Bill Gates varoval před pravděpodobnou občanskou válkou. Covid má pravdu. Jeho stolní simulace pandemie na Johns Hopkins Bloomberg School of Public Health předpověděla skutečnou věc měsíce před oficiálním vypuknutím. Dokonce věděl, že si mRNA vakcíny nechá patentovat. Vzhledem k jeho dosavadní historii Oracle of Delphi beru jeho předpovědi vážně.

Umím trochu makrofyziky na úrovni figuríny. Kvantová fyzika je mimo můj dosah. Zákon o přeměně energie říká, že energii nelze vytvářet ani ničit, pouze přenášet. V určitém okamžiku se týraná populace naštvě. Stejně jako pára unikající z vypouštěcího ventilu tlakového hrnce, ten hněv musí někam jít. Buď směrem nahoru k vládnoucí třídě, nebo ubohý slint versus ubohý sloup. V opačném případě exploduje jako šrapnelová bomba z nerezové oceli a všechny v kuchyni zabije.

Při vytváření Spojených států si Otcové zakladatelé vypůjčili z modelu římské republiky. Římská říše nikdy nezažila revoluce. Řím vedl občanské války podporované oligarchy. Obecným pravidlem je, že až do kolapsu globální impéria zažívají občanské války, nikoli revoluce. Je ironií, že stejně jako římská plutokratická republika, i americká plutokratická republika se stala nefunkčně zkorumpovanou a proměnila se v mafiánské globální impérium. Jako spisovatel sci-fi Philip K. Dick opakoval ve svém románu „Valis“ – „(Římská) říše nikdy neskončila“.

Pokud impérium vyváží svou válečnou mašinerii globálně, v určitém okamžiku se tato válečná mašinerie vrátí domů. Duchovní zákony karmy a sekulární teorie CIA blowback tuto myšlenku podporují. Na základě zmíněných pseudoteorémů si myslím, že stojí za to si představit, jak by mohla vypadat občanská válka v USA 2.0. Existuje příliš mnoho proměnných na to, abychom přesně věděli, jak by to dopadlo, ale pomocí dohadů se pokusím dát dohromady zkrácený hrubý teoretický model.

Stejně jako píseň Rolling Stones „Gimme Shelter“ říká:

„Ach, hrozí bouře. Můj dnešní život.

Pokud nedostanu nějaké útočiště. Ooh, ano, vyhasnu válku, děti. Je to jen kousek. Je to jen kousek.“

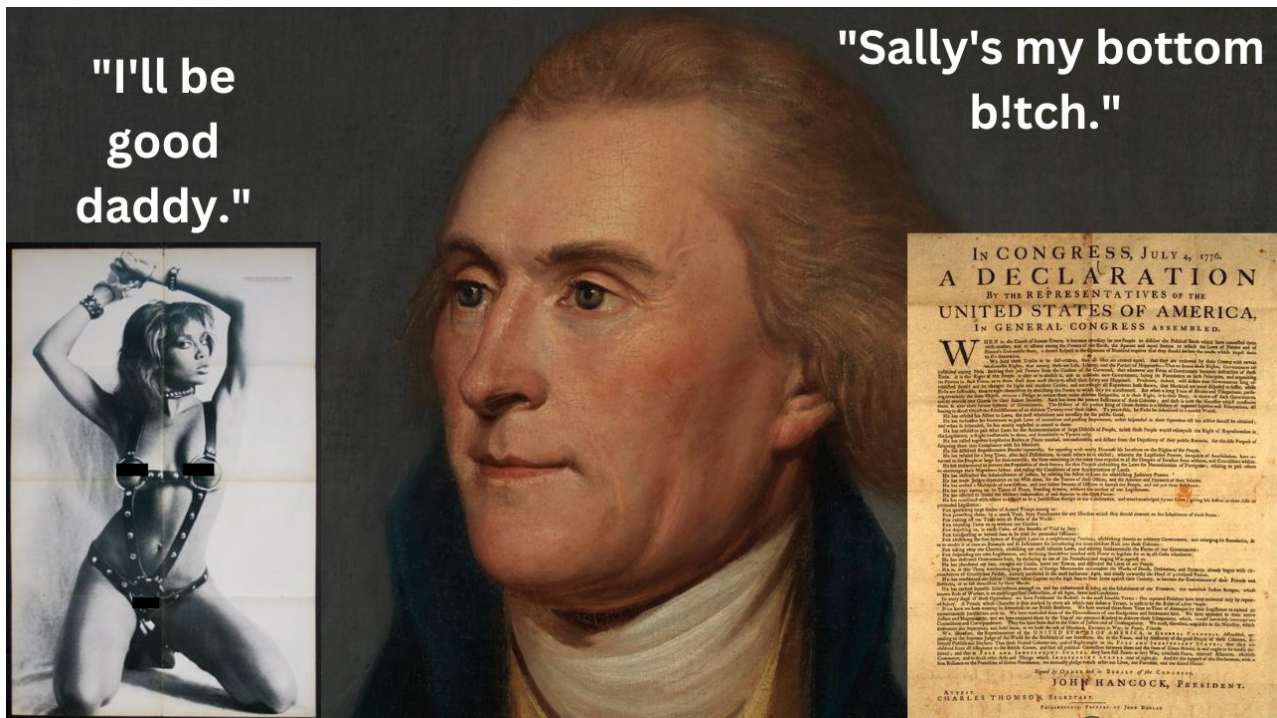

Někteří říkají, že se Američané vzbouří. Jako v revoluci. Amerika nikdy neměla čistou revoluci. Americká revoluce byla hybridní revoluční občanská válka. Kromě odtržení od Británie to byla válka mezi dvěma frakcemi kolonistické vládnoucí třídy. Národ zakládající plutokraté versus starí peněžní plutokraté loajální a napojení na Británii. Poté, co byly britské okupační síly poraženy, odtáhli loajalisté zadek do Anglie nebo emigrovali do Kanady. Otcové zakladatelé se zmocnili majetku a majetku loajálních. Místo toho, aby zabavenou kořist rozdělili koloniálním vojákům, jak slíbili, nechali si ji otcové zakladatelé pro sebe. Skutečný gangsta sh!t. Dostali jsme Listinu práv.

Johnem Lockem inspirovaná „Deklarace nezávislosti“, napsaná především brilantním politickým analytikem a psychologicky konfliktním Thomasem Jeffersonem uvádí:

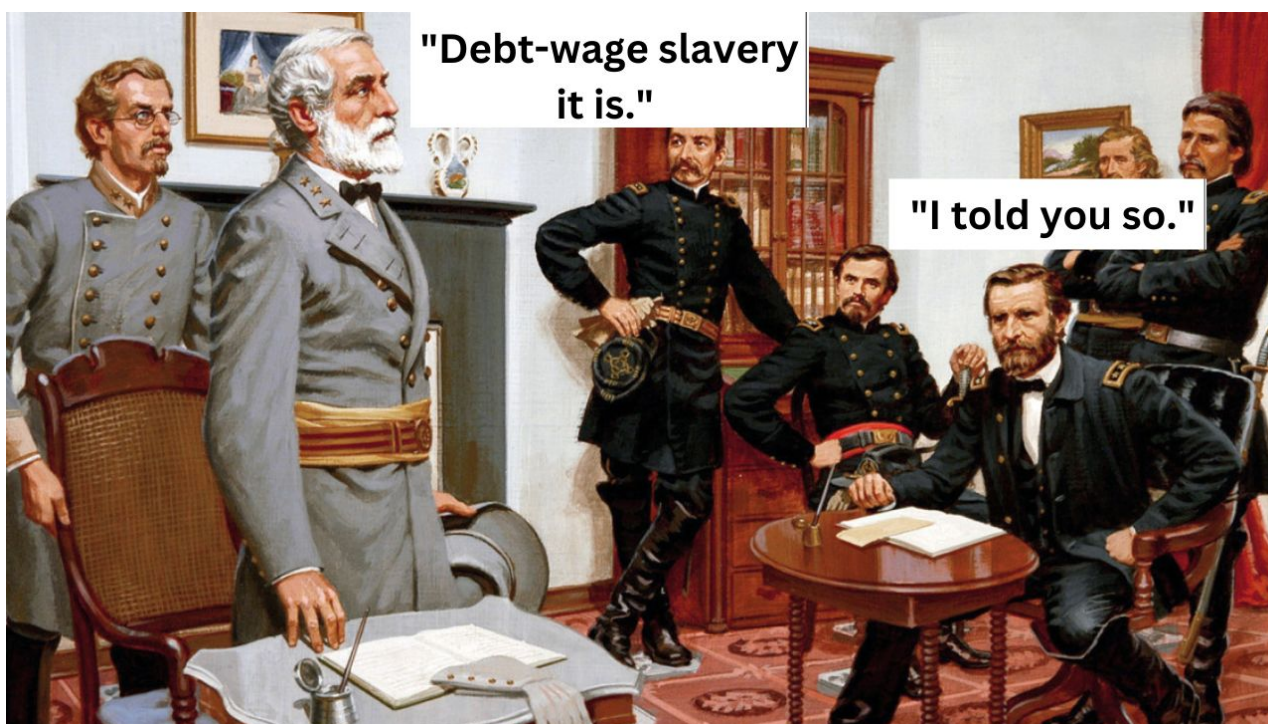

„- Kdykoli se jakákoli forma vlády stane destruktivní pro tyto účely, je právem lidu ji změnit nebo zrušit a ustanovit novou vládu, položit její základy na takových principech a uspořádat své pravomoci v takové formě, jako je se jim bude zdát nejpravděpodobnější, že to ovlivní jejich bezpečnost a štěstí... je jejich právem, je to jejich povinnost, takovou vládu svrhnout a poskytnout nové stráže pro jejich budoucí bezpečnost.“

To se neděje. Kolektivní americká mysl je příliš „otupělá“ (kognitivně kastrovaná) a populace je příliš roztržštěná na organizovanou masovou revoluci. Nezoufejte. Mohli bychom dostat občanskou válku.

Americká občanská válka 60. let 19. století byla především válkou ekonomického paradigmatu. Jižní agrární plutokraté podporovali systém černošské otrocké práce s lidskou posádkou. Severní průmysloví plutokraté upřednostňovali otroctví za dluhy poháněné evropskou masovou imigrací.

Vzhledem k tomu, že první občanská válka v USA byla oligarchickým konfliktem, o co by dnešní oligarchové sídlící v USA bojovali v občanské válce 2.0? Plátky třešňového koláče. Kontrola populačních center. O co by se hoi polloi pral? Trans koupelny. Potrat. Závodní problémy. Školní modlitba. Cokoli jiného oligarchy nezajímá. Pokud oligarchie ví, že občanská válka je nevyhnutelná, bude ji kontrolovat. Jak by vypadala optika občanské války řízené Rothschildy sionisty? Řízená opozice vs řízená opozice: Mysli Bill Gates vs Elon Musk. Steven Crowder vs Mladí Turci. Breitbart vs MSNBC. Ted Cruz vs Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez (je v pořádku). Křesťanská sionistická megacírkev vs Epstein-Harvard (vedoucí akademických kateder a exprezident byli pravidelnými hosty na Epsteinově ostrově). Antifa vs Q-Anon. Válka s prvními Rusy versus válka s prvními z Číny.

Jakákoli diskuse o občanské válce musí zohledňovat Pentagon. Ovládají vojáky a zbraňové systémy. Pokud by se MIC rozdělil na dvě frakce, představoval bych si, že uvidíme něco jako Pentagon „probuzený“ vs „rodinné hodnoty“ Pentagon, přičemž Raytheon bude vlastnit obě strany.

Nevidím žádné záměrné scény s megaarmádou bitvy o Antietam. Na rozdíl od pušek Springfield a děl Gatling – stíhačky F35, stealth bombardéry a mezikontinentální balistické střely vážně poškozují infrastrukturu a držby oligarchů. Houbová mračna tryskající napříč Amerikou jsou pro podnikání špatná. Pravidla zapojení by musela být pečlivě kontrolována. Vteřinová americká jaderná válka je děsivější než Černý Ježíš.

Jaký je konec občanské války oligarchů? Konsolidace impéria. Chris Hedges rozsáhle psal o tom, jak je křesťanský nacionalismus další pravděpodobnou fází vymírajícího impéria. Souhlasím. Je to chytrý tah. Duhové vlajky vás mohou dostat jen tak daleko.

Stejně jako starověký Řím jsou USA multikulturní impérium. Aby zabránil rozpadu různých římských skupin, císař Konstantin učinil křesťanství oficiálním státním náboženstvím. V Americe tvoří většinu populace běloši, Latinoameričané a černoši. Všichni jsou převážně křesťané – alespoň podle narození. Zbývajícími sjednocovateli Ameriky jsou fotbal, chytré telefony, Google a hrozba státního násilí. Mushroom Cloud Jesus může být poslední lahvičkou Elmer's Glue v říši. Preferuji Hippie Jesus před Mushroom Cloud Jesus.

Obnova školních modliteb, naplnění mega-kostelů evangelia prosperity a postavení „homosexuálů“ mimo zákon neobnoví americkou výrobní základnu, nevybuduje její zchátralou infrastrukturu ani nevyčistí otrávené řeky. Ani to nezabrání vzestupnému přesunu bohatství, které pochází z podnikové správy, nekonečné války MIC a Fedu vlastněného 8 bankovními rodinami. Křesťanský (sionistický) nacionalismus by mohl udržet umírající impérium na podpoře života ještě chvíli, ale kolaps je nevyhnutelný. Všechna impéria se zhroutí – patologicky zkorumpovaná dříve než později. Pokud křesťanský nacionalismus nedokázal udržet přiděly potravin nad úrovní hladovění, 3. světová válka se zdá být další logickou hrou. Pokud by mezinárodní bankéři zůstali na vrcholu a lidská civilizace zůstala nedotčena po 3. světové válce, předpokládám, že další fází by byla dystopická diktatura jedné světové vlády.

Kromě toho upřednostňuji odluku církve od státu otců zakladatelů. Mnoho lidí se v náboženském prostředí nezabývá. Na osobní úrovni bych jako židovský hebrejský Izraelita (Žid), který následuje Tao, mohl dobře fungovat ve společnosti řízené křesťany, kteří provozovali program „Kristus“. Nepravděpodobný scénář. Rothschildské sionistické křesťanství má zbraně, peníze a čísla.

Pokud by občanská válka řízená oligarchy mohla prodloužit životnost impéria, má také potenciál ji zkrátit. Jak ukázal Irák, Sýrie, Libye a Ukrajina, neokonzervativní/neoliberální podniky se proměnily v masivní clusterf*cks. Co kdyby občanská válka šla stranou a začala kolem sebe bičovat jako živý elektrický kabel ve větrné bouři? Případ řízeného chaosu přecházejícího v nekontrolovaný chaos.

Stejně jako rádiový signál psí píšťalky, chaos vysílá jedinečnou frekvenci. Aktivují se určité typy osobností. Jednou takovou skupinou jsou predátoři. Ne pervo nebo Wall Street. Mám na mysli lva, štíra, vlka, chřestýše a jestřába. Když se tito chlapi potulují zdarma, přináší to „zajímavé časy“. A nezapomeňte na psycho-nihilisty. Jak řekla Miley Cyrus ve své žvýkačkové popové písni – „Je to párty v USA.“

Těžko říct, kde skončí občanská válka vržená stranou. Předpokládám, že to může dopadnout opravdu dobře nebo opravdu špatně. Cokoli od nové a vylepšené americké republiky po Mad Maxe.

Občanská válka tlačí konkurenční frakce do konfliktu. Sbližuje také nesourodé skupiny. Abychom dále zmutovali Shakespearovu linii – „Občanská válka dělá podivné spřízněnce“. V USA vidíme, jak se tradiční „pravice“ a „levice“ přibližují kvůli environmentálnímu stresu způsobenému neoliberálním ziokapitalismem.

Paleokonzervativní libertarián Ron Paul a demokratický socialista Dennis Kucinich vystoupili na stejném shromáždění DC „Rage Against the War Machine“. Přes jejich politické rozdíly jsou bývalí kongresmani přátelé.

Naopak „levicová“ Ellen DeGeneresová a „pravicový“ válečný zločinec George W. Bush společně navštěvují sportovní výlety. „Konzervativní“ Liz Cheney a „liberální“ Chuck Schumer stojí jednotně na obhajobě agendy MIC-Wall Street-AIPAC.

Zio-politika „bizarního světa“ činí nálepky „vpravo“ a „vlevo“ zastaralými. Scénář občanské války nabízí na výběr pouze dvě strany. To znamená, že lidé, kteří se hlásí k velmi odlišným ideologiím, hrají ve stejném týmu – alespoň po dobu trvání konfliktu.

Jakákoli analýza americké občanské války 2.0 musí zohledňovat rasu. Amerika je za normálních okolností rasově nabitý sud s prachem. Když sh!t klesá, lidé se pokolísají. To zvyšuje šance na rasový konflikt. Rasová válka prospívá globalistům. Proto to tlačí. Černé reparace podporované Demokratickou stranou jsou příkladem manipulace rasy rozděl a panuj. Stejně jako reparace za „holocaust“ jsou i černé reparace podvod. Stovky miliard dolarů vyčleněných pro přeživší „holocaustu“ skončily v sionistických pokladnách Rothschildů. Totéž by se stalo s Black Reparations, přičemž malé procento výtěžku by šlo vysoce postaveným Afroameričanům z rodu, jak je vidět na jmění nashromážděném u #BLM House AA vyšší úrovně. Kromě toho, že jde o neočekávanou finanční ztrátu Rothschildů sionistů, Black Reparations staví proti sobě bílého muže, který čelí vystěhování, a černocho, kterému hrozí vystěhování – odstraněním dvou potenciálních nepřátel jediným ziskovým manévrem. Chytrý tah.

Černý vs bílý vs hispánský vs jiný je výlet nikam. Po masakru by se do toho vrhla třetí strana (ne politický typ) a sebrala kousky. Spustte program rasové války na vlastní nebezpečí.

Myslím, že mnohem lepším řešením je mírová separace do koalice etno a multikulturních autonomních států, které operují v rámci svých územních hranic, tedy žádná zahraniční ani domácí vojenská dobrodružství. Z mého pohledu spolupráce win-win poráží Nietzscheho systém win-lose. (Žijete pod finančním nietzscheismem. George Soros je Übermensch). Vědec Buckminster Fuller ve své knize „Operační příručka pro vesmírnou loď Země“ prosazoval „win-win“. Čína se o to dnes pokouší. Nic dobrého není možné, dokud se americké anglo-sionistické impérium nezhroutí a Rothschildův sionismus nebude poražen.

Vynikající analýza elitami řízených konfliktů dělnické třídy a dělnické třídy přišla od Hermanna Göringa po jeho zajetí spojenci:

"Proč samozřejmě lidé nechtějí válku." Proč by nějaký ubohý flákač na farmě chtěl riskovat svůj život ve válce, když nejlepší, co z ní může dostat, je vrátit se na svou farmu v jednom kuse. Obyčejní lidé přirozeně válku nechtějí; ani v Rusku, ani v Anglii, ani v Americe a ostatně ani v Německu. To se rozumí. Ale konec konců jsou to vůdci země, kdo určuje politiku, a je vždy jednoduché přetáhnout lidi s sebou, ať už jde o demokracii nebo fašistickou diktaturu, parlament nebo komunistickou diktaturu.

Lidé mohou být vždy přivedeni k nabídkám vůdců. To je snadné. Jediné, co musíte udělat, je říct jim, že jsou napadeni, a odsoudit pacifisty za nedostatek vlastenectví a vystavování země nebezpečí. V každé zemi to funguje stejně."

Göring je zajímavá historická postava. Pocházel ze šlechtické rodiny. Jeho rodiče měli otevřené manželství. Jeho matka vzala mladého Göringa k sobě na zámek svého bohatého sociopatického židovského milence Dr. Hermanna Rittera von Epenstein. Podle všeho si Göring s doktorem docela rozuměli. Göringův otec trávil většinu času v Africe. Možná, že Göringův táta měl rád černé holky. Cestovatelé do tropických zemí druhého a třetího světa pravděpodobně zažili četná pozorování německého chlapíka středního věku s pivním břichem a rychlovkami, jak se procházel po pláži ruku v ruce se svou malou hnědou rychtou.

V první světové válce Göring vystupoval jako stíhací pilot a obdržel Železný kříž a Pour le Mérite. Během 2. světové války Göring vyplenil evropské umělecké pokladnice a vzácné šperky pro svou sbírku. V odpovědi na memorandum nacionálně socialistického think-tanku, který předpovídal, že 25-30 milionů Rusů zemře hlady pod německou okupací/kolonizací, jeho parafrázovaná odpověď zněla: „Žádný problém vole.

Göring byl schopen fungovat jako zástupce německého velitele, zatímco byl plně závislý na morfiu. Jestli to není argument pro dekriminálníci drog, tak nevím co.

Když Američané dávali IQ testy svým nacionálně socialistickým vězňům s velkou parukou, Göring dosáhl nejvyššího skóre. Nakonec oběšence ošidil požitím pašovaného jedu. Göring nebyl „gangsta“ – byl „gangster“. Podle mě byl také sociopat. A dravec – v pravém slova smyslu.

"I can cook you chemically pure V-2 rocket fuel."

"It's gangster, not gangsta. Punk ass b!tch."

Jak jsem uvedl dříve, „zajímavé časy“ aktivují predátory. Občanská válka v USA 2.0 by toho jistě dosáhla. Chcete-li získat uměleckou licenci s řadou „Forrest Gump“ – Predátoři jsou jako bonboniéra. Nikdy nevíš, co dostaneš.

Pokud někdy Providence pošle Americe doručovatele, aby přerušil řetězy mezinárodních financí, nebude z něj hvězda televizní reality show, oligarcha, který láme mozek, ani bavič celebrit. Ani nebude pocházet z posvátných sálů Harvardu, Princetonu nebo Yale. Bude „mužem z lidu“. Ohnivák, který promění lidské hlavy v bowlingové koule. Nemůžu se dočkat, až ho potkám.

Globalisté chápou nekontrolovatelnou povahu predátorů a pilně pracují na vybudování vlastního super predátora – AI „Beast“. Po připojení k „internetu věcí“ lze i toho nejdivočejšího predátora udržet pod kontrolou pomocí nanotechnologických vakcín a čipových implantátů, které řídí „nákup a prodej“ spolu s potulnými algoritmy, které odstraňují problémové programy.

Amerika dosáhla takového stavu pekla, že občanská válka, která jde stranou, by mohla být poslední nejlepší možností. Jakkoli je těžké tomu uvěřit, alternativa by mohla být horší.

gates predictions are actually threats, sociopaths get off on inspiring fear in others, they seem to feed on the dark energy. say what you want about the guy but he does make good on his threats, covid was a doozy.

if he says there's gonna be a civil war, you can expect one. when it comes to warfare, bill's got a lot of friends in darpa and reich marshal fauci probably ordered field marshal baric, to cook up something special, aimed at those old white boomers and then lead the hoards of angry tranny rainbow coalition wokesters to victory over white supremacy, once and for all.

Chris Hedges has written extensively on how Christian Nationalism is the next likely phase of dying empire.

Hedges is a smart guy but he is retarded on this point. Still stuck in the 80's fearing that loathsome religious right. Not happening. Why do you think Michelle Malkin quit?

I prefer the tax revolt narrative. That's our founding value.

The late George Carlin's "the end of electricity" routine is very funny and possibly(?) prophetic. People enjoy imagining outlandish scenarios as were described in the article, but the boring reality of continual degradation is more likely. It should also be noted that while Thomas Jefferson is continually slandered by claims he fathered children by a Negress, it is much more likely that – assuming there is no contrived fraud involved in the DNA claims – the Jefferson involved was actually his younger brother Randolph.

I've studied this scenario for many decades. I suggest a little-known fictional book by Newton Thornburg, "Valhalla" (1980, Little, Brown and company). Very plausible version of what may realistically face the ordinary person during a collapse of The States. Though outdated a few years, still it presents basics of day-to-day scenarios with enough anecdotes to fill in the blanks. Man's basic needs of food, shelter and safety are not lost in this well-written book.

And also, certainly, Thomas Chittum's "Civil War Two", for a pretty good analogy of the brutal reality of what America could face if things devolved into "The Big Jug" (Yugoslavia). And without reservation or emotional/political/religious attachment from Mr. Chittum, a man who served as a soldier and mercenary (IFV) over the span of several decades.

Just some reference points for those interested. It would be great, as an aside, if possibly these books were to be brought into the Featured Books section here, Mr. Unz.

(I assure you, I do not even know these men, definitely no monetary enhancement for me- I just really like their works. I respect good and relevant literature.)

Thank you for the article, Mr. Solomon, your points are well-made and very much appreciated.

People should be paying attention to what's happening on the Home Front, not foreign blood-laundromats!

There will be no 'deliverer'. The empire will expire as its source of energy, the Dollar, dissipates into the aether. What will be left is a landmass containing 300+ million people, most with their heads up their asses, currently known as voters.

Once the Dollar dies, the trained killers in the military won't get paid. The civilian thugs known as police will also quit for the same reason. The snowflakes that don't have any weapons will finally realize their mistake, but too late. When the welfare recipients of a certain complexion don't get their checks or do get them but it won't buy anything, that's when they revert to what they are and go apeshit. Crime rises to incredible levels. Stores are trashed for their contents to try to hold off the inevitable. Everything taken for granted as normal disappears in a few weeks.

City life becomes impossible as sewage treatment plants shut down when their workers checks also buy nothing. The people running the electrical grid also decide to stay home to protect their families instead of showing up for work and leaving them relatively defenseless. At some point, no hospitals, no fuel, no food, no water, no electricity, not sanitation, no A siege mentality takes hold with the 'haves' inside peering out their windows and the 'have nots' roaming the streets looking for a victim.

Vote harder.

No, but what it prevented was a popular leader battling the oligarchs. Julius Caesar took the role of the defender of the “little guy” but he was immensely rich and powerful. He would be the last person who publicly fought the “rich guys” on behalf of the people of Rome (at least he created that mythos and used it until he was stabbed by – you guessed it – oligarchs).

Given that the first US civil war was an oligarchic conflict, what would today's US-based oligarchs fight over in a 2.0 civil war? Slices of cherry pie. Control of population centers. What would the hoi polloi fight over? Trans bathrooms. Abortion. Race issues. School prayer. Whatever else oligarchs don't care about.

If the oligarchy knows civil war is inevitable, they're going to control it. How would the optics of a Rothschild Zionist-managed civil war look? Controlled opposition vs controlled opposition: Think Bill Gates vs Elon Musk. Steven Crowder vs The Young Turks. Breitbart vs MSNBC. Ted Cruz vs Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez (she's fine). Christian Zionist mega-church vs Epstein-Harvard (The heads of the academic departments and ex-president were regular guests at Epstein Island). Antifa vs Q-Anon. War with Russia firsters vs War with China firsters.

I propose we change the paradigm and fight a war of genocide against Rothschild-Zionists and their stooges. Give them what they fear most, good and hard. Yes, they'll scream "Oi vey! Holocaust!" But they're just Zionist primitives forever cowed, controlled, and bum-rushed by the Rabbinate/Oligarchy and superstitious taboo. Totally controlled and compliant rubes. Worthless goyem...

Wait a minute... that's already us!

So a "Holocaust" will play right into the ((Oligarchy's)) hands, just like before. What we really need is mass mental illness counseling for Jews and Judeo-Christians, maybe with the worst treason-doers and war criminals sentenced to full frontal lobotomies.

I wonder, though, if a lobotomy would even scratch the surface of what ails them? I guess we'll have to find out.

Oi vey! Holocaust!

Good lord, here we go again... justice = Holocaust.

Do you see how you are controlled, dumb kikes?

The US “founding fathers” were Masons, as were their (literal) cousins across the water.

If you look at the birth of the US under that lens, things appear quite different, through to the present days. where you still have Masons in power, under Jewish control (as ever, since the days of old Phoenicia).

Outlawing “gayness” won’t fix anything. Queers and trans-things don’t reproduce.

Outlawing Zionism would be a big step in the right direction, starting with whatever is necessary to restore Palestine to its rightful owners, and dealing appropriately with the colonisers. I doubt it will happen before my time is up, but hope springs eternal.

This is the first book I ordered from Amazon in 1997 when Amazon was just a small online bookseller:

CWII was predicted in 2020

Here is another prediction which is much more accurate:

“Tomorrow’s Rebellion Will Be Mass Entropy”

<https://www.amerika.org/politics/tomorrows-rebellion-will-be-mass-entropy/>

“There will be no Third Amerikan Revolution. There will be no mass civil disobedience. People will not take it to a bunch of streets where the homeless people poop with impunity. Death will come for the declining Empire in a much more insidious fashion.”

Everything goes, nothing matters and nobody cares.

Slow societal decay and breakdown of infrastructure punctuated with imbecile enthusiasms for yet another New New Thing (EV, AI, edible insect powder laced with LSD, Trans Person of Special Needs for President in 2028, Operation Urgent Fury against Papua New Guinea who decided to join BRICS etc.)

There can't be a civil war because one side of the hypothetical war has no natural leadership and no alternative institutions. Civil war would last one day and the losing side would find it has no phones, no internet, no electricity, and the credit cards aren't working- and that's before a single shot is fired.

The 1860s US Civil War was primarily an economic paradigm war. The Southern agrarian plutocrats backed the Black manned slave labor system. The Northern industrialist plutocrats favored debt-wage slavery powered by European mass immigration.

Thank you for speaking about the proverbial elephant in the living room.

Despite the lies told to the men doing the fighting in both the North and South, the war was fought for slavery by both 'sides'.

It was the North's more efficient, productive, and hence most importantly, more profitable, wage slavery (so called cheap labor/mass immigration) system vs the South's entrenched, antiquated, much less productive, and hence, far less profitable, chattel slave system.

While both chattel and wage slavery center upon a paralleling unholy template of corrupt elites and hangers on evading paying their own people the prevailing real time local rates for labor by employing imported by diktat alien wage or chattel slaves, the wage slave (ie the so called 'cheap labor'/'immigrants') has, amongst other things, the benefit of being far more productive than the chattel slave.

How much more productive?

Four times according to the 1863 calculations of the financial representative of the Lincoln administration in London, Robert J Walker. These calculations of Walker's were republished in the US North in 1864 as part of a 'why we fight' series of articles, and can be found in my post archives.

Summing it up, chattel slavery and its trade was not abolished, but instead rather was monetized, that is it was distilled down to its financial essence whilst profits were maximized, with the early 19th century introduction to the world of wage slavery, ie specifically the so called 'cheap labor'/'mass immigration' system, by the British Empire.

“Civil War” consists of two (or more) Political Factions fighting (not necessarily with Guns) for Control/Domination of the ‘Government’. It requires (at least) Two sides/factions, with Leaders, Followers, Logistics and Weapons. The War between the (dis)United States is a proper Example. This is NOT what is happening Today- the decedents of the jewish oligarchs who “Won” that War today Control both ‘sides’ of a Uniparty, and all Conflict within the Nation are mere Distractions to the Fact that the jew bankster’s current Ponzi Scheme (the ‘dollar’ owned and printed by the ‘federal reserve (jew) bank’) is about to Fail, in the sense that other Nations, led by Russia and China, are Organizing a System of Trade, Payments, and ‘currency’ that will Bypass in its Entirety the jew-owned “World Bank” and its subsidiaries.

All of (((their))) hopes and plans for “Technotronic Slavery” of the “Goyim” (the non-jew, which their ‘talmud’ tells them are ‘Beasts in Human Form, created by yahweh to Serve the jew) are Doomed to Fail, for two Reasons.

The First is, of course, the Refusal of China and Russia to ‘play along with’ this Plan. Both Nations have Thrown Off the jew parasite, and Russia in particular is Ready, Willing and Able to go full Nukewar against ANY jew puppets, including the FUSSA itself.

The Second reason is related to the Laws of Physics – Entropy. It is becoming Physically Impossible to Build and Maintain the Mechanisms of Technotronic Slavery. The Resources, and Energy (in any form) needed to Extend and Maintain this Grid of Enslavement, World-Wide, soon will become too Scarce and Expensive to make it ‘Work’.

In Addition, the 'System' is in full Self-Destruct Mode- the Hatred of White Men, at the core of the 'jewish' religion, is Destroying the Knowledgeable, Productive Workers whose ability to Make things and Make them Work are at the base of any Technological Society. Simply Put, no White Men, No Electricity. No Electricity, No Civilization. And the parasites will Die First.

It seems to me there is another possible path. The war might be won on the information front. The Unseen Empire is winning the Ukraine PR battle in the US, but barely. And it is losing badly in the ground battle in Ukraine.

The Unseen Empire is also coming to the attention of more and more people. So it's losing its invisibility, which is a main castle wall. When everybody finally sees the Empire cabal naked, when the controls, the bribery and murder, are all revealed, the cabal will be shunned by society, their victims.

How to make this happen? Spread the word. Fill every social crevice. And when the police and military see the cabal naked, they will join with society and refuse to obey the cabal.

The perceptions of most people within the governing organizations will similarly flip to a new picture of reality, a much more accurate picture. And as a group, seeing their new & essential common goal, to be rid of the cabal, they will make a new set of plans. And act on them.

The Unseen Empire will be gone. There will still be differences of regions and personalities. But the decision-making processes for working out those differences will not be distorted by a cabal intentionally causing conflict and waste. The odds will be better with a society of sanely functioning adults.

It's conceivable. Food for thought.

A history professor once said to my class that Roman statesmen needed three fortunes: one to raise the army to fight a war, one to pay the army after the war, and the last to bribe the officials after the war so he could get into office.

IIRC, the same professor said that Caesar must've had more than 3 fortunes because he had so many enemies and was so unpopular amongst the elites and yet was able to keep bribing people to keep himself out of jail and keep his armies permanently paid so that the elites (except Pompey) never tried challenging him in the field.

Caesar was always playing 4-D chess.

with Raytheon owning both sides. <= of the predicted revolution?

I don't think the civil war the man behind the scenes "Bill" has in mind will happen the way it is planned or imagined? There will be no rising of the masses against government nor the military except maybe in some kind of revolution global corporations try to orchestrate? I think the global governed masses are going to rise against the global corporate empires. The global corporations are the major threat to peace and prosperity worldwide. The enemy to human rights, the rights to life, independent and personal liberty and competitive pursuit of happiness are the global corporations. Ones like the one that made Bill well known.

The problem in world governance, is the corporations and the NGOs which support the corporate empires around the globe. The problem is not just an American problem, its a global problem. I predict, the revolution likely to come will see the governed masses rising against the global corporations and the government funded NGOs because the NGOs exist to help the corporation to accomplish its individual goals. Just like in the labor movements around the globe. Historically labor has encountered corporate staffed governments siding with the powerful corporations against the rising angry masses of labor. In the end, I predict, there will be no large corporation or other forms of non human organizations [NHOs] allowed to exist. The governed masses will eventually prevail and constitutions and international agreements will be amended to deny corporations their power.

Globally, the problem is corporations. Generally, corporate monopoly power is the same problem the colonist in many colonies on the American continent had with the British, Dutch, Spanish and French Empires and their East and West Indies types of corporations. The profit and power seeking needs of corporations conflict with liberty, life, and pursuit of happiness. There is no problem with the form of the various governments. The problem is with the conduct of those appointed to government; corporations control the appointments. Their appointees are responsible to support the corporate need: war, regime change, sanction, global agreements that deny state sovereignty and other measures.

In other words, voters world wide in each of their respective nations, have been left with no choice but to choose of candidate: choose either from the Red team or the Blue team. The outcome of voting is never in doubt, because which ever candidate wins, the result is the same.. It just does not matter who is elected or what the candidate says, what matters is that the corporate media controls both the elections and the elected. Heads I win tails you loose.

Americans are proud of their constitutional government (they may want a lot of needed changes, but basically the form of government is ok.) its just Americans want the government to answer to and respond to the everyday Americans it governs and Americans want those in government to tell the every day Americans the truth no matter how bad the truth is.

The global corporations decide who is in the government and just 6 of those corporations (the MSM media) tell the every day person how things in their world will be. The rest of the corporations support this global MSM media by disbursing their stockholders' profits in tax deductible advertising costs which costs become income to the corporate MSM media. Governed masses want the corporations to quit hiding corporate money in far off, hidden, money laundering tax havens. These tax havens have more un-taxed money in them than the treasuries of all of the governments put together. Few of the governed have heard of these far away banks; few know the names of these famous tax haven hidden Islands. Tax Islands run governments which thrive on accommodating corruption and tax dodging.

So the kind of revolution you say Bill expects, envisions, plans or orchestrates will not likely happen. I bet in 10 years or less the size of corporations will be limited to 100 employees and $1 million in equity and any money they leave in the corporation will be taxed at 90% of their actual undistributed earnings. That is how it was during the late 1949 era.

I also bet copyright and patent laws will be removed from the books in every nation in the world, because inventions and technology belong to the global community. I also bet the masses will deprive corporations of the power corporations now enjoy.

Mick Jagger was never a bohemian. His father was a strict disciplinarian physical education teacher who was obsessed with physical fitness, schedules and history. Jagger was always about making a dollar. He was cutting deals when he was 18 to sing in theaters solely to make money – it was never about art.

Keith Richards was the only one who had a bit of wildness, thanks to his gypsy mother but he also had a lower middle class home where his mother made him elaborate comfort teas and kissed his boo boos, vacations were taken, clothes were ironed.

The insanity, the absolute jaw dropping lunacy of how the West makes the Court Jester an almost sacred object is horrifying. The guy who used to be one rank above the chamber pot maid is now a God- consulted on world issues, treated as an oracle. Think of The Rock being consulted about Covid, stating with gravitas he might run for President one day.

Think Bono. And now, it has morphed into blacks as untouchable icons who are clearly mildly retarded...think Rhiannon.

Here is the big difference: Men like Jagger, Bowie and other old rockers had enough business savy to realize they had hit the lottery and wielded their unimaginable wealth and clout with a wink wink.

Rhiannon, Beyonce, Jay- Z actually believe they are geniuses. They believe the hype their Jewish agents and lawyer sell them and have no self deprecating redemption.

A bloody reset is the only prescription that will work at this point.

No, but what it prevented was a popular leader battling the oligarchs. Julius Caesar took the role of the defender of the “little guy” but he was immensely rich and powerful.

He was popular, but military campaigns took him for years outside Italy while the local Rome oligarchs (led by Pompey) planned to finish with him. As it turned out he finished with them (“crossed the Rubicon”).

Mitch occurred a few years before I ever heard of Roatan Island. I'm an engineer that was taught how to think and solve problems; a skill not taught by the non STEM disciplines. To solve a problem demands the details, the intricacies of the problem be identified.

The current situation can be equated to not properly maintaining an exquisitely complicated machine; consciously allowing it to deteriorate and waiting for it to fail. That failure has physical effects in the real world that a trained mind can readily identify. What I wrote is common sense to anyone that doesn't want to delude themselves and is capable of seeing the interconnections of a first world civilization and making an educated guess as to what happens when the connections fail.

After 9/11 I knew what lay ahead and got out of a first world situation that was becoming increasingly unstable through determined effort to make it so. Chaos appeared to be a goal, not something to be avoided. Self sufficiency, as much as possible, was my goal leading to a less complicated life where I rely on very few things, most of which I've stockpiled or provide for myself.

All of this is very unclear. All that you can say with certainty is that the US is in economic decline and has un-payable debts.

That makes it sure that the US dollar will be faded at some point as the world's reserve currency = dollar devaluation = US price inflation.

In turn, that means much poorer US citizens and the country taking on more of a Third World profile (lack of healthcare, bad sanitation, poor temporary housing, failed education, corrupt legal system, corrupt elites etc.)

The shame is that what I wrote is known to almost all at some level, but none dare allow it to become the focus in their mind. The thought is too scary to seriously contemplate because they have not prepared for its possible eventuality.

Just look at all the absolutely useless ‘professions’ that function in some artificial sphere and aren’t grounded in physical reality. When the SHTF, the preacher, economist, bankers, philosopher, psychiatrist, politician, etc, will be forced to deal with the real physical world which they have studiously avoided contending with in their fantasy realms. Their toolbox, if they own one at all, contains a roll of duct tape and if that won’t fix the problem, a credit card to summon a repairman they look down upon. It’s these high and mighty frauds that have managed to insinuate themselves into positions of faux authority that are the cause of the approaching calamity.

It will be the engineers, trades people and to a lesser extent scientists that are the only ones capable of restarting the world’s machine after the humanities and social science idiots have collapsed it. The masses will yearn for another ‘leader’ and one will surely show up, probably another conman to recreate a system already proven unreliable.

Instead of shooting the priest and politician, they will be sought after for their sage advice by the trained seals known as voters.

You can’t fix stupid.

The author Richard Solomon makes, and perpetuates, the common mistake and myth that John Locke inspired the Declaration of Independence, where such falsehood and slander is part of the reason why there is a disintegration of the United States and civilization.

It was Ben Franklin who was a key founding father and influence upon the Declaration of Independence and U.S Constitution, and where Ben Franklin who fought against John Locke and Issac Newton, as Franklin was part of the circles of Gottfried Leibniz.

The difference is summed up in the fact that Locke represented Life, Liberty and Property, where the Liebnezian conception was of Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness....and where now under materialism, Happiness has been degraded into object worship egotism and the pursuit of money...

Well, an actual intelligent commentary on the potential next civil war, thanks.

Christianity didn't become the Roman state religion until Theodosius mandated the death penalty for non-Christians in 381. This came after Constantine's fanatic son Constantius II had destroyed much of the classical world's literary, scientific, and cultural heritage, merrily smashing statues and burning books in the name of the latest One True God to come out of the insane asylum we call the Middle East.

Christianity has long served as the compliance assurance arm of state power, one reason the US has the west's first constitution that refused to establish that faith as its official religion. A neofascist Christian dictatorship of some kind nevertheless seems most in tune with our heritage and popular cultural sensibilities. In his study of the rise and fall of the Greek city-states, Aristotle detected the pattern of divine strongmen replacing failed democracies, as their battered people clamored for magic to make them feel safe again. It won't last very long here today, because the continuance of modern civilization requires science. And while science has not and cannot "prove" religion false, it has convincingly demonstrated that the presuppositions which underlie religious faith are misunderstandings of the natural world and the human place in it. A revival of Christian dominionism will certainly be as short-lived and embarrassing as the attempted restoration of paganism was under Constantine's nephew Julian II.

What comes later may largely be the result of foreign dictates. We are no longer safely isolated behind our oceans, and there are a lot of old scores to settle. I expect the outcome of the Ukrainian war will have a much greater impact on our short-term future than we might like to think. It is the start of the transition to a multipolar world in which the US will have to return to its rightful place in the family of nations, no longer barking out orders from the head of the table. Our phenomenal standard of luxury must end, based as it is on global imperialism bleeding the rest of the world. We are 6% of the world's population consuming 50% of the resources, and this kind of economic terrorism is not sustainable. I also suspect mother earth will have more to say about America's future than we may ourselves, even those vain enough to imagine humanity is powerful enough to either "save" or "destroy" the ecosystem we have so long imagined exists only for our convenience

Any civil war discussion needs to factor in the Pentagon. They control the soldiers and weapon systems. If the MIC split into two factions, I imagine we'd see something like "woke" Pentagon vs "family values" Pentagon, with Raytheon owning both sides.

I could see a group of armed ranchers protesting the election and the federal government wishing to put down the protest.

However, the state national guard will refuse and instead troops from more liberal states being used.

My county sent sheriff deputies to Louisiana to help keep law and order during a hurricane. They were paired up with local cops. Arriving on the scene of a group of looters about to break the windows of a convenience store, they noticed cops were already there. The cops told the looters to go ahead and break the windows but they would shoot anyone that entered the store until after the cops took what they wanted. This will happen everywhere in the US all at once. No one knows what will trigger it but the elites think they can control it and that won't happen.

Mick and those hippie rockers were more part of the ((establishment))) than you can imagine. Notice it was androgynous rockers like Mick (gawd that would be an ugly woman), Bowie the bisexual and lover of Black kitty, Roger Daltrey (always assumed he was gay but it was Pete Townsend), Rod Stewart, Robert Plant, etc., etc., who became popular. Now granted all these guys mentioned were EXTREMELY talented but they fit the Jewish agenda of taking away the White man's manhood and promoting the feminization of men. Rumors say Bowie and Mick got it on at least once. Cue: Dancing In The Streets by Mick and David. teehee. Check out Mick Jagger dancing with Billy Preston in the video for "Hot Stuff." Preston is Black. The Stones had at least 3 songs promoting White males swirling with sheboons, "Brown Sugar," "Hey Negrita," and "Harlem Shuffle."

Here is a tune that HAS to be a description of the Jew over the years. So props for this one, Mick & Keef.

Their toolbox, if they own one at all, contains a roll of duct tape and if that won't fix the problem, a credit card to summon a repairman they look down upon. It's these high and mighty frauds that have managed to insinuate themselves into positions of faux authority that are the cause of the approaching calamity.

Save your posts and collect them for a book or website.. I have been saving them.

One of my brothers is a mechanic. He is a saint. He can fix anything. He can't read that well but he can take anything apart and fix it.

He will work in 100 degree weather or 1 degree and never stops. He says very little. All my dogs gather around him like he is their God. All animals love him. He is a dead shot. He grows his garden out of seeds he saves from the food he eats. I am making him sound fictional but he is real. He is the man who they call Gorilla Grip because of his strength. He is the man that is going to show up for you, day or night – sober, calm and ready to work.

He recently went with me to the Mayo Clinic. He drove me there, 8 hours and back- steady, alert and non talking. A real gift. I saw a doctor, in a suit, snicker at the way my brother said the word “pear” and “break FAST” and some other words. He has a very strong country accent.

I wanted to choke that doctor with his tie for making fun of my brother. But let his HVAC break, and as you said, he would be offering his credit card meekly to my brother. Let the food supply chain collapse and he will be kissing my brother's feet.

Instead of colonial Europeans (with Jews orchestrating in the background like the opium, slave and tobacco trade), this time it is international Jewry front and center, and the world should be very afraid. The practical people are going to get the respect they've always deserved when the SHTF, regardless of educational credentials. It's the person that knows what to do with ordinary tools to actually repair or create something that will be sought after. It will be engineers that will figure out how to reboot the various industries after the economists, politicians and various other bullshit artists get done trashing the societies.

All the fake intellectuals like Shapiro and Peterson, the loud mouth leftist Hollywood types, the ball dribblers, the talking heads, the political class, etc are all going to wonder what hit them. There's a realignment of priorities and worth going to happen out of necessity once all the froth is squeezed out of the economy and society generally.

I just hope people become smart enough to purge the educational institutions of all their fraudulent degree programs to help concentrate people's minds on what's actually important, but I doubt it.

Reason is poor propaganda when opposed by the yammering, unceasing lies of shrewd and evil and self-serving men.

As you say, the Revolutionary War and the Civil War were each fought between two groups of oligarchs. The reason that we will not get Civil War 2.0 is that right now all the oligarchs are on the same side.

With no possibility for either revolution or civil war, what is the likely future? One possibility is a slow relative decline as China becomes the world's largest industrial and military power. Another is the instigation of foreign wars in the vain hope of remaining #1. Our leaders have chosen the latter route. The oligarchs are our best hope for stopping this madness, because it is not good for business or for their wealth.

@MIck Jagger gathers no mosque

Here is a prime example of jewish “lawfare” gone amok...

I can remember when jewish organizations that touted “separation of church and state” pushed their agenda to the extreme—instituting lawsuits against municipalities who chose to allow Christian-based Christmas displays on public property.

The lawsuits were numerous, from big-city displays to small towns—public displays of Christianity were outlawed. Jewish groups were aggressive in using “lawfare” to remove Christianity from the public square.

It’s turned full-circle.

Christian Christmas displays are still prohibited on public property while jewish menorahs are cropping up all over the place. Hell, even the White House proudly publicly displayed a large jewish menorah, without a squawk from the “(jewish-run) separation of church and state” crowd.

Jews no longer couch their hatred of Christianity in legal terms, but are overtly brash and confident in their hatred of Christianity.

While we are at it, let’s close down their most repulsive buildings, the American taxpayer-funded “Holocaustianity™ temples” and deport their acolytes who are perpetuating their prayers, damning and blaming all gentiles who did not “just do something”. The “piles of shoes” and “clothing”, “eyeglasses” and other materials mean nothing as they are merely “Hollywood- props” meant to evoke a response from gullible visitors to these “jewish freak shows”.

You see, “jewish suffering” is unlike any other and as such, must be memorialized by erecting these American taxpayer-funded “jewish freak shows”.

“Holocaustianity™ temples” have no place anywhere in the world as they are totally based on fraud and deception—two prime jewish traits.

Taxpayer funding of these “jewish freak shows” adds insult to injury and should be prohibited as their existence constitutes promotion of one religion over another—expressly forbidden by the First Amendment to the Constitution.

As a further insult, some states are mandating the brainwashing of vulnerable children by mandating public school student visits to these “Holocaustianity™ temples”—“jewish freak shows”. It would appear that requiring schoolchildren to attend “Holocaustianity™ temples” violates the “separation of church and state”.

It is long overdue for ((them)) to be kicked out of country 110... (((They))) can take their “jewish freak shows” with them...

Reduced to its essence, the USA has the Government it deserves. Our Current Condition is the result of allowing the Billionaires into the Government; they get in and then take over control of the Government. For the benefit of their own selfish interests of course, Public be damned. Note how many Members of Congress have become Millionaires after entering Congress. Another result is having a Puppet President like Joe Biden. A purer form of figurehead you will not find than Joe Biden. What was Joe Bidens response to the question, “How long will the American People have to suffer Inflation?” “As long as it takes” was Biden’s response. Note the contrast. Israel needs something done? And IMMEDIATE response. Ukraine want billions of dollars? Done. IMMEDIATELY. The War Machine needs funding? IMMEDIATE response. The entire system is corrupt to the core. The start to the solution is to stop feeding the Beast. Term Limits for Congress and REAL campaign finance reform is also part of a real solution.

Some response on comment seventy eight, supposed first amendment was to pump their monotheism religions, notice their 'approved' churches –don't pay 'tax and there's no 'churches that stopped any of the destruction and in fact part of immigration, notice the word 'sanctuary', no approved religions reflect original nature religion or astronomy they renamed 'astro low gee'. Supposed first amendment was to threaten our speaking, pretend it's some 'right' the cons 'give' –to then dictate what you cant say, proven by their 'sedition' bs, and now 'hate speech' bs.

Threats by cons claiming to be 'state' if you dont want bogus state anymore isn't 'govrmt by duh people' –its dictator cons and obedient morons. The single most protected con beside phony 'state' are their man-in-the-sky cults. Notice only few websites exposing. The web is controlled. Is better to focus local to share anyway.

The trail of death and destruction of earth and what was once our natural infinity or as long as we could last between meteor impacts, is the 'legacy' of psychos and selfish breeding ignorant twats. The paper 'laws' con stitution con same as false religion bookz con. The level of destruction at this point is on runaway cycle and no one is coming to 'save' anyone. Failure to be serious has consequence. As there would maybe be a few reading who may give a rip, suggest focus local, situations are where we live, everywhere. There's no running anyway. Supposed five g 'fone' towers in forests disguised as 'trees' would be a clue.

@irish Savant

The entire world's fiat currency system is breaking down due to too much debt and currency issuance. This worldwide event has never happened before, ever. The world's gov'ts all want a CBDC to trap every person's saved wealth in a system they control. Currency controls, rationing, price controls, rent controls and moratoriums, etc are a typical gov't response to be expected. The 'east' and 'west' are parting company with a world war a distinct possibility.

When a population is devastated by war as in Yugoslavia, there is a common bond to rebuild from the visible rubble. When the SHTF in the US, for example, there will be no rubble. Everything will still be standing and ownership of near everything of value will be transferred to the oligarchy. People will be destitute when their Social Security won't purchase the necessities of life, when a working man's paycheck won't feed his family, when pensions go bankrupt, when FDIC is shown to be a hollow promise, when the banks recall mortgage loans or raise interest rates to unaffordable levels, when bonds are defaulted on, when the stock market tanks, etc. The impoverished will see that their overlords created the problem and they are still living high on the hog. This is a recipe for violence when the average working stiff realizes he's been shafted as a matter of policy.

You will own nothing and be happy is already the propaganda meme to prepare the sheep.

The lower class knows they deserve their entitlement checks. When they won't purchase what they used to, they will riot and burn the cities as has happened before. Massive violence will require not just local police to try to quell it, but will need massive military support. Trouble is that the hot spots will be all over the country and nearly all at once.

What I envision is near Mad Max with long held grudges being exercised. A race war is a given. I suspect an in your face military dictatorship to replace the soft military dictatorship the US has been functioning under since JFK was whacked.

Solomon gives the usual shallow sophisticate's version of America. It's easy, too easy to find flaws and self-interest in our Founders. But it is also a fact that from its Founding up to the "triumph" of the Progressives pre-WW I, most Americans could and in fact did lead lives barely touched by the state. Free lives. This was something new in history and the world took note. It didn't last but that's no reason to crap on the entire history of the country.

Since the author brought up Christian Nationalism – what exactly is it? I bet if you ask 10 people, even if they are somewhat knowledgeable, you would get 10 different answers.

Furthermore, ask 10 pulpit dispensers and you would discover most of them against it. Any wonder the pews are full of infantile adults? Hebrews 5:11-6:2

So let's dig into this subject in DaLimbrow Library.....after we define our problem. What is the problem?

Can we honestly say that everything within our society is going in the right direction? There are some that say YES – we just need more money!

At what point do we stop and say: “It isn't working?”

I, and many others, are saying and have been saying for a long time: “It hasn't and will not work until we begin to follow the laws of cause and effect!”

In the foreword to his book “Millennialism and Social Theory”, the author Gary North makes what I considered an ironic statement. He noted that when a secular academic finds out that his book was written by a bible believing Christian, he would immediately toss it away as not credible. The Christian believer, on the other hand, has zero interest in social theory. I can personally confirm the last statement by my personal experience with various Christian churches and study groups – they're not interested!

Therein lies the problem. The bible, especially the old testament, is full of social theory. Yet, the academics won't take the time to study those theories – and the Christian believers, who have turned their faith into a personal pursuit of pietism, aren't interested because it doesn't fit their presupposition of end time theology.

Both parties in this alliance live in total ignorance of possible solutions to our civil societies' problems, because they have already made up their minds as to what is truth. You can read more – <https://crushlimbrow.blogspot.com/2015/10/the-alliance-made-in-hell.html?m=0>

Gary North in his Victim's Rights and other books explained the social theories promulgated by God in the Old Testament which no one practices any more – and we wonder why we have the super rich ruling over all of us.....and of course the disastrous consequences of our inattention to Godly wisdom.

And we wonder why we have seemingly regularly scheduled disasters of all types, often including wars and their resultant starvation, diseases and civic predations too countless to list. – from <https://crushlimbrow.blogspot.com/2022/12/no-it-is-not-coincidence.html?m=0>

We actually have an example of Christian rulership from history – King Alfred's civil laws became the root of all English and American common law, trial by jury, and habeas corpus. It was Alfred's legal code which was derived from Mosaic Law and Jesus' golden rule. –

<https://crushlimbrow.blogspot.com/2022/10/early-christianity-in-britain-and-role.html?m=0>

Confirmed by Britannica – Alfred succeeded in government as well as at war. He was a wise administrator, organizing his finances and the service due from his thanes (noble followers). He scrutinized the administration of justice and took steps to ensure the protection of the weak from oppression by ignorant or corrupt judges. He promulgated an important code of laws, after studying the principles of lawgiving in the Book of Exodus and the codes of Aethelbert of Kent, Ine of Wessex (688–694), and Offa of Mercia (757–796), again with special attention to the protection of the weak and dependent. While avoiding unnecessary changes in custom, he limited the practice of the blood feud and imposed heavy penalties for breach of oath or pledge.

Alfred is most exceptional, however, not for his generalship or his administration but for his attitude toward learning. He shared the contemporary view that Viking raids were a divine punishment for the people's sins, and he attributed these to the decline of learning, for only through learning could men acquire wisdom and live in accordance with God's will. –

<https://crushlimbrow.blogspot.com/2023/01/alfred-great-why-lessons-learned.html?m=0>

“We are 6% of the world’s population consuming 50% of the resources...”

Leaving aside the highly debatable numbers you cite, your underlying assumption is that prosperity can ONLY be the result of theft. It’s a very primitive zero sum mentality.

What would your “cure” be for America’s prosperity? Why to take America down at the knees of course.

That's an interesting conjectural scenario, but it's interesting to stack it up against what happened during other collapses.

Probably the biggest in our lifetimes was the collapse of the USSR.

In the aftermath, nobody was getting paid; stores were empty; organised crime was absolutely rampant for a decade, with killings in in broad daylight. People stood in the streets trying to sell their personal possessions.

And yet the lights stayed on; people who hadn't received salaries in months, kept working in coal mines, glass factories and so forth.

Things might be different in the US: more guns; better weather; worse demographics; more stuff to steal (early on)... and a segment of the population who understands what 'No consequences for violent acts' means, operationally.

There's a really interesting BBC series called "Russia 1985-99 – Trauma Zone" that can be had on most torrent sites. It's 'cinéma vérité' that uses footage from a bunch of BBC camera crews who were in the USSR at the time. They got to go all over the place.

It's pretty long – 7 hours in total – but the later episodes give an interesting insight of life during the post-collapse period. People just kept going to work.

It also made it seem like consumer goods – and office furniture – in the USSR was shoddy and cheaply made. Footage from government offices is also informative: a government office in the 1990s – at the very highest level in the Economics Ministry – has the sort of décor that would be thought of as tatty if it was the regional office of a transport company in the UK in the 1960s.

Joe Webb

PS. another earmark of Jewish propaganda especially when discussing US civil war....is the Jewish refusal to talk about blacks as a huge factor. I saw a report that @50% of blacks want to see whites removed from the US.

Reminds me of a report a few years ago...a school teacher in a black school...asks a black kid what he thought it would be like for whites not to be around for blacks....the black kid said, blacks would be in big trouble. back to Africa scene.

—The most likely run-up to civil war....more and more street violence against whites....blacks burning things down, cops shooting black killers and rioters....and so on. Blacks will be the central factor of The Beginning of our civil war. Of course Jews will be cheer-leading the darkies as they kill whites.

Whites will be hand-wringers for months...but it will stop when blacks start killing our kids.

A snippet of additional information.

Leibnitz and Newton were the co-developers/inventors of calculus. Each one used his own method of notation; consequently Britain used Newton's method. To which one British mathematician lamented that this notation had put Britain 100 years behind.

Today everyone that teaches and uses calculus employs Leibnitz' notation.

In the resort areas 2 hours drive north of Toronto, numerous cell towers have been camouflaged to look like giant spruce trees. From a distance these look pretty real, except that they stick out way above the tree line.

Not sure that destroying these would gain an advantage for the rebels as this would seriously curtail their ability to communicate.

The military would have satellite communications.

Hmmm, perhaps it is time to dust off that old short-wave transmitter and brush up on Morse Code.

@Kratoklastes

Correct me if I'm wrong, but the USSR was a communist society where the state doled out what people got to temporarily possess. People didn't really own much and the concept of a consumer society was completely foreign to them. The joke was, 'we pretend to work and they pretend to pay us'.

The residents of the USSR were trained to live under ridiculous conditions where they stood around in one line for bread and another for meat and when it was their turn at the counter, there may not be any left for them. To have them stay around under the no pay condition was relatively normal at the time.

Now contrast that with the average USian who lives to consume, expects exorbitant pay for bullshit like psychology, sociology, economics, etc and has enough possessions to require a large house and one or more storage units besides.

Are you seriously going to try to compare the USSR with modern US consumption addicts?

Once the average person figures out that the base of his economic pyramid, the Dollar, is worth next to nothing when all those no longer needed foreign ensconced Dollars flow back into the US to fuel inflation, he isn't going to remain quiet. I listed the faux wealth sources people are foolishly relying on and when they dry up, the country will explode in violence instigated by the human trash being paid to remain complacent now via the various welfare programs. They will ignite the first wave of violence, looting and burning and then whitey will chime in because there will be no other option. It will be every man for himself, so to speak.

The cops are useless in controlling crime now. They will give up just to protect their own families and then the cities will resemble old wild west towns. I know if I were still there, I'd be ready to kill anything that tried to do me dirty, regardless of any statute because they won't matter any longer.

Everything in the US hinges on the banking system and I expect it to fail catastrophically at some point. When the trucker can't fuel his rig because the credit card gadget at the pump won't cooperate, that load won't make it's destination. A domino of failures follows. Once this starts, it only stops when there's nothing left to destroy.

You forgot to mention that other guy who was famous for a while – had a hit with ‘Gold Digger’, put his name on some sneakers and so forth. I forget his name.

Eventually he thought he was powerful enough to throw shade on his erstwhile benefactors – to tweak ‘Big Nose’ as it were.

I lost interest after that so I’m not really sure how it ended.

One thing of which I am certain: what happened to that guy, leaves Rhiannon, Beyoncé and Jay-Z in no doubt as to what happens if they get “uppity”.

@Etruscan Film Star

Definitely ranks among the worst articles for sure. Blue collar suburban high school English class level writing. (Those were the “honors” HS grads who were required to take “remedial English Comp” as freshies at my high end U. – and this was 50+ years ago.)

But the terms thrown around, nowadays with 50 meanings; 48 of them incorrect. “Revolution” “Democracy” “Insurrection.” are three that immediately come to mind. Mish mash, attention getting vocabulary – part of miseducation, mixed with girlified emotion. Mutated from one post or podcast to the next and so on (it’s sickening).

Revolution? No matter how defined is obviously not in the stars here. If at all, perhaps, mostly the effort of a certain bunch of old toothless hippie millionaires; but the actual consequence of this mini-revolution in the US will be (and already is) more like secession.

Today people secede with their pocketbook and a U Haul. I’ve watched property values double in just 2 years, in places like white areas of SW FL, northern ID, even the badlands of SD. With interest rates over 2X what they were 3 years ago, these markets are still hot – even Black Rock aside. That’s what secession looks like these days. Un-United States will take a bit of a while but I see that coming. DC already represents less than the 50 states – and far less than parts of the 50 states. States with only one big blue city are seeing intrastate migration far from those messes. So, some states will certainly see intrastate secession – something new (think West Virginia but with a much bigger fuss). Work at home already has a new meaning – factory workers needing 30 years stuck in place to get that pension is long ago history. And, ACORN II is nigh (ACORN I was a dress rehearsal). So, watch the show and start packing – and as usual with packing, start peripheral and work central.

The (((1960s and early 1970s rock music industry))) brought us drug and alcohol abuse, and androgynous lead singers. By the mid to late 1970s the (((music industry))) was torn between sex, drugs and disco and/or degenerate noise called “punk rock” played by mental retards, basket case losers and weirdos. The 80’s? Best era in music IMO put out great tunes but Jew boy producers were going homo with acts like Boy George, Frankie Goes To Hollywood, Wham/George Michael, and the “Big Hair Bands.” And this was the era of feel sorry for the African, “Ain’t Gonna Play Sun City”, “We Are The World”, etc. The 1990s? Last decent decade of good music. Still Jew boy brought us the depressed, drug addicted, hopelessness titled, “Grunge” music. (C)rap began in the late 1970s but it took until the late 80’s to go mainstream. After 1999, music has mostly been noise, nothing but pure crap just like (((movies.))) Pure Jewish GARBAGE.

Mr, Solomon, what a great article—Your mocking and snide remarks in the first half marked you as a Jew, and then you confirmed by saying you are! Thanks for being honest.

Any US civil war 2.0 analysis needs to factor in race. America is a racially charged powder keg under normal circumstances. When the sh!t goes down, people tribe up. This increases the chances of racial conflict. Race war benefits the globalists. That's why they push it.

But it has been YOU and your people that have turned America into a Third World Hell-Hole. You have done a Bang-up job! America is a Failed State. It's gone. And nothing is going to work. The Mexican Cartels are now moving thru America and growing by leaps and bounds!

I am amazed at the Power of the Jews. You guys are just tremendous! You control ALL of America. You broker NO resistance—you got rid of Trump in a coup! Great Job! A tiny minority —so much POWER! The Book of Esther did you good in keeping your future generations on how to conduct a Mafia operation to protect yourselves once the host nation figures you out!

America is dead and gone. I want to congratulate the Jews on just winning. You have Won!

It is the Scorpion and Frog parable in real life, but in the process of killing us Amalek, you have killed yourselves too!

The Jews have won! But I don't think your utopia is going to come!

The stories of national currencies going bust are numerous. The images of wheelbarrows full of currency to purchase staples during the Weimar incident are often used as illustration.

Why people think it isn't going to happen in their country or if inflation goes higher it won't THAT bad is whistle past the graveyard. The US is unique in that due to the Dollar's reserve currency status, about half of all Dollars have been sequestered outside the US. It's those dollars that are going to flood the US market trying to purchase anything of value when foreigners no longer need them for trade settlement. That is the definition of price inflation and there's nothing the Fed can do about it short of closing off the US from all foreign Dollar transfers which would sink the US's trade ability.

The sanctions have given the world the reason to exit the Dollar's domain and it is dedollarization that will kill the US's ability to continue their empire.

$2500 ? Don't settle for peanuts.

If the reports are to be believed that gold will be either a major or only part of the scheme being hatched by Sergey Glazyev for the new trading currency for the 'east', then it behooves the countries with the most gold to value each ounce for as much as possible. Since the current paper gold market is purposely suppressing the precious metals and has locked Russia out of that space, it is in Russia's best interests to bust that cartel and revalue gold at a rate sufficient to get the miners interested in more supply.

Lots of people have floated ridiculous figures for the proper price of gold, but James Rickards actually backed his theoretical value with actual logic. I believe he came up with $15,000/oz .
