Příběh černošského vojáka americké armády, který opustil prohlídku DMZ a narazil do Severní Koreje, převzal zpravodajský cyklus kvůli své novosti, ale incident je příležitostí k diskusi o anarchii a dysfunkci, kterou Spojené státy vyvázejí do svých zemí. satelitní státy prostřednictvím svých 750 zámořských základen v 80 zemích.

Podle nedávných zpráv byl 23letý „přeběhlík“ Travis King agresorem mnoha násilných činů proti Korejcům, když byl v zemi. Kingův záznam má několik incidentů, od zbití muže v nočním klubu, vyhrožování Korejcům na ulici výhrůžkami a nadávkami rasy až po útoky na policisty.

Podle dohody o postavení amerických ozbrojených sil (SOFA) je pro místní úřady obtížné stíhat americký vojenský personál, když loví místní obyvatele. Korejští žalobci Kingovi ulehčili a nařídili mu zaplatit za policejní auto, které poškodil, což on odmítl.

Americké úřady, které mají poslední slovo, pokud jde o potrestání vojenských dodavatelů a personálu za zločiny v okolních oblastech, se často chovají k občanům kolem sebe s opovržením. Nehleďte nic jiného než případ Kinga, který byl údajně ve vazbě a byl doprovázen vojenskou policií, aby byl převezen do Spojených států, kde čelil dalšímu trestu, ale nějak skončil sám tři hodiny cesty od nejbližšího letiště, aby se vydal na prohlídku města. DMZ.

Mnoho velkých amerických vojenských základen v zahraničí je mikrokosmem Ameriky, kde najdete Taco Bells, hip hopové taneční kluby, spoustu drog a spoustu zločinů odrážejících americké rasové problémy. Na Okinawě v Japonsku je nyní 55 000 amerických vojáků, 28 500 v Jižní Koreji a 33 000 v Německu, a na rozdíl od tvrzení washingtonského zahraničního politického establishmentu není tato přítomnost vnímána jako vítaný bezpečnostní nárazník proti údajným geopolitickým hrozbám, ale místo toho se běžně odmítá. místními obyvateli jako nucenou okupaci, národní ponížení a zdroj anarchie.

Není žádným tajemstvím, že domácí americká vojenská zařízení jako Fort Bragg , Fort Bliss a Fort Hood , které jsou rasově nejintegrovanejšími komunitami v Americe , jsou válečnými zónami plnými aktivity černošských a mexických gangů, nekontrolovatelných vražd (včetně nadprůměrného počtu mezirasových skupin). kriminalita) a sexuální útoky (včetně mužů). Běloši na základně páchají zločiny také, někdy jako spolupachatelé černochořů nebo Mexičanů v drogové trestné činnosti, ale k tomu dochází na nebo pod poměrem evropských potomků vojáků.

O tom, jak tato morální degenerace uvnitř armády působí na populaci v zahraničí, kde má americká vláda obrovský vliv na klientské režimy, které aktivně pomáhají při zakrývání rozsahu místních zvěrstev a kriminálního chování, aby nedošlo k rozrušení obyvatelstva, není tolik známo.

Zahraniční vlády mohou podporovat americkou vojenskou přítomnost na své půdě, ale lidé ne. Mnoho sionistických představitelů zahraniční politiky zpanikařilo a nakonec zvrátilo pokus prezidenta Donalda Trampa stáhnout vojáky z Německa a Koreje a označilo to za zradu spojenců, ale tato myšlenka zůstává populární. Nedávné průzkumy zjistily, že většina Němců chce, aby se američtí vojáci vrátili domů , zatímco Okinawané pravidelně pořádají masivní protesty (v jednom případě přišlo 50 % ostrovní populace) požadující to, co vnímají jako místo pro vykořisťování, násilníky a vrahy. pod červenou, bílou a modrou vlajkou definitivně uzavřít. Po smrti dvou korejských školaček rukou nedbalých amerických řidičů tanků v roce 2002 brzy následoval jeden z největších a trvalých projevů antiamerikanismu ve „spojenecké“ zemi .

Historie černého vojenského násilí

Najít přesné statistiky související se zločiny (zejména analyzovanými podle rasy) americkými vojáky spáchanými mimo aktivní válečné zóny v zahraničí je náročné, jak nedávno zjistila studie Pentagonu hledající informace o podezřelých „rasových rozdílech“ ve vojenských disciplinárních vyšetřováních. Přesto existuje obrovské množství neoficiálních informací, které doplňují data. Pokud jde o zločiny spáchané v cizích zemích, oběti mají často pocit, že je zbytečné je hlásit, protože úřady většinou nemohou stíhat viníky a američtí důstojníci obecně zavírají oči před čímkoli jiným, než je vražda.

Vrátíme-li se zpět do druhé světové války, černí vojáci byli nadměrně zastoupeni mezi vážnými pachateli. Podle archivních důkazů bylo ze 70 amerických vojáků popravených za brutální znásilnění a vraždy na evropském dějišti druhé světové války 55 černochoů. Před rozhodnutím Nejvyššího soudu z roku 1983, které trest smrti v armádě zakázalo, bylo 11 z 12 vojáků popravených za hrdelní zločiny černé pleti. Během tohoto období černoši představovali pouhých 10 % všech amerických ozbrojených sil.

Tato čísla jsou ohromující i ve srovnání s běžnými rozdíly v rasové kriminalitě v USA. Jedním z důvodů značně nakřivo zastoupení černochoů mezi násilníky a vrahy je to, že černoši obvykle sloužili spíše ve služebních než v aktivních bojových rolích, kde byli civilisté obvykle vyklizeni. Ale je těžké tvrdit, že zde není rasový rozměr. Když se podíváme na záznamy o trestech v tomto časovém období, můžeme vidět, že disciplinární opatření byla udělována rovnoměrněji napříč rasami za menší porušení, jako je opilství nebo neposlušnost, což naznačuje, že u relativně vysokého počtu černochoů se objevuje zvláště sadistický pruh, když mají pocit, že mají přístup k moci nad okupovanou nebo hostitelskou populací. Je třeba poznamenat, že vojenské stíhání za barbarské činy během 2. světové války se do značné míry omezovalo na potrestání zločinů spáchaných na lidech ve spojeneckých zemích, jako je Francie, Anglie a Itálie (které se po puči proti Benitu Mussolinimu připojily ke spojencům v roce 1943) a teprve poté počáteční uvítání (v případě Anglie to zahrnovalo černé vojáky, které viděli jako oběti Američana Jima Crowa) se rychle proměnilo v místní pobouření. Rozsah násilného kriminálního chování amerických jednotek zaměřených na civilisty (v které viděli jako oběti Američana Jima Crowa) se rychle proměnily v místní výkřik. Rozsah násilného kriminálního chování amerických jednotek zaměřených na civilisty (v které viděli jako oběti Američana Jima Crowa) se rychle proměnily v místní výkřik. Rozsah násilného kriminálního chování amerických jednotek zaměřených na civilisty v Japonsko a Německo během války nebyly nikdy oficiálně zaúčtovány.

Pokud jde o Japonsko, jsou k dispozici útržky důkazů – převážně z japonských zdrojů spolu s krátkými zmínkami v amerických knihách a novinách – ukazující na systematické a bezdůvodné vraždy a sexuální útoky zaměřené na muže, ženy a děti. V některých případech zůstaly fyzické důkazy, jako je incident o vraždě Katsuyama z roku 1945, kdy tři černí vojáci, kteří pravidelně vcházeli do města, aby znásilňovali ženy, byli nakonec zabiti několika zbývajícími japonskými vojáky, kteří se schovali v džungli, aby bojovali a následovali jejich národ. kapitulace. Pozůstatky černých GI byly objeveny v jeskyni v roce 1997.

Bez ohledu na to, kam na světě šel černý 24. pěší pluk, následovalo chaos. V jednom případě byla 24. jednotka nařizena opustit své japonské zařízení, aby formálně vstoupila do korejské války. července 1950, noc před odjezdem do Koreje, uspořádalo 200 černých vojáků z pluku zcela nevyprovokované nepokoje v nedalekém městě Kokura, kde se oddávali masovému rabování, přepadení a sexuálním útokům na ženy (včetně před jejich očima). rodiny) a vraždy japonských přihlížejících. Podle svědectví očitých svědků a primárních zdrojů shromážděných japonskými historiky, přemohli vyděšenou maloměstskou japonskou policii, takže bující divokost skončila až po přestřelce mezi černými vojáky a americkou vojenskou policií. Stejným způsobem se tento pluk choval i během první světové války, kdy v roce 1917 zavraždili při vzpouře 16 bílých lidí v Houstonu v Texasu. 24. byla neustálým zdrojem bolestí hlavy pro americké velitele, dokud nebyla v roce 1951 formálně rozpuštěna pro své dlouhé záznamy o politováníhodném chování.

Nebyl to zdaleka jediný trestný čin spáchaný v tomto období. Černí vojáci, využívající krytí mobilizace, se nejaktivněji zapojili do predátorského násilí krátce před odjezdem do Koreje. Dalším velmi zapomenutým příkladem je krutost vojáka jménem James L. Clark, jehož rasa je ve vojenských záznamech uvedena jako černá. Clark byl odsouzen k smrti za to, že se vloupal do domu japonské rodiny požadující sex a poté je všechny zabil. Příběh zdramatizoval japonský spisovatel Seicho Matsumoto, který, přestože je marxista, podrobně popisuje jedinečnou divokost vůči Japoncům, kterou projevovali černoši.

Je známo, že vojáci všech ras se ve válečných zónách dopouštějí excesů, ale černé násilí proti náhodným Evropanům a Asiatům v blízkosti jejich vojenských základen bylo vždy pozoruhodně vysoké. Ve Fort Leavenworth, kde se prováděly vojenské popravy, byla drtivá většina pověšených černochoů. Moderní kritickí rasoví teoretici na to poukazují jako na známku zaujatosti trestního soudnictví, ale ve svých spisech opomíjejí děsivé podrobnosti o zločinech spáchaných černými obžalovanými, které vytvořily přitěžující okolnosti zasluhující smrt místo doživotního vězení, jako je znásilnění a ochromující bití muže. 11letá rakouská dívka, různé sadistické útoky proti bílým taxikářům a vražedné řádění v roce 1954, které zabilo dva vojáky a jejich německé přítelkyně.

Problém se jen zhoršil

S příchodem hnutí za občanská práva a jeho doktríny různých dopadů se kriminalita na amerických základnách a kolem nich nutně zvýší. Od roku 2020 se ministerstvo obrany pustilo do projektu na odstranění rasových rozdílů ve vojenské justici, což nevyhnutelně povede k exportu vlny násilné černošské kriminality, která v současnosti zachvacuje USA. Svět je vystaven nekontrolovanému a eskalujícímu počtu černošského násilí, až na to, že nyní bílí důstojníci, kteří se bojí, že jim zničí kariéru obvinění z rasismu, přistupují k problému jako soudci a státní zástupci ve vlasti: vždy stojí na straně černého zločince.

Morální zbabělost je charakteristickým znakem nejvyšších představitelů americké armády. V roce 1995 tři černí příslušníci amerického námořnictva unesli 12letou japonskou školáčku, svázali ji a zbili, pak ji hromadně znásilňovali ve své dodávce. Rodiny obviněných mužů přijaly přátelská židovská média a tvrdily, že jsou oběťmi rasistických Japonců, kteří po desetiletích vzájemného působení běžně spojují zločiny amerických vojáků s černochy. Nejde o produkt institucionálního rasismu, naopak, během incidentu v roce 1995 se japonská vláda a kontrolovaná média spikly, aby aktivně potlačily fotografie násilníků před propuštěním ze strachu, že by to mohlo vyvolat rasový odpor. Nedostatek vážnosti, se kterým úřady původně přijaly útok, byl ilustrován admirálem Richardem C. Mackem, tehdejším velitelem amerických sil v Tichomoří, který drze reagoval na místní hněv tím, že označil viníky za „hloupé“, nikoli za mučení . malá japonská dívka, ale protože měli použít peníze vynaložené na pronájem dodávky použité při zločinu, aby místo toho získali japonské šlapky. Tři muži byli propuštěni v roce 2002.

Mezi lety 1972 a 2019 spáchali američtí vojáci na Okinawaně 6 000 zločinů – z nichž nejméně 10 % tvořily vážná přepadení, znásilnění a vraždy. Tisíce lidí byly také zraněny nebo zabity při nehodách způsobených neschopným vojenským personálem. Japonská vláda a média se podřizují Washingtonu a snaží se rozptýlit stížnosti na nesnesitelnou situaci zveřejněním falešných grafů, které tvrdí, že Okinawané – kteří jsou nejchudšími lidmi v Japonsku – páchají více zločinů na hlavu než vojáci. Tato data kolují online v anglicky psaném japonském tisku, ale jde o nečestný statistický trik, který srovnává jablka běžných domácích trestných činů, jako jsou drobné krádeže nebo nelegální hazardní hry, s pomeranči závažných zločinů amerických vojáků v této oblasti, jako jsou přitěžující útoky nebo penetrační sexuální útoky. V Koreji spáchali američtí vojáci v letech 1967 až 1998 50 000 trestných činů. Ve východoasijské zemi s nízkou kriminalitou se americký personál každoročně dopouští stovek násilných přepadení a vloupání , přičemž ke znásilněním dochází pětkrát častěji než mezi místními obyvateli. Rozsah problému se v průběhu let poněkud omezil poté, co velící důstojníci začali nasazovat extrémní opatření, jako je uzamčení celé základny, když závažný zločin vyvolává kontroverzi, přesto zprávy citují Korejce, že se „více bojí USA“. vojenské mírové jednotky než severokorejský režim. V Německu byla americká vojenská policie nucena začít hlídkovat v místních barech a na nádražích kvůli nedávným násilným incidentům mezi americkými vojáky a německými policisty.

Tyto problémy mají i menší základny. Minulý rok žena mexického původu sloužící u amerického letectva přejela a zabila dospívajícího italského chlapce , když řídil opilý poblíž letecké základny Aviano. Truchlící matka chlapce chce, aby byl podezřelý souzen u italského soudu, a řekla místním zpravodajským médiím „všichni víme, že vojáci na základně Aviano v této oblasti si dělají, co chtějí, že nerespektují pravidla“, ale místní státní zástupci uvedli, že kvůli předpisům SOFA možná nebudou moci obvinít opilého řidiče. Existují další nedávné případy zahrnující případy amerických vojáků umístěných v Latinské Americe, kteří organizovali skupiny pašování drog a obchodování s lidmi v hodnotě mnoha milionů dolarů .

Doma i v zahraničí je naše armáda výplodem naší společnosti a naše společnost je ostuda. Ti, kteří jsou okupováni washingtonským režimem – ať už jsou to Němci v Norimberku, Japonci na Okinawě nebo běloši z louisianského venkova poblíž Fort Polk – nejsou spokojeni s bezprostředním dopadem imperiálního projektu, o který jsme nežádali. Striker pivoted quickly from talking about Black Violence On American Military Bases to whinging about US military presence in other countries. The problem is the rulers of the US depositing violent black people into otherwise peaceful areas, like has been done domestically in the US for the better part of a century, and in Europe for at least a decade, without any military involvement.

I can agree with the statement Koreans are more afraid of us than NK. I spent 3 weeks at Kunsan AFB many years ago . I'm sure someone who was stationed there for longer can explain this better than me . Anyway in my experience of being there and seeing everything I possibly could the Korean people were overly nice to me . I'm a white man , I'm 6 foot tall and at the time I was fairly built . In other words I was quite a bit bigger than the average Korean man . I could sense the fear looking back on it after all these years . I just thought wow these people are so damn pleasant . When talking to many of the women they wouldn't look me in the eye, at all . Not all but the majority . I get it . The problem was they didn't see black and white , they saw American service men . I do remember the story about the 3 blacks that took the little girl in Japan . It was a huge shit show at the time , for the military that is . The 3 should have been fucking executed . Disgusting bastards.

OT – I came across a video by some black asshole that apparently is a popular you tuber . He was in Japan and talking to this very young and beautiful Japanese girl who did not speak English . He was trying to get her to say nigger. She had no idea what he was saying . I swear to you I was hoping someone would knock him on his ass . And by the way his video is perfectly acceptable for you tube standards. If I make a video of let's say , oh black crime statistics I'm a racist and banned . FUCK. THESE .PEOPLE . And their SJW enablers .

I would love to know anyone else's opinion on Korea who spent longer than 3 weeks there .

Another great article by Stryker. I wonder what is the reason for the US's prolonged military occupation of countries like Japan and Italy? Why were Zionists outraged at Trump's plan to bring back the military from our worldwide occupation? Imagine the money we could save if we did! I sense the shrinkage of the American empire overseas was the primary cause of the deep state persecution of the Trump administration, and that it's likely connected with Zionism.

Why do we not just say "The Rampant Black Violence" and be done with it?

There are far too many Negroes in the U.S. military. They should be released from their obligations and left to fend for themselves. All non-Negro U.S. troops remaining abroad should be repatriated. This whole war thing, I'm not a fan. But I will happily go on that nigger's Youtube and say nigger for him since he wants that. Wouldn't even try to shove him around, it'd be super friendly. Pop in, say nigger, pop out. Because niggers apparently like to make people say nigger. We'd get along famously, bless his heart.

King is possibly the king of niggers. He's Rocketman's problem now. His LA privileges have been revoked.

Japan was to give up control of all its colonies, like Taiwan and Okinawa, per the 1945 Potsdam Accords. The US military made the island of Okinawa its own massive base despite protests from the locals. Due to the ongoing American imperial occupation, along with GI crimes against locals and massive pollution, the USA gave Okinawa back to Japan in 1971, despite the Potsdam agreement, despite objections from China and the Soviet Union, and despite the desire of Okinawans to become independent and expel the Americans. Perhaps China will liberate Okinawa one day.

With the generous sprinkling of your post with expletives and making your own judgmental opinion abundantly clear, I'm surprised that you should be soliciting thoughts from others.

I am personally curious on the stats on the ethnic makeup of rapists in the Okinawa and other military bases. Just curious.

I wonder what is the reason for the US's prolonged military occupation of countries like Japan and Italy?

They'd elect Fascist Governments pretty quickly, their economic problems would be solved, and the serfs in the WWII Victor Countries might think "Why can't we have that?"

Per US troops still in Korea, they are not needed since South Korea is far more powerful than North Korea. China is its major trading partner. American troops remain to keep Korea divided and to keep South Korea under American control. This also justifies many billions of dollars in US military spending each year. However, South Koreans may rebel due to the crazy American anti-China talk and demands for sanctions.

Bad Article, Author.

I GREW UP around and was Stationed on a Cruiser Homeported at an US Naval Base Overseas.

Not just the Blacks, though they do a great deal of problems. It's the Murican Troops as a whole.

The SOFAs has been abused for decades – allowing Criminals to be shipped back to the States without facing Charges.

Enough is enough.

They need to be Modified; and Murican Troops need to be sent Home to CONUS or reassigned to GU or HI.

Those Troops in Okinawa are Prepositioned for Deployment. E.g., Amphibs from Sasebo (Southern Japan) sail over to pick up the Troops to be sent on Assignment.

Tilt-Wing Ospreys can make it from Guam to Okinawa.

Roughly 6~8 Days by Ship from HI to JPN – Hours by Airlift.

JPN+KOR have enough of their own Troops, anyway.

I was there for 13 months, from April 2008 to May 2009. I agree with you. When a woman who owned a restaurant near the airbase where I was stationed said to me “your countrymen,” I winced in pain. She was lumping me in with you-know-who.

The humiliation lingers to this day. But I’ve said too much already. The old rotten bastard’s spies are everywhere.

Since Hugo Boss was the notorious manufacturer of Nazi uniforms, Marxist Moxnes is convinced that theft is the proper means of “reparation to the Comintern”. Moreover, according to Kalle “The Beard” Marx, any kind of property is common property (except, of course, their own). <https://www.thetimes.co.uk/article/marxist-norwegian-mp-stole-sunglasses-from-airport-shop-7v3qrwhjtj>

“Rainbow Nation”: 600,000 whites are expected to lose their jobs.

“Racial quotas” in South Africa are meant to give jobs to blacks. A new law in South Africa means 600,000 people will lose their jobs because they have the “wrong skin color,” according to the opposition. A mass protest is planned in Cape Town on Wednesday.

Although South Africa’s white population has long been oppressed and fought in every possible way by the ruling ANC party, whites continue to be significantly more successful than blacks. At least one in two blacks in the country is unemployed, while the unemployment rate for whites is 9.5 percent.

Whites also dominate business leadership – they make up 10 percent of the population – which is not surprising given the pronounced disparities in schooling and vocational training among skin colors.

But the ANC now wants to counteract this “inequality” by introducing a system of racial quotas in companies with more than 50 employees. The law goes into effect on September 1.

The main opposition Democratic Alliance (DA) party – which is supported by most whites in South Africa – is protesting racial quotas and plans a mass protest in Cape Town today (Wednesday), AFP reports.

DA leader John Steenhuisen states that 600,000 people are currently at risk of losing their jobs “because they have the ‘wrong’ skin color or live and work in the ‘wrong’ areas.”

For its part, the government claims that the law will not lead to layoffs, AFP writes. But the reality is that this new law, with its “racial quotas,” aims to do just that. However, it will not advance the country’s economy, because many blacks still lack the appropriate qualifications to effectively fill these jobs.

The U.S. should favor married soldiers on overseas bases whenever possible to avoid the “horny, lonely sailors scenario” as much as we can.

It isn't natural for thousands of young men to be single on another nation's soil for several years at a time, stuck on a base all week. They are told the U.S. is there because the weaker country “needs” our strength there, and a man's primordial instincts tell him he is “owed” some companionship for providing that “protection”. Roman soldiers 2000 years ago stationed in a rebellious province undoubtedly took advantage of the Empire's strength from time-to-time. The UN's peacekeeping forces in Africa have repeatedly been accused of raping underaged African girls.

Maybe military bases on foreign nation's soil is an ungodly and unnatural idea and the U.S. should have just provided a few hundred tanks, planes, bombs, and artillery to these occupied “ALLIES” instead, so they could defend themselves in case of attack until our carrier groups and marines arrived to help, but that would mean they were not dependent upon us to the point that they were mere vassals-disguised-as-allies wouldn't it?

Great to see another article from Eric featured on TUR's homepage.

which suggests a particularly sadistic streak emerges in a relatively high number of blacks when they feel like they can access power over an occupied or host population

Which is exactly why Supremacy Inc. has spent a century weaponizing them in their war against whites. Blacks on their own couldn't organize a cup of coffee.

The truth about black criminality is obscured by the media, academia, etc. The truth about said criminality, to the extent it is acknowledged, occurring as a result of oppression, is also nonsense.

We have this notion that in past times, blacks were frightened to step out of line in America, yet I read an article printed in a New York magazine in the early 1900's mentioning the unbelievable level of savagery within their (blacks) communities, and a warning to keep them away from and out of white communities, lest they fall victims of the black menace.

Jim Crow and apartheid in South Africa were enacted by those familiar with their nature based on experience and observation. Emmitt Till's father was in the military, and he was executed for rape and murder in Italy. Speaking of Till, whose story everyone knows from incessant media attention, I wonder why victims of black crimes get no such attention? (I don't really wonder, I know exactly why). Check out the Knoxville Horror, Wichita Massacre, Zebra Killings, Seacrest Diner crimes, Ethan Liming, just to name a few. It's unbelievable how they inflict such monstrous crimes, often on a whim, or as an opportunity presents itself. It's also unbelievable how their criminality and sadistic violence is hidden from citizens on a national level.

There is a former, inner-city, petty criminal black man, named AK at Ak Nation News, who comments on black crimes and black communities; he says whites should avoid all blacks; he states, the "good ones" have cousins or friends who will come around and wreak havoc, so just keep the hell away from them all. He also says, with regard to living around or amongst large numbers of blacks, there are no solutions for white people, whom he affectionately calls "glacier gliders."

It's not just the Blacks. The drunk bitch that ran over and killed a boy in Italy was white.

Now there are probably "transgender soldiers" wrecking havoc too. After all, they do have "drag shows" in the Ramstein base. America exports its worst.

Close the American bases and send all those soldiers home.

There is no justification for having all those occupying bases in supposed "Allied" countries.

I don't get why Europeans and Asians just don't ask more forcefully to get rid of those occupation armies, but then again, they are just America's little bitches.

I am German and born in 1963. Time and again I heard from older people that black american soldiers were much friendlier and more generous towards hungry Germans than white Americans were. Also black US – soldiers would allow access to starving POW's to give them something to eat whereas white US soldiers didn't. Altogether the image of black US soldiers was quite good. BTW I grew up in Heidelberg which had the biggest concentration of US troops in Germany.

Actually, Striker wasn't whinging about the US military presence in other countries. His articles are sober, well-researched and well argued. There are no mentions of anal pig-beasts here.

He starts:

The story of a black American Army private who ditched a tour of the DMZ and ran into North Korea has taken over the news cycle due to its novelty value, but the incident is an opportunity to discuss the anarchy and dysfunction the United States exports to its satellite states through its 750 overseas bases in 80 countries.

Very reasonable point.

He ends:

At home and abroad, our military is an outgrowth of our society, and our society is a disgrace. Those occupied by Washington's regime — whether they are Germans in Nuremberg, Japanese in Okinawa, or rural Louisiana whites near Fort Polk — are unhappy with the immediate impact of the imperial project we did not ask for.

This is a logical inference from the facts.

Whingeing is an Australian term, rarely used elsewhere. I presume that you are Australian. There are 2 US bases in Australia, both very small. A naval communications station in a remote part of Western Australia, and a satellite surveillance base near Alice Springs. They are primarily manned by technicians. There may not even have a black employee at all. As a consequence, the negative effects of US military bases in their country would be known to very few Australians.

The hatred that blacks have towards whites even in the military has been going on for a long time.

In 1969 at MCB Camp Pendleton, our NCOs discreetly told us white guys to travel in groups, even on base, as there were problems with blacks rousting whites.

There was much less of that kind of behavior in Vietnam as that white guy just may save that black guy's ass from getting killed.

Of course, the USS Kitty Hawk race riot in 1972 stands out...

The scope of the problem has been reduced somewhat over the years after commanding officers began deploying extreme measures, such as locking down the entire base, when a serious crime causes controversy, yet nevertheless, news reports quote Koreans as being “more afraid of the U.S. military peacekeepers than the North Korean regime.”

I noticed a story of the post-Floyd “racial reckoning” having a prominent outburst in Korea during 4th of July in 2020. A bunch of black American soldiers went around shooting fireworks from their hands. The news reports didn’t specify the race but the pictures make it clear.

I feel for the people overseas who have to put up with this shit. However this isn't news for the white people of this country who have had to put up with it forever. I remember back in the sixties that the government would order the local news stations not to report black on white crime. Their reasoning was that they didn't want to "inflame the populace". In other words they didn't want white people to wake the fuck up and start defending themselves. These things usually took place where flight was taking place and blacks were becoming the majority. Sadly, these things are now happening everywhere and as usual the government is again on their side. A revolt would have been easier back then as we were 90% of the population. Now its hopeless and they know it. We've been diluted and "diversified" to the point that patriotism and love of country are now seen as threats. For Gods sake we can't even rely on our own women anymore to support us. Centuries from now people will ask, what happened to the US. Its simple, our own government took sides against us. Thanks congress, thanks media, thanks alphabet agencies. You destroyed one of the nicest places to live on earth. Now its a "diverse" shithole. Thanks. I'm so glad we paid taxes, served in the military, obeyed the law, and tried to raise our children properly. Thanks.

▮ Brotherly Love: Deserted by their parents, two German children—one a “brown baby”—find companionship and brotherly love in Frankfurt’s Catholic-operated Monica orphanage. Sisters say that “brown baby” Rosemarie, the daughter of a German woman and Negro GI, is “so affectionate she is dearest of all” in orphanage.

W 'Brown Babies' Get Americanized: In the U. S. only four months, German "brown babies" Annelise, 4, and Eduard, 5, adopted by Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cardwell of Washington, D. C., have quickly caught on to American habits, especially that of watching their favorite program on TV.

STATE DEPARTMENT SEEKS TO HELP

The State Department announced that U. S. homes are needed for an estimated 200 children of Negro-Oriental romances who are being "ostracized" and kept "hungry" in South Korean orphanages.

The part-Negro tots, whose GI fathers fought with the UN forces, face a dismal future in Korea, where an estimated 85,000 children are homeless as a result of the recent war. Housed in poorly-equipped orphanages, they are "unwanted" and looked down upon by the Orientals. Government officials charged that some of the mixed-blood children are denied sufficient food by Koreans, who argue that "there is no need to give them food that is so much needed by our own children." In some places the children are not permitted to attend school.

Because of the tragic situation, welfare aides believe that one of the best solutions to the problem is to bring the part-Negro orphans to the U. S. However, refugee program aide Harry B. Lyford said, "Very few inquiries have come so far from prospective adoptive parents."

To spur such an adoption program, government officials announced they will help U. S. Negro families interested in adopting the children and that all inquiries should be addressed to Lyford at the Refugee Relief Program, State Department, Washington, D. C.

None of this is going to change as long as the Congress pigs, mostly GOP, want to keep on throwing money at the military and supporting the troops because of doners/defense contractor ghouls and because of the cultural priorities of their chud voters.

Also, all the mouth breathers talking about “homeless vets” and our obligations to them. I suspect many of those “homeless vets” had issues before they joined the military.

A challenge to Steve Sailor and other data junkies:

Is a back of the envelope calculation possible of all the money America has spent pretending that blacks are not Homo Erectus, a sub human?

Let it wash over you: the food stamps, the college tuition, the housing, the health care, the Head Start programs, the no cash bail, the hiring preferences, the academic preferences, the internships, the tutors, the public defenders, the grants, the prisons, the probation and parole officers.

At this point, I would say we are in the trillions.

It would be far cheaper and cleaner to offer every single one of them 500K to establish a colony in Nigeria, Burkina Faso, or other Sub Saharan country that needs the cash. They could be KANGS and lord over the local populace. (And would probably be murdered).

The politician who can implement this with a straight face and implement it even by half would save America. For it to work, most American Jews would need to be deported to Israel. I don't say that lightly.

The High People's Court of Zhejiang Province upheld the death sentence of Shadeed Abdulmateen, an American national charged with intentional homicide, on Thursday.

On the night of June 14, 2021, Abdulmateen stabbed a 21-year-old woman surnamed Chen in the neck and face several times at a bus station. Chen died on the spot, according to local media reports.

Abdulmateen, then an English teacher at a university in Ningbo, a city in East China's Zhejiang Province, established a relationship with the victim who was his student at the time. The two had started to have arguments as Chen wanted to break up. This led to Abdulmateen threatening her, the local court heard after the investigation.

Abdulmateen came to China to work in June 2013 and then got married and had a son. He separated from his wife around March 2019 and divorced her two years later on May 6, 2021, the court heard.

After the incident, the Intermediate People's Court of Ningbo, sentenced Abdulmateen to death on April 21 this year for intentional homicide. Abdulmateen appealed after the verdict of the first trial.

The High People's Court of Zhejiang Province on Thursday publicly ruled in its second instance that the appeal has been rejected and the original verdict has been upheld. The case has been sent to the Supreme People's Court for approval.

Because of the animal behavior by these Black GIs, the Italian population learned to hate American GIs – my Uncle said that in Italian towns like Naples, one had to be wary of cities because Italian boys roamed the roof-tops waiting for American GIs to wander in alone to be attacked by these boys armed with anything they could get.

People that reside in an area where Blacks are the majority tend to understand them better. Also, older Blacks tend to be more culturally assimilated to Whites. My Army father was stationed in Germany and his Black buddy hated other Blacks. Military Blacks can also be very Whitewashed.

Culturally Black Blacks have way more greedy survivalists than Whites, they naturally understand jungle law more.

Blacks are typically extroverts, this may make them appear more friendly but deep down they only care about themselves. Just look at any Black leader in Africa.

Blacks are dirtbags when no one is looking, their image is often faked. They often carry many keys around to appear important, drive a caddie but have no house, ect.

I have no idea where you got that “Okinawa should be liberated from Japan” idea, but it’s frankly ridiculous and, quite importantly, is against the perceptions and wishes of Okinawans themselves.

Lastly, Potsdam Accords has never stated anything along the lines of giving up the colonies, much less that Okinawa in itself is somehow a Japan’s colony.

Marcus, I'm pretty sure the author knows that these (particular, notice!) base names he gave as examples have been Potomac Regime-detruthed. Mr. Striker is resistant to that bullshit, as am I. Don't use Regime terminology.

I know, this is a little thing compared to all else, but don't let the Regime tell you what to think, at least.

Going back to the Second World War, black servicemen have been overrepresented among serious offenders. According to archival evidence, out of the 70 American soldiers executed for vicious rapes and murders in the European theater of WWII, 55 of them were black.

Won't ANYONE remember Emmitt Till?!, errr, his Dad, that is?

Thanks for the informative article, Mr. Striker. I knew most of this in general but not all of the numbers and other details you give here. Without the racial aspect, this could just as well be a Ron Paul column. Bring the troops home. The whole world is NOT our business, there is no Congress-declared war on, the country is beyond broke, and, as you demonstrate, the world hates us for this. The hatred is actually misplaced, as it is the Potomac Regime, not America, that they hate, but how do they know the difference?

Yes, you may just be a Libertarian or Constitutionalist, Eric Striker. (No, Ron Paul wouldn't put in the racial aspect, but, believe me, he knows and would agree with you.)

Whites on base commit crimes too, sometimes as accomplices of blacks or Mexicans in drug related crime, but this occurs at or below the proportion of European descended soldiers.

Just now, 3 Marines, a white, a Mexican and a negro (I assumed by their names and place of births) were found dead outside a North Carolina gas station.

Good point re. Potsdam.

In the Governor's election for Okinawa about fifteen years ago, an anti-base and pro-autonomy woman came very close (as in small fraction of a percent) to winning.

I always wonder if the very narrow margin for the other candidate was simply cheating.

I commented on King's criminality and 'Status of Forces' days ago, am very curious what D.P.R.K. will do with him. I would guess that he is in strict but comfortable confinement now, as the government considers how he can be dumped back on the U.S.A. with some small advantage to them.

Re. criminality of black 'servicemen' Striker is correct, but doesn't have near to half of it. More in Okinawa, Yokosuka near also has many incidents.

I tried checking on Japanese Yahoo, top hit now is on the Japanese Wikipedia article on the Kokura incident, halfway through it is excused by 'they were subject to severe racial discrimination, and were very frightened by the possibility of suicide bombers' etc.

Used to be sites in both Japanese and English that kept track of the mayhem. All gone.

LOL moment, number four on the Yahoo! Japan was an article on the victimisation of the innocent jogger (yes, that was the word), Ahmad Arbury.

The lengths to which the U.S. forces go to hide (visually) these 'people' are amazing.

Some Euro U.S. soldier killed a tranny who'd fooled him in the Philippines, also abt. fifteen years ago, his photo was all over the world. Philippine govt. people at the time even backed him.

Not a good thing to do, but the hypocrisy in handling was very clear.

As an Army JAG officer (lawyer), I had a one year assignment in Korea where I was doing strictly criminal defense work (Trial Defense Services). Korean nationals often had jobs as bus drivers and clerks on the military bases. I was appalled by the blatantly disrespectful way that American blacks treated the Korean nationals, who are very polite. The polite way to address an adult Korean male was “Adashe” or something like that. However, black soldiers riding a bus driven by a Korean national would yell “Yo, Sheee, stop the bus!” in a very condescending and disrespectful way.

The Army sent me to Camp Zama Japan for several weeks to defend a black American soldier who was charged with a rape against an African American woman who was a dependent spouse. The Defendant’s history included an assault on a Japanese woman, although that was not admissible evidence for the purpose of his rape case.

There were some Japanese women that had a strange attraction to African American men. While at Camp Zama, I momentarily walked into a dance party held in a gymnasium on the base which was attended almost exclusively by young Japanese women and African American soldiers.

There was this French leader who did that once, very popular, fought in WWII and was considered a war hero and national pride. The US/NATO attempted to kill him to install a more friendly chap that would bend when told to.

I do wonder who shot the Swedish Prime minister Olof Palmer and his wife and who funded the fake communist terror attacks in Germany. We all know the US was behind Radio Gladio and that they via NATO funded and controlled covert terror armies just in case a nation stepped out of line.

It is not being a “bitch” when a foreign nation makes a sport of killing your politicians and arranges for your fellow countrymen to be stripped of their guns to protect its army from retaliation. Add to that decades of openly mocking your sense of national pride by importing pedo worship and black crime while funding pogroms to demonize you and your family.

The people of Europe are not cowards, they’re suffering from 80 years of PTSD after having to deal with America rapists, pedophiles and petty thugs getting a free pass to rob, rape and murder wherever and whenever they feel like it.

The soldiers that made it to the noose may have been “hung” when they raped people, but they were hanged when they died.

Joshua Tefft was both after King Philip’s War. He was hanged, then drawn and quartered. After which his various limbs were hung out to dry in the public square. “To encourage the others”, as a Frenchman would say.

I think Tefft was the only American ever drawn and quartered. Unless you count Philip as “American”, too.

Wait! There's no reason for a raped service member to complain since their VA medical record becomes annotated with MST, military sexual trauma, a code for ongoing benefits kind of like the deal with Agent Orange courtesy of another Admiral Macke, named Zumwalt.

What a deal, right?

As for SOFA, that's applied selectively.

Ask Lcpl Kastenmeirer who the Marines were turning over to Saudi military jailers. The Lcpl simply returned the assault and battery a staff NCO inflicted on him. I saved him from the tender mercies of the Saudi jailers where he was to be shackled to a wall. Only then did the USMC get its revenge against one of its own by convincing Navy medicine to label the young man with a personality disorder and subsequently admin separated without benefits.

No VA benefits for you, sailor!

I also remember a black sergeant was involved in the beating of a white child of another sergeant in our unit.. the other assailants were teenage gang members of the black sergeants same affiliation. Apparently the black Masons were also controlling the NCO promotion boards and CID was investigating.

I myself was surrounded and attacked by a group of them for having said nigger to a half peurto rican at an event weeks prior which got reported to them. The co openly blamed me in formation for the attack. I went to a JAG officer and reported it myself. He tried to derail me but I told him I'd go over his head. Ultimately the two shines who hit me,(the second jumping on me when his friend didn't do so well) lost a rank and had extra duty. None of the white boys who were with me stayed by my side for the beating or stood up for me afterwards. The CO was later run over on the Autobahn. I couldn't help smiling at his memorial service.

"The only time I ever saw my old girlfriends was when we met up at the base infirmary after having been beaten up by our husbands/boyfriends." Negro criminality is a direct outgrowth of their average IQs sitting at the 82 point level. The invocation of martial law in the US will be a piece of cake for the Federal Government, because their "foot soldiers" will easily obey the orders to use any means necessary to control the evolved human population. Martial law will closely resemble what happened to the German civilians at the end of WWII. Murder and rapes will be routine.

You obviously don't get it. Modern Marxists, at least since the 1960s, have been on the side of the Frankfurt School (Critical Theory). They have lost interest in controlling the means of production, they want to control the means of expression. They have no regard for the White working class, they want to use the Black underclass and others (the coalition of the fringes) for their purpose of controlling society, instead.

Marx had no regard for Blacks whatsoever. They were even lower than the lumpenproletariat. Marx frequently compared them to apes, and called them subhumans. As recently as the late 1950s, the Communist Party of South Africa's slogan was: " Workers of the World, Unite for a White South Africa. " Then the Jews who controlled the party changed their line. Matsumoto was an original Marxist and was not afraid to say so. That is what Striker is trying to say.

“It isn’t natural for thousands of young men to be single on another nation’s soil for several years at a time, stuck on a base all week”

Itz time for the USA to legalize prostitution and provide prostitutes to service men at reasonable prices. In the old days the politicians and officers understood just how horny a young man would get just after 24 or 48 hours.

Everything in America has been legalized (Alcohol, marijuana, gambling) except prostitution. Besides prostitution would be taxed and bring in much needed revenue.

Legalization would also bring other benefits to American society. STD’s would be controlled and legalized prostitution would bring a certain amount of respect to the profession. Community colleges could give 2 year degrees just for starters. Four year colleges would give out regular college degrees to those qualified. This could mean greater starting pay if a prostitute had the advanced degree. For instance Harvard, Yale or Princeton would be positioned for the most prestigious of degrees with the possibility of the degreed worker possibly earning $100,000 dollars or more.

Napoleon’s army and Caesar’s armies understood that man does not live by bread alone. Our leaders are too stupid to understand because they are old and can’t get it up anymore.

Wait till they are good and boozed up and calmly instruct those jarhead sweetheart darlings to vamoose the Heck out of Okinawa pronto! Your Flight or Fight response decision will be forced upon you by the Okinawa aficionados in the US Marines.

No senior US Marine Corps officer wants to golf course gut waddle out of Okinawa after handing over the keys to US Marine Land to some gook wog Nip Okinawan, but that moment is approaching.

The American Empire should instruct the Japanese and the South Koreans to turn the screw and get a nuclear deterrent. The American Empire should conduct negotiations with the US Marines about giving up their military bases in that portion of the Pacific. The US Marines will tell the American Empire to screw off with this talk about giving up their territory and bases, but it must be done. I hope the US Marines don't have nukes!

The American Empire should also instruct the Germans, Australians and Italians to get a nuclear deterrent.

Didn't that Swiss guy named Eisenhower talk about more bang for the buck and stuff in regards to the American Empire and foreign policy?

The origins of the American Empire is Vikings and Saxons and Angles and their helpmates called the Celts. The American Empire is now under the control of a hostile JEW/WASP Ruling Class that uses it to attack and destroy the United States of America.

GOD BLESS THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA!

The zionists want a permanent US presence in as many countries as possible to intimidate those countries into giving the Jews full access to their natural resources, coffers, and young girls.

Which is why I am 100% behind Putin when he tells NATO[the US]to get stuffed and that they are not going to steal Russia's resources.

Always great to read your comments anarchyst.

The hatred that blacks have towards whites even in the military has been going on for a long time.

I've heard from three Vietnam vets, none of whom knew each other, about friendly fire, blacks shooting whites, or threatening to shoot them, etc., and how it was either explained away, swept under the rug, or actually blamed on the victim.

Not surprisingly, there's nothing I've even seen in way of solid confirmation.

But if it did happen it would hardly come as a surprise, and it does seem an odd thing to lie about. Did you ever hear of anything like that when you were in the military?

What's interesting about this is how anti-American lefties, in the USA and not just the USA, in short, anti-American lefties the world over, who are always complaining about US military presence in countries where they are not wanted or needed, are all strangely silent over matters like the one in Eric's article and your video. Hmmm. I wonder why.

I remember that one. Look, that running amok in the streets is one thing. Were I Korean I wouldn't want ANY American soldiers/sailors/airmen around period, but most especially Black! ones.

However, this fireworks incident is not something I would find much fault with. Yes, it was Independence Day, not Juneteenth!, and no, there was no need for the Korean anchorchick or any of them to get into a panic and make a big deal of this. The wearing of the face masks and talk about stuff falling from the sky – yes, the sticks fall back down, no duh – made me lose all respect for any gripes they had.

If this were in China, it'd be called "a Tuesday night". They LUV LUV LUV fireworks over there. Those are one thing that they actually DID invent.

On that note, the expense to write or re-write warnings/instructions in English and Spanish, in Texas, is extraordinary to both businesses and governmental agencies. My dad was an engineer in a refinery; he complained all the time about the dual-language requirements.

The objections to declarations of official language, as English, are based on feelings/inclusion idiocy, with no regard to the cost of multiple languages in publications, official or otherwise, not to mention the translation issues, etc., you have to hire a linguist.....on and on it goes.

I know enough Spanish to get by in Mexico, despite very little time spent there, and only cursory study; everyone living/working in the US should be made to learn English.

During my 30-year career in the Air Force I was an aircrew member on the C-130, C-141 and C-5, and I’ve been to just about every U.S. military base in the world. (The ones with an airfield, at least). I’m trying to think of just one base where the black troops did not commit far more than their share of crime both on and off base, and as a result were hated by the locals...Got it! McMurdo Station, Antarctica.

P.S. You don’t want to mess with the locals in Antarctica.

Marx said that Proletarian Revolution was only possible in what he termed 'civilised countries'. By this he meant fully developed capitalist societies with industry and a permanent working class. All of these countries featured steam power, production of steel, mass production, and a market. China and India did not qualify as civilised and were never considered places where Marxist Revolution could occur.

Black violence and criminality is part of the leftist “social justice” enchilada, and actively encouraged in the psychopathic neoNazi circles that occupy the White House, DOJ, FBI, Pentagon and US Congress. Dive into the individual units' info and it is still Fort Bragg.

Isn't it about time to get over Lincoln's War on States' Rights?

Not many are aware that Lincoln did not free ALL slaves in the USA on “Juneteenth”, he only freed those south of the Mason-Dixon line as a disruption in the South to end the war sooner.

Slavery in the USA was ended in 1868 by the 14th Amendment.

Between 1972 and 2019, 6,000 crimes — at least 10% of which have been serious assaults, rapes and murders — have been committed by US troops against Okinawans.

Perhaps the most infamous being the 1995 kidnap and rape of a 6th grade girl (only 12 y/o) by 3 black American servicemen:

The 1995 Okinawa rape that shook U.S.-Japan ties

The article on Wikipedia about this incident provides fotos of the 3, and includes this text:

Photographs of the suspects' faces have been virtually absent from Japan's media. News executives were concerned that public anger over the rape would be further inflamed and take on racist overtones if the race of the suspects were widely publicized.

The Japanese government bears ultimate responsibility for continuing to allow American military personnel to prey on Okinawans.

Indeedy doody. First there has to be Feudalism, then Capitalism and then Communism. Outside Western Europe, only Japan conformed.

Here's Marx on his slightly tinted son-in-law Paul Lafargue.

<https://www.newsherald.com/story/opinion/2020/08/16/many-marxists-dont-realize-their-hero-racist-and-anti-semite/3369024001/>

In 1887, Paul Lafargue, who was Marx's son-in-law, was a candidate for a council seat in a Paris district that contained a zoo. Engels claimed that Paul had "one eighth or one twelfth nigger blood." In an April 1887 letter to Paul's wife, Engels wrote, "Being in his quality as a nigger, a degree nearer to the rest of the animal kingdom than the rest of us, he is undoubtedly the most appropriate representative of that district."

For the record, Engels was only repeating what Marc had previously said.

The “regime” back then not fully Judaized-Bolshevized like the one that exists today.

Fort Cavazos was created during WW2, when Roosevelt’s Jewish government sent Americans to fight a genocidal war against Germans in their ancestral homeland. The claim that the USA was not a Jewish shithole until the 1960s is just not true.

America has always been gay and retarded, the vanguard of global liberalism, so its military has always been the enemy. There was not some time during which the US military was good before it suddenly became “Judaized-Bolshevized” in the 1960s. The USA was founded by subhuman Anglo pirates to facilitate the Jewish slave trade. Anglos and Jews have had a symbiotic relationship for centuries, and the USA is their mongrel love child.

The South didn't get much from criminal FDR except for perhaps the TVA in the upper South and cotton subsidies. FDR knew the South would vote democrat because of the criminal Lincoln trick a few years back, so, democrats didn't need to waste money there. Besides Southern democrats enforced Jim Crow. Jim Crow, BTW, originated in Mass-a-two-shits. Dems spent bribe money in republicon strongholds of the time such as in the West.

As far as FDR's, and later JFK's and LBJ's war meat grinder, there was a military draft in those days. In fact something like eighty-five percent of those Americans landing on Normandy beach were draftees.

@Blondie Callahan 1970

I did not spend time in Korea but at 16 I went to our wing's equivalent of Boot Camp as a cadet in the Civil Air Patrol.

The New York Wing was known as the harshest wing in the United States.

At camp, which was at New York's Griffiths Air Force Base we underwent a training regimen that one Vietnam vet told me was worse than the Army Boot Camp he had been through.

Aside from the cadet and senior officers were all managed by members of the Black Praetorian Guard out of Brooklyn. These were some of the meanest SOBs I have ever come across in my 73 years on this planet.

From forcing cadets to look directly at the sun to painful torture-like punishments, this group of scum created nothing but havoc on the base. And these Blacks were just teenagers like us.

Things go to so bad that on the night before we were all to go home rumors had reached a fever pitch of the Praetorian Guard cadets planning to run amok and charge into the barracks of the various flights and beat the living daylights out of as many cadets as they could get their hands on.

In retaliation we all armed ourselves with pipes and heavy pieces of wood.

The senior Civil Air Patrol officers all knew what was going on but did nothing to stop the constant fear of attack during the entire two weeks from these people.

Well, that night the rumors came true and out went the Guard cadets on their spree.

Somehow though, Air Force Military Police were alerted and swept in and arrested the leaders of this Guard Unit and confined the rest to barracks.

The CAP senior officers, who were answerable to the Air Force brass must have been read the riot act since shortly after we returned home we heard through the CAP grape vine that the Praetorian Guard was completely dissolved soon after Boot Camp had ended.

All of this was in 1966 so what is being reported here and now is nothing new to me.

I have heard that many Africans do not want American Blacks in their countries for the same reasons this article provides.

At university we heard the same was said regarding Canada, which at the time was an open haven for US university students looking to avoid going to Vietnam. But the only people they wouldn't allow in were American Blacks.

I got this information first hand from a wonderful friend at the time who was Black and studying engineering. He too wanted to escape the problems of the US then and had hoped that he and his wife could move to Canada but they told him no...

| Did you ever hear of anything like that when you were in the military?

Yes. Awareness of the danger of a deliberate friendly-fire assault was widespread when I was in the Central Highlands of Vietnam (1967–68). Fortunately for me, because I was a medic, I was intrinsically at less risk than infantrymen or radiomen.

Also, I second the comments by Anon (no. 133), especially with respect to the danger to a unit in the field that many blacks represented. I recall only one occasion where a black was allowed to walk point: that was on a perimeter patrol that stayed well within the range of the camp's anti-personnel radar. Furthermore, toward the end of my tour, when I was assigned to the Division Surgeon's staff, I met a unit of LRRPs, most of whom were far smarter than the military average and all but one of whom were white. One LRRP told me flat out that he volunteered for the LRRPs to get away from his unit's black soldiers, whom he regarded as stupid and unstable. He called them a greater danger to the men around them than to the enemy. Like most LRRP volunteers, he felt a lot safer around other smart, well-trained white guys who could be relied upon not to lose their nerve in a firefight.

Also, on the basis of my own experience, I would add that the problems were not confined to black enlisted men and NCOs. With few exceptions, black officers had the same shortcomings.

I have read that nearly every single documented occurrence of the action known as “fragging” (the act of deliberately detonating a hand grenade within killing range of fellow servicemen, usually the ones in charge) has been at the hands of a negro.

I have also read, but not able to verify, that most of the troops involved in the My Lai massacre were negroes.

Anyone have any sources proving or disproving?

I was stationed in Manheim Germany in the late '80s. I remember there being controversy that blacks couldn't get a taxi ride because a black was cutting throats of taxi drivers.

They do that stateside, too.

Dwight Loving was an niggrow Army private at Ft. Hood in Texas. He went on an armed robbery spree of local stores but was not caught, and then decided to target local cab drivers a couple of weeks later. He robbed and murdered (shot to death) two White drivers (one a retired soldier and the other a moonlighting active duty soldier) on the same night-Christmas Eve, 1988, and attempted to do the same to a third later that same night. That cab driver overpowered Loving, and Loving was arrested. He was later sentenced to death.

According to Wikipedia:

Loving said he killed his first victim to see if he could get away with it and killed his second one for fun.

Three days before his second term ended, Obama quietly commuted Loving's death sentence, which had previously been upheld by the Supreme Court, to a life sentence.

Thanks. You made me reread the article. Here's what summarized the question of stats for me:

It is challenging to find accurate statistics related to crimes (especially parsed by race) by US troops perpetrated outside of active war zones abroad, as a Pentagon study seeking information on suspected "racial disparities" in military disciplinary investigations recently found out. Yet there is vast anecdotal information that adds up to data.

The last sentence looks like an attempt at converting anecdote into data. Anecdotes are never data. This piece did not satisfy my curiosity. I will still keep an open mind, pending the availability of credible data. That's all I'm saying.

Vietnam 1969. Somewhere in the bush. We had a prisoner who was to lead us to an arms cache in the morning and my squad was in charge of guarding her. She was quite good looking. The niggers (we called them that to their faces and they called us whites Honkeys) came to see me and the lead nigger said "We want to fuck the prisoner and then kill her". I told them to fuck off. Next day she led us into an ambush and she got killed. Head negro came up to me later and said "Fuck you! We could have fucked her last night and she died anyway."

His name was Otto Warmbier and his bio at Wikipedia has all the telltale signs of a spook:

After that, he enrolled at the University of Virginia, where he was pursuing a double major degree in commerce and economics, and did a foreign exchange at the London School of Economics. His minor was in global sustainability.[11] Warmbier, who was Jewish through his mother, was active in Hillel on his college campus.[13] He was a member of the Theta Chi fraternity.[14][3] Being interested in other cultures,[3] he had visited Israel (on a Birthright trip),[13] Europe, Cuba, and Ecuador.[10]PS

Zion = Zodiac.

All the big events like 9/11 and COVID-19 are occult astral and zodiacal rituals and this one, though a minor event in comparison, is no exception. Note Otto Warmbier died 2 months, 2 days before the first Great American Total solar eclipse at the age of 22 years, 6 months, 7 days.

The gematria of the phrase “total solar eclipse” is 202 in the English Ordinal cipher and 67 in reduction. Zeros are omitted in Jewish Gematria: 202 = 22.

Military base expansion was in major part due to excellent training weather and vast room for gun ranges, tank training, and flight practice. But this was after the war began, and after the greatest stupidest generation elected the old fool three times. This is at odds with your initial assertion that Southerners were bought off by dems then hoisted into a meat grinder for their foolishness. Most of the country in fact voted for FDR in his four elections.

Southerners at the time were still punishing republicons for Lincoln and, as well, to maintain their segregated society. With a solid bank of Southern senators, any detrimental legislation to Southern whites was blocked and bottled up.

By centuries, you mean the forcible invasion of Ryukyu and its incorporation into Japan in 1879? But in fact, many residents of the Ryukyu Islands still speak Chinese.

It was only the Qing government and the decades of war that followed that made China too weak to worry about the Ryukyu Islands.

Legally speaking, the United States handled the ownership of the invaded Ryukyu Islands on its own, without our consent. If Japan and the United States want to play the Taiwan card, we can also try to separate Hokkaido and Ryukyu Islands. Hokkaido originally belonged to the Ainu people, and it was only after Japan invaded that the islands were acquired.

Japan is going to die.

Once its YCC stops, the economy will become America's blood bag. Its nuclear wastewater will contaminate the entire Japanese sea, and eventually the entire Japanese nation will slowly despair of cancer.

It is gradually accepting Jewish-imposed LGBTQ laws, and it is gradually tolerating criminals who rape young girls and boys.

Is that what you want?

I don't believe you have even a faint grasp of reality and don't understand the situation white soldiers were in during WWII. The poor guy would have been raped, tortured and killed by other black soldiers for reporting the rapists ("no snitches" is not a modern thing). The fact he was telling that story showed his guilt that he could not do a thing. As a fighting U.S. soldier (white) in WWII, he had to follow orders and advance or be shot by an officer. Not really a time to stop and report a heinous crime on civilians by black soldiers. He was responsible for fighting a war and ordered to kill an opposing armed force, not like the black soldiers who were (and still are) a total distraction and useless even as a minor support group. Even the late Colin Powell wrote in his autobiography about the excessive criminal, sadistic behavior towards civilians by black troops that was completely disproportionate to their numbers.

So are Churchill and Eisenhower guilty since they did not order Allied troops to bomb and fight the Russians as they advanced through western Germany raping and torturing tens of thousands of women (particularly in Berlin) until they died or committed suicide?

And in your fantasy world do you go through black neighborhoods at night wearing a mask, leotards, boots and a cape saving the tens of thousands of black young women from being gang-raped by fatherless, feral black boys and men each year?

So are you 100% responsible since you do nothing about this issue which has plagued young black women for hundreds of generations?

On the night of September 4, 1995, three American servicemen snatched a 12-year-old Okinawan schoolgirl off the street and raped her in the back seat of a rented car. To subdue the sixth-grader, the soldiers beat her face and stomach and used adhesive tape to cover the victim's eyes and mouth and bind her hands and feet.

The case is one of roughly 350 horrific rape cases detailed in a booklet by the Okinawan Women Act Against Military Violence, a civic group which aims to document sexual assault cases involving U.S. troops and draw public attention to the issue. Suzuyo Takazato, who co-chairs the group, says only a fraction of sex crime cases come to the surface as many women remain silent about their suffering due to stigma associated with rape, according to Asahi Shimbun.

American military faggots have always been the lowest scum in existence. Doesn't matter what race they are.

I did Japanese at university in the UK and we learned about the rapes and violence done by American soldiers, but there were no photographs shown and it was never once even hinted at that the perpetrators were black.

I am German and born in 1963. Time and again I heard from older people that black american soldiers were much friendlier and more generous towards hungry Germans than white Americans were. Also black US – soldiers would allow access to starving POW's to give them something to eat whereas white US soldiers didn't. Altogether the image of black US soldiers was quite good. BTW I grew up in Heidelberg which had the biggest concentration of US troops in Germany.

I saw a comment to that effect on a review of a book about the post-war American occupation of Germany. A German woman reported that black troops were friendly and helpful. I'm sorry I can't put my finger on the source. I was surprised by this report but I am a modest collector of such stories. That is to say, my efforts are modest though I myself am not.

A favorite is a soldier's account of service on the Eastern Front. He was posted to a listening post and struck up a friendship with a Soviet troop similarly assigned. They spent the night conversing. Finally, the German advised that his unit was moving out the next day and that his Red Army friend should beware of his replacement.

Another grand story is of a Luftwaffe fighter pilot who risked his life to fly into an American bomber formation returning from a mission. An American crewmember had bailed from a stricken bomber and his parachute had gotten caught and he was being suffocated by the wind stream. The German flew in to put him out of his misery and the Americans understood his purpose and did not fire on him.

Eric Newby recounted an encounter with a decent German officer in his Love and War in the Appenines. I recommend the recorded book version.

A truly amazing story of Wehrmacht gallantry is in my friend Max Denken's book, Eros and Thanatos. A Hollywood Story. Contact info@campasane.com. A truly remarkable book.

We all know the other kind of story. I think Mr. Striker's account here is closer to the truth about blacks in the military overseas. Even in the '60s I heard stories of blacks troops jumping whites in the barracks at Ft. Bragg. Scott Adams and AK probably have the definitive analysis.

Since 2011, there's been a Marine Rotational Force based at an Australian Base in Darwin.

On 14 June 2013, the Prime Minister announced that in 2014 the size of the deployment would increase to 1150 US Marines to be based at Robertson Barracks. Since then, that number has increased to 2,500. During the six-month deployment, Marines train with their Australian counterparts in live fire exercises which builds comradery and combat effectiveness between the two coalition forces.

The truth about black violence is covered up by a world wide PC conspiracy

REPORTS ON CRIMES When reporting crimes, it is not permissible to refer to the suspect's religious, ethnic or other minority membership [...] such references could stir up prejudices against minorities [GUIDELINE 12.1. by the German Press Council]

<https://sincerity.net/12-1-black-soldiers/>

Covering up crimes perpetrated by Black US servicemen stationed in Germany, in the 1970ies, to avoid prejudice, was the motive for PresseKodex12.1. This claim can be found in German main stream media, as cited below. Black soldiers' crimes continue to haunt the US Armed Forces in Italy¹, Japan, Korea².

I think even Koreans and Japanese really dare to say that BLACKS ARE THE PROBLEM.

After reading most of the above, I think it fair to say, to much agreement by the conscious class I would surmise, that in terms of similes, the average kike is but an off-pale negroid and the negroid is just a dark skin kike, in their twin character traits.

It is no wonderment given how they are both so similarly irrational, with emotional exaggerations subsume intellect (thinking, the too hard basket) and opportunistic impulses rule their sad and sorry subhuman existences.

Ron Unz excluded of course.

Equation: Israelism=Negroinism. Gross inferiority complex for both.

That must project onto the point of jealousy as all the – Get Whitey, white-hate, elevating The Trash onto a pile of white corpses, IOW, they don't raise/elevate themselves but by lowering the surrounding environs leaving only them standing atop the corpse-pile, and the 'over the top', chauvinistic-racist-supremacist, hyperjew is the external counterweight of OVERCOMPENSATION attempting to balance out the increasing piles of trash in the BASEMENT.

Both their minds are running the gutter. They cannot elevate any portion of life, as neither are representatives of it. Do they elevate it? 5 solid examples please of Jews and nigs alone, elevating something preexisting.

The bouncing hood of your whip don't count nigra. All society, western civilisation, Christendom, majority colour profile nation-state real democracy, not just a ghetto-$htetl.

I was stationed in central Germany near the Communist border back about the middle 70's. I came into the barracks late one night about 2:00 AM. A group of Negro soldiers (about 4 of them) came running out a room housing about 3 or 4 Mexicans. The Mexicans came out of that room all bloodied. A midnight raid by the Negro.

While stationed in Ft Hood in the summer of 1975 there must have been some kind of riot as the whole Fort was locked down. Never found out what happened but there was a large contingent of Negroes at the fort. BTW the social club on base was a NO-GO area for White soldiers. I walked into one of Gymnasiums with a black guy I knew. Everyone in the gym was a Negro and they were playing basketball at all 6 courts. When the door opened they all stopped and stared at me but I was with my Negro sidekick and no one bothered us. SO much for army cohesiveness.

Sounds like the blacks were just smarter than the white zogbots. They knew the Vietnamese weren't their enemy and they had no reason to fight a war for Washington's oligarchs.

A strange comment coming from someone with the handle of Hulkmania ! If blacks are smarter than whites and had no reason to fight a war for Washington they should have stayed OUT of the Army. A professional soldier accepts death and maiming as part and parcel of the profession and acceptance of the fact that you must do as you are told. Dont like that ? Dont enlist !

When you chose a profession you are honour bound to fulfill your duty, after all, no one forced you into the profession. In addition, they took an oath. What is a man's word worth ? Blacks preferred the rear area because they were terrified shitless of the VC and especially the NVA.

I remember one recon patrol with a black trooper when at 3 am in the morning a 5 man VC squad passed within 10 meters of our hide. The black man who was next to me, his eyes bulged and the whites were so huge such that I though they would pop out his head. His mouth was open and the poor fucker was breathing hard with his teeth bared. I thought for sure he would cry out or make a noise. Yet, this was a muscular fellow who worked out with a sandbag everyday. He must have weighed 170+ while I was a measly 145. After that little drama no white would rock with him outside the wire. That night we whites felt our lives hanging by a thread !! I will never forget that night, the face of my wife and child flashed before my eyes.

The fly with American wars is that everyone is a "veteran". Hence the black man in the kitchen frying chicken, okra and beans and making corn bread is "A VETERAN". He will return to the States and bask in the glory of the Bruhs but wont set one foot in the bush unless he has the whole division behind him. In my area most preferred to stay on base and burn the latrine shit rather than venture out the gates. Some warrior ethos !

In 1973 when I exited the Military, I used to take the Lexington line in Manhattan up into the Bronx. I dont remember the street but it was where the train exited the tunnel and emerged above ground on the edge of the ghetto. There was a Marine recruiting base there with burly recruiters in dress uniform looking to recruit the niggers for the program. It must have been a choice job as in my travels back and forth I never saw any juggaboos lined up.

These creatures will shoot up and murder their own and destroy their own areas but in a serious rumble they crumble ! Where perseverance, determination and stubborn resistance might have won the day they are defeated in round one. You can even see this behaviour in the black criminal gangs. Four men invade a home all armed. The owner fires one shot that hits nothing and all four flee sometimes even leaving one of their own holding the bag.

Warning to whites : Dont ever hook up with these cretins. When the chips are down they will run away leaving you in the lurch to fend for yourself. They are the most cowardly scum and dog shit on planet earth ! Enjoy the video.

Now that Yevgeny Prigozhin and Wagner has his own little NGO going on and has ignited a coup in Niger, the US puppet government there is about to get booted, and Airbase 101 has a bunch of US troops which will either have to fight in the streets with Wagner and the coup leaders or leave. Well that's one way to solve the problem elucidated by this article. Another perfectly good satrap, ruined.

Great comment! Thanks!

Blacks preferred the rear area because they were terrified shitless of the VC and especially the NVA.

But also so they could shoot white soldiers and go "Oops!" after the fact, knowing full well the US military would help them get away with it. This, no doubt, was one of the motivations to join the military for them, to fuck with white men (and women) in one way or another and get paid for it. And when they're not fucking with white people (on their dime) they indulge in their second favorite pastime – loafing.

You bring up an excellent point.

General Patton on Jewish “refugees”:

“This happened to be the feast of Yom Kippur, so they were all collected in a large, wooden building, which they called a synagogue. It behooved General Eisenhower to make a speech to them. We entered the synagogue, which was packed with the greatest stinking bunch of humanity I have ever seen. When we got about halfway up, the head rabbi, who was dressed in a fur hat similar to that worn by Henry VIII of England and in a surplice heavily embroidered and very filthy, came down and met the General . . . The smell was so terrible that I almost fainted and actually about three hours later lost my lunch as the result of remembering it.”

“where, although room existed, the Jews were crowded together to an appalling extent, and in practically every room there was a pile of garbage in one corner which was also used as a latrine. The Jews were only forced to desist from their nastiness and clean up the mess by the threat of the butt ends of rifles. Of course, I know the expression “lost tribes of Israel” applied to the tribes which disappeared – not to the tribe of Judah from which the current sons of bitches are descended. However, it is my personal opinion that this too is a lost tribe – lost to all decency.”

This type of Jew considers the world his own personal garbage dump, his own personal latrine, both in a physical and in a cultural sense. The concept of shame would not appear to be a Talmudic trait, nor would honesty, decency or decorum. This, of course, is not meant to indict all those born or raised Jewish, since heritage and upbringing are not a question of personal choice. The burning of bridges with the rest of humanity occurs when the Jew accepts the Talmudic mitzvahs and consciously throws in his lot with and concurs with the Deicide of the Sanhedrin. At that point, Truth and Goodness are abandoned, common humanity is abjured and the Synagogue of Satan is embraced.

In 1972 after completing high school, I enlisted in the Marine Corps for two years. After completing bootcamp in November of nineteen-seventy-two I was ordered to Camp Lejeune, North Carolina to be trained as an infantryman.

On my first night at Camp Lejeune, after “Lights Out,” a drunk, black marine returned to the barracks cursing white marines and spitting on them as they lay in their bunks. This incident took place in an open bay barracks.

When the black marine spat on me, we began fighting while the other black marines in the platoon formed a circle around the two of us. The platoon was well over fifty percent black.

Every time I'd knock the black marine to the floor the black marines circling us would restrain me until the black marine I was fighting with could return to his feet and continue the fight.

After I knocked the black marine down a third time, I was restrained by the black marines encircling us while the marine I had been fighting with retrieved his entrenching tool, a collapsible metal shovel used to dig foxholes, from his wall locker. While I was being restrained, the black marine menacingly waved the tool at me while threatening to kill me. My arms being restrained I repeatedly kicked at the marine's crotch area eventually connecting with a kick to his groin and disabling him.

At the same time, the Duty NCO (non-commissioned officer) entered the squad bay putting an end to the confrontation.

However, the next day I was summoned to a meeting with a white officer. Inexplicably, the officer was very angry with me cursing repeatedly at me for having fought with the black marine claiming it could have led to the black marines rioting. He concluded his tirade by threatening to give me a Bad Conduct Discharge if I were to get in any more fights with the black marines.

The top priority of the officers in my company along with the officers of the other companies in the battalion seemed to be accommodating the black marines with the objective of deterring them from rioting.

In this regard, the black marines were allowed to cut in front of the white enlisted marines in the mess hall lines and assaults of white enlisted marines by black marines were ignored.

Officers and NCOs ate in their own mess halls. Also, black marines would openly refer to white marines by the pejorative term “swine.” Even some of the black NCOs in the company openly used the term “swine” when referring to white people.

The day after the fight a few of the white marines in the platoon appealed to me for help regarding the black marine I had fought with. They informed me that he had demanded a monetary tribute from them. The black marine I had fought with seemed to be the leader of the black marines in the platoon.

It was 1972, the beginning of the All-Volunteer Military, and the services, especially the Army and the Marine Corps, were having an extremely difficult time recruiting qualified applicants.

Many of the white marines in the platoon were deficient physically, mentally, and temperamentally and should not have been in the Marine Corps making them easy prey for someone like the black marine I had fought with who had boasted about having been recruited into the Marine Corps from the criminal justice system.

My interceding on behalf of these white marines resulted in my constantly being threatened by black marines including being shown knives and told I would be killed while I was sleeping—I was even denied a promotion. After completing infantry training, I was told by a black sergeant, one of the platoon handlers, that I would not be promoted because I was an “uppity, white boy.” The label was entirely the result of my resisting the aggressions of the black marines and interceding on behalf of the white marines being bullied by the blacks.

A week after infantry training had ended a white marine alerted me about an incident taking place in the shower and toilet area of the platoon. Upon investigating, I found a low-IQ white marine being sexually molested by a black marine. The black marine was positioned behind the white marine restraining him while rubbing his crotch area against the white marine's buttocks. Both were clothed. I threw the black marine off the white marine after which the black marine pulled a knife on me threatening to kill me. I then pushed the white marine toward the black marine using the white marine as a shield giving me the opportunity to pull my knife. The black marine then backed off leaving the area while threatening to kill me.

I informed my white platoon sergeant of the incident including the threat. The black marine who had made the threat, prior to this instance, had displayed behavior that I believe any reasonable person would have concluded was due to his being mentally unbalanced.

I will repeat the Marine Corps was having a very difficult time recruiting qualified people.

As a result of the threat, I was removed from the company and placed in the Regimental Guard. The perpetrator was never questioned about the attempted rape as far as I know but would desert a week later.

During infantry training when my platoon was not in the field, I would work out on my own. It was through these workouts that I encountered a group of white marines outside of my company who had been in the Marine Corps at least more than a year longer than I had and who had banded together in order to prevent themselves from being bullied by the blacks.

These marines were not "white supremacists" nor "white nationalists" and for the rest of this account I will refer to them as my "special friends."

They explained to me that they had heard about an unofficial policy in the regiment of allowing black marines to abuse white enlisted marines for the purpose of making it easier for the officers and NCOs to manage the black marines.

All the officers and career NCOs in my company were white.

They also warned me about using drugs. The use of illegal drugs was rampant in my company among all races, but no one was ever tested for drug use. They believed drug use was tolerated by those in charge for two reasons:

Marines sedated by drugs wouldn't give them as much trouble.

And if those in charge started punishing those using and selling drugs it would most likely lead to rioting by both the black and the white marines.

These marines also alerted me that the officers knew the marines who were using drugs, and if I were known to use drugs then those in charge would use it against me if it was to their advantage.

My special friends explained to me that if a black marine were to put me in a situation where I was forced to defend myself and as a result I had seriously hurt the black marine, then those in charge, no matter how justified I had been, would be looking for a way to blame me, saying I was on drugs as a means of preventing the black marines from rioting.

Conversely, if a black marine seriously hurt me, then those in charge would be looking for a way to exonerate the black marine by blaming my drug usage.

They also informed about a rumor they'd heard pertaining to the Marine Corps being merged into the Army to reduce defense costs. The Vietnam War was putting a huge strain on the defense budget. It was explained to me that if such a merger were to take place, then many career Marine Corps officers and NCOs would be separated from the military before they became eligible for a pension. And for those who were merged into the Army, there would be little chance for future promotion.

As I understand it, the Army went all-volunteer to dial down this kind of stuff. But there were and are no antibodies to primitives in the army or in society in general, so it was a temporary and partial solution. Some were still inside the perimeter. Later it wasn't the criminality that was the problem but the competence. Hence incompetents on the bridges of destroyers.

Well, there's a measure of karma coming. Blacks pressured whites to move out of a certain community in California but then the Latinos ran them out. Something about people who haven't absorbed the utter nonsense that whites have about themselves and their poor, dear, helpless victim residents.

Pastor Manning has a choice speech on the white man not gonna take it no mo. I rather think he's right. A gigantic amount of good will has floated out to sea. Fascinating personal account and testimony. You might want to look deeper into President Truman's Executive Order 9981: Desegregation of the Armed Forces (1948).

Truman's Executive Order was a result of what I believe was a PSYOP or false flag. His name was Issac Woodard Jr.

Was Isaac Woodard the prototype for George Floyd? Note George Floyd was also a Jr. His full name was George Perry Floyd Jr.

The first George Floyd was called Isaac Woodard Jr. (March 18, 1919 – September 23, 1992). Wikipedia's entry for him is very informative and Kosher: On February 12, 1946, and just hours being honorably discharged from the United States Army, Woodard "was attacked while still in uniform by South Carolina police as he was taking a bus home. The attack and his injuries sparked national outrage and galvanized the civil rights movement in the United States."

The big red flag for me is the involvement of Orson Welles, who made Woodard a national hero on his ABC radio show Orson Welles Commentaries. Welles was the famous actor and director who first made a name for himself by creating a nationwide panic with his radio broadcast of "The War of the Worlds" in 1938.

The broadcast was a Halloween episode of the radio series The Mercury Theatre on the Air directed and narrated by Orson Welles as an adaptation of H. G. Wells's 1898 novel The War of the Worlds. The novel is about a Martian invasion.

It appears the Zionists have been obsessed with aliens and negroes for a very long time.

Clearly the US military presence in so many nations serves many purposes including as a black hole for money laundering and a dumping ground for damaged individuals the military doesn't know what to do with who might eventually be sacrificed in another tribute ritual some day. Zionist leaders don't want to put an end to it because the psychopaths could end up back in their neighborhoods and they're probably making boatloads of money through inflated prices for goods and services. It isn't hard to figure out really.

The only negative aspect to shipping niggroe “soldiers” permanently to Sub-Saharan Africa would be that African niggroes hate American niggroes even more than White Americans do.

The same warning go

Once again: unless they were raped, there is no reason whatsoever for feeling sorry for these Polock women, any more than there is reason to feel sorry for any other European or White American woman who chooses to knock boots with a primate.

It was 1972, the beginning of the All-Volunteer Military, and the services, especially the Army and the Marine Corps, were having an extremely difficult time recruiting qualified applicants.

He's not kidding about the recruitment problem at that time.

Compare the first couple of minutes of the 1973 Marine Corps recruitment film below with any of the early 1960's high school Physical Education films readily available on YouTube, and you can see starkly just how far things had fallen in this regard.

I wonder if that's the way the events really happened regarding Woodward and the bus driver.

And I wonder how Woodward had behaved on the bus. Why would the bus driver have bothered to call the police if there hadn't been a problem? Bus drivers are conscientious about keeping on schedule.

Whenever I hear reports about incidents of blacks being mistreated by whites I am always cynical of the fact being reported. Not just in today's news but throughout the history of the United States.

Lynchings for instance. Lynchings were not done exclusively to blacks. The largest mass lynching occurred in 1859 in New Orleans where 11 Italian immigrants were lynched. And overall, in the history of the U.S., more whites have been lynched than blacks.

Look at violent crime today. Blacks commit almost 90% of the murders today in the U.S.

As far as Orson Welles bringing attention to Woodward, in my opinion, you are probably right about him.

But as far as Welles being a great director or even actor, the majority of his movies are unwatchable.

@Happy Tapir

Great comment!

Why were Zionists outraged at Trump's plan to bring back the military from our worldwide occupation?

Good question. In a way it kind of answers itself. Zio-Communism, the top-down/bottom-up strategy used by Supremacy Inc. to squeeze the life out of the West, and not just the West, needs an army. The US military is just that.

Supremacy Inc. knows full well that it's a criminal enterprise. When they know they can get away with it, they brag about it. When they can't, they cry antisemitism. Now imagine them crying antisemitism to the world without an Army to back them up. They'd be the laughing stock of the human race, of course.

Antisemitism is and always was a power term. They only started using it when they had enough power to back it up, largely by concealing the absurdity of the claim. The same goes for all of the terms used by Identity Politics. And today Identity Politics and the US military are central to Supremacy Inc.'s exercise of power. That is to say, the control, not just of people, but of human behavior itself – all of it! That is what is meant by Full Spectrum Dominance.

But, since no explanation of the world can survive without feedback and correction – the source of human adaptability – and because Supremacy Inc. has eliminated any and all feedback and correction, they are undermining their own power. The first step will be explanatory collapse, the second institutional failure.

The reason for why one follows the other is that social institutions don't simply use explanation in order to function, strictly speaking, a social institution is an explanation, and can not function without feedback and correction. That's why no dictatorship can last. But it's especially why a dictatorship can not last at time like now when life as we know it is more complex and unpredictable than it has ever been in human history. So the only solution left for Supremacy Inc. is the continued use of force, and now we're back to your excellent question.

Because it's exactly that force, constantly applied, that undermines the even relatively healthy functioning of the social institutions now under the control of Supremacy Inc. The result? Well, we're living with them, the aforementioned explanatory collapse and institutional failure. Pride Before the Fall indeed! They didn't think this through. No surprise there, since psychotic arrogance and self-awareness don't go together.

That's why Full Spectrum Dominance is turning out to be Full Spectrum Destruction. In the end, it's all they're really capable of. If the human race has a future this is how Supremacy Inc. will be remembered, and it knows it, or at least senses it. Hence its hysterical reaction to just about everything.

I've said it before, but I'll say it again, History might have a Joker up its sleeve just yet. While Supremacy Inc. encourages the world to celebrate The Great Replacement, it might be wise to stand back, stay out of the way (as much as that's possible), and watch the Pyrrhic Victory of Supremacy Inc.

Meanwhile, the human race would do well to recognize the threat Supremacy Inc. presents to it. They can either choose to go along to get along and, in time, die with Supremacy Inc., or it can choose to put an end to Supremacy Inc. and begin to work toward improving its chances of survival, a survival that is by no means guaranteed.

The film is quite different from the bootcamp I went through.

We never did any hand-to-hand combat training. We never learned how to use a bayonet. We never learned anything about fighting with a knife.

We had one week at the rifle range, but the time we actually fired our rifles was very limited.

Recruits who had never been able to complete one physical fitness run still graduated.

And I wouldn't even have called it a run; it was more like a fast jog.

There were also recruits who couldn't do a single pull-up who also had graduated.

We never did pushups.

I was in better physical shape before bootcamp than after bootcamp.

What was most perplexing was the fact that we never learned anything about booby traps the Viet Cong had so effectively used in Vietnam. The Vietnam War was still being fought, and many of our drill instructors and classroom instructors had informed us how they'd been wounded by these devices.

We never learned about weapons like a mortar: its range, how it was used, how deadly it was.

The majority of our time was spent standing online at attention, marching in formation, and cleaning the squad bay.

What I remember my drill instructors for is all the whining they did about how we weren't being trained properly.

Good lawd even in the Coast Guard we had to do pushups and pull-ups. You HAD to perform a minimum of 5 pull-ups using the grip of your choice, the supinated grip is easier than the promoted grip so that grip was the most used. I, too, actually got out of shape in boot camp. The PT was laughable because I was and continue to be an exercise freak. You maxed out with a score of 50 pushups and 15 pull ups which I breezed through. A fit young man should have no problem with 50 pushups or 15 pull ups (especially with a supinated grip.) The military should raise their standards.

Thanks. I admit, I am a little surprised at that.

However, the various accounts I have read of the early 1970's US military situation was a belief by veterans (and even officers) in the service at the time was that the US if attacked may not have been able to have successfully defended itself due to the poor morale and general serious deterioration of the armed forces, though supposedly the Marines, and in particular, the Air Force, had still maintained some of their previous high standards.

As incredible as it sounds, the US army had to some degree been 'Sovietized'/'democratized' where the men basically could 'vote' collectively via soldier's 'councils' (or act individually) if they were to follow an officer's orders or not, with minimal (if any) serious penalty. Not surprisingly, as 'Vietnamization' grew apace in Vietnam, what patrols the US army did there in the early 1970's were increasingly limited, cautious, and not particularly aggressive.

[Unintentionally, the various 'true crime' books about the February, 1970 murder of the family of Dr Jeffrey MacDonald, a US army special forces doctor based in North Carolina, corroborate this as part of the background story. They describe widespread drug usage among many of the active duty personnel, a lot of family dysfunctionality as well. Just as the Vietnam War had broken the United States as a whole, it had largely broken it's armed forces as well, no doubt as intended.]

I told the recruiters to their faces that I would not be taking their offer to sign up after graduation or the cheap swag they brought because joining the military is for losers who aren't good at anything. I told them again when they came to give the asvab test and they kicked me out of the test. I have continued telling them how worthless they are since then whenever the opportunity arises. None has ever done anything.

Military fags expect deference, so when someone actually calls them out for being the scumbag morons they are, all they do is get upset and start spitting out the old tired cliches (fighting for muh freedoms etc.). A military fag is a lot more likely to have an emotional breakdown and start crying than he is to try fighting or duelling (lol) me. It was NOT because there was a predilection to violence...

Canada at that time was basic discrimination because even Canada had not reflected upon the slave trade trade that they also had been involved in. Canada hadn't yet considered its repression of the Japanese, Sikhs, Ukrainians (WW1), Doukabhors and others (Iranians and Muslims in General).

Even still, there is this Canadian need to be a bigot towards somebody, whether they are any ethnicity, or not believing the govmt approved narratives.

I enlisted in the Army in early 1975 but fortunately my experiences weren't nearly as bad, although there were certainly places in the Army that were no different from what bobbyg68 experienced in the Marine Corps. Just over 50 years ago a couple of Washington Post reporters wrote a book called Army in Anguish (still available in paperback) and a few years later I got to see for myself just what was going on: drugs, criminality, racial strife, low morale, low readiness levels, etc. The book accurately described the terrible state of affairs, and it was really an awful time to be in the military.

Yep, the average 18 year old in 1973 was a leftover hippie wannabe. Physical fitness was not popular at all in the early 1970s. The only youth softer than the AVERAGE late 1960's early 1970's 16-25 year olds are the ones of this century. By the mid 1970's the emaciated hippie look was gone and replaced with fitter bodies but softer minds. At least in 1973 a mud shark sighting was rare, but by 1993, it was no longer enuff to warrant that many stares.

Still even in 1973 I am sure the physical requirements for the Marine Corps had to be somewhat challenging. Lack of sleep and time to relax were my biggest obstacle. Probably the average post hippie White 18 year old male would pull off 7-9 pull-ups, 30-35 standard pushups and jog a mile and a half in 12-13 minutes. Not great, but still better than the average yute of today.

When I was in basic training, the Black trainees had a tendency to break into meal lines by “dapping” up to the front of the line.

I was at Fort Jackson in early 1975 and there was no such cutting in lines then.

Whenever we went to the mess hall we had to go through overhead bars (“monkey bars”) and then do ten push-ups or sit-ups. (The push-ups ensured you ate your meal with dirty hands.) From there we’d run a short distance to get in the rear of a formation that was five men across. Periodically the drill sergeant taking headcount would open the mess hall door and yell, “Gimme five, Joe!” (Everyone was Joe Trainee, individually or as a group.) The five trainees making up the first row of the formation would then run up the stairs and into the mess hall. As the five ran inside they were required to yell out, “RA One, drill sergeant!” “RA Two, drill sergeant!” etc. (RA meant Regular Army. There were a few Army Reservists (AR) and National Guardsmen (NG) elsewhere in the company but not in my platoon.) If they didn’t sound off loudly enough, the drill sergeant would kick out all five and require them to do reenter while they sounded off “like you got a pair!”

While waiting for our turn to be called, the rest of us stood at parade rest, eyes straight ahead. Breakfast was during the pre-dawn hours and one morning, while standing there at parade rest, a black guy next to me named Hundley glanced to the left and right to make sure no drill sergeants were watching and then brought his gloved hands together in front of his crotch, balled up in fists with his thumbs pointing forward, one hand in front of the other, making it look in the darkness like he was holding his dick in his hands. He then rocked back and forth toward the butt of the guy standing in front of him while he quietly chanted, “Gonna get some shit on my dick! Gonna get some shit on my dick!” He was actually an alright guy and his act provided a slight bit of humor in an otherwise stressful environment as we were always tired, hungry, harassed and cursed, smacked over one's helmet, sometimes kicked, etc. (The kicks were known as "Kiwi injections," named after the boot polish we used every day and, as drill sergeants would say, they were "also known as a series of boots up yo' ass, Joe!" for motivational purposes.)

Basic training was an environment too controlled for TNB, plus we were all suffering equally and needed to support each other to get through each day. TNB came later at permanent assignments following basic and advanced training.

Had a very small company, the only nigra was the drill instructor. Coast Guard is so small plus you have to at least be capable of swimming 100 meters or yards. (forget which.) I am sure the USN is similar so I wonder if the nigras are allowed to fail the swim test?

When I was in Naval Aircrew Candidate School in Pensacola, Florida over 40 years ago there were strenuous physical fitness requirements, including the requirement to swim two miles in thirty minutes wearing full flight gear. There were several niggroes in my class, but they were shown no deference at all and had to meet the same requirements as us White boys. I can't recall any of them washing out due to an inability to swim or stay afloat.

I'm sure things are totally different today. In fact, it wouldn't surprise me at all if the Navy no longer requires niggroes to swim, as that would be a racyciss requirement that forces them to perform in a manner of which they are physiologically incapable. I suppose the silver lining to that is that the next U.S. Navy ship to go down due to the incompetence of its all-girl-queer-niggroe crew will have few, if any niggroe survivors.

The fastest 2.4 mile swim in the Ironman Triathlon is 38 minutes plus with no gear???

2 miles wearing gear in 30 minutes???. I don't think Aquaman could pull that off.

I wonder how many nigras have completed the Ironman Triathlon?
