Rozhodnutí Nejvyššího soudu o afirmativní akci a reakce na ni jsou nejnovějším důkazem – jako by jich bylo potřeba –, že politika v multirasové Americe je rozbitá tak, že se nedá napravit.

To nejlepší, co rozhodnutí udělalo, bylo zbořit myšlenku, že „rozmanitost“ na akademické půdě je tak důležitá, že ospravedlňuje rasovou diskriminaci. Pokud jde o reakce, zdá se, že hysteričtí liberálové – tedy demokraté a většina médií – skutečně věří, že toto rozhodnutí je velkým vítězstvím – hádejte co? — bílá nadvláda.

Nejprve se podívejme na rasovou diskriminaci v přijímacích politikách Harvardu, což byla velká část případu. Soudní spory často nutí strany kašlat na informace, které nechtějí, aby je někdo viděl.

Fejetonista a podcaster John Derbyshire na tuto odbornou zprávu právem upozornil. Autor, Peter Arcidiacono, je profesorem ekonomie na Duke a použil přijímací data, která byla Harvardovi nucena převést. Tato tabulka vypočítává, jak by vypadala třída na Harvardu, kdyby se přijímací řízení zakládalo striktně na známkách a výsledcích testů nebo na tom, co Harvard nazval „akademickým indexem“. Pokud by Harvard náhodně přijal bílé, černé, Hispánce a Asiaty z „nejvyššího decilu“ nebo nejlepších 10 procent akademického indexu uvedeného na spodním řádku, přijatá třída by byla 36,54 procenta bělochů, 0,76 procenta černochoů, 2,69 procenta. Hispánci a 51,52 procenta Asiatů. To by znamenalo naprosto ignorovanou rasu. Jak postupujete od spodního řádku, můžete vidět složení třídy, pokud Harvard ignoroval rasu, ale vybíral z nejlepších 20 nebo 30 procent atd.. Jaký byl skutečný rasový mix přijatých studentů?

	Whites	African American	Hispanic	Asian American
Actual Share of Admitted Class	37.61	15.81	14.90	24.86
Randomly sampling from:
Top 9 deciles	42.88	7.52	11.34	30.36
Top 8 deciles	44.56	5.33	9.50	32.46
Top 7 deciles	45.30	3.75	7.84	34.79
Top 6 deciles	45.25	2.92	6.61	36.74
Top 5 deciles	44.52	2.30	5.55	39.09
Top 4 deciles	43.24	1.82	4.68	41.62
Top 3 deciles	40.94	1.41	4.02	44.83
Top 2 deciles	38.49	1.05	3.17	48.63
Top decile	36.54	0.76	2.69	51.52

To je modrá čára. Běloši byli 37,61 procenta třídy — velmi blízko k 36,54 procentům, které by se dostaly za zásluhy. Černoši byli 15,81 procenta, nebo 22-1/2 krát počet, který by byl přijat na základě zásluh. Hispánců bylo 14,9 procenta, čili 5-1/2krát, a Asiatů 24,86, tedy o něco méně než polovina počtu, který by byl přijat na čistě akademický index. Asiáté jasně zaplatili cenu, aby Harvard mohl vpustit tolik černochoů a Hispánců.

Už neslyšme žádné žvásty o tom, že „afirmativní akce“ je benevolentním cvičením „rovných příležitostí“, které nikomu neubližuje. Harvard důsledně diskriminoval Asiaty, aby připustil zvýhodněné menšiny.

To bylo to, o čem mluvil hlavní soudce John Roberts, když napsal, že „odstranění rasové diskriminace znamená odstranění všeho“ a že klauzule o rovné ochraně 14. dodatku zakazuje diskriminaci.

Pan Roberts zcela zavrhl ospravedlnění diskriminace „rozmanitostí“. Teorie vždy byla, že mít černochoy a Hispánce na akademické půdě je „přesvědčivý zájem“, protože jejich pouhá přítomnost výrazně zlepšuje vysokoškolské vzdělání pro každého. Historie tohoto hloupého argumentu, který sahá až do slavného Bakkeho rozhodnutí z roku 1978 – které mimochodem odmítlo preference jako kompenzaci za minulou rasovou újmu – je uvedena v tomto článku Reason , „Řekněte sbohem 'výhodám rozmanitosti' Odůvodnění Afirmativní akce."

Say Farewell To The "Diversity Benefits" Rationale For Affirmative Action

The majority and dissent state the quiet part out loud: affirmative action was never about the educational benefits from diversity.

JOSH BLACKMAN | 7.4.2023 6:15 PM

Justice Roberts napsal, že přínosy diverzity jsou čistá tvrzení, zcela neprokázaná, nelze je kvantifikovat a nemohou být vyhodnoceny soudci. Jinými slovy, baloney. Soudci už 45 let slepě přijímají horkovzdušná tvrzení univerzit o rozmanitosti a Robertsův soud odmítá souhlasit.

Kupodivu si nikdo neklade zřejmou otázku: Pokud jsou výhody diverzity kampusu zbytečné, jak je to s diverzitou jinde? Už 30 let tvrdím, že rasová rozmanitost je hrozným zdrojem konfliktů a napětí.

American Renaissance

There is not a truth existing which I fear, or would wish unknown to the whole world.

— Thomas Jefferson

Who Speaks For Us?

A word of introduction to our readers.

In the fall of this year, we wrote a modest, one-sentence advertisement for American Renaissance, which we called a "literate, undecieved journal of race, immigration, and the decline of civility." A well-known conservative publication called the ad "controversial," and refused to accept it. In so doing, that publication once more confirmed how thoroughly silenced are the voices that will speak through American Renaissance.

Merely to put the words "race, immigration, and the decline of civility" in the same sentence is to step across the line that separates what may be said publicly from what may not. Despite the American tradition of free speech and the fervor with which we claim to defend it, nearly every American takes the greatest care not to cross that line. There are subjects on which debate has ended, the book has been closed, and this is to be so no matter how much the reality of our daily lives clashes with conclusions that have been declared as final.

Today it is foreigners who have not learned the limits of what may be said in America who are most likely to step across that strongly-defended line. In 1986, then-Prime Minister Nakasone of Japan provoked a torrent of outrage when he said that because large numbers of blacks and Hispanics live in the United States, it cannot compete as effectively with other nations as it might otherwise.

In fact, blacks and Hispanics are, compared to whites, far more likely to be poor, illiterate, on welfare, or in jail; they are far more likely to have illegitimate children, be addicted to drugs, or have AIDS. By no definition of international competitiveness can the presence of these populations be anything but a disadvantage. How many Americans must have thought to themselves, "Mr. Nakasone is right" – and said nothing? Americans of European heritage, the cultural heirs of the people who founded and built this nation, were silent.

The United States is unquestionably less competitive because so many blacks and Hispanics are in jail or on welfare, but none dares say so. America is an increasingly dangerous and disagreeable place because of growing numbers of blacks and Hispanics (see following story), but none dares say this either. It is our actions that speak for us rather than our words. When we choose our neighborhoods or our schools, when we mentally demarcate entire sections of our cities as places to be avoided, we are saying something important about race, but we say it silently. White people have all but lost their public voice.

Today in America, there are hundreds of organizations that speak for blacks, Hispanics, Asians, and American Indians, but virtually no one speaks for us. While other racial and ethnic groups work tirelessly to advance their group interests – often at our expense – we alone are not to think of ourselves as a people with our own ideals and aspirations.

Some of us have become afraid to say openly what we know to be true. Others – sincere, thoughtful, concerned Americans – have been convinced that it is improper, even immoral, for white people to think of themselves as a group or to speak out as whitepeople. We believe that in the pages of American Renaissance these people will find reasons to think that it is not only moral but necessary.

For though we are still three-fourths of the population, this society speaks and acts as if it were devoted to the interests of everyone but us. In the name of "equal opportunity," America practices systematic, legal discrimination against whites. In the name of "diversity," it sponsors massive non-white immigration. In the name of "multi-culturalism," its schools belittle the heritage that gave our nation its name, identity, laws, and moral foundation. In the name of "tolerance" it encourages groups who seek our dispossession.

Is dispossession too strong a word? Fifty years ago this nation was more than 90 percent white. In another fifty years, we are cheerfully told, it will be less than half white. Fifty years ago, the United States had an unmistakable national and cultural core. In another half century, if whites continue to cooperate in their own dispossession, this nation will have no core and no identity.

We at American Renaissance believe that for a nation to be a nation – and not just a crowd – it must consist of people that share the same benefits" appears only four times in Justice Sotomayor's dissent, and zero times in Justice Jackson's dissent. Indeed, as Chief Justice Roberts pointed out, Justice Sotomayor cited Justice Powell "barely once," while Justice Jackson "ignores Justice Powell altogether." Rather, the dissenters rely almost exclusively on Justice Marshall's dissent. Under well-settled law, the universities have not invoked any sort of "remedial" interest. To the contrary, the dissenters adopted the en vogue theory that our society is plagued by structural racism and the Fourteenth Amendment must be interpreted to remedy that oppression. Chief Justice Roberts observed that "there is a reason" the dissenters have to rely on Justice Marshall's dissent, because they "surely cannot claim the mantle of stare decisis."

Ubírá mi cestu soud?

Ve svých disentech, ve kterých se snažili bránit rasové preference, se soudci Sonia Sotomayor a Ketanji Jackson ani nepokusili rehabilitovat „rozmanitost“, je to tak falešné.

Místo toho řvali o hrůzách minulé diskriminace. Jak poznamenává tento článek, „odpůrci přijali v módě teorii, že naše společnost je sužována strukturálním rasismem a čtrnáctý dodatek musí být vykládán tak, aby napravit tento útlak“.

Spolkli Teorii kritické rasy a pověsili klobouk před ospravedlněním diskriminace – odškodněním za minulou újmu –, které soud zamítl před 45 lety ve věci Bakke. Toto je plnohodnotná „spravedlnost“ ve stylu Kamala-Harris, která trvá na tom, že každý rozdíl mezi černou a bílou musí být obviňován hroznými bílými lidmi a musí být napraven zvláštním zacházením.

Nesouhlas soudce Jacksona byl obzvláště pronikavý.

S láskou klusala otroctví, Jim Crow, lynčování a statistiky o rasových rozdílech ve výsledcích, které vinila bělochy. Rich Lowry v National Review správně napsal, že „její ruční práce lze stěží kvalifikovat jako právní názor. Zní to jako esej pro hosty od „antirasistického“ guru Ibrama X. Kendiho.“

By RICH LOWRY

Her handiwork hardly qualifies as a legal opinion. It reads like a guest essay by 'anti-racist' guru Ibram X. Kendi in the New York Times.

To je bezpochyby důvod, proč to Kamala Harris nazvala „jedním z nejskvělejších disentů, které kdy jakýkoli soudce Nejvyššího soudu Spojených států napsal“.

THE WHITE HOUSE

THE VICE PRESIDENT: That in spite of the fact that a 6-to-3 Court just undid Affirmative action, that there is probably one of the most brilliant dissents that any justice of the United States Supreme Court has ever written, and her name is Justice Ketanji Brown Jackson. Joy.

Jsem si jistý, že viceprezident četl každý nesouhlas, protože ten první byl napsán v roce 1790.

Justice Jackson ve svém nadšení napsala, že afirmativní akce doslova „zachraňuje životy“: „U vysoce rizikových černých novorozenců přítomnost černého lékaře více než zdvojnásobuje pravděpodobnost, že dítě bude žít a nezemře.“

Věděl jsem, že je to špatně, hned jak jsem to četl, a chystal jsem se prohrabat poznámky pod čarou paní Jacksonové, ale Wall Street Journal mi ušetřil potíže. „Neuvěřitelná statistika Justice Jacksonové“ vysvětluje, proč je její tvrzení nejen nepravdivé, ale i absurdní. *** Velká média jí většinou poklekla u nohou, jako ve filmu „Ketanji Brown Jackson odhalil ‚barvoslepu‘ lež Nejvyššího soudu.“ Toto je jeden z mnoha článků, které bez dechu opakovaly tvrzení o umírajících černých dětech. ***

Nebe, jak nám bylo řečeno, jistě spadne. „Nejvyšší soud právě buldozoval afirmativní akci,“ říká Slate a dodává, že „rozhodnutí je obrovskou ranou pro rasovou spravedlnost, která má škodlivé důsledky pro celou společnost, které budeme pociťovat po zbytek našich životů.“

that sea change will absolutely damage schools' efforts to aid underrepresented racial minorities who've received none of the privileges that many white applicants take for granted. In that respect, the decision is a massive blow to racial justice, one with noxious consequences throughout society that we will feel for the rest of our lives. "The absence of race-conscious college admissions," Justice Sonia Sotomayor wrote in dissent, "will decrease the pipeline of racially diverse college graduates to crucial professions," including business, public service, science, technology, and medicine. This lack of diversity doesn't just hurt racial minorities. It hurts everyone.

Přispěvatel MSNBC Dean Obeidallah tweetoval: „Nejvyšší „soud“ republikánské strany zruší zákon o občanských právech, aby umožnil segregaci Jima Crowa znovu začít.“

Looking ahead to the Supreme Court's potentially radical next move.

Rovnocenné zacházení s lidmi – zejména s Asiaty – je nadřazenost bílé rasy.

Když zrovna nezabíjeli soud, liberálové stahovali Asiaty z kůže za porušení řad protibělošské koalice.

Fox shromáždil příklady v „Médiích, liberálové útočí na asijské Američany jako na pěšáky“.

Jeff Chang řekl: „Asiati slouží jako maska bílého privilegia. Maska, kterou může nosit bílé privilegium, aby se skryl.“ Sally Chen uvedla, že rozhodnutí Nejvyššího soudu říká: „Hej, asijské Američané, i vy můžete vidět černé a hnědé lidi požadující spravedlnost a začlenění jako hrozbu pro vás. Vrhněte svůj osud na bílé odpůrce integrace.“
Netřeba dodávat: „Biden říká, že Nejvyšší soud nemůže mít ‚poslední slovo‘ o kladné akci.“

Biden Says Supreme Court Can't Have 'Last Word' on Affirmative Action

Prezident říká, že soud se snaží změnit to, co Amerika znamená: „dát každému spravedlivou šanci“. Černoši a Hispánci dostanou „spravedlivý výstřel“ pouze tehdy, když ostatní ne.

Pan Biden již zadal studii o „slibných přijímacích postupech k vybudování inkluzivních, různorodých studentských skupin“.

The plan laid out by the White House includes several efforts by the Department of Education, which plans to provide colleges with clarity on what admissions practices remain lawful and to convene a national summit on educational opportunity next month to “to share lessons learned, innovative strategies, and develop additional resources for colleges and students to expand access to educational opportunity.” After the summit, the Department of Education will produce a report by September “elevating promising admissions practices to build inclusive, diverse student bodies, including by using measures of adversity,” according to the White House.

Tedy jak rozvrátit rozsudek.

Robertsovo rozhodnutí má dva zlomy. Za prvé, v aplikačních eseích mohou studenti psát o důležitosti své rasové identity a o tom, jak bojovali proti rasismu, ale to musí být něco jedinečného pro každého žadatele a nesmí to být způsob, jak propašovat afirmativní akce zadními vrátky. Nemyslím si, že psaní o rase bude fungovat pro bílé uchazeče.

Pan Roberts také osvobodil vojenské akademie ze svého rozhodnutí. Mohou pokračovat v nehorázné diskriminaci, protože národní bezpečnost vyžaduje různorodý důstojnický sbor. Jak se to shoduje s tím, že trvá na tom, že rozmanitost je nesmysl a že 14. dodatek zakazuje rasovou diskriminaci?

Takže, co se stane teď? Předpovídám krátký pokles černošských a hispánských přijímaček, než se luxusní školy vrátí do starých kolejí. Ukáže se, že každý uchazeč o favorizovanou rasu napsal brilantní esej o svém celoživotním boji proti bílé nadvládě. Více škol zahodí standardizované testování, takže již nebude existovat objektivní způsob měření diskriminace. Přijímací úřady nebudou nic dávat na papír a zničit všechny záznamy o rozhodnutích o přijetí. A samozřejmě pravda o rasových rozdílech v IQ bude cenzurována stejně nelítostně jako vždy.

Libido pro takzvanou „spravedlnost“ je příliš silné na to, aby bylo zmařeno pouhým rozhodnutím soudu. Jedna věc je jistá. Little Rock nedostaneme, 1957.

101st Airborne nikdy neopraví bajonety a odsune stranou děkany diverzity, aby se do očí bíjící oběti diskriminace mohly zúčastnit Harvardu nebo UC Berkeley.

Řešení rozhodnutí SCOTUS je jednoduché:

- i) Udělejte jednu z univerzit Ivy League celou černou (takže jedna osmina, přibližně odpovídající procentu populace) a změňte její status na HBCU.
- ii) Tato univerzita by měla být nejméně přísná z osmi*. Stačí změnit její název z „Hnědé“ na „Černé“.
- ii) Říkejme tomu 'Jivey League'.

Hotovo. Black University v Rhode Island je nyní Jivey League, nejlepší HBCU v Americe. WN wiggers nejhůře zasažení.

*Diskutovalo se o přeměně Cornell University na Cornrow University nebo jen odstranění jednoho 'l', aby bylo 'Cornel' na počest velkého Cornela Westa. Má dokonce 'Cornell West Campus':

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Cornell\_West\_Campus

Ale velká přítomnost přísných oborů, jako je inženýrství, a vysokých škol, jako je obchod, právo a medicína, z něj udělala špatného kandidáta na status HBCU. Nepomohlo ani mrazivé počasí.

Zdá se, že tento soud má mandát vyrábět témata, na kterých by demokraté mohli vést kampaň. Nyní je to soud křesťanských nacionalistů. Je to také Corporate Junket court. Zdá se, že v analýze chybí vážená proporce a jaké jsou vážené proporce populace, která tvoří každou samostatnou rasovou kategorií?

Konkrétněji, upřednostňuje Harvard americké občanství při získávání nebo výběru žadatelů? Pokud ano, pak jsou bílí Američané značně nedostatečně zastoupeni v každé kategorii „objektivního testování/úspěchu“ A Asiaté jsou oproti jejich nepatrnému podílu na americké populaci výrazně nadměrně zastoupeni bez ohledu na jejich výsledky v testech. Pokud však nejsou vyloučeni čínští přistěhovalci/legální cizinci, pak čtyřnásobná populace Číny snadno posouvá asijskou rovnici bez ohledu na to, že průměrné čínské IQ je 5 až 8 bodů nad USA, což zase posouvá asijskou rovnici ještě výš.

Taylor is boomer posting at this point — next he'll be telling everyone that 'Democrats are the real racists'.

The sole logical basis for the 'merit' argument is that scores on standard tests are the best predictor of success in higher education — better than GPA and subjective factors like teacher recommendations — while this is rarely questioned, the data on that, at least for some less selective schools, is somewhat mixed:

Among 1,807 UC Riverside students with GPAs of 3.75 or higher and SAT scores above 900 — the 32nd percentile — outcomes were not so different between those with higher- and lower-end SAT test scores: ... Students with SAT scores below 900, however, did noticeably worse.

Unsurprisingly, students with scores below a certain threshold do poorly; they really do not belong in college — but for better students with both good grades and reasonably high test scores, the average difference in outcomes between students with higher test scores vs students with marginally lower test scores was small, at least at UCR — a big, national study on this question, using data from a large number and a wide variety of schools, would be interesting.

Looking at the quality of civilizations they build, clearly the test score gap between Whites and Asians has no significance whatsoever — in fact, judging by migrant flows, Asians seem to prefer white civilization.

And it is never really explained why failure to admit on test scores alone is seen as de facto unlawful discrimination — obviously, there is nothing in the Constitution about university admissions and test scores.

Basically the lawsuits were pushed by Asian parents angry their kids were denied the cachet of an Ivy League degree — they could go somewhere else and get a comparable undergrad education.

I don't blame anyone at Harvard for not wanting a typical class to be majority Asian — after all, this is America, not Asia.

It should be obvious now that there is no possibility of any kind of outcome except separation or civil war. I would prefer mass expulsions of Democrats and disloyal minorities, but whatever. These nutjobs will fight to the death to retain their unearned “benefits” and free stuff. White America can’t afford to allow this nonsense to go on. There is no middle ground.

Just look at “Justice” Katenji Jackson (the silly, made-up name tells you all you need to know).

It is all the rage to urinate on anything remotely “Confederate” these days. If the men who fought in the Union army could see what has happened to the country they fought for, they would join with the rebels and clean this country from top to bottom. “Justice” Jackson would be cleaning toilets for a living, if they were in a merciful mood.

It's the Protestant-dominated "supreme court" that gave us many flawed "opinions", one of the most destructive being "Wickard v. Filburn" which expanded the federal government's "reach" into intrastate commerce, declaring that a product from one state could be affecting commerce in another state despite not being created or sold in interstate commerce, nevertheless being subject to federal government regulation and control.

Another Protestant-led "supreme court" "opinion" was "Brown v. Board of Education" which was flawed as the court based its "opinion" on the tendency of black children to choose white toy dolls rather than black toy dolls, thereby "proving" that racial "discrimination" existed and had to be abolished. In this "opinion" it was deemed that blacks had to sit next to whites for them to learn.

It is the Catholic members of today's "supreme court" who are finally "righting the ship" by abolishing "affirmative action" and restoring true "freedom of religion".

Protestants have a lot to answer for with their flawed "supreme court" "opinions".

It would have been nice, unexpected but nice, if someone had asked how Jewish people who have been downtrodden and ground down so low as to deserve special protections are also just lumped in with white people. Ron Unz already told us the numbers and they show ruthless discrimination against Christian whites and special treatment of people who write about the grandparents who died at Auschwitz.

Does the ruling even apply to Jews?

‘Democrats ... believe that the decision is a great victory for white supremacy.’ — Jared Taylor

Jared Taylor carelessly cites the loaded code word ‘white supremacy,’ while shirking his authorial duty to deconstruct it. So I will.

White supremacy is a meme pushed by culture-war Jews such as attorney general Merrick Beria ‘Garland’ [not his real name] and DHS Secretary Alejandro Mayorkas.

Their ‘white supremacy’ meme asserts that it is perfectly acceptable for minorities such as blacks, hispanics and (super omnia) jews to vigorously advocate for their ethnic interests ... whereas, the slightest peep of complaint from non-jewish whites is sinister, racist and threatening.

In his perceptive essay “Affirmative Action and the Jewish Elephant in the Room,” Ron Unz ripped the Band-Aid off the seemingly anodyne ‘white’ category:

Jews were apparently enrolled at Harvard and other elite colleges at a rate some 1,000% greater than white gentiles of similar academic performance.

Jared Taylor almost surely read Unz’s analysis, yet declines to ‘go there’ by pointing out the scrums of smirking jews preening in the ‘white’ woodpile.

If Jared Taylor can’t detect and proclaim that the ‘white’ category has been weaponized to discriminate against non-jewish whites — even as they are pummeled by government ministers with the odious slander of white supremacy — then young Jared’s going to get cucked again.

One assumes that Taylor's 'see no jews' myopia is not a deliberate limited hangout, to maintain his viability within the jewish media. Or is it?

Brilliantly written article as usual. The only fly in the ointment I see is here:

That's the blue line. Whites were 37.61 percent of the class — very close to the 36.54 percent that would have got in on merit.

According to Ron Unz, Jews at 25% of the student body are lumped into this “white” category. Which means that White Christians are only about 10% of Harvard’s student body and thus underrepresented almost fourfold. What do you say?

So, what happens now? I predict a brief dip in black and Hispanic admissions, before fancy schools go back to their old ways. Every favored-race applicant will turn out to have written a brilliant essay about his life-long fight against white supremacy. More schools will dump standardized testing, so there will no longer be an objective way to measure discrimination. Admissions offices will put nothing on paper and destroy all records of admission decisions. And, of course, the truth about race differences in IQ will be censored as ruthlessly as ever.

Your prediction seems entirely plausible. Probably the only reasonable outcome is for white Christians to establish their own institutions of higher learning. Maybe go back to faith-based universities. What is the demographic composition of Liberty University in Virginia? Or BYU in Utah? Perhaps you can look into that and write another stellar essay!

If we had not destroyed our schools integrating low IQ blacks into them we would not need Asians to fill higher level jobs. I'm Asian with 2 kids in college and I actually think SCOTUS is going about this all wrong. Instead of banning race as a factor for admission we should use race and academic credential as the only factors: admit in direct proportion to each group's share of the general population, and take only the top applicants in each group based strictly on a combination of SAT scores+GPA+AP test scores.

This would get rid of the hazy and opaque "Holistic Admissions" which still allows for far too much manipulation in favor of legacy status, victimhood status which includes race, athletics, meaningless involvement in science/math/essay competitions or other dubious "talents" like activism through volunteerism, which is exhausting our top students leaving them no time for creativity or pursuing things that truly interest them.

Under this new scheme whites would make up 60% of elite schools' student body, Jews 2%, Asians 6%, multi-racial 4%, blacks 12% and Hispanics 16%. The top students in each group would get in instead of who is most well connected or can whine the most in their essays. I think that is the fairest method for a multiracial country like the US.

Do you think that the Protestants were to “Blame” for “Past Court Misgivings”? This Country was formulated mostly by WASProtestant, Deist, Secularist Landed Gentry with Masonic-Zionists in Charge

What makes you think that Catholics and Jewish-Diaspora would have made “Different and Better” Choices in Court back then and make better decisions now?

How so?

Here’s another one – WhyTF can’t we “successfully” Prosecute/Incarcerate/Litigate against Catholic Clergy relative to the sheer number of their alleged+admitted Child Molestation Cases?

Do Church “Penance and Absolution” really work in a Secular Nation, or suppress the Secular Rule of Law?

Your Bias is Obvious.

This Country had roughly less than 10 Percent (5%?) or so of Catholics at the Declaration. Though the Catholic Percentage of the Demographics will increase somewhat with OpenBorders – I believe the SCROTUS should represent more of a Cross Section of the Republic BodyPolitic.

Loosely based on Demographics, Catholics shouldn’t take more than 3 Seats, Jewish not more than 1.

I’d like that far more than seeing the “Overrepresentation” of two Distinct Ethno-Religious Minorities seated at the Supremes.

Are you in the Camp that would say that Murica are better off with the Jewish-Diaspora running most (presumably Top Rated) Ivy League Schools and commandeering 20% of the School's Undergraduate Student Seats – while holding 3~4% of the Population? With plenty more Whites and East Asians scoring as much+higher on Entrance Exams?

Murica's Oligarchs have Plundered the Internal Political+Social Landscape over the years; but I prefer the intended "Federal Republic" duly respected in running Top Level Federal Institutions.

You must be living in some imaginary very white version of the USA, perhaps with a time machine.

Predicting that the 100 million Non-Asian “minorities” in the USA would attain zero elite university spots under a merit system, is obviously absurd. Do you even know any of the tens of millions of middle-class or upper-income Hispanic US citizens? How about the many competent and reasonably intelligent Middle Eastern and Persian people in the US?

A merit selection system likely would lead to fewer than half the elite university spots being given to nonHispanic nonJewish White European-Americans. Jews and most of all Africans would lose their overrepresentation privilege, but nonhispanic whites still wouldn't be a majority at the most selective competitive universities.

Also, white nonHispanic people are already a minority in most of our most populous States — including #1 California, #3 Florida, #4 New York, and #11 New Jersey.

NonHispanic whites also constitute a minority of the youth population of many other States, like #2 Texas, Maryland, Colorado, and Arizona. The word minority cannot be used to describe non-whites in the USA any longer. We should say what we actually mean.

to me – those "soldiers" with their bayonets fixed and pointed at those young White people – in a new regime of White beyond outrage. And then the REAL process of rounding up all our explicit and devoted anti-White enemies would go into full revenge/retribution ACTION would do its cleansing work.

THAT'S what REAL White Supremacy would look like in my filthy swear word in the mouths of our enemies. It IN TRUTH would be a cosmic JUSTICE meted out after GENERATIONS of race-war perpetrated against Whites in their own lands and not any kind of "Supremacy" but an utterly JUST response for a

The fairest way to solve the problem would be for there to be three parallel routes for admission.

33 1/3 % of places would be up for auction, and the parents who offered to pay the highest tuition would win places for their offspring.

33 1/3 % of places would be assigned by a lottery. Any high school graduate could enter, but each candidate could only buy 1 ticket, for a modest price of, say, $25.

33 1/3 of places would be awarded based on a competitive examination held annually at Harvard. The format of the exam would change each year, so that no one could prepare for it, and the aim would be to favor candidates capable of thinking on their feet.

This would provide for wealth, intelligence, and randomness.

I can and will answer your questions civilly:

You have answered your first question. The “landed gentry” were indeed Protestants. Catholics were marginalized in many states as Protestantism was considered a “official state religion” in many areas. Yes, persecution of Catholics was relatively common in pre-USA and early post-USA days, Maryland being established as a “Catholic” state.

According to Catholic doctrine, employers are REQUIRED to pay at least subsistence wages. The Protestant “robber barons” always found excuses to pay their employees as little as possible while amassing great fortunes and living grand lives themselves. This ties in with the Protestant belief that “good works” are of no value. In fact, it is Catholics who established the first universities, hospitals, and parochial schools, which at first were seen as “subversive”. This also ties in to the “prosperity gospel” which is another Protestant trait which considers anyone who fails in business to have a moral failing as well.

Your bias is showing when it comes to the “Catholic clergy sex abuse scandal”. Yes, the problem is despicable but has been dealt with effectively in the last decades.

There are many more instances of Protestant lay leaders and Jewish rabbis committing despicable acts against children but they are almost never publicized. It is Jewish hatred of Roman Catholicism as well as their control of the mainstream media which gives them a forum in which to show their hatred of and denigrate Catholicism.

Keep in mind that it is Protestantism that has been “judified” (jewified) with the adoption of jewish principles, especially in business dealings, usury and the like.

The jewish takeover of the Roman Catholic Church only occurred with the “coup” with the creation of the Vatican II Ecumenical Council.

You are lumping Catholicism and judaism together when it is actually Protestantism that has a closer affinity with judaism and jews and some of their practices.

Your claim that the demographics should take into consideration the number of seats that Catholics should hold on the supreme court flies in the face of “separation of church and state”. Protestants have been imposing their “values” on the court along with their affinity for judaic “values”. THAT is a problem that I have pointed out in my previous post.

I, like you am extremely dissatisfied observing the stranglehold that jews have on our “institutions of higher learning” as well as the media and in government as well. Catholics have an extremely small margin in the aforementioned educational, media and government. Please keep in mind that even nominally Catholic universities have been “jewified” and Protestantized with anti-Catholic and anti-Christian “values” such as abortion and LGBTQXYZ traits being not only tolerated but “normalized”. Not good.

The only way out is for both Roman Catholicism and Protestantism to throw off the jewish yoke that is controlling both Christian organizations as well as government and media.

A start would be the total prohibition on “dual citizenship”. Anyone with “dual citizenship” would not be permitted to hold any position in academia, media, and government.

Best regards,

If “affirmative action” were applied regardless of racial ethnicity most people would have no problem with it, but as it has been applied, DOES devalue the (few) honest accomplishments of those of a certain race.

When one sees persons of a certain race in positions of authority and responsibility, the question arises: “How did he get there? Was it by his own honest efforts or did he benefit from “affirmative action”?”

Affirmative action, as presently applied IS a stigma that has been finally abolished. It benefits no one...and sows seeds of doubt among all of those who work with those in positions of authority of a certain race.

Here is one way think of “affirmative action” as it is presently applied.

Oprah Winfrey’s child would automatically qualify for affirmative action just because of skin color while a “poorer than poor” white Appalachian child would never qualify for “affirmative action” solely because he is the “wrong race”.

“Affirmative action” should NEVER have been based on race, but, if deemed “legal”, should have been based on economic status.

and don't forget a few sappy Catholics taught to foster a guilt complex over everything and anything. Increasingly so, now that Catholics have been Protestantized. Once they made it to growing up in a house with 23" color TV, and more than one shithouse – life's a breeze; go out and play football.

But, it takes all kinds. The television has been religiously visited by Catholics and Protestants alike. Curiously, adding zillions of channels beyond the original 1 to maybe 5, hasn't changed (((TV))) one bit. [that's where I put the Jew blame – they did a fantastic job, there; that, and advertising = big bucks].

The Asian intellectual thing is a cultural thing. Get over it, football fans of mixed English-Irish descent with your Boy Scout uniform still packed away in the memorabilia box. IQ's are more cultural than genetic. Inbred Protestant hillbillies raised in backgrounds offering little or no advantage to getting "A's" in school are also IQ deficient due solely to a cultural thing. The boy parades around on the football field, the girl stuffs her bra and cheer leads; math is 9th on their list of things to do, and intermediate algebra? "Oh, that's for chinks" (there's my proof). Coloreds, Poelocks, Sicilians, and Irishmen go the same route in their own way. I actually knew smarty coloreds in high school (Ginger-almost passing, Jersey White, Cocoa, Eggplant – didn't matter; they all grew up in tightly wound households where bringing home a good report card was real important, and several of them, almost unbelievably, flunked out of away college once the colored "hippies" got a hold of them) So, you see...It's cultural, babe!

OK...I see a bit of genetics in the mix. Asians have been totally isolated from Europeans and Africans since time immemorial. Very limited Asian genes ever floated into eastern Europe. And I suspect that it was for some reason (we'll never know) solely Asian dummies that crossed the Bering Strait (maybe born losers, exiled to far NE Asia and thought "anything is better than this." we'll never know). Conversely, I can only remember a small handful of whites with that "tik, tik, tik" mental math intellect – and oddly, it included ones I see no evidence of having mixed with Asians, genetically or culturally.

In other news, this ruling will have little to no impact. Laws are like bible verses. People know them, they can recite them. but they definitely won't live by them if they feel like it.

While I don't doubt that East Asians are generally more attentive, hard-working and possibly more commonly endowed with a facility to mental tasks that many whites are sorely lacking in, the most serious problem with the education of white children is that whites are taught to despise it from youth. They want their children to do what the other children consider normal, they want their children spending hours a day through most of the year practicing or playing sports, they DO NOT generally want to force their children to study and work. Whereas in Asia mere literacy required strict discipline from tender years in learning characters. So long as whites continue to handicap themselves, to look down on intellect and learning (something which was common in England and France, the English may have valued education as necessary but only to a certain point beyond which it became insufferable pedantry unworthy of polite company and the pre-Revolutionary French nobles went into the Army), there will be no correction of this situation. While whites are letting their daughters listen to rap music, oriental girls are studying the violin. While whites are teaching their sons to idolize negro athletes and to emphasize athletic achievement as being more important than learning, oriental children are kept busy with their studies. No matter how many talented white children there are, they cannot generally succeed in an environment where they are being systematically corrupted by the sick, twisted values of judeo-masonic America.

What a bunch of crap! How come the Supreme Court is making these magnificent decisions during the (unelected) presidency of Biden. I've been wrestling with these decisions and their timing for awhile. Some realize, and rightly so, that the US Gov including the Supreme Court does not kowtow to the american people, and that we do not live under a "democracy". We are mere slaves in this country and evidenced by the theft of our productivity (taxes) and a country which offers nothing to its populace as a whole.

Here's a bit of trivia. I paid into Medicare for 51+ years and finally decided to register for my benefits. I come to find out I must pay approx $150/month for Parts A and B. And while I am still working I continue to be forced to pay approx $150/month from my paycheck. Now I was told that my Medicare doesn't cover other things like deductibles, vision, pharmacy, extended stays, blah blah blah. So I was required to pick up a supplemental plan for another approx $225/month. Imagine that....now I pay more for Medicare ($525/month) that I ever have even after 50+ years of my pay being sequestered by the government with no way to refuse. Fucking ridiculous!

So, yeah the Supreme Court is not making these decisions based on honesty, fairness, integrity or love for their country. Its simply another mechanism that big businesses and elites have corrupted the process to get their way or to change things. These fuckwads at these universities painted themselves into a corner and realized the harm being done to their business and reputation. They needed a way out so as not to look foolish, racist or a smear on their reputation.

Anyone from the government has nothing to offer but bullshit. Regardless how supreme you might think the Supreme Court is. Its a bunch of monkeys in black robes dictating to the slaves how society will change and you will obey.

FCK the Supreme Court and FCK this corrupted US Government courtesy of the insanely psychopathic khazars that we have allowed to infiltrate unimpeded.

The Jewish kids I grew up with were a little more like the Asian kids than the White kids. They were raised to respect education and often got some form of classical-type training or other. In other words, I'd say, generally they were raised a lot better than most of the white kids. The white kids were raised to be functional retards. Now I live completely amongst whites, mostly protestants. It's the same as before. They're fine with living as peasants, at least now, while the living's pretty easy. So I'd say, to at least some extent, the social rising of the Asians and the Jews to the detriment of the Whites is justified by general happy-go-lucky carelessness by the Whites.

I'm a bit surprised by this video. Mr. Taylor could easily have looked at the white percentage of Harvard students and compared it to that of the general population and seen that it is considerably below that mark. Then, he could at least have asked what percentage of that white share was Jewish, a figure which could more or less be gauged using figures from Hillel houses. Then he could have asked, Why are Gentile whites so under-represented at universities like Harvard, which were created to educate Protestant ministers? As for me, I think every university should be free to take whatever students it pleases, and the federal government should stay the hell out of it. Discrimination is a human right!

America needs better educated Americans. There is potential STEM talent galore amongst actual Americans – including, no doubt, a black American or two. Pushing Americans aside in university admissions and corporate hiring to import foreigners does nothing to help those Americans, and nothing in the long run to help America.

First step is an immigration moratorium, repatriation of all illegal aliens, and strongly encouraged repatriation of incompatible legal immigrants. Second is to break the teachers' unions. Both unlikely prospects right now, but both prerequisites to an American Renaissance.

It remains to be seen if the decision is a victory or a defeat. The left is crying crocodile tears. Allowing colleges to admit students to achieve a particular racial makeup was a dangerous precedent (for the left.) If racial diversity is a legitimate goal, then racial purity could be a legitimate goal. The left could oversucceed and the POC's might segregate themselves. That won't happen now.

As soon as the name John Derbyshire was mentioned, I knew this was going to be an important piece. As always, Mr. Taylor hits it out of the park.

In addition to the points he makes, I would like to add: What has this country LOST by keeping the best and brightest Asians and Whites out of universities for decades? What diseases might have been cured? What innovations didn't we get.

The trouble with Affirmative-Action extended well beyond college admissions. It affected the larger society, and not for the better.

Chinese and Asian kids don't "care" about the SAT any more than anyone else; they are essentially forced to "care" because colleges require higher scores from them to have the same chances of admission as other races: 140 points higher, everything else being equal, according to a study by Princeton economist Thomas Espenshade. That's at the Ivies, but the discrimination goes down the line to the big public universities, so even low-achieving Asian kids still have to get higher scores than white, blacks, etc just to get a seat at Big State where they'll endure the Freshman Fifteen and pass out on the overgrown lawn at Sigma Chi so they can one day get a $60,000 desk job at M&T Bank.

About the "obedient" charge, Chinese immigrants bereft of their railroad jobs after the Transcontinental RR was completed went out to work for themselves. Forget about working for the Man—they opened restaurants, shoe stores, factors, and built farms, clearing tens of thousands of acres in CA and Washington state. Self-employed and without families, they were truly on their own—and they did better and worked harder than anyone else, a truth attested to by none other than Mark Twain. Hardly obedient, they built towns where none existed and cleared swamps and forests where there there was no farmland. Like other Americans of the time, they were true rugged individualists, and arguably more so.

66. Sarah says:

The best thing the decision did was demolish the idea that “diversity” on campus is so important that it justifies racial discrimination.

Justice Roberts wrote that the benefits of diversity are pure assertions, entirely unproven, impossible to quantify, and can’t be evaluated... In other words, baloney.

The UK and Ireland have prestigious, selective universities that have student populations that almost exactly mirror the racial makeup of their societies as a whole. Neither country considers race when admitting. The UK will consider class, but in Ireland admissions are strictly based on exam scores. I’m genuinely curious how HBD “race realists” explain why this seems to be a US only issue. It seems like the more likely explanation is that US universities are expensive and administrators would rather admit mediocre (or worse) middle and upper class minorities than poor ones who can’t pay anything.

>Chinese and Asian kids don't "care" about the SAT any more than anyone else;

Yeah, sure — the SAT was required for decades, but the test prep market was minuscule — growth in the test prep 'industry' was initially fueled almost entirely by status-seeking Asians, who wanted to maximize their scores so they would have a better chance of being admitted to schools they viewed as offering more degree prestige (not to be confused with the quality of undergraduate education):

Test prep is a rite of passage for many Asian-Americans

Whites were always much more relaxed about it — a few decades ago when I took the test at a large, competitive, mostly white HS in California, I knew of only one guy who did any prep at all, and he was viewed as a dork — the rest of us just took the test — the Asian population then grew dramatically, as did the perceived importance of test prep.

No, and the fact you consider Asians to be “worker bees” is a problem. Because the truth of the matter is that American despise learning. It’s not about being a “worker bee.” It’s about functional proficiency, as opposed to “isn’t that cute they’re learning the Preamble to the Constitution and reading “Romeo and Juliet” and learning the quadratic formula! The problem with Americans is that they don’t even have a grasp of what a decent education would look like.

There were once German language schools in the United States. They were shut down, of course. And why was that? Just because of a war? Was America’s entrance in the war strictly about geopolitics? I don’t think the kind of people who pushed for the war could ever have been so vehement about it unless they hated German Americans and relished shutting down German language culture in America.

There were some schools based on the German gymnasium in the United States. One was called “Covington Latin School.” Of course within the last thirty years, and especially within the last ten, it has been gutted. That particular school wasn’t beloved of the Ivy Leagues the way a liberal “Country Day School” might be. It was a phenomenal school, which is why its particular culture had to be dismantled. Education in America is one of those natural fields of study for those who honestly recognize the conspiratorial view of history to be the correct view.

Anybody who talks all the time about “abortion hurting Republicans” or “the Republicans don’t care about abortion” (which may be true, but is irrelevant to the political reality of the pro-life vote and the fact that refusing to appoint justices to overturn Roe vs Wade would lose the pro-life vote) is 99% of the time someone who is upset about potential restrictions on abortion. Spare me the hand-wringing. The Democrats were going to cheat and they’re going to cheat again and the state Republican parties will set up ballot issues that are destined to fail in order to protect abortion. They don’t need an excuse to cheat, they know people like you don’t stand for anything!

Democrats don’t have this problem of people getting upset whenever the party does what its voters demand. We should have these people who are pro-abortion absolutely terrified of Republicans winning, so terrified they would support the Democrats, and spare us this outrageous fence-sitting.

Democrats and others infuriated by the SC decision on AA aren't "liberals," accurately defined, but white-hating left-wing totalitarians. True liberals believe the law should be racially neutral and oppose and enounce all forms of racial discrimination, including AA. White-hating left-wing totalitarians support AA and systemic reverse discrimination against whites, especially white males. so myriads of lesser qualified blacks are hired and promoted over better qualified whites, empowering blacks as a group and as individuals and disempowering whites, predominantly white men.

As for the decision against censorship and upholding freedom of speech: True liberals like Alan Dershowitz, a vanishing breed, support freedom of speech not only for themselves and those who agree with them but also those with whom they disagree and dislike or even loathe. Totalitarian leftists like Garland and Mayorkas and Obama and myriads of others and their senile and demented puppet, Joe Biden, support mass censorship. That's why they oppose and are enraged by the SC decision.

I'm just talking about the White kids, that is, those of Christian descent, that I grew up with. They were raised in a culture where one goes to ones job, payday is Friday, and no need to bother with anything but entertainment and other consuming activities outside of that. The Jewish kids with whom I also went to high school were raised to get involved with a little bit of political activity, at least, or show interest in such. They also pretty much universally valued education. With the White kids educational ambition was completely hit or miss. Some got good grades in school, many didn't. We all partied together. Interest in larger world affairs was entirely nil. I don't know about the generations before mine.

Crap, in my high school there was a "class" called "work experience". In other words, you got credits for having a job. Kids took that "class" who had no job. They were given a broom and dustpan and walked around cleaning up. They got school credits for being janitors. 100% of them were non-Jewish White kids.

When I was an undergraduate, in exchange for independent study credit, I designed THE FIRST processor chip to do object recognition within digital imagery ON BOARD the reconnaissance satellite taking the images, so that the satellite could IMMEDIATELY take follow-up imagery of the location using a longer focal-length lenses (in stead of how it was being done at the time — image data downloaded when the satellite passed receiving stations, image data then processed in terrestrial computers, and then at some later time, that or most likely ANOTHER satellite would be instructed to take the follow up photos... .by which time the object of interest might be gone).

I'm as proficient at programming as I am at hardware design, and so I've worked on both sides of the house, so to speak.

I have yet to meet a creative Chinese person.

And the Indians... ugh. I've never met so many people who can recite entire paragraphs of definitions and rules, yet fail to understand them, let alone how to apply them properly.

We don't need ANY Asians, although the Japs produce some capable people (and I think that's mostly due to having lived on a resource-scarce archipelago on which 90% of the area is BARE ROCK, incapable of even growing grass, moss, or algae. To survive and even thrive in such circumstances requires not only creativity, but the rest of the society recognising and rewarding creativity (as opposed to the Indian societies, which don't value creativity, and the Chinese, who abhor creativity to such an extent that I believe that they actually eliminated all the genes which lead to creativity from the Chinese gene-pool).

Jews are 12x over represented at the least, just like they are vastly over represented in Biden's cabinet, all of the key positions are occupied by Jews and when one of them leaves, another one takes his place. If Hillary Clinton were to have become President and not Trump, she was going to put Merrick Garland on the Supreme Court and that would have made 4 out of 9 of the Justices as Jews....2% of the pop having nearly half of all representation. Same thing is seen with the media, even more so in banking and Hollywood.

All of the diversity is coming at the expense of White non Jews.
