Před pěti lety napsal Andrew Joyce působivou třídílnou sérii článků na téma „Alt-Right and the Homosexual Question“ (zveřejněno na AltRight.com). Jeho články dobře korespondují s tím, co jsem již došel k závěru o homosexuálech a jejich místě mezi bílými rasisty, zvláště pokud by se na severozápadě Pacifiku někdy objevil bílý etnostát nebo americká reduta.

Ve svých člancích se Joyce zabývá a vyvrací několik argumentů vznesených proti konfrontaci s homosexuální otázkou. Pro mnohé je to bezpochyby citlivé a obtížné téma. Někteří by to raději vůbec nezmiňovali, zatímco jiní říkají, že bychom měli rádi přivítat bílé homosexuály bez ohledu na jejich sexuální sklony, protože koneckonců jsou bílí.

Mým záměrem není ani tak přemítat Joyceiny myšlenky, ale svým vlastním způsobem vysvětlit, proč věřím, že homosexualita je deviantní způsob života a chování. Ve svém jádru porušuje přirozený nebo stvořený řád věcí, že ničí rodinnou jednotku, která je základem každého národa i samotné západní civilizace, a že homosexuálové v Americe byli vyzbrojeni bolševickou levicí, aby narušili a nakonec roztrhat látku Ameriky (celkem úspěšně bych možná dodal).

Rád bych objasnil, že moje kritika homosexuálů a dnešního hnutí za práva homosexuálů je obecné povahy. Nejsou určeny k tomu, aby se vztahovaly na každého jednotlivého gaye bez výjimky. Mezi homosexuály samozřejmě existují nuance, různé odstíny a rozdíly. Nejsou úplně jednolitou skupinou, jak by si někteří mohli myslet. Přesto je mezi nimi dost podobností a konzistencí, takže je legitimní provést nějaké strážlivé hodnocení a kritiku. V tomto článku jsem popsal jen to, čeho jsem byl svědkem, zažil a vydedukoval po mnoha letech pozorování.

Vyrůstal v Hollywoodu

Můj otec měl téměř padesát let obchod v Hollywoodu. Byl součástí hollywoodského filmového průmyslu, většinou nepřímo tím, že poskytoval vybavení, které by se dalo použít na film nebo televizi. Amatéři a začínající produkční společnosti by nakupovali různé předměty, které by mohli potřebovat pro své filmy. Jeho dva velké sklady se nacházely poblíž bulváru Santa Monica a Highland Avenue, které byly v té době epicentrem gay prostituce.

Výsledkem bylo, že jsem vyrostl kolem několika hollywoodských celebrit a lidí, kteří byli v tomto odvětví. Neúměrný počet z nich byli homosexuálové. Můj kontakt s nimi mě v raném věku přivedl k tomu, abych si vytvořil názory na gaye, z nichž žádný nebyl pozitivní. I když jsem neměl úplně rámeček, ve kterém bych tomu všemu dal smysl, postupně jsem zjišťoval, jak zvláštní, deviantní a hluboce narušené se tolik z nich zdálo být.

Vzpomínám si, jak jsem o víkendech jezdil s otcem do práce a jezdil po Highland Avenue v Hollywoodu, jen abych viděl transvestity, jak sviští a divoce gestikulují na chodnících a předstírají, že jsou ženy.

Nejen, že mě to děsilo, ale divil jsem se, jak někdo může být tak sebeklamán. Můj otec o nich nikdy nemluvil ostře, ale několikrát se zmínil o tom, jak to měli v hlavě podělaní.

Homosexuálové, se kterými jsem se setkal, byli smíšený pytel. Někteří z nich byli docela normální a o jejich sexuálních preferencích jsem si nebyl vědom až mnohem později. Byli velmi „uzavření“ a nedávali najevo svou gaynost, jak k tomu mnozí mají sklony.

Watch Video At: <https://youtu.be/hQuEwvnujOU>

Jiní byli zjevně gayové na základě svých zženštilých způsobů a některých běžných stereotypů, které se s nimi obvykle spojovaly. Také se ujistili, že to všichni vědí. Takové zženštilé způsoby jsou způsoby, kterými homosexuálové signalizují svému druhu a odlišují se od heterosexuální většiny.

Několik z nich bylo opakovanými zákazníky otcovy firmy a on si vytvořil přátelství s mnoha. Věc, která v průběhu času nejvíce vynikla na gayích, se kterými jsem se setkal, bylo to, jak byli zdánlivě kočičí a prchliví. I když navenek vypadali „normálně“ a docela spolu, uvnitř působili hluboce rozrušení. Bylo na nich prostě něco „neděla“.

Neobvykle vysoká sexuální touha, o které se hovořilo o gayích, bylo něco, čeho jsem byl občas svědkem. Ostatní zaměstnanci a já jsme je často našli v uličce, kde se věnovali sexu vedle popelnice, kterou jsme denně používali. Museli jsme jim přikázat, aby odešli, nebo jim při mnoha příležitostech vyhrožovat, že zavoláme policii. O několik let později mi sestra, která pracovala na nemocničním oddělení pro AIDS, řekla, že jedním z nejtěžších úkolů v její práci bylo udržet pacienty s AIDS mimo lůžka toho druhého!

Součástí mých povinností v práci bylo vyzvedávat obědové objednávky v určité dny, kdy šéf platil za oběd všem. Bylo mi tehdy šestnáct a neřídil jsem. Bylo však velmi běžné, že mi muži navrhli, když jsem šel do restaurace vyzvednout jídlo, které jsme si objednali. Konkrétně jedno místo, Arthur J's, bylo jen o blok dál a někdy jsme si od nich objednali jídlo. Ačkoli jsem si toho v té době nebyl vědom, Arthur J's byl podle oznámení v Gay LA „fenomenálně populární celonoční hangout, kam se gayové shlukovali po zavření barů. Arthur J's považovali gayové za skvělé místo pro skórování. Aristide Laurent, který byl pravidelným návštěvníkem v 60. letech, vzpomíná, že sexuální nošení bylo na pánských záchodech v Arthur J's tak nekontrolovatelné, že servírky dostaly příkaz házet na podlahu šálek čpavku každou hodinu, aby výpary nikomu zabránily. trávit více času, než bylo nutné k použití toalety“ („Queer Maps“).

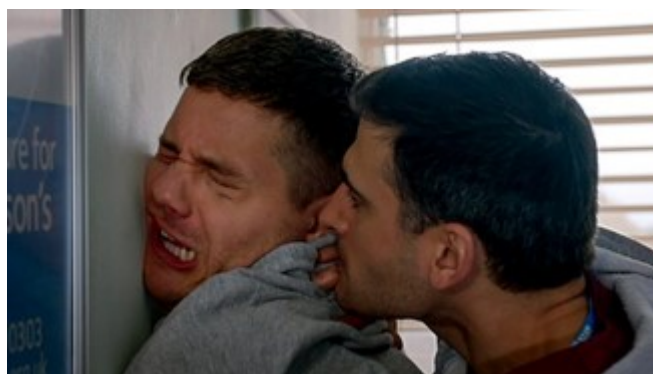

Při jedné příležitosti jsem šel k Arthurovi J's, abych vyzvedl obědy, které jsme si objednali. Když jsem vešel do restaurace, místo bylo plné gayů, kteří na mě zírali a dělali oplzlé komentáře. Bylo to v polovině 70. let, kdy mnozí z nich nosili kožené vesty a obrovské kníry – něco přímo z The Village People. Bylo to tak strašidelné a nepříjemné, že když jsem se vrátil do kanceláře, řekl jsem otci, že už tam nikdy nepůjdu.

Homosexuální muži: Nestálá spousta

Mé názory na homosexuály se potvrdily až s přibývajícím věkem. Začátkem 80. let jsem pracoval v ochrance v nočním klubu 'Seven Seas' na Hollywood Boulevard. Byl to noční klub, který vlastnil zesnulý Eddie Nash, který byl usvědčeným praním špinavých peněz a drogovým dealerem. Mnozí věří, že Nash byl hlavním mozkiem vražd v říši divů , ačkoli za tyto zločiny nebyl nikdy odsouzen.

'Seven Seas' bylo divoké místo. Navštěvovali ji teenageři, mladí dospělí a kolem se vždy poflakovala spousta sešlých postav. Pár lidí, kteří to provozovali, byli gayové a ujistili se, že přivedou své gay přátele. Jeden muž, který vypadal, že je mu něco přes 40, tam vždy o víkendech přijížděl ve svém Porsche. Často ho doprovázel velmi mladý muž, o kterém jsem si myslel, že je mu kolem 15 nebo 16 let. Později jsem zjistil, že stejný teenager brutálně zavraždil svého „cukrového tátu“, když spal, když se dozvěděl, že vidí jiného chlapce. O několik let později, když jsem navštěvoval policejní akademii, jsme ve třídě oslovili detektiva z oddělení vražd šerifa. Pracoval ve městě West Hollywood, které hlídkovalo oddělení šerifa okresu Los Angeles. Toto město má obrovskou gay populaci a mnozí ho považují za „Castro District“ Los Angeles.

Z mnoha důležitých věcí, které sdílel, nám řekl, že vraždy spáchané gayi na jejich milenkách byly téměř vždy snadno zjistitelné kvůli úrovni intenzity a brutality spáchané pachatelem. Bylo to všechno velmi osobní. Nesmírná míra žárlivosti a vzteku vždy hrála významnou roli. Je to proto, že o homosexuálech je známo, že jsou extrémně promiskuitní, mnohem více než průměrný mužský heterosexuál. Sexuální věrnost svým „partnerům“ je mezi gayi vzácností, a když jsou jejich již tak nestabilní svazky narušeny nevěrou, často to vede k děsivým zmrzačením a smrti.

Nebezpečné a zvrácené sexuální praktiky

Každý z nás v různých ohledech má své sexuální preference, své jedinečné chutě (abych tak řekl). Ve slabších chvílích podléháme svodům a žádostem, které bychom se styděli přiznat. Je to součást lidského stavu. Tělo je skutečně slabé a je to boj, který musíme všichni vydržet (někteří více než jiní).

Přesto mezi gayi je druh sexuálních aktivit, kterým se běžně zapojují, daleko za hranicí všeho, co by se dalo považovat za „normální“.

Kromě análního sexu se zapojují do fistingu, rimmingu (řitního otvoru do úst), urolagnie (močování a pití moči), koprofilie (sexuální stimulace výkaly), honění hmyzu (záměrné nakažení se virem HIV prostřednictvím sexu s infikovaným muž), darování (záměrné nakažení jiného muže virem HIV prostřednictvím nechráněného sexu) a řada podivných sexuálních praktik. Velmi časté jsou mezi nimi i skupinové orgie. Je známo, že gayové mají sex kdekoli a mnoho z nich preferuje anonymní sexuální setkání s jinými muži. Je tedy divu, proč tolik gayů v Americe a Británii má raketově rostoucí počet pohlavně přenosných chorob a trpí neobvykle silnými kmeny kapavky? Infekce se mezi nimi také šíří rychleji, protože rychleji mění partnery. Je také pravděpodobnější, že zažijí kapavku v krku (viz článek BBC News od Jamese Gallaghery, „Super-gonorea's Spread Causing Huge Concern“, 17. dubna 2016; článek také uvádí, že homosexuálové „mají tendenci šířit infekce mnohem rychleji prostě tím, že rychleji mění partnery.“).

Tito lidé obecně nejsou ani fyzicky, ani duševně zdraví, když vezmeme v úvahu jejich životní styl. Některé průzkumy odhalily, že míra deprese, sebevražedných myšlenek, různých fobií, obsedantně-kompulzivních poruch a také zneužívání drog a alkoholu byla výrazně vyšší u homosexuálů než u heterosexuálů. Jak by to nemohlo být, když je člověk závislý na nejextrémnějších a nejnebezpečnějších sexuálních praktikách, jaké si lze představit?

Nepřirozenost homosexuality

Většina z toho je samozřejmě obviňována „netolerantní“ společností, která odmítá akceptovat homosexuály takové, jací jsou. Tomu nevěřím ani minutu. Velmi se přikláním k názoru, že to pramení z nepřirozenosti samotné homosexuality. Nepřirozenost homosexuality je jasně evidentní v tom, že homosexuálové nejsou schopni plodit prostřednictvím análního sexu. Snaha pokračovat v našem druhu je mezi lidmi jak přirozená, tak silná. Protože homosexuální sex není schopen provést tento nejzákladnější biologický akt, je automaticky vyloučen z toho, aby byl považován za zdravý, normální nebo přirozený.

Navíc řitní otvor není určen k sexu. Je určen k extrakci odpadu a je prošípaný bakteriemi a choroboplodnými zárodky. Mnoho pohlavně přenosných chorob, které infikují gaye, je přímým důsledkem hraní si tam, kde by neměli. Neustálé pronikání anální stěny nevyhnutelně vytváří slzy, kde se bakterie a nemoci dostávají do krevního řečiště. Každý, kdo si myslí, že je zdravý, si musí nechat vyšetřit hlavu.

To vše je tak zjevně scestné, přesto je společnost neustále bombardována zprávami o tom, jak je homosexualita naprosto normální a přijatelná. Stejně jako transgender lži, kterými nás média denně propagují, tak i propaganda propagující homosexualitu a sňatky gayů není nic jiného než krásně zabalené lži.

Pederasty je mezi homosexuály běžná

Protože homosexuálové nemohou plodit, musí naverbovat.

'Pederasty' (sexuální vztahy mezi muži a chlapci) byly mezi nimi historicky běžné, což je praxe, kterou lze snadno vysledovat až do starověkého Řecka a římských kultur a dále. Zatímco v každé společnosti a kultuře vždy byli homosexuálové, ne vždy to bylo přijímáno nebo tolerováno. Mám dojem, že homosexualita má tendenci být rozšířenější ve společnostech, které jsou na ústupu. Nikoho by nemělo překvapit, že od začátku sexuální revoluce v 60. letech – spolu s právy gayů a dnešními transgender hnutími – jsou USA na sestupné spirále.

Na počátku 60. let vznikla série krátkých filmů, které měly veřejnost poučit o predátorské povaze homosexuálů, kteří se sexuálně zaměřovali na osamělé chlapce bez otce. Tyto filmy nebyly uvedeny kvůli nějaké osobní nenávisti vůči gayům, ale proto, že homosexuální grooming byl tak rozšířený ve velkých městech, jako je San Francisco (kde jsou hřiště pro děti často opatřena nápisy zakazujícími svobodné muže). Lidé se dnes takovým filmům vysmívají, ale je to jen proto, že byly tak propagovány médii a skupinami zastupujícími gaye, že věří, že gay grooming je falešné a nespravedlivé obvinění.

Watch Video At: <https://youtu.be/fTn7ALbLYPI>

Organizace gay aktivistů v USA rády umožnily NAMBLA (North American Man-Boy Love Association) podílet se na gay pride po celé Americe po mnoho let. Ale teprve když přišel tlak na skupiny za práva homosexuálů, aby se distancovaly od těchto zjevných pedofilů, nakonec zakázaly jejich přítomnost na svých přehlídkách. Po tak dlouhou dobu byl však akceptován jako nedílná součást amerického hnutí za práva gayů, protože většina homosexuálů plně podporovala sex s předpubertálními a dospívajícími chlapci.

Samozřejmě to otevřeně nepřiznají, protože by to pošpinilo všechny jejich kampaně pro styk s veřejností. Vědí, že většina Američanů by mohla tolerovat sex dvou dospělých mužů, ale to by nebyl stejný sentiment, pokud jde o sexuální vztahy mezi mužem a chlapcem. Ať tak či onak, nemá smysl popírat to, co odhaluje historie i samotná realita – totiž že velké množství homosexuálů dává přednost sexuálnímu styku s mladými chlapci. Ti, kteří vám tvrdí opak, buď lžou, nebo jsou hrubě ignoranti.

Tady je 11letý tahák známý jako 'Amazing Desmond', který byl uveden v Good Morning America. Sledujte, jak publikum tleská tomuto velmi zmatenému a zmanipulovanému chlapci. Že to bude vysílat národní televize, ukazuje, jakým morálně zkrachovalým národem jsme se stali.

Gay advokační skupiny se zabývají propagandou a nátlakem

Musíme si položit otázku: Jak zdravé může být jakékoli sociální nebo politické hnutí, když se celá jeho identita točí kolem jejich sexuálních preferencí a praktik? Navzdory tomu, co by gay aktivisté mohli říkat, jejich poselství světu je ve skutečnosti o tom, s kým mají rádi sex a proč by je společnost měla plně přijmout. Nezdá se vám to samo o sobě bizarní? Dokážete si představit míru absurdity, která by nastala, kdyby heterosexuálové zakládali organizace a rozvíjeli celostátní kampaně, aby přesvědčili všechny, že mají rádi sex s osobami opačného pohlaví? Bylo by to zčásti opravdu zvláštní, protože mít vztahy s opačným pohlavím je naprosto přirozené. Takové snahy by neprokázaly nic jiného než to, co už všichni vědí.

Přesto se homosexuální aktivisté a apologeti musí ohnout a zapojit se do velkých logických skoků, aby nás všechny přesvědčili, že to, co dělají sexuálně, je normální a něco, co bychom měli přijmout. A co ne vždy dokážou přesvědčováním, snaží se dosáhnout nátlakem, legislativou, mediální manipulací, hollywoodskými sympatiemi, stejně jako démonizací svých odpůrců a celé společnosti.

Například v roce 1973 Americká psychiatrická asociace (APA) odstranila diagnózu „homosexualita“ z druhého vydání svého Diagnostického a statistického manuálu (DSM). Předtím, od svého prvního vydání v roce 1952, byla „homosexualita“ klasifikována jako duševní porucha. Tato změna však nenastala v důsledku nových vědeckých objevů, ale proto, že skupiny gay aktivistů zastrašovaly a tlačily na APA, aby to vyhodila. To bylo vyčerpávajícím způsobem zdokumentováno Dr. Jeffreyem Satinoverem ve své knize Homosexualita a politika pravdy (Baker Book House, 1996) a v článku z roku 2007, jehož autorem je nazvaný „Trojský gauč“: Jak zkreslují asociace duševního zdraví Věda .”

Homosexuálové se staví proti tradičním americkým hodnotám

Rodina samotná musí být hanobena gay militanty. Tradiční manželství musí být také napadeno a překrouceno ze svého původního významu. A za jakým účelem? Aby nikdo nikdy nepoukázal na zjevnou pravdu, že sex muže proti muži je nepřírozený a nezdravý.

Předpokládám, že by někdo mohl mít sklon podporovat gay agendu, kdyby samotní gayové žili způsobem, který byl morální a obezřetný. Ale často ne. Přesto jsou často první a nejhlasitěji odsuzují tradiční hodnoty. Jejich „hrdiny“ jsou jako Harvey Milk (gay politik), RuPaul (gay drag queen), Larry Kramer (radikální gay aktivista AIDS), Andy Warhol (excentrický gay umělec), Pete Buttigieg (otevřeně gay ministr dopravy USA), a Ellen DeGeneres (hostitelka lesbické talk show), abychom jmenovali jen některé.

V Americe se slaví jen proto, že se země odpoutala od svých tradičních morálních hodnot.

Dalo by se také přiklánět se k podpoře práv gayů, pokud by sami gayové byli velkými zastánci Heritage Americans (Whites) a jejich zájmů, stejně jako tradiční americké kultury s jejími silnými rodinnými hodnotami a láskou k vlasti. Ale neudělali a nikdy nebudou, protože homosexualita je sama o sobě vzpourou proti přirozenému řádu. Vždy se budou snažit podkopat vše, co podporuje normálnost a znaky tradiční společnosti a kultury (kultur). Těch srovnatelně málo, kteří by nemuseli, jsou odlehlé hodnoty, výjimka potvrzující pravidlo.

Gayové v Americe do značné míry podporují levicovou a otevřeně kulturně-marxistickou politiku. Jsou to miláčci mezi liberálními demokraty. Hlavním cílem jejich aktivismu je oslabit a zničit tradiční americké instituce, jako je rodina. Infiltrují naše systémy veřejných škol a propagují naše děti svými pro-gay zprávami. Činí tak, protože správně uznávají, že společenské přijetí gayů bude s každou další generací snazší, pokud jim bude dovoleno ovlivňovat a rekrutovat mladé lidi s malým odporem rodičů.

Je tedy důležité pochopit, že gayům v Americe nejde o to, aby se přizpůsobili základním nebo charakteristickým zvykům a konvencím většiny. Nespokojí se s tím, že jsou ve společnosti pouze přijímáni a tolerováni. Ne, musí být „oslaveni“ a řečeno, že jejich sexuální sklony jsou stejně dobré jako heterosexuality. V některých případech se nám dokonce říká, jak je homosexualita nadřazená!

V závislosti na tom, jakému průzkumu se člověk rozhodne věřit, tvoří gayové jen asi 4,9 % celkové populace USA, a přesto ovlivňují a diktují nepřiměřené množství amerických federálních a státních politik, které je upřednostňují. To zahrnuje obrovské federální financování pro gay příčiny a zdravotní péči spojenou s jejich vysokou úrovní pohlavně přenosných chorob. MSM je bez ostychu podporuje. Stojí za nimi celé lékařské zařízení. Naše vysoké školy a univerzity zavedly zásady, které penalizují každého, kdo se odváží říct něco negativního o homosexuálech, lesbách a transgenderech. Přesto se homosexuálové v médiích nadále vykreslují jako „oběti“ „homofobní“ společnosti?!

Some argue that homosexuality has a genetic or biological (e.g., hormonal) basis. Others argue that it's largely environmental. Whatever the case, the rise of homosexuality to mainstream status in America has proven to be disastrous to the health and future of America. Any social movement that centers its existence on their sexual proclivities – especially those that throughout history have been condemned by almost all societies and cultures – will prove to be of no worth if that same nation desires to survive. Homosexuality produces only sickness and death, as is plainly evident in the AIDS epidemic and the insane levels of sexually transmitted diseases among gay men. And while there may be individual homosexuals who can add value and benefit to society (often seen in the arts), as a group committed to sexual deviancy, they are unable to do so.

The Jewish Role in Advancing Gay Rights

Neúměrná židovská role při prosazování práv gayů je dobře zdokumentována. Židé jsou na svou roli v tom všem docela hrdí. Byli v přední linii boje za přijetí homosexuálů a jak organizovali, tak i financovali současné hnutí za práva homosexuálů v USA a Evropě. Aktivističtí Židé takový jako Franklin Kameny, kdo je zvažován některými k byli hnutí za práva homosexuála je Rosa Parksová, Edie

Windsor, a Thea Spyer; Windsor a Spyer byli v centru přelomového případu, který srazil federální bar ohledně sňatků osob stejného pohlaví; a mnoho dalších převzalo vedoucí roli v normalizaci homosexuality a v obhajování zvláštních práv jménem gayů.

Přihlaste se k odběru nových sloupců

V roce 2013 viceprezident Joe Biden otevřeně chválil důležitou roli, kterou Židé sehráli při legalizaci sňatků osob stejného pohlaví, když hovořil před recepcí měsíce židovského dědictví, kterou pořádal Národní výbor demokratů: „Viceprezident Joe Biden chválí židovské vůdce za pomáhá změnit americký postoj k homosexuálním manželstvím a dalším problémům. Biden říká, že kultura a umění mění postoje lidí. Jako příklady toho, co pomohlo změnit postoje k manželství homosexuálů, uvádí sociální média a starý televizní seriál NBC „Will and Grace“. Biden řekl: "Přemýšlejte - za tím vším se vsadím, že 85 procent těchto změn, ať už v Hollywoodu nebo na sociálních sítích, je důsledkem židovských vůdců v tomto odvětví." Biden říká, že vliv je obrovský a že tyto změny byly k dobru.Biden: Židovští vůdci řídili změny v manželství homosexuálů ,“ Associated Press, 21. května 2013).

Bidenova slova se ukázala být trapná pro některé Židy, kteří si mysleli, že jeho přiznání přiživuje stereotypní židovské „kachny“, že Židé prosazují liberální a škodlivou sociální politiku. Židé si samozřejmě chtějí připsat zásluhy za to, že vytvořili a uplatňovali své utopické hodnoty na národě, ale pokud se někdo odváží tvrdit, že tyto hodnoty jsou zhoubné, rychle takové 'pozorování' odsoudí.

Stejně jako černoši v Americe byli gayové vyzbrojeni Židy proti tradičním Američanům. Není to proto, že by Židé historicky podporovali homosexualitu. Ve skutečnosti byl judaismus po staletí proti němu a židovská písma takové praktiky výslovně odsuzují. Židé z velké části podporují sňatky a práva gayů, protože narušují morální strukturu tradičně křesťanské Ameriky. Tyto praktiky také pomáhají destabilizovat národ, aby je bílá rasová solidarita nikdy nemohla ohrozit, jako tomu bylo kdysi v Německu pod nacionálně socialistickou kontrolou. To částečně vysvětluje, proč Židé vždy rychle vytvářejí a podporují radikální sociální hnutí, která se ukáží jako zhoubná pro rasové a kulturní zdraví bělochů.

Pokud by se Amerika rozpadla, konfederace svého druhu, v níž by se politicky konzervativní rudé státy měly odtrhnout od Unie, bílí by byli moudří, kdyby homosexuálům nikdy nepřipouštěli vlivné a mocenské pozice. To neznamena, že by měli být pronásledováni pouze proto, že jsou gayové, ale pouze to, že kampaně na normalizaci a propagaci homosexuality by měly být zakázány. Gayové, kteří jsou „uzavření“ a udržují své sexuální sklony v soukromí, by měli zůstat na pokoji.

Nicméně gayům, kteří dostanou sympatickou platformu a je jim dovoleno mezi námi propagovat – zvláště pokud by se zaměřovali na naše děti – by měly být přísně trestány. Pokud tak neučiníte, bílí Američané budou znovu bojovat stejné sociální a politické bitvy.

The rate of incidence for sex crimes is about 1 %.

That is far less than that of Protestants, jewish Rabbis, Boy Scout troopmasters or certainly public school administrators. The leader in sex crimes against children is usually inter family related i.e. step fathers, friends, uncles etc.

Jewish groups made a crisis, than brought suit against the centralized Catholic Church and in so doing, forever tarnished the clergy who was their archnemesis.

Russia has taken the approach that gayness should stay in its own lane, and not encroach on heterosexual society.

It is a recognized fact that homosexuality has been weaponized by predatory globalists to weaken societies that defend faith, culture and family. Russia's response has been measured and fair.

Russia has codified into law where the boundaries are between being privately gay and being a threat to the social order. It is up to the judicial branch to ensure that gays aren't unfairly persecuted and hetero's aren't having to live with gay propaganda in their lives.

As I see it, if any homosexual sincerely values European Group Selected ethno-nationalism, then he must understand that his homosexuality is a genetic/biological defect, and while requesting to be allowed to live in a prospective European ethno-nationalist nation, he must sincerely believe in working to find scientific ways to remove homosexual genes from the population, such as by screening people to see if they carry unexpressed recessive genes for homosexuality and legally preventing them from reproducing. If the homosexual agrees with these things, then I think it would be humane and an acceptable level of altruism to let the homosexual live out his childless life in an ethno-nationalist nation – after all, it's not his fault that he was forced to be born by his parents, even though he carried homosexual genes.

Anyway, in my future vision of a eugenic/transhuman nation, eventually all offspring will be synthetically created in offspring manufacturing factories, and humans will lose the genes causing an innate desire for coitus; it will no longer be pleasurable. At this point, the arguments of heterosexuality versus homosexuality will be obsolete.

The author mentions that homosexuals seem emotionally defective in other ways too, such as being neurotic, sociopathic, and having very high sex-drives. This would be predicted by Dr. Woodley of Menie, since mutations for maladaptive behaviors often occur together.

quote: “For instance, in 1973 the American Psychiatric Association (APA) removed the diagnosis of “homosexuality” from the second edition of its Diagnostic and Statistical Manual (DSM).”

I read that China did the same thing. So much for Richard Lynn's prediction of China becoming a eugenic nation.

In the end, homosexuals are Individually Selected Genetic Sociopaths, so yes, they will aggressively oppose any Group Selected population and their collective behavioral traits.

The average male heterosexual would be just as promiscuous as the average queer if straight women had no principles or didn't have discriminating tastes. A homosexual male has to score with another homosexual male, and face it, except for the rare magical nymphomaniac, most males whether straight or queer will have a stronger sex drive than females.

The Bolshevik Left aka JEWS are using the homosexuals just like they did Blacks earlier. Divide and conquer AND DESTROY TRADITIONAL WHITE NATIONS. EVERY SINGLE DESTRUCTIVE MOVEMENT CAN BE TRACED TO THE SAME SOURCE.

Aside from anal sex, they engage in fisting, rimming (anus-to-mouth), urolagnia (getting urinated on and drinking urine),

These are already normalized with many modern women of around 40 and under; plus hair-pulling, choking, slapping, and bondage.

Tell women they are actually men with vaginas, have them start behave like male homosexuals. Who would have guessed.

Whites would be wise to never allow homosexuals positions of influence and power. This doesn't mean they should be persecuted solely because they are gay, but only that campaigns to normalize and promote homosexuality should be outlawed. Gays who are "closeted" and who keep their sexual proclivities private should be left alone.

However, the minute gays are given a sympathetic platform and permitted to propagandize among us – especially if they were to target our children – there should be harsh penalties.

This describes today's China and Russia. Homosexuality is legal, gay dating apps are legal, but everything should be behind closed doors between consenting adults. Propaganda gets penalties.

As much as homosexuals vehemently deny it, homosexuality and pedophilia are inextricably linked. Almost all homosexuals have had their first homosexual “experience” introduced to them by an ADULT homosexual as pre-teen males. This, in itself constitutes homosexual pedophilia, which is criminal behavior in itself and is a way to destroy a pre-teen child for life.

The so-called Roman Catholic priest “child abuse scandal” was actually homosexual pedophilia in action. Of course the “mainstream media” could not afford to offend the “homosexual community” by calling what it really was—thereby, the “play on words”, calling it “child sex abuse” rather than homosexual pedophilia—the true definition of their sordid behavior.

I must play “devil’s advocate” when it comes to the Catholic church homosexual pedophilic priest “problem”...The Catholic church was “caught between a rock and a hard place” and had every right to be concerned about how many false claims would be made by those parishioners who belonged to the parish at the same time as this behavior was going on. Follow the money... Of course, there is (and was) absolutely NO EXCUSE for this homosexual pedophilic behavior...

Sad to say, the homosexuals are at it again, encouraging the “psychiatric community” to change the definition of pedophilia from a psychiatric “disorder” to a mere “lifestyle”, not unlike what was done for homosexuality. Sick, huh??

The whole system has to come apart completely before it can be rebuilt. In the rebuilding process, you can't have tolerance or mercy for this group or that group because that same tolerance is what got us into the mess we are in. The best we can do right now is to form strong white communities with support networks where we can protect and educate our own children. There is no half-way point with homosexuality, society either accepts it or shuns it. In healthy societies, its not acceptable and men and women who are attracted to the same sex know what the score is, look but don't touch. Step out of line and you will suffer the consequences.

Sick, indeed.

And it runs parallel to a horror of adolescence sexuality.

There are states in the US (Michigan?) where a 16 yr old boy can undergo a criminal process that leaves him with a “sex criminal” tag for the rest of his life.

The gays I’ve known have said that they knew they were attracted to males from a very early age, say 3, 4 or 5 years old. IOW, they knew early on that they were different. That said, NO ONE should ever be touching a child – EVER. Pre-teen? Throw away the key!

Pedophilia IS a psychiatric disorder. These guys hunt for their victims the same way an antisocial criminal hunts for their victims. And I would argue that homosexuality is a psychiatric disorder too. There does appear to be a genetic component, but from what I’ve observed, something went terribly wrong in early childhood. Either the mother does not allow the child to cross over to the father, or the father for some reason or another appears to reject the child (at least in the child’s mind). Probably wouldn’t have been so prevalent back in the farming culture days, but with today’s busy lifestyle, with parents stressed and caught on the capitalist treadmill, it is easy to imagine how things can get twisted.

Our culture is pretty sick, and these people are but a reflection of this sickness. Do you agree?

It seems a big part of the issue is that gays function as a praetorian guard for elites against the majority of normies ... a natural mafia

And that they in fact have done this for thousands of years, tho mostly in the guise of being 'celibate holy men', the monks and priests of history around the world

In the West we were saddled for centuries with the Vatican version, covertly gay men in church robes everywhere

The Christian Orthodox of Russia, Greece etc limited this somewhat, by letting ordinary parish priests marry before ordination ... tho for the Orthodox, being a bishop required either being lifelong 'celibate' (gay monks often) or having one's wife dead

There is no end of harm that was done in the West by the Vatican Church selling this 'celibate is holy' fraud whilst the gays who ruled over it laughed ... duping many noble-minded straight men into the monastery or priesthood so they never had progeny ... snatching worthy mothers out of the role of being mothers of children, into nunneries

Tho it let its church ministers marry, Protestantism didn't rescue the situation because the focus on the Jewish Bible book, in time led to the whole Abrahamic 'eternal torture hell' religion project being perceived as both unpleasant and a fraud

Reincarnation Asian religions have much more truth in them ... but didn't avoid the 'celibate' gay man scam

You make a good point...

It is only the Roman Catholic sect of Catholicism that imposes celibacy on its clergy.

This is a major “fault” with Roman Catholicism that needs to be corrected.

Most people (even Catholics) are unaware that celibacy was imposed on Roman Catholic priests for purely financial considerations. In the middle ages, church property was being willed to the descendants of married priests and bishops, rather than remaining in Catholic Church hands. Celibacy was imposed to take the priests’ and bishops’ families out of the equation.

There is nothing “Protestant” about allowing Roman Catholic priests to marry. In fact, other Catholic sects (Greek Orthodox and Maronite) allow for married priests. Married Episcopal clergy who convert to Catholicism are allowed to function as priests and bring their families into the Catholic faith.

A compromise could be to allow candidates for the priesthood to be married, but forbid present-day fully laicized priests from advocating marriage.

The Vatican II Ecumenical Council should have resulted in the call to abolish celibacy. Instead, it was a subversive vehicle to impose Protestant and Jewish principles on the Catholic Church.

I think that a large part of homosexuality is promoted by single-parent fatherless homes. This is also true among homosexual females and males who adopt children (which should never be allowed).

A normal two-parent male-female family situation is the only solution.

“Grooming” of pre-pubescent and post-pubescent children is becoming more common as the homosexual, pedophilia, and LGBTQXYZ is becoming “normalized” by (((you know who))).

In most cases, once homosexuals “groom” a vulnerable young male whose sexual mores have not been fully set, there is no turning back. For those who wish to leave the homosexual “lifestyle”, there are few resources as homosexual groups have pushed for the banning and criminalization of “conversion therapy” groups whose aim is to promote “homosexual” deprogramming for those who wish to revert to heterosexuality. We are indeed living in perilous times, especially for our children.

Either way, there is little sense in denying what both history and reality itself reveals – namely, that large numbers of homosexuals prefer to have sexual relations with young boys.

Why it would be so? Why would gays prefer young boys (who often are not gay) to other adult gay men? I wondered about it sometimes myself, but are you suggesting it is a form of “recruitment”...?

That would be a wrong strategy, as homosexuality indeed seems to be genetic, and transferred by a certain subset of X chromosomes: high rates of homosexuality are observed in communities that practice cousin marriages (like Pakistan), from the point of view of genetics a marriage which by its nature conserves X chromosomes (which recombines, unlike Y chromosome, so you must marry cousins if you want to preserve it).

Of course, if you marry two unrelated “gay families”, you will likely get some gay offspring too. However, since gays are said to comprise only 4-10% of society, in the long run you need either cousin marriages or marriages only among “gay” families to sustain them since their X-chromosome based genes need “reinforcement”.

I read that in USA one of the groups with the highest levels of cousin marriages are Amish, and voila..!

The Vatican II Ecumenical Council should have resulted in the call to abolish celibacy.

Indeed. Interesting, isn't it, that they were willing to change literally everything under consideration, doctrines, liturgy, canon law, saints, etc., but not celibacy, divorce, or birth control.

So why did Paul VI overrule his expert advisors on this one area? He was a disciple of Jacques Maritain, and surrounded by Maritain's devotees. This was a circle of closeted French homosexuals who promoted a "holier than thou" notion of being too spiritual for nasty reproductive sex, and used "traditional family values" as a means of punishing heterosexuals by making their sexual lives as onerous as possible (no sex outside marriage, sex in marriage only for reproduction, no divorce under any circumstances, no birth control).

"Traditional family values" were designed by a group of bitter old queens as a smokescreen for their international pedophile ring. Hiding in plain sight: "He's not gay, he's a holy priest. He'll be an excellent babysitter, since he's not interested in sex at all; in fact, he's a more reliable moral teacher than Bobby's parents anyway."

“I think that a large part of homosexuality is promoted by single-parent fatherless homes. This is also true among homosexual females and males who adopt children (which should never be allowed).”

No doubt this goes a long way toward causing the problem, as I believe the homosexual is essentially still searching for the male bonding they never got.

“A normal two-parent male-female family situation is the only solution.”

Yes, but that word “normal” is very hard to achieve. Witness the numbers of parents with personality disorders who are raising children (narcissists, as an example).

“In most cases, once homosexuals “groom” a vulnerable young male whose sexual mores have not been fully set, there is no turning back.”

No “young” person should ever be groomed, period. That said, I don’t think this turns someone into a homosexual. That happened in the child’s very first years of life.

As for conversion therapy, I can’t see this working. Pretend a person is a vase someone is molding. The process goes on until the vase takes shape. It is then hardened and fired. Try turning that into a paper cup now. Can’t be done. We are all a product of our genetics and environment, unfortunately.

I once had a pedophile get me into his car, unwillingly. I was ten or eleven, just starting to develop. Terror! I remember my fingers being pried from the chain link fence I was desperately trying to hold onto. In hindsight, this guy was delusional and living in a fantasy world, just by what he said to me. I managed a narrow escape, but the escape was as harrowing as the capture. These people are sick.

Do you not think our culture is causing this? Whether a two-parent male-female family or not, things are getting twisted. There is great stress on the family unit. Do you agree?

Your question:

Why would gays prefer young boys (who often are not gay) to other adult gay men? I wondered about it sometimes myself, but are you suggesting it is a form of “recruitment”...?

...deserves an honest answer.

Homosexuals DO attempt to “recruit” young pre-pubescent boys into the “lifestyle”. I don’t believe that homosexuality is genetic in nature but rather, a predisposition which can be fueled by external sources.

It could be similar to alcoholism which is a predisposition that becomes problematic if it is negatively acted upon.

Children of alcoholics learn one of two things: #1. to drink to excess and to develop into an alcoholic, or: #2. not to drink at all and avoid the “scourge” of alcoholism.

I believe that it is somewhat similar to homosexual recruitment, that if one succumbs to the adult homosexual, it does tend to turn out badly.

Quite often, the adult homosexual will “bribe” the young “recruit” with “gifts”, as well as alcohol and other drugs. If the “recruit” has a difficult home life, it becomes easier for the homosexual recruitment to take hold as the adult homosexual will offer “attention” that the “recruit” is not getting at home. If I had my way, ANY recruitment (grooming) of a non-adult by an adult homosexual or other LGBTQXYZ type would result in a mandatory life sentence for the “recruiter” (groomer).

| he must understand that his homosexuality is a genetic/biological defect

I haven't done very extensive research on this topic, but there's is quite compelling evidence that male homosexuality is a byproduct of a highly adaptive reproductive strategy and that's why the genes associated with it have remained stably in populations/gene pools:

| Studies have observed that the maternal aunts and grandmothers of homosexual probands were significantly more fecund compared with the maternal aunts and maternal grandmothers of the heterosexual probands, which explains the low universal frequency but stability of the distribution of homosexuals, and thus compensating for the reduced fecundity of homosexuals. These data support an X-linked multi-locus sexually antagonistic hypothesis.

– <https://journals.plos.org/plosone/article?id=10.1371%2Fjournal.pone.0051088> or <https://archive.ph/uAyGq>

Tolerance of homosexuality is also associated with stronger economic growth, which could be interpreted as another competitive and probably even evolutionary advantage:

| A study found that an additional point on the 8-point Global Index on Legal Recognition of Homosexual Orientation scale of legal rights for homosexual persons is associated with an increase in real GDP per capita of approximately $2000.

– <https://www.sciencedirect.com/science/article/pii/S0305750X19300695> or <https://archive.ph/fuDoK>

I have hypothesized in the past

<https://www.unz.com/isteve/and-then-they-came-for-opera-conductor-james-levine/?showcomments#comment-2103122> that open and socially-accepted male homosexuality would reduced male mating competition — lesbians are far more problematic in this regard <https://www.unz.com/istev/and-then-they-came-for-opera-conductor-james-levine/?showcomments#comment-2103479> — which would make a society more peaceful and presumably also more productive, etc.:

Men die at higher rates than women across the lifespan. A new study suggests that this excess mortality is the price of reproductive competition

<https://phys.org/news/2010-05-men-dying-sex-competition-excess.html> or <https://archive.ph/ZJVdB>

In the current study, Kruger shows that two factors related to the level of male reproductive competition contribute to higher rates of risk-taking and mortality.

The first factor is polygyny, the social situation in which one man maintains sexual relations with many women. Several species of primates show high levels of polygyny, where one dominant male mates with most of the females in the group, and other males are left out. Human cultures have varying degrees of polygyny, and Kruger found that the more prevalent the practice, the higher the rate of male mortality.

The second factor: the degree of economic inequality. In mate selection, men are valued for the resource investment that they can provide, bringing benefits to their offspring. The wider the gap between rich and poor, the more likely men are to die young. In less egalitarian societies, a man with what scientists call “resource control”—money, property and economic security—is more likely to find sexual partners.

Also, whites are the least gay ethnicity according to some surveys even though they are the most accepting/tolerant of that sexual orientation, so a white ethno state or a super-majority white, minority-Jewish/Hispanic/Black/Asian society (80+% white population) would probably have much fewer societal problems with dysfunctional/degenerate homosexuality than a multi-cultural or non-white state/society:Image Source:

@FKA Max

Studies have observed that the maternal aunts and grandmothers of homosexual probands were significantly more fecund

Yeah, yeah, it always comes to elevating the maternal side which transfers homosexuality... A desired outcome, I would say.

Strangely, the few homosexuals I know are single children of their mothers (if not always of their fathers). Which leads me to suspicion that this study was skewed in some way, especially as it came to the outcome which is clearly evolutionary improbable, namely that maternal side acquired some additional fecundity whereas paternal did not. The proposition is “There exists additional fecundity on the maternal side which is somehow used to produce homosexuals. [UNPROVEN, STRANGE CONNECTION] By automatically asserting that “high fecundity” is evolutionary useful, we thus obtain that homosexuality is evolutionary useful too even if we don’t yet know the nature of this usefulness” [IN OTHER WORDS, WE BLINDLY TRANSFER THE LABEL OF “USEFULNESS” FROM FECUNDITY TO HOMOSEXUALITY: UNPROVEN]

Where did subjects of the study come from ? All from upper class...? Why were subject not controlled for endogamy ? Why subjects were not controlled for the cousin marriage in their family...? (popular in Italy and Spain – two test countries – up to WWI, judging from the number of papal dispensas given – tens of thousands per year). Why subjects were not controlled for presence of genetic diseases in their families...? Why subjects were not controlled for the number of deaths in their families...? It is for example known that in the Near East or Pakistan cousin marriages are usually more ‘fecund’ than non-cousin marriages, but it necessity as they have higher probability of their children dying or being seriously ill.

I have no personal, anecdotal experience in my family with male homosexuals, but I have one only-child, lesbian maternal cousin and another lesbian in my extended family. The fathers of both of these lesbian women were serial adulterers (presumably, instinctively trying to maximize their male fecundity/reproductive fitness), and therefore these men were likely what one could call “hypersexual.” I think the same can be probably said/suspected of the maternal aunts and grandmothers of male homosexuals, and that this/their “hypersexuality” or being a (male or female) nymphomaniac (being compulsively/instinctively sexual) is probably the path and the behavioral trait of how this “highly adaptive reproductive strategy” expressed itself.

I wasn’t “automatically asserting that “high fecundity” is evolutionary useful”, that’s why I phrased it differently, e.g. “highly adaptive reproductive strategy”, but I think that since this reproductive strategy appears to be rather successful and Nature/Evolution isn’t particularly politically, religiously or ideologically correct, the burden of proof should be on you to show/prove that it isn’t “evolutionary useful.”

Look, I know for a fact that homosexuality is nurture because of a very emotionally unavailable father and a more dominating/overcompensating mother. That's how my parents were and how many are in the scientific literature.

The only way to heal from homosexuality is to transcend the shame energy that created it. You have to elevate oneself above it through gratitude and self love. Basically, it's a condition that traps the (male) in a state of lower consciousness and hyper sexualization around their identity. It's kind of like a state of hell to be honest.....these are the feminine gays u see.. I don't think they try to "recruit" they just look to find people to have sex with since it's always on their mind tbh.....

I also know that there are other men who were molested as very young boys. These are the ones who turn into pedophiles and who do try to recruit to some degree.

Basically.... it's all about childhood trauma. The only way to heal is to allow the shameful energy to be there and transcend it. It's about elevating above it not dwelling in it. Humanity suffers because no one has been taught how raise themselves past their traumas. If you scoff at this then you're part of the problem too.

Christ showed that prayer, water fasting and giving thanks way the way. He wasn't wrong... The happier I become and more connected to myself I feel.. the homosexuality dissipates in proportion to my level of happiness/joy... Gratitude is the way out of the illusion that we are separate and out of the hell which is the human ego in its fallen state..... I'm grateful for you guys.... and I'll be practicing gratitude persistently until I achieve my liberation...

The gays I've known have said that they knew they were attracted to males from a very early age, say 3, 4 or 5 years old. IOW, they knew early on that they were different.

How can a 3, 4, or 5 year old have any notion of sexual attraction? I sure don't remember any at that age. Girls had "cooties" and the only things attractive about other boys were the cool toys they had that I didn't!

It is only the Roman Catholic sect of Catholicism that imposes celibacy on its clergy.

If you're talking solely about Abrahamic religions, this is probably true. But there are many other religions that involve celibacy for their clergy, e.g. in Hinduism it is common

“so a white ethno state or a super-majority white, minority-Jewish/Hispanic/Black/Asian society (80+% white population) would probably have much fewer societal problems”

Not possible. An 80%+ white ethno-state will regress to a 40%-or-less white state in the space of only 3 or 4 generations. Non-white men will always aggressively chase after White women, black men will not only very aggressively court them but will also rape and kill them, Hispanics will outbreed Whites, and Jews and Asians will relentlessly seek financial, political and cultural power plus special privileges, and then use it to subvert, betray, impoverish, and scheme against Whites and lobby for ever-more non-White immigration. All these forces will greatly lower White family formation and the White fertility rate, and shazam! Orania is gone in the blink of an eye.

Hell, you’ve been watching the process I just described unspool in real time since at least 1965.

Yes, using the words “sexual attraction” was a poor choice of words. I can only go by what the gays I know have said, in hindsight, and they have reported feeling very different from an early age. One I know very well did NOT think girls had “cooties”, loved being around girls, and was never interested in the “cool toys” that boys had. Maybe that was your experience, but that was not what I witnessed.

I’ve also listened to the experts on this and, if I understood them correctly, they said that children do form their preferences at a very early age. THEY might not know it yet, but it is there. They also said that young children are a lot more sexual than people realize.

I guess the jury is still out re nature versus nurture. I believe it’s a bit of both. Just my opinion.

Homosexuals definitely have different mental processes.

Hollywood sitcoms and TV shows depict homosexuals witty, funny and all around good people but my experience has been much different. In general they tend to be moody, catty, a little devious and argumentative.

I've always been baffled as to why some males become homosexual. Are homosexuals born that way or is it a result of childhood sexual trauma or pro-homo propaganda? That question always generates heated debate.

It is very possible that enduring a same sex molestation or sexual assault at a younger age messes up the wiring in the brain. This plays in to the theory that a person's first sexual experience tends to be their preference for life. The late popular columnist Charley Reese once discussed this in one of his articles.

Whether it's lesbians or gay men when there's a love spat they often physically injure each other sometimes very seriously. A cop I once knew told me about getting called to the scene of a lesbian love spat and seeing clumps of scalp hair, blood and faces clawed up like each was attacked by a wild animal. The sad thing was that according to him these women were feminine looking and somewhat attractive.

In a book titled What Cops Know about things Chicago P.D. officers have seen in their careers, one recounted a case where two male homosexual lovers broke up and one got so angry that he stabbed the other to death then shoved a microphone up his rectum. Another recounted getting called to a gold coast condo where two lesbians were viciously beating the hell out of each other.

As an aside I've never gotten along with lesbians too well and the lesbian couples I've been acquainted with don't seem happy at all. Domestic violence is also a bigger problem in the homo community but jewsmedia never reports this.

Contrary to all the pro-homo propaganda and images of unity lesbians and gay men tend to despise each other. The homosexual lifestyle is a one way ticket to hell, frankly.

I'm sure there is an inborn element to it. My wife's family has several gay/lesbian members and they were from traditional nuclear families. Something I heard ages ago that gave me pause was when, in response to the contention that being gay was a choice, someone asked "when did you 'decide' to be straight?"

| I think that since this reproductive strategy appears to be rather successful

It will be natural only if not an outcome of endogamy or cousin marriages which is mating for genetic “purity”. In purely stochastic mating, any minority of 4% should disappear long time ago. Moreover, the fact that homosexual share in society DID NOT INCREASE questions the thesis that homosexuality is evolutionary useful.

In case of humans, hypersexuality/fecundity does not seem to particularity useful, since you need a lot of resources to take care of many children up to their adulthood. Realistically, hypersexuality would only produce a more children than standard sexuality in society without marriage and without contraception. It is well known, anyway, that whores do not have many children.

Otherwise, the practice of rich homosexual who recently seem to prefer getting offspring through surrogates would rather question high fecundity of their own families, as well as the theory of “gay uncle” who was to provide additional resources for children of his sisters (and thus to prove why homosexuality is evolutionary useful).

All fair points.

But you have not refuted/disproven my point about the, in my opinion, societally beneficial reduction in intra-male mating competition when/if open homosexuality is accepted/tolerated to a certain healthy degree within a society/country, that will likely make that society — as I posited — less internally violent, and thus more productive, possibly more creative and innovative, etc., and therefore richer, and presumably more evolutionarily fit and dominant.

Imagine, for example, if Greg Johnson

— who is purported to be a homosexualist — were heterosexual or were forced to hide his homosexuality and be forced to have a wife and kids, then he would surely be a “catch” for most women, since he is tall, intelligent, relatively handsome, cultured, etc. “Normie” males would have a hard time competing with him for wives/mates, which would make them in turn probably more frustrated, resentful, less cooperative, etc. The dynamic I’m describing is jokingly, but I think accurately, illustrated in the following video. Forcing especially male homosexuals to be “closeted” has all kinds of side effects that are not “evolutionary useful”, IMHO:

Woman Raised By Lesbians Has Some Shocking Things To Say About Needing A Dad

Experience is supposed to be top card over any and all facts. But what happens when experience blows holes in the activist narrative?

It doesn't matter who you click with. That was what the airline put in their ads.

Homosexuals should be able to raise children. We've been told this for as long as same-sex relationships have been socially acceptable.

But did anybody ask what the CHILDREN thought about it?

One has finally spoken up. The keepers of the narrative will not like it.

We can probably expect her to be given the same rough treatment that other heretics against the cause, like Milo, are given.

So, while she still has a voice, let's let hers be heard:

It's her own personal story, after all. By the rules of the game as the Left has been playing it, who can judge her for her own story?

[Heather] Barwick, who is 31 now, married, and has four children, said that same-sex marriage and parenting withholds either a mother or father from a child while telling him or her that it doesn't matter. That it's all the same. But it's not.

“A lot of us, a lot of your kids, are hurting,” wrote Barwick in her essay for The Federalist website. “My father’s absence created a huge hole in me, and I ached every day for a dad. I loved my mom’s partner, but another mom could never have replaced the father I lost.”

“I grew up surrounded by women who said they didn’t need or want a man,” said Barwick. “Yet, as a little girl, I so desperately wanted a daddy. It is a strange and confusing thing to walk around with this deep-down unquenchable ache for a father, for a man, in a community that says that men are unnecessary.”

She used to be an advocate of same-sex marriage. So she isn’t motivated by disdain for same-sex relationships. She’s backing a different cause now.

“Gay marriage doesn’t just redefine marriage, but also parenting,” she says. “It promotes and normalizes a family structure that necessarily denies us something precious and foundational. It denies us something we need and long for, while at the same time tells us that we don’t need what we naturally crave. That we will be okay. But we’re not. We’re hurting.”

“It’s not just me,” said Barwick. “There are so many of us. Many of us are too scared to speak up and tell you about our hurt and pain, because for whatever reason it feels like you’re not listening. That you don’t want to hear.”

“If we say we are hurting because we were raised by same-sex parents, we are either ignored or labeled a hater,” she wrote.

Source: Daily Mail

Now she’s an advocate of Children’s rights. She’s also married and a mother of four.

Buckle up, Heather. It looks like you’ll be in for a rough ride.

Under the conditions that gays stay with their own “birds of feathers”, yes, such a society could be perhaps more peaceful.... but why more creative and innovative? We should not mistake aptitude for hairdressing for socially useful creativity... Gay scientists (at least in hard science) happen but are rare... one could also try to refute your argument by claim that the proposed situation would introduce an increased intra-gay competition among gays, so gay scientists couldn't concentrate on science anymore and there would be no surplus productivity...

Whatever the final outcome in terms of societal peace, this is a strategy for a couple of generations, since in such a situation the total number of gays should of course decrease! As such, such a strategy cannot be called “evolutionary”. It is, of course, the double life of gays, enforced by culture, which has preserved their numbers until now: if anything, it is mimicry that is the real evolutionary strategy of gays.

I only wonder which gay would like to make himself willingly unhappy, marrying a woman...? And aren't women able to recognize a gay man and not to marry him as such if there is no societal/familial pressure...? (yes, I know, some will hope “to convert” a gay but not all).

Interestingly, I have recently seen a movie, “Yuni”, where a girl immediately lost sympathy for a man as a potential husband when she recognized him as gay:

Not possible. An 80%+ white ethno-state will regress to a 40%-or-less white state in the space of only 3 or 4 generations.

I don't necessarily think this is or must be the case. The "Lower 48" and the U.S. in general is a very unique piece of territory and polity in this regard since it covers so many degrees of latitude; from the 25th parallel north around Miami to roughly the 49th parallel north around Seattle.

Usually areas — with the exception of densely-populated big metropolis like NYC, Chicago, etc. — above the 40th parallel north https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/40th_parallel_north maintain their white majority populations pretty well and consistently, despite massive non-White immigration into the U.S. over the last 50+ years.

Non-whites simply don't like and usually can't handle colder temperatures and long, dark winter months very well, due to their darkly-pigmented skin and eyes which can't produce sufficient amounts of Vitamin D https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Vitamin_D#Skin_pigmentation and Dopamine <https://archive.ph/Cy2ZT#selection-1007.0-1007.314> in order not to become depressed, lethargic, etc., so most non-Whites voluntarily avoid areas farther away from the equator.

Climate and seasonality acts as a natural barrier that creates de facto "ethno states."

This phenomenon can be observed quite well looking at maps (Click [MORE] button) of the "American Community Survey":

Well, here comes a confirmation of the thesis that excessive cousin marriage will produce homosexuals from the mouth of a lion itself... the ancient Greece known for its homo-friendliness was in its past the area of the very strictly followed cousin marriages.

“However, another finding was completely unexpected: on Crete and the other Greek islands, as well as on the mainland, it was very common to marry one’s first cousin 4,000 years ago. “More than a thousand ancient genomes from different regions of the world have now been published, but it seems that such a strict system of kin marriage did not exist anywhere else in the ancient world,” says Eirini Skourtanioti, the lead author of the study who conducted the analyses. “This came as a complete surprise to all of us and raises many questions.”

Ancient Athens/Greece probably intentionally selected for traits that were associated with homosexuality, and those traits were most easily and longest preserved in areas that practice(d) “excessive cousin marriage” and/or endogamy like more isolated island populations:

Other scholars, such as Victoria Wohl [de], emphasize that in Athens, same-sex desire was part of the “sexual ideology of the democracy,” shared by the elite and the demos, as exemplified by the tyrant-slayers, Harmodius and Aristogeiton.[40] Even those who argue that pederasty was limited to the upper classes generally concede that it was “part of the social structure of the polis”.

This [i.e., priestly celibacy] is a major “fault” with Roman Catholicism that needs to be corrected.

With respect, I am very surprised that you hold this opinion. Nor do I think that your direct link of mandated clerical celibacy to “financial considerations” is at all sound. This document is one of a very great many that lay out the history of the discipline in some considerable detail.

Although it is true that the universal requirement for clerical celibacy dates only from the twelfth century (Second Lateran Council, 1139), the virtually universal acceptance of the desirability of clerical celibacy can be traced to the Patristic era, and it is by no means unreasonable to suppose that it was more likely the norm than the exception even in the second century AD.

The plain-as-day evidence of the extent to which contemporary life has, in every respect, become disgustingly and degenerately sexualized should, if anything, bolster what I consider the inescapable conclusion that it would be daylight madness for the Church—Traditionalists first and foremost—to abandon or dilute any further the requirement of celibacy for anyone in Holy Orders. Pope Benedict XV wrote in 1920 that celibacy was of such importance that the Church could never abolish it. I second his authoritative opinion without reservation, and I pray that the Holy Ghost will act in any manner necessary to prevent this critically important discipline’s controversion.

You mention rimming but I'd like to point that it has become very popular in the hetero community. I see posts after posts on rimming(a guy on askreddit mentioned he wanted the woman to defecate on him(she a hooker) and she did and he's been miserable ever since), mostly guys wanting it from women. It is very popular.

I agree about gay men and it is obvious they have a huge sex drive. Men on average have a bigger sex drive. Add in the prohibited and amoral aspect and it becomes an even bigger temptation. I wasn't pro gay but then neither was I ever anti it. I studied Scriptwriting in Canada and worked on sets and could make out who was a fag. The thing is, because they are repressed, and always have been since hitting puberty there is a lot of pent up anger and frustration. This is human nature at play.....kinda like how many women are passive aggressive.

I am watching a critically acclaimed show called White Lotus, getting awards left and right. It's showrunner is gay and the show is littered with sex scenes with men. The opening episode has Steve Zahn holding his erect penis(prosthetic but still) checking for some cancer. It took me by shock how blatant it was. This is just wrong. Then theres a scene with an older guy rimming a standing younger male, they both getting caught. All this is their pent up frustration. Doesnt matter they're talented(the show is good actually), there's always that pent up hatred to "give back".

Another show about old Hollywood which fascinated me because I like the production side of things, is all about gay sex with each episode ending with some sex act. I've even forgotten the name of the show.....the show runner again is gay. These are shows on Netflix and streaming that any 10 year old will see. This is where things are headed.

I had no issues with gays. If they did what they do behind closed doors, didn't mention their sexuality to the world wanting praise and pity, stopped wasting our money on their prides I'd have no issues. But they cannot be that way.
