

Is the Legal Landscape Looking Better?, by Jared Taylor

unz.com/jtaylor/is-the-legal-landscape-looking-better

Jared Taylor

September 8, 2023

Odkaz na video

Toto video je dostupné na Rumble , BitChute a Odysee .

Někdy je spravedlnost vtip. Právě tento týden byl Enrique Tarrío z Proud Boys odsouzen k 22 letům vězení za to, co se stalo 6. ledna v Kapitolu.

Kreditní obrázek: © Robin Rayne/ZUMA Wire

Vloupal se dovnitř? Zaútočil na policii? Založil požáry? Ne.

Kreditní obrázek: © Michael Nigro/Pacific Press prostřednictvím ZUMA Wire

Ani tam nebyl.

Jako kontrast uvažujme útoky na Bílý dům v roce 2020, na vrcholu rasového chaosu.

Výtržníci zaútočili na tajnou službu „cihlami, kameny, lahvemi, ohňostroji a močí“. Zranili 60 policistů a 11 bylo převezeno do nemocnice.

Násilníci z BLM vypálili historický kostel sv. Jana naproti Bílému domu.

Násilí a žhářství bylo tolik, že prezident Donald Trump a Melania strávili v protiteroristickém bunkru Bílého domu téměř hodinu.

Nikdy jsem neslyšel ani o jednom stíhání. Místo toho dostali výtržníci peníze. "USA se vyrovnaly s demonstranty Black Lives Matter násilně vyklizenými z parku Bílého domu."

United States

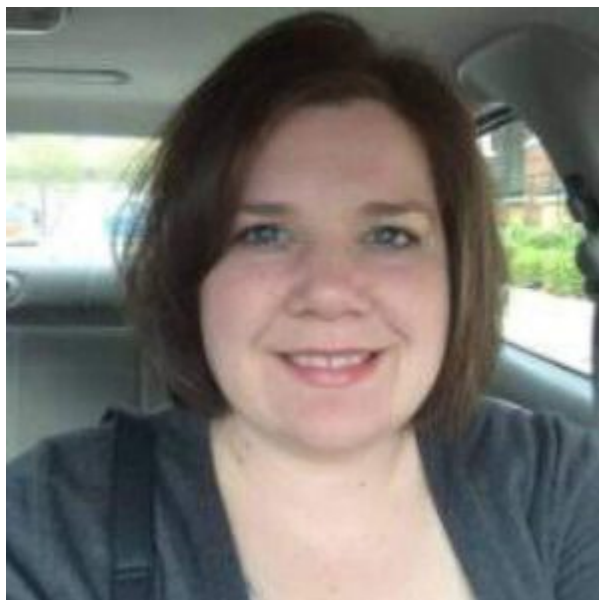

U.S. settles with Black Lives Matter protesters violently cleared from White House park

By Jan Wolfe and Ismail Shakil

April 13, 2022 6:36 PM EDT · Updated a year ago

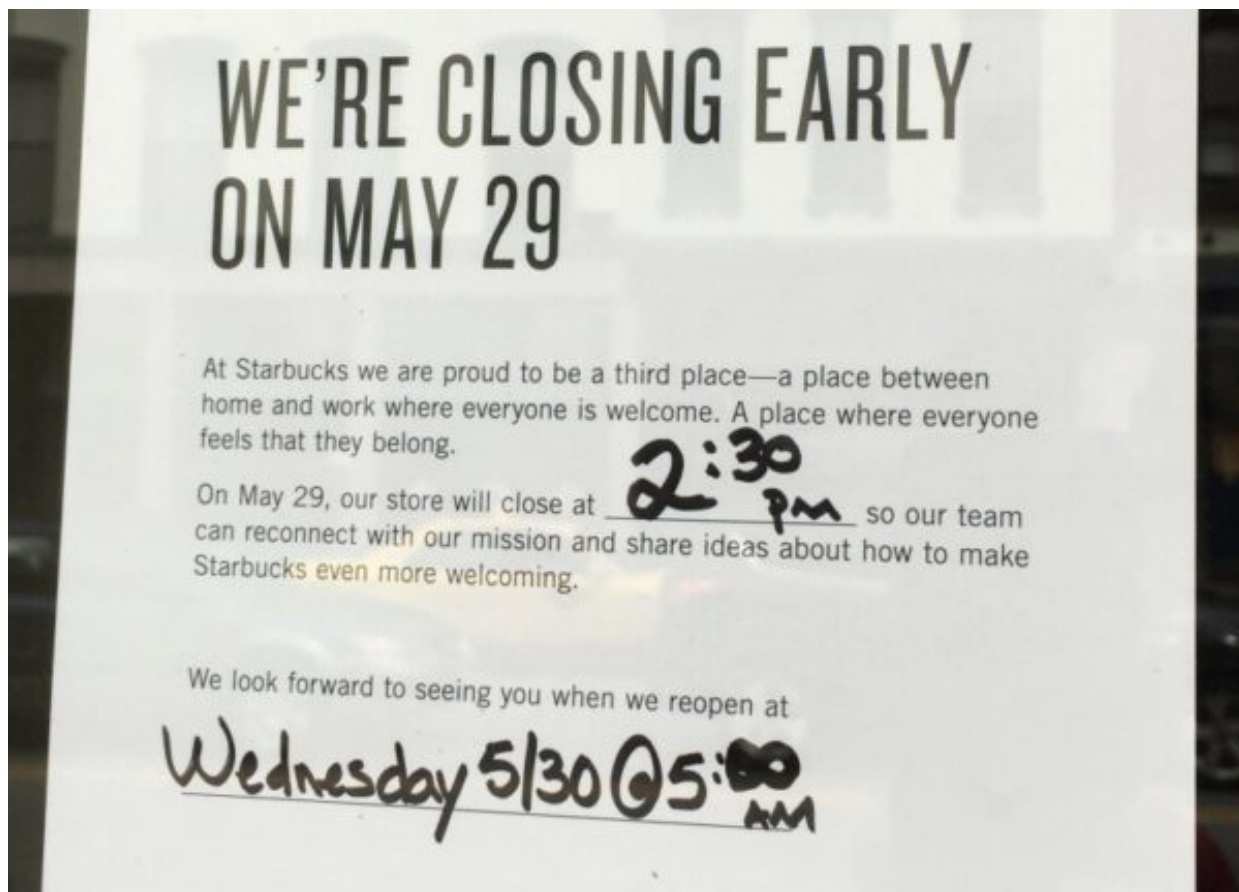

V civilních žalobách to dnes vypadá jinak. Pamatujete si, když dva černoši šli do Starbucks ve Philadelphii a požádali o použití toalety. Bílá manažerka Holly Hyltonová jim řekla, že toalety jsou pouze pro platící zákazníky, ale oni odmítli zaplatit.

Ani oni nechtěli odejít, a tak se řídila firemní politikou, zavolala policii a nechala muže zatknout za neoprávněný vstup.

To vedlo k orgiím firemního ponížení. Holly byla vyhozena, černoši zasáhli výplatní pásku a všechny korporátní Starbucks v Americe byly uzavřeny kvůli „antirasistickým“ školením.

Chudák Holly nikdy nežalovala, ale někdo jiný ano: Shannon Phillips, manažer nad ní, který ten den ani nebyl v obchodě.

Porotě dokázala, že se proměnila v „bílého obětního beránka“ a byla vyhozena.

Jen tento měsíc vyhrála odškodné 25,6 milionu dolarů. Holly Hyltonová, dávaš pozor?

Sto třicet osm let stará Gibson's Bakery neustále sbírá vítězství nad Oberlin College v Ohio.

Gibson's Bakery

4.3K likes • 4.5K followers

V roce 2016 pekárna přistihla tři černé studenty při krádeži v obchodě.

Všichni přiznali vinu, ale Oberlin málem vyřadil pekárnu z provozu zlomyslnou bojkotovou kampaní a obvinil ji z „rasismu“. V roce 2019 porota uznala vysokou školu vinnou z pomluvy a odvolací soud nařídil odškodné 36 milionů dolarů.

NEWS

Oberlin to pay bakery $36M in defamation suit over racial profiling

By Priscilla DeGregory

Published Sep. 9, 2022 | Updated Sep. 9, 2022, 6:58 p.m. ET

Po vyčerpání všech možných odvolání Oberlin nakonec zaplatil. Od roku 2017 je Oberlinovou prezidentkou černoška jménem Carmen Ambar, která hloupě bojovala s pekařským oblekem až do hořkého a drahého konce.

Carmen Twillie Ambar
15th president of Oberlin
College

Oberlin se tak očividně mýlil, že právě bylo oznámeno, že pojišťovny odmítly proplatit odměnu.

Oberlin College sues 4 insurance companies over Gibsons Bakery settlement

The Chronicle-Telegram Aug 06, 2023 6:30 AM

Černé privilegium už není to, co bývalo.

Další dámou prezidentkou, která by mohla dostat otřes, je Lauri Patton z Middlebury.

Laurie L. Patton is the 17th president of Middlebury, and the first woman to lead the institution in its 222-year history.

Patton joined Middlebury in 2015 after serving as dean of Duke University's Trinity College of Arts and Sciences and as the Robert F. Durden Professor of Religion.

In her inaugural address, Patton described a vision of a Middlebury that would actively engage with the most challenging issues facing society and challenged the community "to have more and better arguments, with greater respect, stronger resilience, and deeper wisdom."

In 2022, under Patton's leadership, Middlebury received a $25M grant to begin the Kathryn Wasserman Davis Collaborative in Conflict

Ever since 1916, Mead Memorial Chapel has been Middlebury's most famous landmark, but in 2021 the college ripped the Mead name off because John Mead, the alumnus who paid for the chapel, promoted eugenics.

Credit: Scott Elliott Smithson via Flickr, CC BY-NC-ND 2.0

His gift in 1914 required that the chapel be named for his Mead ancestors. Just this spring, the Mead estate sued, saying it wants the name put back or the replacement value of the chapel plus punitive damages.

The University of Minnesota is suddenly “reexamining” a paid internship program to prepare students for graduate school.

UMinn reconsiders summer internship designed only for 'students of color'

The University of Minnesota is re-examining a summer internship program that was initially offered only to 'students of color.'

The university's changes to the Pathways program arrived shortly after Cornell Law School Professor William Jacobson filed a complaint to the U.S. Department of Education Office for Civil Rights.

It was open only to non-Asian non-whites until Cornell Law School Professor William Jacobson filed a complaint with the US Department of Education.

William A. Jacobson
Clinical Professor and Director of the Securities Law Clinic
EXPERTISE: Corporate Law and Financial Regulation
CLINICS AND PROGRAMS: Securities Law Clinic

Also last month, Professor Jacobson called the feds on the University of Nebraska's cushy filmmaking residency only for blacks.

N UNDERGRADUATE CATALOG 2023-2024

ARTS & SCIENCES

Film Studies

Overview Major Minor Courses 4-Year Plans Career Development

FILM
344

Intermediate Studies in Ethnicity and Film

Crosslisted with ETHN 344

Prerequisites: 3hrs FILM or 3hrs ETHN

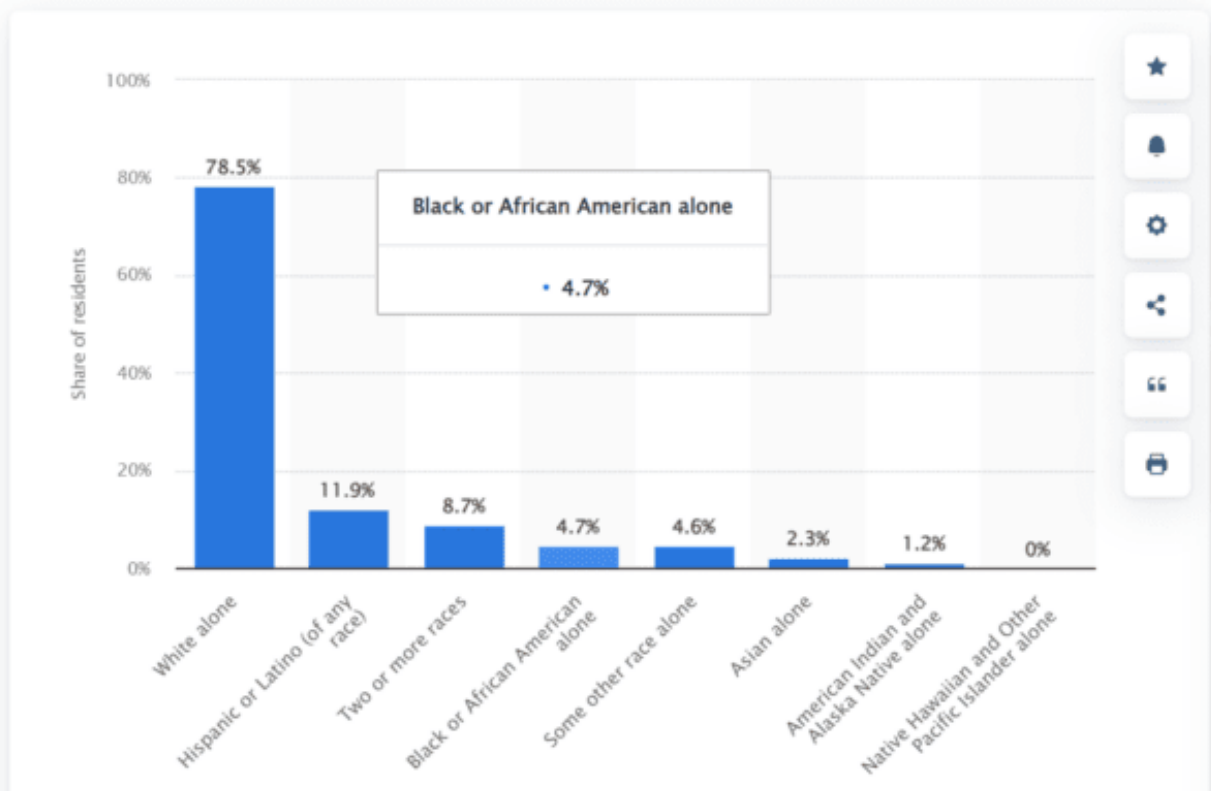

May be repeated once for credit with a different topic and different instructor.

Construction of ethnic identities in film and TV and the impact of such images on American culture.

Credit Hours:	3
Max credits per semester:	3
Max credits per degree:	6
Grading Option:	Graded with Option
Groups:	CAS Diversity in the US

Blacks are not even 5 percent of the state population, but they needed a program that kept out the other 95 percent.

Resident population distribution of Nebraska in 2021

Last month, the Foundation for Individual Rights and Expression sued the entire California community college system – all 54,000 professors and 1.8 million students.

In 2022, California started requiring all teachers to stuff their courses full of “diversity, equity, inclusion, and anti-racism.” Bill Blanken, a chemistry professor and one of the plaintiffs, asks: “What’s the ‘anti-racist’ perspective on the atomic mass of boron?”

_Limelight Photography

High schools are getting the treatment. This summer, the Department of Education – even under Joe Biden – started an investigation of the North Carolina School of Science and Mathematics because its “Step Up to STEM” summer program was open only to blacks, Hispanics, and American Indians.

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION
OFFICE FOR CIVIL RIGHTS

400 MARYLAND AVENUE, SW
WASHINGTON, DC 20202-1475

REGION XI
NORTH CAROLINA
SOUTH CAROLINA
VIRGINIA
WASHINGTON, DC

June 23, 2023

By email only to caroline@defendinged.org

Caroline Moore
Vice President
Parents Defending Education
4532 Cherry Hill Road #119
Arlington, VA 22207

Re: Case No. 11-23-1481
North Carolina School of Science and Mathematics

Dear Ms. Moore:

On May 3, 2023, the U.S. Department of Education, Office for Civil Rights (OCR) received your complaint against the North Carolina School of Science and Mathematics. You alleged that the School’s Step Up to STEM summer program discriminates on the basis of race by excluding applicants who are not African American, Hispanic American, or Native American.

OCR enforces Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (Title VI), 42 U.S.C. §§ 2000d et seq., and its implementing regulation at 34 C.F.R. Part 100, which prohibit discrimination on the basis of race, color, or national origin in any program or activity receiving federal financial assistance from the Department of Education. The School receives federal financial assistance from the Department of Education, so OCR has jurisdiction over it pursuant to Title VI.

Because OCR determined that it has jurisdiction and that the complaint was timely filed, OCR is opening the complaint for investigation. Please note that opening the complaint for investigation in no way implies that OCR has made a determination on the merits of the complaint. During the

In 2020 – the year of the Floyd martyrdom – the Francis Howell School District in Missouri voted to plaster the usual rubbish on school walls, such as, “We will promote racial healing, especially for our Black and brown students and families.” Eighty-seven percent of its 17,000 students are white, but idiot whites love this kind of thing.

Angry parents voted in a new school board, and this summer the rubbish came down. Blacks howled.

For years, Thomas Jefferson High School in Virginia was voted the best in the country.

It admitted students strictly on merit. Naturally, it was heavily Asian and white, so the usual goofs used the usual jiggery pokery to admit the usual pets. This summer, the Pacific Legal Foundation represented a coalition of parents in an appeal to the US Supreme Court to bring back merit.

Parents challenge Virginia high school's admissions after affirmative action ruling

This summer, this lady, Courtney Rogers, sued Compass Group USA, a food company with 280,000 employees.

She says she was fired when she refused to attend a promotion-linked program only for “women and people of color.” She said higher-ups told her, “This is the direction the world is going, jump on the train or get run over,” and “We are not here to appease the old white man.”

THE EPOCH TIMES

Ms. Rogers claims she informed management that high-level employees said of the program, “This is the direction the world is going, jump on the train or get run over,” and “We are not here to appease the old white man.”

Ms. Rogers claims she also informed management that the program was illegal and requested that she be allowed an accommodation

In 2021, Trump advisor Stephen Miller founded America First Legal Foundation, and by year’s end it had revenue of $6.4 million and assets of $4.2 million.

It says, “We will oppose the radical left’s anti-jobs, anti-freedom, anti-faith, anti-borders, anti-police, and anti-American crusade,” and it has.

We founded America First LegalSM to save our country from this coordinated campaign. With your support, we will oppose the radical left’s anti-jobs, anti-freedom, anti-faith, anti-borders, anti-police, and anti-American crusade.

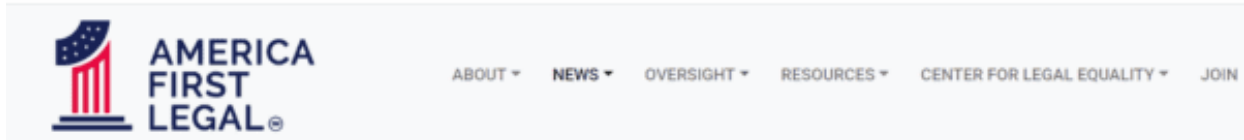

It sued Anheuser-Busch for discriminating against white people.

U.S.

Anheuser-Busch Accused of Discriminating Against White People

BY MATTHEW IMPELLI ON 4/20/23 AT 12:25 PM EDT

It sued Progressive Insurance for making grants only to blacks.

America First Legal Files Class Action Lawsuit Against Progressive Insurance For Illegal Racial Discrimination

August 17, 2023

It sued six Texas medical schools for admitting students on race rather than ability.

Law Group Sues Texas Medical Schools For Allegedly Admitting Students Based On Race Rather Than Merit

[YouTube/Screenshot/Public — User: Texas Tech University Health]

DAILY CALLER NEWS FOUNDATION

REAGAN REESE

January 10, 2023

“America First Legal is holding corporate America accountable for illegally engaging in discriminatory employment practices”

America First Legal is holding corporate America accountable for illegally engaging in discriminatory employment practices that penalize Americans based on race and sex.

Below is a list of all the federal civil rights complaints that America First Legal has filed with the U.S. Equal Employment Commission (EEOC).

Targets include Lyft, KFC, Pizza Hut, and Taco Bell. Its website says “If you or someone you know is the victim of woke ideology . . . reach out to the AFL Center for Legal Equality TODAY.”

AMERICA
FIRST
LEGAL[®]

American institutions, American government, and American life. If you or someone you know is the victim of woke ideology, equity-based exclusion, abusive DEI policies, or other instances of discrimination in Corporate America, academia, or the application of government policy, please reach out to the AFL Center for Legal Equality TODAY by sharing your story or, as always, contact America First Legal on our contact page.

This summer, Edward Blum's American Alliance for Equal Rights sued major law firms for offering fat fellowships only to BIPOCs.

Last month, white employees of Gannett, America's biggest newspaper chain, sued because of blatant, anti-white discrimination.

There are plenty more cases like these, but this is getting tedious. My point is that in 30 years of keeping an eye on things, I have never seen so much anti-anti-racist activism and litigation. I've never seen colleges and companies squirming like this. The Supreme Court decision on college race preferences sure helped, but this has been building for years. Of course, this is all rear-guard action: whites fighting outrageous abuses. And these cases show how serenely American institutions trample on the rights of whites and sometimes Asians.

I don't think Carmen Ambar and Lauri Patton will change their minds even if they are forced to pay millions.

Subscribe to New Columns

They'll just trample more discreetly. But every single one of these actions means white people waking up – at least opening one eye. These are first steps towards a genuine understanding of race and the clean break that will be the only solution.

And looky here, just out this week: “60+ people indicted on RICO over ties to protesting of Atlanta Public Safety Training Center.”

60+ people indicted on RICO over ties to protesting of Atlanta Public Safety Training Center

Many of the individuals named in the indictment were among those previously arrested and charged by local authorities.

The Georgia attorney general rounded up antifa, which it called an “enterprise of militant anarchists” which has tried to stop the city from building a police training center.

Maybe there’s a little hope even for criminal justice – at least at the state level. Sometimes, things get so bad even white people notice. I’d say things are looking up.