiries in Washington and was told that Donald Rumsfeld, the Defence Secretary, had taken exception to Mr Straw’s statement that it would be “nuts” to bomb Iran. The United States, it was said, had put pressure on Tony Blair to change his Foreign Secretary. Mr Straw had been fired at the request of the Bush Administration, particularly at the Pentagon. ...

The alternative explanation was more recently given by Irwin Stelzer in The Spectator; he has remarkably good Washington contacts and is probably right. His account is that Mr Straw was indeed dismissed because of American anxieties, but that Dr Rice herself had become worried, on her visit to Blackburn, by Mr Straw’s dependence on Muslim votes. About 20 per cent of the voters in Blackburn are Islamic; Mr Straw was dismissed only four weeks after Dr Rice’s visit to his constituency.

It may be that both explanations are correct. The first complaint may have been made by Mr Rumsfeld because of Iran; Dr Rice may have withdrawn her support after seeing the Islamic pressures in Blackburn.

At any rate, Irwin Stelzer’s account confirms that Mr Straw was fired because of American pressure.”

«What Biden’s involvement in the act implies, is that»

Biden is a PR spokesperson, a “trustie”, not a “master”.

«the United States now claims the right to arbitrarily decide which countries may engage in commerce with which others. And, if for some reason, the buying and selling of energy supplies conflicts with Washington’s broader geopolitical objectives, then the US believes it has the right to obliterate the infrastructure that makes such trade possible.»

What’s new? Is this something that was discovered only this year? People outside the USA have always known what “limited sovereignty” means. See the fate of the infrastructures of Iraq or Libya or Syria recently.

In 1941-1942 the Council for Foreign Relations did for the State Department a “War and peace studies” project: https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/War\_and\_Peace\_Studies

They came up with a plan, which was well implemented, to take over control of all important sea route choke-points through which fuels and cereals are transported, and leverage that control to create a suzerain empire instead of a colonial one, covering all of the Pacific and all of Americas except for Cuba, all of Western Europe, most of Africa and the Middle East, Japan and most of southern Asia.

For decades the USA have substantially controlled worldwide trade in fuels and cereals, both as to sea routes and to producers, except for the USSR and Russian Federation, and in substantial part the PRC, and they are being “disciplined”. States who defy the USA and are not self-sufficient in both cereals and fuels can be easily “sanctioned” and “choose poverty”.

D. Cannadine, R. Quinault “Winston Churchill in the Twenty First Century”(2004)
“The irony was, of course, that one of the war aims of the Roosevelt administration was the liquidation of the British Empire, and the expansion of American power and influence at the expense of Britain.”

The Russian military is fighting over the garbage dump of Bakhmut for months without making any progress against a military with inferior personnel to the EU and that's fighting with handed over military surplus quoted at sticker prices. It's hilarious you rave about how great a country is in spite of the fact that:

1)it has a lower life expectancy because drinking yourself in an early grave is better than being Russian

2)it's so corrupt you can have an illegal mercenary group that recruits out of prison with the consent of the government LOL

You're so dumb, at the cost of a few dozen billion dollars, DC managed to get:

1)future spending on military hardware – most of the warehoused stuff going to Ukraine is quoted at replacement price and this war is a great excuse to throw out equipment you were going to decommission while also funding the new gear.

2)NATO will most likely gain Sweden and Finland as members. The former has an outsized military industrial complex for their size and the latter has a large reservist force that's actually being trained unlike the Russian trash.

3)Russia will diminish as a provider of weaponry to other countries because this war will make them cancel deliveries and they'll need to transition to not using any Western tech in making them.

4)Russia won't sell energy to the EU anymore and without access to tech, it will have lower economic growth. It would be hilarious if the EU stopped insuring any Russian ships and Russia would have to keep pumping oil and gas despite having no market because many of their wells are in the permafrost and once you finish drilling, your infrastructure is fucked.

5)Russia's demography will be wrecked by this war. Not only will tens of thousands if not 100k+ vodka drinkers would have died by the end of this war, but close to a million moved abroad and the longer this takes, the fewer will ever return. The list can go on such as getting Russian escorts and camwhores at a discount for another generation. lol

The US alone could crush Russia like a bug militarily, NATO overmatches Russia so greatly that not even fighting them or devoting 0.01% of NATO GDP to funding Ukraine had Russia mobilize and their entire war stall for months on end. All the kvetching about muh hypersonic missiles is either Russian agitprop where they try to maintain relevance despite arguably not even being a top 5 military or agitprop by NATO to boost spending on defense.

The silverlining of my taxmoney being wasted on all this military crap is the hilarity of knowing a small percentage of my paycheck is all it takes for Russia's military machine to stall for months over the garbage dump of a minor city of no strategic significance.

@meamjojo

LOL... Baghdad Bob was more convincing.

The correct side in this (i.e., the Russian side) tends, on the whole, to have better analysts.

The whole of Europe is being impoverished by huge rises in their energy costs: same for the UK.

It's not at the stage where vast numbers of people are literally, actually dying of hypothermia, but the general-equilibrium effects of the loss of cheap Russian gas are far broader, and have a much longer tail, than is generally understood.

No cheap gas means no cheap ammonia, which means no cheap fertiliser, which means drastic falls in agricultural productivity. Broadacre agriculture is a very narrow-margin business, and large increases in farmers' fertiliser cost will make a very large number of farms unprofitable. Grain farmers are pretty canny these days, and use a lot of quite-well-developed quant tools: they can get a reasonable guess at the changes in their profitability given a change in key input costs... some of them won't bother planting, given that they have to compete on global markets (with Russian, Australian and Ukrainian wheat, for example).

No cheap gas means no cheap CO<sub>2</sub>, because cheap CO<sub>2</sub> is a by-product of the Haber process... the means by which the vast majority of metabolically-available nitrogen is made.

No cheap CO<sub>2</sub> means more-expensive carbonated beverages including beer.

Expensive energy plus expensive fertiliser plus expensive CO<sub>2</sub> means energy-intensive businesses shutting the doors.

Bakeries – the quintessential “small business” in France – are closing down all over France, because of increases in energy costs.

William Saurin – France's biggest producer of prepared foods – has shut down half of its plants, which accounted for 80% of its output and 86% of its revenue. It's foreseeable that the likes of Picard (the frozen-foods giant) will face a gigantic increase in its costs – because of their massive refrigeration infrastructure.

Meanwhile, Russia's foreign affairs people have been running rings around the US State Department (and the other Eurotrash ‘diplomats’) – simply by letting potential counterparties know that Russia isn't looking to rape them and doesn't expect something for nothing.

So... Burkina Faso just kicked out the French, as did Mali; Sudan has signed an agreement to give Russia a naval presence in Port Sudan; Hungary and Serbia are getting side-eye from the US and Brussels because they lack enthusiasm for Empire of Lies... and the Russian economy is growing faster than the 'engine room' of the EU.

But yeah... some dickhead at Politico is your 'go to' source on this stuff; he cites Eurozone bureaucrats, who are always wrong about everything that matters.

To hit their targets for reserve maintenance, they require another 15% reduction in demand for gas in the next year; that equates – directly – to less fertiliser and less CO<sub>2</sub>.

Obviously the Eurozone bureaucrats don't give a fuck about how the Eurozone economy hits that 'target' – just as they can't give a fuck if they pay 10x the pre-SMO price of gas to fill the tanks for next winter: it's not going to affect them one iota, because they face literally zero consequences for being wrong.

A bit like you – except that they're waaaay better-remunerated.

EU economies will survive the coldest months without serious harm — and they look set to start next winter in a strong position to do the same.

It's not the heating dumbass. The inexpensive gas fueled German manufacturing industries. The US natural gas being sold is minimally 4 times more expensive. The US, having stripped out its heavy industry manufacturing, is hoping to lure gas reliant industries to relocate in the US. Germany is the driver of the EU economy. You and Paul Craig Roberts make the same assumption – that Russia was in a position to crush the 2014 coup. There is an old saying: the Russians play chess, the Americans play checkers (with apologies to Bobby Fisher).

Minsk was entirely the right path. Crimea, already semi-autonomous even in Soviet times, had been promised a referendum on complete autonomy that kept getting postponed. Yes, Merkel and Hollande fessed up to it “buying time”, but take a look back over the last 8 years to look at Russia's weapons development and stockpiling. Minsk bought them time as well. Was the “Special Military Operation” a mistake, or was it the opening move of the chess match expecting the US to do what the chosenite neo-cons always do, overplay their hand? Russia is locked, loaded, and stockpiled. NATO is looking for the key to the gun safe to check on how much more ammo they have.

Anyone with an ounce of intelligence could see from the get-go that the US and allies did this. Why would Russia want to bomb their own infrastructure, because they want to cut off their nose to spite their face? Only an idiot would ever think Russia did this. The only question was who else was involved, and looks like the Polish and Scandinavian cucks are all part of this terrorist act. Of course Norway and the US have the most to gain because we can now replace Russia as Germany's largest energy source.

Nevertheless Germany's complete silence on this front shows how cowardly they have become. Their media is entirely Jew owned like ours and the rest of the Anglosphere, and Germans today are some of the most brainwashed people on earth, along with the Brits and Scandinavians. The British have gone from the most morally upright nation during the Victorian age to now the most depraved degenerates on the planet. I just watched the recent Russian version of Nicolai Gogol's Taras Bulba after watching the Hollywood version from the 60s. Interesting that Hollywood transformed Bulba into Yul Brynner and Andrea into the good looking but Swarthy Jewish actor Tony Curtis. The father and sons were clearly Asiatic.

Gogol wrote at the same time as Walter Scott give or take few years. Very Rob Roy or Ivanhoe.

The Russian version was better as it used Yankel the Jew as a somewhat sympathetic Jew, rather than erase the key iago or Fagan character.

It's a pity that Taras killed his own fair haired son. I'm not sure if Gogol exactly endorsed the action but I liked Andrei's Sentimental sort of love for the Polish aristocrat. It made more sense in the Russian film that Andrei would leave his own folk for the maiden.

Gogol was clearly an imperialist of the Tsarist variety of course.

@PUTINFAN

That makes a lot more sense. And to hit the control center of the British parliament they should hit the Rothschild bank in the City of London. The members of parliament are their puppets.

Ideally there would be a parallel movement in Britain to take down the Talmudist banking cult. That would be a tough fight because they would get the full Jeremy Corbyn treatment.

A related logical target would be the JP Morgan bank in NYC, the Rothschild bank's main American tentacle. Another would be the Knesset in Israel.

The suffering caused by this evil hydra is beyond calculation.

I commend Hersh for bringing the whole thing to life. I cannot judge the chapter and verse accuracy of what he claims.

However.

One of the best of the Sherlock Holmes stories is "The Adventure of Silver Blaze." The clue was the "dog that didn't bark". IMO, it was known within a day or two after the explosion who did it and how. But, the dog didn't bark.

Hence, Hersh's "revelations" merely reflect my opinion formed a few days after the explosion. The dog didn't bark.

It was obvious by inspection.

Note that the Cackler in Chief has had a VERY low public profile of late. The next step will be carefully constructed positive exposures of her. If it takes, Slow Joe will suddenly develop some malady, or need to spend more time with his family.

Their BIG problem will be that it will no longer be possible to keep her incognito. The obvious back up plan would be to appoint a more palatable VP, then have HER need to spend more time with her family. Unfortunately, there is no actual requirement for a VP. The VP has to be confirmed by a majority vote of both houses. The GOP House can simply refuse to confirm the proposed VP. That is assuming a backbone on the part of the GOP. No evidence of such ever having been seen.

It's not one word (rather a term), but they can be called 'secular moral absolutists'.

I agree that it is a term that can be composed of several words. The Current Thing is interesting, didn't know about it before.

The phenomenon you allude to is 'secular moral absolutism', and it obviously governs a lot more than just attitudes about Russia/Ukraine.

Exactly, it is much broader than U/R which I only mentioned as a trigger. Your proposal is interesting, it probably remains in reality, but I don't think it is appropriate for this phenomenon.

Let's imagine that some completely new situation/phenomenon happens that has nothing to do with U/R and each of the mentioned disparate groups automatically takes a 100% unified position without any exceptions. What is the common thread that connects them?

Perhaps the US gov has come to regret the balloon thing. It will remain alive in comedy for many moons. And may have cost them the proxy war. Oh, they will be working hard even as we speak, but we on every continent will be Veeeeeryyy slow to forgive them. And we all got a laugh out of it. Even the ravens in my neighbourhood look askance at me as I come out in the morning and frantically search the heavens for suspect balloons. They are; as always, sympathetic, and of course would never suggest that I have lost my marbles.

I don't find it that odd. That's a very difficult story to tell because it's so vast and sprawling. It's hard to hold people's attention, and it's hard to believe for people who have not been exposed to a lot of evidence. Look at all the work that has gone into just the 9/11 story, which is only one part of the larger story.

Also, it's a dangerous story to tell. Even most independent websites are afraid to really go there. Unz Review is exceptional in allowing the commenters to discuss it. But the articles don't go there, yet.

Hersh's specialty is getting a solid inside lead on a particular event, and then digging that up thoroughly.

@putinandhisfansaremorons

The Russian military is fighting over the garbage dump of Bakhmut for months without making any progress against a military with inferior personnel to the EU and that's fighting with handed over military surplus quoted at sticker prices

Bakhmut is a strategic center for the region. The Russians are using only what they need for troops to grind up ("the meat grinder") the enemy at a kill ratio of about 7 to 1. In spite of these unsustainable losses, Ukraine continues to pour in troops for optics and propaganda purposes. Wars are won by the amount of men standing; land acquisition is fluid and fleeting. Of course you knew that. You're just pretending to be ignorant. My sources: Col. D. MacGregor, Cape Scott Ritter, Gonsalvo Lira, and Zenlenski's Chief of Command.

1)it has a lower life expectancy because drinking yourself in an early grave is better than being Russian

A meaningless sentence that you obviously contains useful information.

Alcohol Consumption In Russia Has Declined By 43% Since 2003

<https://www.addictioncenter.com/news/2019/10/alcohol-consumption-russia-decline/>

2)it's so corrupt you can have an illegal mercenary group that recruits out of prison with the consent of the government LOL

Illegal? Corrupt? Wagner Group are paid mercenaries and volunteers. Prisoners, teenagers yanked from their homes, retired men pressed into service-for slaughter-is what is going on in Ukraine. All the best troops have been killed, the Azov and similar Neo-Nazi groups have been liquidated.

The US and NATO, in the last year, have poured in money and equipment to Ukraine that exceeds Russia's total military expenditure. That doesn't count the billions since the Minsk Accords.

You know all that, of course.

You're so dumb, at the cost of a few dozen billion dollars, DC managed to get:

1)future spending on military hardware – most of the warehoused stuff going to Ukraine is quoted at replacement price and this war is a great excuse to throw out equipment you were going to decommission while also funding the new gear.

2)NATO will most likely gain Sweden and Finland as members. The former has an outsized military industrial complex for their size and the latter has a large reservist force that's actually being trained unlike the Russian trash.

That's a lot of slurs and name calling, but no real data, evidence, or factual content. In fact, nothing you have provided has a source or any connection or reference-except the the bobbing heads of the other shot slurpers at your wimpy bar. You are saying constant wars are by design and are beneficial for the American Whatever It Is? Great way to clear out stockpiled weapons and order new ones. You qualify for a high position at Raytheon, Lockheed Martin, etc.

I didn't know about "the outsized military industrial complex of Sweden, a country of 12 million people". But thanks for enlightening me.

3)Russia will diminish as a provider of weaponry to other countries because this war will make them cancel deliveries and they'll need to transition to not using any Western tech in making them.

Russia actually has a growing digital and electronics production capacity. China provides and will provide Russia with its chip needs. Most military applications DO NOT use high end chips and hardware. The military uses specially designed, hardened, and MilSpec for its needs. Western "reliance" on technology by Russia is disappearing and will be non-existent within a short period. Both India and China can provide reverse engineered units and are doing so. India is tooling up to produce replacement parts for Western machinery. You knew this, but are just making a joke, right?

4)Russia won't sell energy to the EU anymore and without access to tech, it will have lower economic growth. It would be hilarious if the EU stopped insuring any Russian ships and Russia would have to keep pumping oil and gas despite having no market because many of their wells are in the permafrost and once you finish drilling, your infrastructure is fucked.

You need to offer your services to one of the premier American think tanks. Or one of the ZIONist controlled multi-media conglomerates. Talent like yours should not be kept a secret in a nondescript wimpy bar where the toilets are never cleaned.

5)Russia's demography will be wrecked by this war. Not only will tens of thousands if not 100k+ vodka drinkers would have died by the end of this war, but close to a million moved abroad and the longer this takes, the fewer will ever return. The list can go on such as getting Russian escorts and camwhores at a discount for another generation. lol

Every respected, combat veteran, independent analysts assays that Russia's GDP is larger now than before the SMO, the Ruble is stronger against the Euro, the economy is so strong that no changes or war time modifications are necessary. Weapons and materiel are being made faster than than they are consumed, whereas the West is depleted. Get. Stoltenberg admitted that the West cannot keep up with the Russians in armaments. Secretary Austin and Stoltenburg have said that Russia cannot be defeated, even with all the forces of NATO.

The US alone could crush Russia like a bug militarily, NATO overmatches Russia so greatly that not even fighting them or devoting 0.01% of NATO GDP to funding Ukraine had Russia mobilize and their entire war stall for months on end. All the kvetching about muh hypersonic missiles is either Russian agitprop where they try to maintain relevance despite arguably not even being a top 5 military or agitprop by NATO to boost spending on defense.

You wrote this after the bartender cut you off, yes? You're a slob, low education, low information, low ethics, and low socio-economic status of the worst kind. You stay up, drink cheap whiskey and cry about what you might have become. A sad wretch out of a John Steinbeck novel.

You don't belong here, but on some bubble gum Western sight that rates you higher for slander and pejorative non-sequiturs and shrieking rants. I rate your blatherings here the same as indoctrinated women for whom facts and empirical reality are optional.

The Sequel: Jeffery Sachs strikes again.

Why should anyone be surprised to learn of US involvement in sabotage of the Nord Stream pipeline. Surprising part is Norway's involvement and absence of the UK's name as a participant. It would eventually come out after a few peeling of the onion.

People here in the US or around the world who dont watch US and Western media by choice or by luck had figured out good old USA the moment "Putin Did it" was shot in the air.

Not very talked about item is infighting between whitehorse Zionist and Pentagon where there are professionals and cool heads. (it is a blessing not too many Jews enlist in defense forces). It seems the Pentagon is winning the squabble by shooting down the high tech balloons of Alien invaders. And providing a source of coffee break comedy. Even the generators missing no time ro having fun with UFO jokes.

What happened to all those history channel documentaries showing UFOs jamming the electronic system of our planes.

One of the benefactors of the Pipeline blow up story is the famous manufactured whistleblower Jeffery Sachs. Who had been tooting his horn and his blowing high frequency whistle repeatedly. It seems he is an authorized and designated whistleblower that is why he is running around like a celebrity, having his youtube channel, Financial accounts intact, unlimited access to social media (no ban), appearing on major networks and in the middle of his statements being cut off for maximum impact. What a circus. Why is he invited to the show in the first place? Real repackaging of him as an icon.

Why is he not treated like whistleblowers or troublemakers like Assange, Snowden, Realty Winner and John Kiriakou.

NATO-led “Coalition of the Willing” ... I'll be damned

Long time ago while looking at the photos of US soldiers in Vietnam I saw letters UUUU on a couple of their helmets. Which meant “We the Unwilling, led by the Unknowing, are doing the Unnecessary for the Ungrateful”

Second part of this saying, which is “We have done so much, for so long, with so little, we are now qualified to do anything with nothing”, does not apply in this yet another NATO Crusade. I am reasoning by analogy:

Build Back Better !!!

(FJB's slogan and political catchphrase)

Nothing is being built, nothing is back and everything is getting worse.

Israel is in a bit of a panic. They became aware that the US was leaving the Middle East (being driven out) and that they would no longer have anyone to guarantee their security. That's why the previous Israeli prime minister gave an interview where he said that at the beginning of the war, Ukraine and Russia almost made an agreement, but the US and the UK prevented it. That was the task of Boris Johnston's sudden arrival in Kiev. With this, he wanted to reveal the background of the American effort to prolong the war.

He also said he had asked Putin if he intended to kill Zelensky. Putin answered negatively and he conveyed it to Zelensky. Before that, Zelenski was constantly hiding in the bunker, but right after that he started taking pictures and presenting himself as a hero in front of the cameras.

The very next day, Netanyahu called Putin to make a deal. Israel hopes that Russia, which has good relations with Iran, Egypt, Syria and S. Arabia, can guarantee their security. Israel had already withdrawn from the war in Ukraine before, and after that conversation immediately withdrew 527 of their instructors from Ukraine.

Pentagon looking to deliver thousands of 'Iranian weapons' to Ukraine: Report

US officials see the move as a 'punishment' against Iran for their alleged drone deliveries to Russia

By News Desk – February 15 2023

The US army is analyzing sending thousands of alleged Iranian weapons and over a million rounds of ammunition to Ukraine as part of Washington's latest bid to fuel the war against Russia.

According to unnamed US and European officials that spoke with the Wall Street Journal (WSJ), the arsenal would include over 5,000 assault rifles, 1.6 million rounds of small arms ammunition, a small number of antitank missiles, and more than 7,000 proximity fuses that were recently seized in the Gulf of Oman allegedly on their way to Yemen.

While this cache of weapons is small compared to what western nations have sent Ukraine over the past year, Pentagon officials reportedly see in the delivery a symbolic punishment for Iran supplying Russia with drones – a claim both Tehran and Moscow deny.

Stoltenberg is sure treading a fine line. He has been pushing this war for years, and he is guilty of war crimes for North Stream alone. He likely had much to do with Norway's involvement as well.

Stoltenberg's Nato has coerced the EU and most of Europe into going along with sanctions, war material deliveries, and even delivery of offensive weapons.

Stoltenberg recently stated in a speech that Nato has been at war with Russia since 2014.

Now he is helping to fuel a panic over ammunition.

The obvious conclusion is that Nato is taking off their velvet gloves and is about to show its steel fist to the European serfs who are now 100% dependent on US for its oil and gas, having alienated Russia.

Putin can keep on paying writers to write pro-Putin articles (just my hypothesis), but I don't believe it will change the fact that Russia and all Gentiles have lost the evolutionary wars to the Ashkenazim.

My hypothesis is that Putin is an extreme Genetic Sociopath who started this war just to increase the value of his stock portfolio, and to make sure he personally is safe in his mansion in Moscow. Putin was concerned that the Ashkenazim would launch a missile from Ukraine directly on his mansion, resulting in his death. Also, Putin, I hypothesis, owns a lot of stocks in natural resources companies, so he was concerned that Ukraine would be used to block the flow of Russia's natural resources to Europe, and this is the only reason Putin initiated a war against Ukraine.

If Putin was altruistic and Group Selected, he would have nuked the entire biosphere by now, using a strategy to ensure no human life remains alive. He would have come to the conclusion that Earth is ruled by an alliance between Lucifer and the Ashkenazim, and the only solution remaining is to bring forth the Day of Judgement by taking all humans to the Next Life.

Russia has already lost. The Ashkenazim will slowly kill off all Russian Slavs by continuing the Ukrainian war for the next one hundred years. As the Russian Slavs are slowly killed off, Putin, in order to ensure he collects enough taxes to pay his salary, and to ensure his stock portfolio value does not decrease, will continue to import millions of genetically primitive Brown people to replace all the Russian Slavs dying in Ukraine. In one hundred years, Russia will be a 100% genetically primitive Brown nation. They will do whatever the Ashkenazim say in exchange for resources. At this point, the Ashkenazim will take over Russia, and give the Brown people in Russia the cheap recreational activities they desire, such as pornography, junk foods, pop music, television, drugs, and so forth.

There is a fear of disloyalty of the Easter EU/NATO countries which is much more likely than disloyalty of western countries, that are fully integrated into the world imperialist system, its elites benefit from the imperialist plunder. In eastern Europe funding for compradors will become increasingly hard with weakening of dollars. Other classes have nothing to gain from the EU and NATO.

There isn’t any genuie anti imperialist mass movement in the west comparable to Czech protests for example.

Quotes from an interview of Seymore Hersh in the main German newspaper “Berliner Zeitung” –

The pipeline blew up because they were afraid of Germany withdrawing sanctions

Hersh described new details of the sabotage in an interview with the Berliner Zeitung. According to him, Biden was afraid of Germany’s exit from the sanctions regime and therefore decided to do blow up the gas pipeline.

“They were afraid of the coming winter,” Hersh said. “Since the implementation of the Nord Stream 2 project was suspended by Germany itself, and not by international sanctions, the United States was concerned that Germany would lift the sanctions due to winter cold.”

There were major disagreements in Washington over the conduct of the operation, notes the journalist. Many participants in the covert operation, who held “high positions in the secret service”, opposed this plan, “considering it insane

However, Biden would rather see Germany freeze than stop supporting Ukraine, Hersh said. “People who participated in the operation saw that the president was ready to freeze Germany in the name of his momentary political goals, and they were horrified by it.”

According to the reporter, in early February 2022, Biden told German Chancellor Olaf Scholz that he would “shut down” the pipeline. “However, he had no such plans at the time,” Hersh said.

Why was the sabotage postponed?

The sabotage was supposed to take place in June 2022, but it was postponed at the very last moment – due to the White House being “nervous”.

“But at the last moment, the White House got nervous. The president said he was afraid to do it. He changed his mind and demanded that the bomb could be detonated remotely at any time,” said the American journalist.

As a result, charges were placed on the gas pipelines in June, during NATO naval exercises in the Baltic Sea, and the decision to detonate was not made until September. Due to the explosives remaining underwater for too long, only six of the eight bombs exploded.

Hersh also explained why Norway decided to participate in the operation. According to him, Oslo wanted to increase gas supplies from Europe rather than Russian gas. Moreover, in Norway, many people in leadership positions feel hostility towards Russia.

How did the United States react to sabotage?

Hersh said many participants in the operation were against her. “Shortly after the attack, after doing as they were ordered, the participants in the operation felt a lot of anger and rejection. That’s one of the reasons I learned so much,” he explained.

“It scares me that the president is ready for something like this,” the reporter said. – And the people who carried out this mission believed that the president was aware of what he was doing to the German people, whom he was punishing. And in the long run, it will not only damage his reputation as president, but also cause serious political damage. It will be a stigma for the United States.”

According to Hersh, even within the CIA, many were extremely unhappy with America’s treatment of its ally. “Even this community is horrified that Biden has chosen to expose Europe to the cold in order to support a conflict in which he will not win. For me, it’s disgusting,” concluded the journalist.

So the US did not want such a thorny issue to enter the political arena, which would have happened sooner or later by the hand of AFD, the only party that still defends the maintenance of trade relations with Russia. The closure or not of the gas pipeline would have been an issue that would have been hanging for months in all the German media in the heat of the Russian/Ukrainian war, putting the entire traditional political structure that slavishly follow whashington orders in an impossible situation and giving a strong political capital to the nationalists , aspirations that would have legitimized in the eyes of many a movement/party marked to death . Kill the debate before its start with the tacit aproval of the german stablishment

<https://www.zerohedge.com/geopolitical/rickards-horrifying-endgame-ukraine>

Authored by James Rickards via DailyReckoning.com,

In yesterday's issue, I addressed the biggest and most complex topic on the geopolitical landscape today — China.

But today I'm discussing what is by far the most alarming topic on the geopolitical landscape today. That's the war in Ukraine and the dangers of escalation.

I've written extensively about two facets of the war in Ukraine that you don't hear from legacy media in the United States or U.K.

The first is that Russia is actually winning the war.

U.S. outlets such as The New York Times (a channel for the State Department) and The Washington Post (a channel for the CIA) report endlessly about how Russian plans have failed, about how incompetent they are about how the Armed Forces of Ukraine (AFU) have pushed back Russians in the Donbass, and how NATO weapons such as U.S. Abrams tanks, U.K. Challenger tanks and German Leopard tanks will turn the tide against Russia soon.

This is all nonsense. None of it is true.

Reality Check

First off, the Ukrainian advances that took place in late summer were against lightly defended positions that the Russians quickly conceded to conserve forces. The Russians were willing to give up the land so that they wouldn't lose valuable men and materiel.

The Russians withdrew to more defensible positions and have been badly mauling Ukrainian attacking forces ever since. Ukraine has wasted incredibly large amounts of men and equipment in these futile and ill-advised attacks.

In all, credible reports indicate that AFU casualties are nearing 500,000 and are increasing at an unsustainable rate. On the other hand, reports of 100,000 Russian dead are almost certainly wild exaggerations put out by Ukraine. The BBC attempted to verify these numbers and could only find about 20,000 confirmed Russian dead based on extensive searches on funeral notices, public records, etc.

When the NATO tanks do arrive, they'll likely quickly be destroyed by Russian artillery, anti-tank weapons and precision missiles. They're good tanks, but far from invincible. For decades, the Russians have been developing powerful weapons specifically designed to destroy these NATO tank models. The Russians aren't particularly worried about them.

Aside from that, tanks rely on effective air cover for protection, which Ukraine lacks. They'll be sitting ducks on the battlefield. It doesn't really make sense to send tanks to Ukraine unless you send combat aircraft to give them cover (more on that below).

Russia's Winning on the Battlefield

Meanwhile, Russian forces have nearly encircled the city of Bakhmut, which is a major transportation and logistics hub, with several key roads and rail lines passing through it. It'll probably fall to the Russians within weeks.

Losing Bakhmut will be a major blow to Ukraine, despite claims in the western media that it really isn't very important. Ukraine's entire 800-mile defensive line would probably begin to crumble, and they don't have heavily fortified positions to fall back on. Ukrainian troops, while brave and competent soldiers, are exhausted and running out of supplies as it is.

On top of that, it appears likely that Russia is preparing a devastating offensive with massive amounts of men, tanks, armored personnel carriers, artillery, helicopters, drones and fixed-wing aircraft.

This Russian army is not the same army that invaded Ukraine a year ago. It's much better trained, led and equipped. It's learned from the mistakes it made during its initial invasion last February. Ukraine shouldn't expect them to repeat those mistakes.

That analysis leads me to believe that Russia will win the war militarily. Western military assistance may prolong the fighting but won't affect the ultimate outcome. It'll just delay the inevitable and get a lot more people needlessly killed.

"If the Party could thrust its hand into the past and say of this or that event, it never happened — that, surely, was more terrifying than mere torture and death?

The Party said that Oceania had never been in alliance with Eurasia. He, Winston Smith, knew that Oceania had been in alliance with Eurasia as short a time as four years ago. But where did that knowledge exist? Only in his own consciousness, which in any case must soon be annihilated."

(1984)

IMHO this coalition-building BS is necessary to avoid formal declaration of war. The US throughout it's history declared war 11 times but the ACTUAL number of wars being fought was 25 times more.

How Many Times Has the US Officially Declared War?

NATO Chief Admits: “War Didn’t Start In February Last Year, The War Started In 2014”

Tyler Durden’s Photo

by Tyler Durden

Thursday, Feb 16, 2023 – 08:40 PM

With the one-year anniversary of Russia’s Feb.24, 2022 invasion of Ukraine just around the corner, NATO secretary general Jens Stoltenberg this week issued some surprising words regarding the history and origin of the conflict. In essence he finally admitted an important truth, which is of course extremely rare among top Western officials these days.

Whereas prior to these fresh remarks by Stoltenberg, US and NATO officials including major media, have framed the invasion exclusively as merely one man’s (Putin) ‘unprovoked’ naked aggression bent on enlarging an ‘expansionist Russia’, Stoltenberg now much belatedly admits “the war didn’t start in February last year. The war started in 2014.”

”NATO has been training the Ukrainian military since 2014, NATO partners have been supplying the Ukrainian armed forces with the necessary weapons and training since 2014” — Jens Stoltenbergs admits again

“Unprovoked invasion”...pic.twitter.com/Qa8shKSWXx

— AZ (@AZgeopolitics) February 14, 2023

Here’s what the NATO chief said during a briefing to reporters, and in front of cameras, as also transcribed and published to NATO’s official website...

“The other thing I will say is that the war didn’t start in February last year. The war started in 2014. And since 2014, NATO Allies have provided support to Ukraine, with training, with equipment, so the Ukrainian Armed Forces were much stronger in 2022, than they were in 2020, and 2014. And of course, that made a huge difference when President Putin decided to attack Ukraine,” Stoltenberg said.

In the Russian view, the United States has the ability and willingness to unilaterally destroy or overthrow any government that does not do its bidding. The experience of Serbia (1999), Iraq (2003), Syria (2011), Libya (2011), and most recently Ukraine (2014) and the attempt in Belarus (2021) seem to support their perspective.

Those who are going on about Russia's "imperial ambitions" under "Communist dictator Vladimir Putin" have little knowledge about any of this, or why the Russians might feel legitimately threatened by having a US-sponsored and NATO-aligned regime for a neighbor.

Consider: for over two hundred years, the American "Monroe Doctrine" has stated that no foreign power will be allowed to form a military alliance with any nation in the entire Western Hemisphere. This is the bedrock principle of American foreign policy.

Compare this to Europe. Kiev and Moscow are separated by a mere 470 miles of flat land. What Russian leader in their right mind would allow an "anti-Russia" to be created and then armed in its own back yard?

It's not like any of this is a new concern. The Russians have been straight forward about this concern for thirty years, right up to the last ditch public appeal they delivered in December. Recall that ideological fanatics occupying our foreign service responded by sending massive shipments full of weapons into Ukraine, and then tweeted out photos of the cargo aircraft flying them in.

Just read Gogol, Chekhov, Pushkin, Dostoievsky, they were no better than the Brownest of the Brown, and this is not because USSR has skimmed off the former elite : there never was. Most of the ME countries are far more breathable intellectually than Russia. Actually the only decent people in Russia are of partial Jewish or other like ME ascendancy with the difference they just don’t identify to Zion as individuals, and that was already Chekhov’s remark long before USSR took over. Russians always talk about pornography and about the prostitutes they are too poor to pay, about the Western junk food they cannot even afford, the pop music they try to smuggle, the TV they complain is always 20th on the Western programs, about drugs, about cars... and when Chekhov wrote they were likewise. Any intelligent remark was a guarantee you would be cancelled. Slavic girls are interesting for their booty and tits, never anything more, and that is why Ukraine can seduce the West.

The Ashkenazim won’t take over Russia. They are the ones that make it work as the half-modern half-oriental despotic system it is now, the day they are just fed up and displace their wealth to New Zealand or Israel Russia falls back into one thousand warring tribes ... unless they are replaced with browner people in which case they can work nearly as well as Saudi Arabia from resource extraction only or like Iraq did under Sadam Hussein.

I'll have to call down to etymology on this. I can't escape the full clarity of meaning in the use of "shithole" for example...

A) Joe Biden is a shithole

B) Mike Pompeo is a heretic shithole

C) Jeffrey Epstein had shitholes for friends

However I see completely your point and accept the use as in...

D) The White House is a shithole

E) Haiti is a shithole like the city of Baltimore is a shithole

But can you refer to a place geographically as a 'shithole' apart from the people who make it a shithole?

Washington D.C. was a nice place once before all the shitholes took over. You see my problem?

Additionally the complex problem of both place and people in an extended mix of descriptive manner...

For example again... Would Edward Snowden describe the CIA as an unconstitutional criminal shithole? I would say yes he would.

Or... Mossad is an anti-Christ shithole organization like AIPAC. The FBI is a shithole. In all 3 illustrations people are described without giving specific reference to geographic place. How about this... The Department of Justice and most lawyers are all a bunch of shitholes?

And who decides what is truth and justice? Do you? Is invading a country truth and justice?

17 February 2015

S/RES/2202

http://www.securitycouncilreport.org/atf/cf/%7B65BF9B-6D27-4E9C-8CD3-CF6E4FF96FF9%7D/s\_res\_2202.pdf

This was a resolution that endorsed the “Package of measures for the Implementation of the Minsk Agreements” signed on 12 February 2015

And we saw what happened; Mme Merkel told us that the Minsk Agreements were only ever a ruse to give Ukraine time to arm, and meanwhile Ukraine attacked the Donbas continuously, finally in late Feb’22 massing for an apparent intended genocide of mostly Russian-speaking residents of the Donbas, whose citizens then chose to join Russia [see Article 1(2) of the UN Charter ... the principle of equal rights and self-determination ...] and Russia then began its SMO to protect [= R2P] those new citizens [= Section 51:]

Article 51 of the UN Charter outlines that self-defence is an exception to the prohibition against the use of force, noting: ‘Nothing in the present Charter shall impair the inherent right of individual or collective self-defence if an armed attack occurs ...

Note that Ukraine started it all by attacking the Donbas [=“armed attack” including mass-killing] its at that time “own people,” actually forcing Russia to respond, just as the criminal strategists in zusa had cynically calculated.

Seems to me, that those who write such nonsense as “Is invading a country truth and justice” re Russia’s SMO are a) stupidly misinformed and b) nastily malicious with it, so c) are not capable of rational argument.

Startup Claims It's Sending Sulfur Into the Atmosphere to Fight Climate Change

Make Sunsets sells “cooling credits” for $10 and alleges that 1 gram of sulfur particles offsets the impacts of 1 ton of carbon emissions.

Make Sunsets uses weather balloons that climb high into the stratosphere, releasing small clouds of sulfur particles. According to the company, one gram of sulfur released into the upper atmosphere counteracts one ton of carbon emissions for a period of one year. Scientists have been studying this form of geoengineering in the abstract for years — it mimics the natural release of sulfur in volcanic eruptions, which can lower temperatures as the particles reflect small amounts of sunlight. But doing it intentionally could have unforeseen consequences.

Geoengineering is a fact, and has been for decades. It is not a hypothesis like AGW. You are the denier.

@meamjojo

Seymore Hersh and Nord Stream, the “Fog of War”, and the “Smokescreen of War”.

Nobody knows what’s happening in military operations. “Nothing is either as good or as bad as first reported” is a truism. In a noisy communication environment, it can sometimes be advantageous to increase the noise, in the same way that the use of tactical smoke can be an advantage in offensive operations — it reduces the enemy’s available time for target acquisition and effective fire. Confusion is an integral part of warfare and of any conflict.

In any conflict there are “information operations”. Usually these operations are intended either to paralyze one side (“S1”) by creating opposition to S1 among another group, call it “S2”. Call such operations “Level 1” operations. Hersh’s release did that, as did his release of Mai Lai and Abu Grahb. For that matter, most of the articles on unz.com do that. You need only look at their emotive writing style to see that their intent is to evoke an emotion rather than to inform. Hersh at least drops the attempt to gather sympathy, but phrases his reports in such a way as to utterly condemn authority.

A “Level 2” operation would try to counter Level 1 operations by denying the fidelity of the Level 1 message. ” Blowing Holes in Seymour Hersh’s Pipe Dream ” (<https://oalexanderdk.substack.com/p/blowing-holes-in-seymour-hershs-pipe> ) is a reasonable candidate for a Level 2 message (hence ronaldo’s “Troll” remark).

The problem for commenters on Unz is that they can’t see through the “Fog of War” any better than anybody else, and can’t accept the word of those who can sometimes look through the “Fog of War” because these same people conduct their own Level 1 and Level 2 operations.

So we end up paralyzed, waiting for the fog to lift and waiting so long that it is too late to react to the reported event.

The long term result of Hersh’s work is enhancement of the chance that Germany will renounce its status as a US client government and resume its transition to a more independent Russian Federation trading partner. Since this renunciation and resumption has been inevitable ever since Germany started buying its raw materials from Russia, Hersh’s report will at most speed things up a bit (if Hersh’s report is accepted), or slow them down a bit (if Hersh’s report is rejected).

And that’s all I can get out of this entire Hersh affair. I suspect that it is all any commenter can get out of this entire Hersh affair.

The neocons have found out that they are running low on allies. In Western Europe, the UK will stay with them til the bitter end, but that's about it. Germany, France, Italy, Spain, Belgium, Sweden, Greece and the Netherlands were not keen to get involved from the start. And after having had their gas and oil supplies and economies wrecked by their prime ally (with such friends, who needs enemies?), their support to the US will not go far beyond lipservice, funds and some equipment.

So, what allies and fighting buddies can be found in middle and eastern Europe? Hungary, Austria, the Czech Republic and the Balkan won't budge (especially the Serbs remember the taste of US treason), so no gains can be had from those regions either.

After pondering that, the neocons may have just checked on a map what the entire western border of Russia looks like, from the Arctic down south to the Black Sea and the Mediterranean. It's interesting, check it on a map for yourself. First there is Finland, then there are by the Baltic states Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania, followed by Belarus and the Ukraine (with both of them having Poland as their western neighbour), and Georgia and Azerbaidjan (with both of them having Turkey as their western neighbour) as the last ones in the south.

Finland wants to be a NATO member and hasn't been raped by the US yet, so it will be an ally. The Baltic states hate Russia; they may be small but they will be allies. Belarus is pro-Russian. The Ukraine is already engaged in battle and Georgia can only be a port of entry if Erdogan leaves the stage due to his poor earthquake management and is replaced by a US-obeying puppet, which will make Turkey an ally, too.

But Finland and the Baltic states are hesitant to face the Russians head-on, even with US, UK and NATO assistance. Poland is eager, because of its zealous military leadership, and its intense hatred for Russians. Polish soldiers are determined, tough and show utmost bravery, but also realism. They should know; there are a lot of casualties in their ranks, as they make up almost 30% of the current "Ukranian" forces. It is the generals who are delusional, and who overestimate the Polish influence, and not for the first time.

With Poland added to the coalition of the willing, the US seems to want to first deal with Belarus, as it is the only western neighbour that will not be an ally. After that, the Pentagon perhaps hopes to have some sort of "front of influence" that can be shoved eastward, towards Moscow.

The coalition may also cut off logistics toward the Kaliningrad oblast and the Russian navy's Baltic fleet. But it won't work out like that. Lukashenko has good relations with Putin and Russian will come to Belarus's aid, with the protection of the logistics to Kaliningrad as one of the main reasons.

The Rand corporation has already advised Washington to pack it in and focus on China, and the heavy losses among Polish soldiers and the proven destruction of the gas pipeline will bring doubts in the mind of the willing, on whether it is wise to keep following against better judgment and own interests, or recognize the US for the traitor that it is and abandon it. If they keep hanging on, a bloodbath will await them.

Even if we were sure that human pollution is not affecting the weather by warning or otherwise — why would we be sanguine about continuing to pump deadly poisons into the air, water, and crop lands by burning massive amounts of oil, gas and still coal?

It’s unrealistic, impoverishing, and cruel to crash our fossil-fuel energy supplies quickly, as anti-human enviro extremists wish to do.

But it is also anti-human to keep up the widespread poisoning of our children’s air, water and food chain for another century or until these supplies run out.

Reduced energy use per capita, mass subsidized recycling, and the gradual replacement of most of our filthy oil/coal/natgas by nuclear power seem to be in order, even if man-made “global warming” is a scam.

Those “values” often are “democracy” or “human rights” — that is, supposedly someday we’ll protect the rights of those who survive the US’s bombing, terror, and destruction of their factories, hospitals, schools and infrastructure, anyway.

From the get-go this was always, obviously Korean War II. CIA's repetition compulsion ensures it. The UN was to be manipulated to scrape up cannon fodder. CIA would try out its germ warfare. The rump state was to be run by a KCIA-type CIA branch and garrison. The [U]KCIA would bribe US VIPs for CIA control. Nuke threats would keep everything under control.

Certain things are different now. Russia is not boycotting the UN but leading it as primus inter pares. Back then the enemy didn't fight, as Izzie Stone tells us in his Hidden History. This time Russia brought WW III and kicked the Langley Zionazis' ass. China blew up FTX and exposed the VIP-bribery slush fund that CIA skimmed off Ukie warbucks. Most importantly, the US shitcanned its defense industrial base and crippled its military with terminal corruption, while Russia leapfrogged the US, qualitatively and quantitatively.

Russia don't want to play Korea War. Let us hope the Red Army levels the beltway and plants their flag on the ruins of the NHB.

And this will be the obverse of the $70 coin that we put into vending machines to buy a coke.

I absolutely agree! The coin you showed is a commemoration coin minted in 2015, celebrating the 70th anniversary of the 1945 victory over Nazi Germany (“70 let pobedy”). https://supermonetki.ru/product\_info.php?products\_id=5224.

I don't believe the Green religion really wants nuclear and of course the Bankers don't want cheap, affordable energy since that would cut profits. The rate of technological development is such that if there was a will to develop a real clean inexpensive energy source, not the solar/wind pipe dreams, in 10 years fossil fuels may be unnecessary but the Oligarchs won't let that happen.

Do I think Joe did it ? Sure. Sounds logical. But what happens when our military resources dwindle, as they already are ? My guess: the endgame probably has something to do with China, who watches us patiently while they use Russia to play the jackrabbit and Joe to play Elmer Fudd, all to waist us away. It will be difficult to fight on two fronts in two countries with little ammo left.

Green realism is not a 'religion' but cold-eyed determination to preserve Life on Earth. Denialism, of course, is the dead heart and hand of those who follow the money religion. Nuclear is not required. Wind, solar, geothermal, tide, wave power and greater efficiency in use and transmission can do the job already, but technological advances will make it even easier.

Speaking of psycho sluts....

“Ambassador for Feminist Foreign Policy” – Annalena Burbock intends to introduce such a position in the German Foreign Ministry.

According to Der Spiegel, on March 1, the ministry will present a draft “feminist doctrine”, according to which the main criterion for selection for the diplomatic service will be knowledge of the principle of gender equality and “diversity”.

The document also provides for the allocation of up to €1 million to German diplomatic missions abroad for “queer cultural events”, and a major LGBT conference is planned for 2024.

In addition, Berlin is going to increase the number of women among the leadership of the central office of the Foreign Ministry and embassies abroad, the newspaper notes.

I have been saying it from the very beginning. All these Euro bimbo feminists are happy that hundreds of thousands of young men are dying in the war that they themselves worked so hard to get started.

Revelation 18

New King James Version

The Fall of Babylon the Great

18 After these things I saw another angel coming down from heaven, having great authority, and the earth was illuminated with his glory. 2 And he cried [a]mightily with a loud voice, saying, "Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and has become a dwelling place of demons, a prison for every foul spirit, and a cage for every unclean and hated bird! 3 For all the nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth have become rich through the [b]abundance of her luxury."

4 And I heard another voice from heaven saying, "Come out of her, my people, lest you share in her sins, and lest you receive of her plagues.

You can bet that those LGBT+ diplomats will be sent to Muslim countries where under cover of diplomatic immunity they will practice their vile deviant acts with locals. Their local victims will then be arrested, prosecuted, jailed or executed so as to cause dissatisfaction among the families and friends of their victims and spread social strife. The diplomats themselves may inform on their victims to the Sharia police while moving onto a next victim. If the diplomats are expelled they're replaced with other LGBT+ types and it continues. SOP of Western diplomacy. Provocation, antagonism, no respect for local laws and customs which one would expect from diplomacy. Expect LGBT+ deviants to flock to the diplomatic services.

Here's a report on recent events in Serbia from the Saker blog.

<https://thesaker.is/urgent-appeal-to-the-world-stop-repression-against-journalists-in-serbia/>

And BBC's view:

The BBC claims Serbians are beating up Ukrainian and Russian refugees. I find that hard to believe. Even though those anti-Russian refugees are committing provocative acts I very much doubt that Serbians physically assault them. They don't even beat up Arab and Muslim refugees who are doing much worse things.

Hersh's Nordstream sabotage facticle, about Sullivan chairing a meeting? All the spokesmodels fixate on it to imply that there is a US government distinct from CIA.

Sullivan was personal dogsbody to CIA nomenclatura Hillary and Obama. Hillary has worked for CIA since she ratfucked Nixon for Watergate, stealing and concealing crucial documents. She is the consort of Bill, comprador of Mena, who got promoted to president on the strength of his drug-smuggling service to CIA. And Obama is a third generation spook brat, a BCI intern groomed from youth for the presidential figurehead post and surveilled at the ECI level for fail-safe vetting.

<https://www.lewrockwell.com/2010/09/wayne-madsen/the-story-of-obama-allinthecompany/>

So let's not be coy. Sullivan has worked for CIA since 2008. (Or maybe before! His prof Guido Calabrese, who gave him his first job, was the guy who qualified property rights with blank-check CIA type "other justice considerations." Those have been handy in shielding CIA from inter alia C.F.R. § 0.160 or § 0.164, when DoD materiel falls off the truck and gets sold on (ask Seymour about CIA's ratline to Benghazi!))

In states of emergency, like we've been in continually for two decades, CIA initiates DoD action by forwarding emergency problems for immediate action pending decision by the NSC that CIA staffs.

<https://irp.fas.org/offdocs/nscid-6.pdf>

This is how CIA attacked unauthorized presidential aspirant Donald Trump. This is how the government works. The interagency Punch & Judy shows are sleight of hand.

This is a CIA crime.

We now hear that the Minsk agreement was just a delaying tactic to allow the Ukraine to arm and dig in, and that Germany was party to this. We should ask ourselves if the Nordstream 2 pipeline Germany was involved in may not also have been part of this same, but longer term, delaying tactic to give Russia a false impression that Germany and the EU may not actually be hostile but willing and honest trading partners?

NATO treaty parties need countermeasures to the US breach of Article 1 by undeclared war of sabotage, banned biological weapons, and sending of armed bands or irregulars. They can treat this as a US crime against peace or as an internationally wrongful act in breach of jus cogens.

Countries could of course invoke Article 13 and denounce the treaty. Short of just quitting, treaty parties could also invoke Article 12 and review the treaty to withdraw support for US crimes against peace or even dissolve the pact. CIA's duplicitous proceedings can be cited to suspend compliance with the pact. Under Article 7 any member could subordinate NATO action to full UNSC Chapter 7 authority. This would cripple NATO, because the whole point of it is end-running the Security Council. Article 5 is written to require nothing, as it includes a discretionary necessity test. NATO satellites come under heavy pressure to make some public gesture (send some busted tanks or rusty guns) but they could use their discretion to opt out of US crimes against peace and do nothing. Europe could go to the ICJ for an advisory opinion on US compliance with the treaty, bringing up CIA crimes.

https://www.nato.int/cps/en/natolive/official\_texts\_17120.htm

So really, the NATO Charter itself does not bind the satellite state. As US international standing leaks away, European states will be able to regain their sovereignty. NATO's just a fig leaf for CIA bribes and kiddy-fucking tapes.
