Den Martina Luthera Kinga , který právě prošel , je depresivní, protože nám připomíná věc, kterou bychom – zejména my z kohorty Tichých a Boomerů – raději připomínat nechtěli .

Pamatujeme si naděje před šedesáti lety : naděje, které MLK údajně představoval. Pamatujeme si, jak jsme doufali, že pokud bude ukončena právní segregace a budou zrušeny nespravedlivé zákony, pokud černí Američané získají stejný přístup k životním dobrým věcem jako všichni ostatní, pokud budou způsoby a jazyk reformovány tak, aby prokazovaly černochům stejnou úctu, jakou mají všichni ostatní občané, pak celý byznys s prokletými rasami by se rozplynul a nikomu by to už nevadilo.

Tady jsme o šedesát let později. Žádné další školy a obytné čtvrti segregované zákonem ; žádné další šílené zákony, které by černochům ztěžovaly hlasování; žádné další samostatné pítka; už žádné „chlapec“ nebo „strašidlo“ nebo n-slovo; sedněte si , kde chcete v autobuse nebo v restauraci; jděte na kteroukoli pláž nebo veřejné koupaliště ; ... Věci, které jsme chtěli udělat v těch dnech naděje, už byly dávno hotové.

Přesto jsme hořce rasovější než kdy jindy.

Dva příběhy ze zpráv tohoto týdne – z toho, co ve svém podcastu z tohoto týdne nazývám „ztraceně šílené horečky vyvolávající imbecility, které zveřejnily zpravodajské kanály“.

Myslel sis, že si dělám srandu? Číst dál:

- První příběh: Sheila Jackson Lee, která je zástupkyní USA pro centrum Houstonu v Texasu od ... no, od začátku vedení záznamů, a o které jsme naposledy slyšeli v listopadu, jak obviňuje pandemii COVID z otroctví [Demokrat říká, že existuje přímé spojení Slavery And COVID , Daily Caller, 17. listopadu 2022], že Sheila Jackson Lee představila ve Sněmovně reprezentantů návrh zákona, který má federálně kriminalizovat „spiknutí za účelem spáchání nadvlády bílých“.
- Druhý příběh: Město San Francisco, světové hlavní město kakání na ulici , vydalo návrh na odškodnění černochů – pět milionů dolarů na hlavu.

(A to je jen pro začátek. Návrh navrhuje rozdávání způsobilým černochům po dobu nejméně 250 let).

Podle zákona Sheily Jackson Lee, pokud by prošel, jakákoli kritika jakékoli jiné osoby nebo skupiny – například Sheily Jackson Lee nebo Black Lives Matter – by byla podněcováním k federálnímu zločinu z nenávislosti. Pokud by kritika byla vyjádřena na sociálních sítích a kdokoli by s ní souhlasil, bylo by to spiknutí s cílem spáchat federální zločin.

Pokud jde o návrh na reparace ze San Francisca, náš vlastní Steve Sailer to hodil a probral to v Taki's Magazine. Nebudu se pokoušet soupeřit se Stevem v jízlivých komentářích, jen ho cituji:

To, že černoši jsou po 59 letech agresivních vládních programů, které jim mají pomáhat, stále téměř stejně potřební, by mohlo logicky naznačovat něco o odpovědnosti černochoů za vlastní současný stav.

Ale to je nemyslitelné.

Pro rasové rozdíly již neexistují žádná jiná přijatelná vysvětlení než bílá špatnost a špatná bělost.

Přiznávám nemyslitelné, 18. ledna 2023

Ano. Jak jsem sám popsal, více než sto let jsme sestoupili od obviňování odlišných výsledků rasou na přírodu, k jejich obviňování z výchovy, k jejich obviňování ze zloby bílých lidí.

To je skutečný úpadek, skutečné pokračující ohlupování v humanitních vědách.

Ekvivalentem ve fyzikálních vědách by byl sestup od obviňování zemětřesení na pohyby roztavené horniny pod zemskou kůrou, přes jejich obviňování na neklidné podzemní draky, kteří se otáčeli ve spánku, až po jejich obviňování z korupce na císařském dvoře.

Přesto pro ty z nás, kteří si pamatují ty rané naděje, naděje, které MLK vyslovil a povzbudil – ať už upřímně nebo ne, udělejte si o tom vlastní názor –, představuje dnešní západní svět bídnou podívanou.

A ubohost černošské spodiny není nejhorší stránkou té podívané. Nejhorší je pohled na bílé lidi, jak se krčí a naříkají, bičují se ve vykonstruovaných výčitkách svědomí, sedí němí a vnímaví, když je najatí podvodníci nadávají za jejich zlou povahu a zločiny jejich předků, a souhlasně přikyvuji Dr. Heinz Kiosk: „My jsme vinen! Všichni jsme vinni!“

Ne, nevyřešili jsme problém se závodem. Kdyby něco, jen jsme to zapálili. Všechny ty naděje naší mládeže ztroskotaly – na méně než na nic.

Až my – moje generace – odejdeme, vzpomene si někdo na ty naděje... kromě toho, že se jim bude hořce smát?

A nejenže je neřešitelný rasový byznys stále s námi, ale také metastázuje. Pošetilými politikami dovážíme ještě další rasové problémy, abychom přidali k tomu velkému, který jsme tak úplně nedokázali vyřešit.

Právě jsem se díval na tuto nejnovější tabulku amerického sčítání lidu o „středním příjmu domácností ve Spojených státech podle etnické skupiny“.

Tento graf zcela vymazává probuzený příběh o rase v Americe: pic.twitter.com/XIAdAosczp

— End Wokeness (@EndWokeness) 12. ledna 2023

Vrchol žebříčku: Indičtí Američané, střední příjem domácnosti 100 500 USD. Za druhé: Filipínci, 83 300 dolarů. To je velký rozdíl mezi prvním a druhým, 17 000 dolarů.

Číňané-Američané jsou na sedmém místě, 69 100 dolarů. My bílí jsme na čísle devět, těsně pod 60 000 dolary. Celkový americký průměr je nižší než 56 200 dolarů. Ze sedmnácti sčítaných etnických skupin jsou černoši sedmnáctí s průměrným příjmem domácnosti 35 000 USD. Latinos jsou těsně nad šestnáctí, 43 000 $.

Jsou tam nějaké otázky, které bych tam chtěl objasnit. Jsou filipínští Američané na druhém místě Polynéští Filipínci jako (myslím) Michelle Malkin nebo Číňané jako Amy Chua? Podobně s malajskými, indonéskými a thajskými Američany.

A co moje vlastní domácnost? Počítáme se jako běloameričtí nebo čínsko-američtí? Pokud jsme bílí, mohli bychom upgradovat na čínštinu? Mohli bychom použít dolary navíc.

Přítel, se kterým jsem diskutoval o tomto grafu, byl drzejší, než bych si myslel. "A co Žido-Američané?" zeptal se.

"Jewish Americans in 2020"

PEW RESEARCH CENTER

Jakmile jsem nabyl vědomí, začal jsem googlit. Nejlepší, na co jsem během pětiminutového procházení dokázal přijít, byla zpráva od Pew Research založená na průzkumu provedeném před třemi lety:

Polovina Židů žije v domácnostech s příjmem alespoň 100 000 dolarů.

Židovští Američané v roce 2020: Ekonomika a blahobyt mezi americkými Židy, Pew Research Center, 11. května 2021

Pokud je polovina nad hranicí 100 000, pak je to podle definice medián. A pokud tomu tak bylo v roce 2020, hádal bych, že je tomu tak i nyní, takže Židovští Američané jsou na tom pravděpodobně ještě lépe než Indové.

Napadají mě další nezbedné otázky.

Ti indiští-Američané na místě číslo jedna: Jsme jen smetánkou těch nejchytřejších z Indie?

No, ano, samozřejmě, že jsme. A pokud je to náš zisk, není to ztráta Indie? Nezbavujeme třetí svět jeho nejchytřejších lidí?

Ano a Ano.

A je to náš zisk? Náš Patrick Cleburne nedávno zveřejnil, že Brownova univerzita musela formálně zakázat diskriminaci na základě kasty. Přinášejí Indové, které dovážíme pro jejich talent, také ty odpornější, neamerické aspekty jejich domovské země?

Ano znovu.

Právě jsem na stránkách VDARE.com vyhledával Indy a připomněl jsem si, kolik skeptických článků jsme zveřejnili: nejen Patrick Cleburne, ale i Herbert Collins, Eugene Gant, Washington Watcher, AW Morgan, Pedro de Alvarado a další.

Bílí liberálové to dovolují....nechodte po černých, jděte po bílých liberálech. Jsou to oni, kdo dovolí, aby tohle svinstvo pokračovalo.

Obviňujte bílé liberály, jako je Eric Bryan Stone, který trvá na tom, aby si zneprátelil všechny bílé a vše odsuzoval jako chybu bílých lidí.

There are some questions I'd want cleared up there. Are those Filipino-Americans at number two Polynesian-Filipinos like (I think) Michelle Malkin, or Chinese-Filipinos like Amy Chua? Similarly with Malaysian-, Indonesian-, and Thai-Americans.

Dunno, but it's not really surprising that they rank so high: Many Filipinas are nurses and that's like having a license to print money these days.

It's not so much diversity as what you do with it.

Little Switzerland and big China handled it neatly, though neither created the problem as we did.

After bringing blacks here against their will, we murdered their leaders, destroyed their livelihoods and demeaned them for centuries. Their removal is so recent that my wife showed me tintypes of her enslaved great-great-grandmother placidly smoking a corncob pipe.

We are responsible for their being here, for their being in the condition they're in and, I would argue, for fixing it.

If we can't figure out a way for us all to live happily in the USA, we will further weaken an America currently battling two nations that is bigger, older, smarter, richer, and tougher than us.

Inasmuch as the total Jewish figures are highest in both the 50-100 k category and the over 200 k category, it seems certain their average income would be well over their apparent median income of about 100k.

I think we can rest assured they're well ahead of Indians and in first place.

In Weimar Germany, Jews had an average income that was 3.2 times the gentile average. Here, the average American earns $56,200. Think American Jews manage to make 3.2 times that? Are they doing better or worse than they were in Weimar Germany?

The Democrat party has adopted harmful policies across a whole range of issues and are accelerating the decline of the U.S. whenever they get elected. A 2018 Asian American voter survey showed that Indian Americans voted 80% Democrat. This by itself makes it questionable whether they are an asset to the country by coming here.

If immigrants were beneficial it should show up in economic growth rates. In the late nineteenth century, we had lots of immigration and had high economic growth. The high levels of immigration lately, though, have coincided with sluggish economic growth. There are several differences between then and now. Then we had a small population and lots of natural resources but now we have a big population and declining natural resources. Then we had no welfare state and immigrants had to work hard or go back home. Now we have a large welfare state that immigrant families can often tap into. Then we had a melting pot ideology that encouraged people to assimilate. Now we have a multicultural ideology that discourages assimilation.

The laws that were designed to keep blacks away from the voting booth were indeed obvious attempts to get around the 14th and fifteenth Amendments, but they were not “crazy”. They were the actions of a defeated people who were desperately trying to preserve some shreds of their own civilization. They had experienced black political power during the Reconstruction era, and didn’t want to ever have to go through that again. And since the Amendments had been “ratified” at gunpoint, they had little incentive to respect them. Context is everything in historical analysis; moral posturing is worthless.

When anyone, anywhere, tells you that your problems are caused by your fellow citizens, whether they be the January Sixth demonstrators or some strung-out black junkie in a hellhole project, you have got to ask yourself: is this my first day in America? When someone tells you the problem is that the government that was constituted to represent your interests is the villain because it has too much power, ask yourself: is the government at fault or is it the criminals who wormed their way into that government by creating then exploiting fear of my fellow citizens?

We remember the hopes of sixty years ago: the hopes that MLK allegedly represented. We remember hoping that if legal segregation was ended and unjust laws struck down, if black Americans were given the same access to life's good things as everyone else, if manners and language were reformed to show blacks the same respect every other citizen got, then the whole accursed race business would melt away and no-one would any longer give it any mind.

This is a fantastic statement of what enlightened people pushed for back then. But it is only half of what they pushed for. Call it the egalitarian half. The other half was the coddling half. Coddling included affirmative action. Even worse it included being soft on black criminals. It meant allowing an anti-school mindset to fester among blacks – they think of being studious as “acting white.” Various other things could be mentioned, but it has meant that a lot of black self-destructive behavior is allowed for or else blamed on whites, which doesn't help either whites or blacks.

Critical race theory, of course, is just more coddling, as are the two proposals mentioned. Reparations for 250 years will change nothing, except making everyone angrier than they now are. Non-blacks will be angry that they have to pay, while blacks will be angry that it's not enough.

Just stop the coddling. We know that not coddling people works because it works for poorer whites, who aren't coddled at all, and for Asians, who aren't coddled anywhere near as much as blacks are.

As a white, I am not responsible for blacks not getting good jobs because they didn't study.

As a white, I am not responsible for blacks shooting blacks.

As a white, I am not responsible for food deserts in black neighborhoods, which are clearly the result of too much shoplifting.

As a white, I am not responsible for large black men who hit tiny, elderly Asian women.

I'm sure others can add to this list.

Indians in the US are copying the Jews they are going to replace who were copying the Northeastern Wasps who ran the country before them with their left of center wokeness. As more and more Mexicans, Central and South Americans fill the country, I'm not sure it's going to be such a great country for them to rule or how long they'll be on top. Latin American countries are well known for their revolutionary fervor and it won't be long before we have some kind of military coup here. Our police state is already in place with cameras, DNA and GPS tracking. Going to be a weird new world, that's for sure. I should've been a farmer.

| If immigrants were beneficial it should show up in economic growth rates.

Not to pick on you, but I use your statement as a jumping off point for my heretical and ignorant belief that statistics mean nothing in these arguments.

I don't really care how many Jews make how much money or whether the lowest quintile of non-Africans make more than . . . well, you see my point. I'm doing fine and I'm having a great life. Both my wife and myself have always been poor, statistically, but I've worked with Presidents, Senators, Kings and beautiful women from all over the world and I wouldn't trade that for being in the top fifth of some statistic on auto ownership. We have a large family and my wife still makes the bed every day to insure that the room is neat when we decide to retire at night.

The black people I've known have been happy and friendly people. I can't imagine anything more depressing than struggling across deserts and high fences to live on welfare in Los Angeles, if that's the American Dream.

Relax, everybody. Things change because everybody ultimately hates government and we're getting government up to our necks.

I agree but it goes against the sacred mantra of the left- namely, that "everything wrong with black people and black behavior is because of something that white men did or didn't do." Apparently, nothing is ever their own fault or due to any of the choices they make. Or so the left would have us believe along with many blacks as well.

No doubt you and I would agree upon the ruinous nature of today's culture (and everything else). I wish your statement was true. But in fact it is the best people – decent, civilized, charitable, and they themselves would say Christian people – who for generations have actively or passively permitted the US to become a sewer. I realize that, as an example, many Whites actively protested – in public – against the forced integration of schools. For every protester, however, there hundreds of thousands or millions of Whites, particularly religious ones, who either sat silently or aided and abetted the destruction.

Americans need to wake up to the Indian Question, sooner rather than later.

Indians HATE White people. They know they are the bottom rung of sexual attractiveness and have a massive chip on their shoulder, the angry nerd in High School who hates the jock type mentality. Most who emigrate to the West are Brahmin and are brought up to believe they are built to rule, they will work ubereats and think that the Whites they deliver to are scum that are beneath them, unless it's women who they'll sexually harass.

Once in any position of power they will always put Indians first and Whites last

“Are the Indians we’re importing for their talents also bringing in the more obnoxious, un-American aspects of their home country?”

I worked for a while in a microbiological testing lab. I was there just for a month to help set up the lab and train a bunch of new lab techs from India. For the most part they were competent and smart enough, but the one major hassle was trying to get them to clean up at the end of their shifts. In particular, they were extremely reluctant to handle material from the autoclave or anything else smelly or disgusting. They felt that this was completely beneath them and were slow to understand that this was a chore that everyone had to share. I was there for well over a month before I left, at which point they still weren’t fully cooperating.

True,

The Jew-loving Brit WASP says: “Martin Luther King Day, just passed, is depressing because it reminds us of a thing that we—especially we of the Silent and Boomer cohorts—would rather not be reminded of.

We remember the hopes of sixty years ago: the hopes that MLK allegedly represented. We remember hoping that if legal segregation was ended and unjust laws struck down, if black Americans were given the same access to life’s good things as everyone else, if manners and language were reformed to show blacks the same respect every other citizen got, then the whole accursed race business would melt away and no-one would any longer give it any mind.”

No surprise to me that he can recap the platitudes. The fact is that the Yankee WASP decided to use the Negro as weapons and tools with which to wage culture war against all whites that the WASP did not like or feared. That pattern has changed only in that once it became clear that as is in the UK, in the US financier Jews controlled more than enough WASP money to be in charge behind the scenes, the Jews then took over control of the game of attacking the white makes Wirth blacks in order to prop up the Elites.

"In Weimar Germany, Jews had an average income that was 3.2 times the gentile average."

Source? Although "average income" is different from "capital assets" what I get from looking up data on the latter is that the share of private capital owned by Jews in the late Weimar Republic was between 0.96% and 1.57%, as compared with a Jewish population that was roughly 0.77% of the population at large. Even using the higher estimate of 1.57% this would give a ratio to 0.77% of about 2.04. The lower estimate of 0.96% would give around 1.25. While "average income" has a different from "capital assets" I would wonder if there some reference from which the 3.2 was taken.

<https://www.statista.com/statistics/1289575/estimates-jewish-share-total-german-capital-1937/>

In that first chart of median household incomes, it appears that Jews were regarded as White-Americans, at least for the most part. (As Americans they need to be counted somewhere, right?) One is left to conclude then that White-American income relative to the population is yet more abysmal than shown.

MEDIAN Household Income by Ethnic Group:

The chart is recording HOUSEHOLD income, not individual. It would be interesting to see how much income Whites compared to Indians or other ethnic groups make per person.

Many whites live in single family homes: where one person lives alone. Maybe due to Individualism?

Indians and other Asians are notorious for having large households; hence larger “Household Income”.

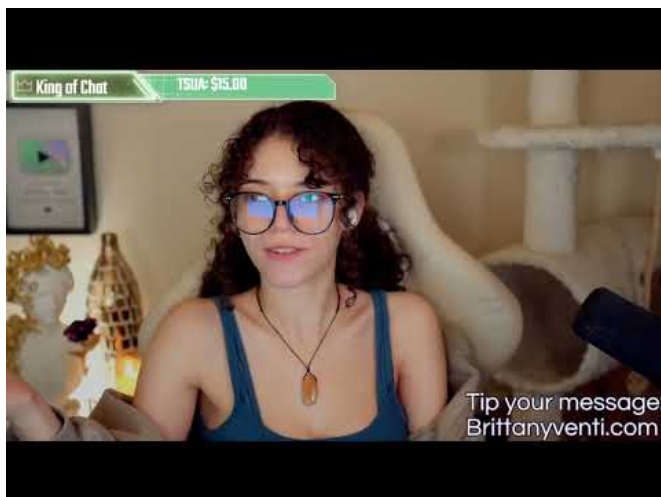

The chart might be a little misleading.

Many Whites probably have better income than Indians, Filipinos, Chinese, etc etc. But they just live alone.

I live alone, now. My income as a single person is not astounding but it’s definitely above average if based on individual income.

The data and facts are well established. Adoption and twin studies have long documented that genes are the main cause of different social outcomes between people. And the part that is caused by environment is random, not systemic. Genes are 100% of the systemic causes of different outcomes between people. Read Steven Pinker, Judith Harris, Charles Murray, Cochran and Harpending. Liberals are the know nothings of today. You are science deniers. Guess what: the laws weren't unjust and segregation was necessary. That's made completely obvious by the fact every single school, workplace, public transport system, entertainment venue, business, neighborhood, city, and country where Negroes are free to as they like immediately turns into a crime-ridden shithole. Wiser generations than the boomers, of which John Derbyshire is one, instituted segregation for a reason, namely to contain the destructive impulses of a race clearly incapable of civilized life.

“Most who emigrate to the West are Brahmin and are brought up to believe they are built to rule, they will work ubereats and think that the Whites they deliver to are scum that are beneath them, unless it’s women who they’ll sexually harass.”

I would very strongly advise Whites to think carefully about ordering food that is prepared by, and delivered by, any non-white race – because this ‘hatred for White people’ is a universal cancer that all non-whites harbor inside them.

Unless, of course, you’re one of these racially cucked, self-hating, self-loathing Whites have developed a taste for eating food that has been flavor enhanced with sub-human spit, sub-human nose boogers, sub-human particles of excrement or a wide variety of other substances that might even be toxic enough to seriously damage your health.

I’ve even seen news stories where fast food restaurants that have video surveillance have caught blacks and other non-white employees ejaculating into a milk shake that was ordered by a White customer.

Conclusion: I think one of the biggest and most dangerous weaknesses of White people is their inability to grasp and understand just how intensely non-whites hate them.

“Google News finds 1,570 recent news articles about “Amy Chua”. Yet only two of those go on to mention the crucial term she coined in World on Fire—”market-dominant minorities”—to describe groups like her own Overseas Chinese and Ashkenazis in Yeltsin's Russia.”

I remembered that she used this ‘concept’ to describe the civil war in former Yugoslavia where Croats were dubbed the ‘market-dominant minority’, and this fact, according to her, was the cause of the entire YU conflict in 90ies. This is probably the most moronic view I have ever read about Balkan wars. I think she was at Harvard at that time, and I contacted her to ask for some clarifications, but she never responded. It is still unbelievable to me that someone who can construct such brainless concept can teach at Harvard. I cannot even connect this nonsense with her Jewish husband.

MLK was a part of a long term plan by the Satanic elites to tenderise Whitey to give up power in the name of “equality”. That is why MLK's speech included all that judging a man by character rather than race.

But since equality was never the real aim of the leftard minions of the Satanic elites, but the destruction of the White race, so now all that “judging a man by character rather than race” canard goes out of the window and the whole thing is reversed, whites are second class, nay last class citizens in a new Satanic NWO caste system.

Nice long term trick.

That is why many Conservative whites in the USA, Southern Africa etc....were rightly convinced in those days, that the Blacks were being used as a vehicle for Communism (supported by elites), a vehicle to gain more power/ control over the population. The main reason why civil rights were denied in the first place. They turned out right. Wisdom and maturity, you see.

But unfortunately, wisdom and maturity gave way to childish feelings and emotions and “desire to do the right thing”. You know the right thing only if you have wisdom and maturity in this inherently unfair, cruel and Darwinistic Universe and when dealing with an essentially Darwinistic species, that is mankind.

There is significant truth to this (a truth which is violently suppressed by our rulers and their pawns), but obviously genetics does not account for 100% of the problem. It probably accounts for less than half. Within living memory, many of the problems blacks cause today (and that blacks themselves experience) were non-existent or at least much less than today. In significant ways, the problem has gotten much worse compared to even ten years ago. So blaming it all on genetics is beyond lazy.

I think it was '67 MLK decided to strike North to have a “March For Freedom” in the heavily Irish Catholic stronghold of Marquette Park on the so. side of Chicago. Integrate the public schools..... My college room mate took me up there one time. There was a dividing street where there was colored people on one side of the street and nothing but white people on the East side of the street. It might have been Pulaski Ave. but i’m not sure. So i asked him Cormack “Mack ” McCormick how they keep the blacks from crossing the street into M.P.. And he said “Big Ballbats”.....Which this worked..... So MLK came to Marquette Park to march to integrate the public schools but Irish Catholics disagreed strongly and rained down heavy Irish confetti consisting of half bricks one of which hit MLK in the head and put him him in the hospital for a couple days.. So he and to his Communist minions headed back south to his fate..... Just some odd background.....

An offensive lineman with the U.S. Air Force died after experiencing a "medical emergency," the Academy announced Tuesday.

Hunter Brown, 21, was leaving his dormitory for class on Monday when he suffered the unnamed emergency. Academy first responders were called and attempted life-saving measures but they were unsuccessful.

Brown, a sophomore from Lake Charles, Louisiana, was assigned to Cadet Squadron 16 and was majoring in management with a minor in French, the school said. In May 2021, he graduated from the U.S. Air Force Academy Preparatory School.

Lt. Gen. Richard M. Clark, the Air Force Academy's superintendent, said Brown was "well-respected in his squadron."

"The entire U.S. Air Force Academy mourns his loss, and our hearts and condolences are with his family, his squadron, and all who were touched by this incredible young man," Clark said in a statement.

Brown was also remembered as a "standout" offensive lineman on the school's Falcons football team, playing in their 2021 and 2022 seasons.

"Our players, staff and entire Academy have been so blessed and fortunate to have Hunter as a part of our lives," football coach Troy Calhoun said in a statement. "He was a pure joy to coach and have as a teammate."

Calhoun called Brown "tough" and said, "no one unselfishly pulled harder for others than Hunter."

"His mom and dad, Candyce and Dustin, raised a wonderful son who made each of us a better person. We love our great brother, and our thoughts and prayers are with Hunter's incredible soul and his family," he said.

Brown's death will be investigated by the Air Force Office of Special Investigations and the El Paso County Sheriff's Office, a standard protocol for on-base military deaths, the Academy said. 🐦

No doubt. However, I'd like to direct attention to one of the consequences of all of this.

| As I myself have described, we have, over a century or so, descended from blaming differential outcomes by race on nature, to blaming them on nurture, to blaming them on the malice of white people.

The big story here is the consequence of this kind of thinking on one's sanity. Engaging in public discourse in the United States today, and not just the United States, is like entering a Mad House in the hope of reasoning the occupants out of their insanity.

In other words, engaging in public discourse on race, or anything, is itself an act of madness and proof of one's insanity. From this perspective, perhaps the comment section as TUR is for people who don't want to go crazy (trolls notwithstanding).

In any event, it's worth remembering that the common theme tying Shakespeare's Tragedies together was that the Kingdom was suffering from a socio-moral infection that no one could stop until everyone was dead. Everyone infected, that is (but not always just them). Or, Something is rotten in the state of Denmark. Not in the state of Hamlet.

Maybe the best thing to do would be to stay out of the way. After all, and speaking of insanity, what could be crazier (and less honorable) than trying to stop an avalanche on Shit Mountain? Ironically, a step toward sanity would be accepting one's alienation.

| And the wretchedness of the black underclass is not the worst aspect of that spectacle. The worst is the sight of white people cringing and moaning, flagellating themselves in manufactured remorse, sitting dumb and receptive as hired grifters berate them for their evil nature and the crimes of their ancestors, nodding along in agreement with Dr Heinz Kiosk: "We are guilty! We are all guilty!"

For most of human history, people have flattered themselves by believing and proclaiming they are brave, powerful, heroic. How has it come to be that so many whites in every Western country try to signal their worth by proclaiming their villainy?

“Racism is an incurable disease...”

No it's not. Racism is a wholly natural and normal survival response. Every living thing on this planet, from ants to humans, is hardwired to be magnetized to their own kind/tribe and to repel the outsider and no amount of leftist dogma will ever change that.

“Curing racism” is the equivalent of telling a zebra that their desire to live with other zebras is zebra supremacy, then forcing them to live among monkeys, alligators or lions. Clearly a recipe for disaster.

Although I agree, exploiting others is never sound advice.

Once I'd regained consciousness I went a-googling. The best I could come up with in a five-minute browse was a report from Pew Research based on a survey done three years ago:

Half of Jews live in households earning at least $100,000.

Jewish Americans in 2020: Economics and well-being among U.S. Jews, Pew Research Center, May 11, 2021

If half are over the 100K mark then that's the median by definition. And if that was the case in 2020, I'd guess it's even more the case now, so likely Jewish-Americans are doing even better than Indian-Americans.

The first time in recorded history the Derb has gotten within smoke signal distance of the JQ?

The nation of France outlawed the collection of computerized data on race in 1978, and yet we in the USA emphasize our differences

“In fact, the National Assembly voted unanimously in 2018 to remove the word “race” from the constitution after arguing that the term was outdated. The constitution now reads: “France is an indivisible, secular, democratic, and social Republic. It ensures equality before the law for all citizens, without distinction of sex, origin, or religion,” removing the word “race” from its former place between the words “origin” and “religion.” This taboo is also manifested by the French aversion to collecting racial and ethnic data. Throughout France’s extensive history of immigration, thousands of people immigrated to the country, with the first North African migrant workers coming to France in 1871. The number of immigrants continued to rise, sharply increasing following World War II. Immigrants filled employment gaps and reshaped France into a multiethnic mosaic of cultures, races, and traditions. Despite the multiethnic makeup of the country, politicians have steered clear of “race conscious” policy. A 1978 law banned the collection and computerization of racial data, leaving the nation without concrete statistics on race or ethnicity. The law is reflective of the government’s desire to avoid using race as a means of differentiating between individuals and to avoid calling to mind a bitter and scarring time in the nation’s history.”

from here:<https://hir.harvard.edu/color-blind-frances-approach-to-race/>

YET here we, in the ENLIGHTENED USA over emphasize our differences.

13 CFR(Code of Federal Regulations)

§ 124.103 Who is socially disadvantaged?(a) General. Socially disadvantaged individuals are those who have been subjected to racial or ethnic prejudice or cultural bias within American society because of their identities as members of groups and without regard to their individual qualities. The social disadvantage must stem from circumstances beyond their control.(b) Members of designated groups.(1) There is a rebuttable presumption that the following individuals are socially disadvantaged: Black Americans; Hispanic Americans; Native Americans (Alaska Natives, Native Hawaiians, or enrolled members of a Federally or State recognized Indian Tribe); Asian Pacific Americans (persons with origins from Burma, Thailand, Malaysia, Indonesia, Singapore, Brunei, Japan, China (including Hong Kong), Taiwan, Laos, Cambodia (Kampuchea), Vietnam, Korea, The Philippines, U.S. Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands (Republic of Palau), Republic of the Marshall Islands, Federated States of Micronesia, the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, Guam, Samoa, Macao, Fiji, Tonga, Kiribati, Tuvalu, or Nauru); Subcontinent Asian Americans (persons with origins from India, Pakistan, Bangladesh, Sri Lanka, Bhutan, the Maldives Islands or Nepal); and members of other groups designated from time to time by SBA according to procedures set forth at paragraph (d) of this section. Being born in a country does not, by itself, suffice to make the birth country an individual’s country of origin for purposes of being included within a designated group.

I question the premise that the dream of the 60s was really the “each according to his character” version of 60s activism. It seems to me that MLK’s legacy has been sanded down to the point of acceptability when in reality he is the ideological predecessor of today’s Kendi-ism and worse. I wouldn’t worry about the dreams of the 60s dying as much as I would worry about the relatively benign interpretations from the 80s and 90s dying and giving way to the worst aspects of the 60s radicalism.

“But in fact it is the best people – decent, civilized, charitable, and they themselves would say Christian people – who for generations have actively or passively permitted the US to become a sewer.”

Years ago, before America had fallen from its golden age of Christianity – away from repentance and gospel faith, in the year 1947, the community of Bremen, Kansas, had not witnessed a single arrest nor one court action in thirty years. Why? The community was made up almost entirely of Lutherans who believed in the gospel promise of Jesus Christ. In fact, their Christian day schools made public schools unnecessary. Just think how safe that community must have been! Think also of how low their taxes and their insurance rates must have been! In the same year Frankenmuth, Michigan, had never had a crime of violence in the 102 years of its existence. During the previous twenty-five years its jail had been entirely empty. Throughout the Great Depression in the 1930’s not one person was on the public relief rolls. What would be the cause of this remarkable record? Frankenmuth was 95 per cent Lutheran. Thus transform the people first, then the political and the civil will be corrected!

Hence instead of becoming “a sewer,” these two communities were the very opposite.

Yet how has this gospel-rejection played out in this country and in Europe? It is the gospel-rejection by society that has brought about your “sewer” and “destruction.” Indeed, what exists today in America is what the thinking and also the behavior is like in any typical heathen, gospel-void society.

I think the household income stats are a bit skewed because some of the groups that hail from the third world (Indians, Filipinos, Pakis) tend to have more working age family members living in the same household whereas a lot of white households have only 1-2 working adults in them. I'm surprised the Hispanic household income isn't higher considering they tend to have so many people living under one roof.

Perhaps Ron Unz will soon publish one of his bombshell reports telling us that not only is Hispanic/ Latino crime on par with that of whites once Latinos reach 35yrs of age but that their household income is actually higher than government statistics show and not much lower than that of whites. As a result white nationalists who oppose being displaced are just total buffoons who should in fact welcome the mass migration of Hispanics since by those indicators they ARE white for all intents and purposes.

"We remember the hopes of sixty years ago: the hopes that MLK allegedly represented"

"I have a dream that my four little children will one day live in a nation where they will not be judged by the color of their skin but by the content of their character."

At least two problems with MLK's formulation:

Race is much more than mere skin color.

It is difficult, time-consuming, and often impossible to accurately determine a person's "character."

Today's mainstream "conservatives" are still bamboozled by this, insisting on the attitude of "color-blind anti-racism." They absolutely refuse to believe that there are innate racial characteristics. They insist that blacks are just white people painted black, and that to believe otherwise is evil.

Wokesters at least recognize innate racial differences, but (probably insincerely) come to the bizarre conclusion that it is the white race that is the source of all the world's problems. Objectively, empirically, it's the black race that causes most of our problems and misery, but thanks to MLK's oversimplification, and the insane egalitarian impulses of whites, (and the unfortunate DoI shorthand credo "all men are created equal,") whites are determined to refuse to face and state the truth of the matter.

The rancid evolution of race relations can be laid at the door of whites with a social work mentality interacting with unfortunate tendencies in the black population which an intelligent society discourages and suppresses. What we might have benefited from after 1939 would have been the following:

1. An end to restrictive covenants on real estate, without, however, any regulations that would require you sell or rent to particular persons.
2. A restructuring of the role of government in other aspects of the real estate business: abolition of rent control (properly done in stages), auction sales of public housing projects, a liquidation of government mortgage maws, an end to government mortgage insurance, an end to banking regulations which put a thumb on the scale in favor of the secondary mortgage market, simplified land use planning and building codes in impecunious sections of town (along with vigorous enforcement of the residual regulations), an end to property taxes in impecunious areas of town, streamlined eviction procedures.
3. Vesting superordinate local governments (counties and consortia of counties) with the primary responsibility for law enforcement. In such a system, discrete and densely-settled non-metropolitan towns would have a franchise to set up a municipal police department to supplement sheriff's patrols but there would otherwise be no municipal police. State police would consist of an assemblage of specialty services meant to assist local police.
4. Responding to increases in crime with increases in police manpower, and deploying manpower in such a way that the salutary effect of marginal increments in deployed manpower are about the same across the metropolitan tapestry. Respond also with increased prison capacity.
5. Ending the practice of social work in the criminal justice system. Make use of municipal courts and superior penal courts to undertake and ratify fact finding in all cases. Have binding sentencing formulae in your penal code which leave little discretion to judges. Provide for dispensations for defendants under 25 wherein a portion of their sentence of incarceration inversely correlated with their age is served on probation. Provide for a strongly age-graded penal system for those under 25. Punish any defendant over the age of 9, but give them shorter sentences and remand them only to places where the other convicts are their immediate contemporaries. Do not use probation for defendants over 25. Leave family courts to decide child support and child custody issues. Use fines only for offenses defined outside the penal code, for corporation defendants, and for supplementary penalties for low-grade misdemeanors. Use restitution and forfeiture only as supplementary penalties. Use labor services only when a defendant welsches on his fines, restitution, and forfeiture, and make sure it's always outdoor work. Have a separate schedule of corporal punishments (pillory, birch, rattan cane) which can be substituted for incarceration when you have a minor crime committed by a younger defendant. Have brief, determinate sentences served in prisons with few amenities wherein convicts spend most of their day alone in a cell. Keep convicts with a history of certain violent offenses in separate prisons from other convicts. Have juries of prison system employees selected at random make parole decisions (after a convict has served at least 1/2 his pronounced sentence), providing them with anonymized dossiers which detail a convict's disciplinary infractions but provide no other information about him.
6. Maintaining the minimum age for paid employment (outside family businesses) at 14 and maintaining the school leaving age at 14. Make the public commitment to provide education for those between their 14th and 19th birthday contingent on the respect of the pupil for the district's disciplinary manual. Sequester the incorrigibles under the age of 14 in day detention centers and expel those over the age of 14. Do so without fear or favor.

7. Having all youths in the state between the ages of 5 and 19 (bar those expelled from high school) assigned to a particular series of state regents' examinations. About half of all pupils might be assigned to a basic education series (composed in four versions presuming different paces of learning), about 15% to a remedial series (for students who learn very slowly, students who have perceptual deficits, and foreign students in English immersion programs), about 20% to subject-specific secondary academic series, and about 12% to subject-specific secondary vocational series. Have special metropolitan and regional schools for remedial instruction and secondary vocational instruction. Leave ordinary district schools the task of basic instruction and secondary academic instruction, where youths of different absorptive capacity can be assigned to different classrooms.

8. Dismantling parallel school systems, but not fussing about racial balance. It's important that foundational school districts have a critical mass of youths so as to be able to sort their students in separate instructional tracks (a district with a population of about 1,200 between the ages of 5 and 14 will have the critical mass). It is important that a student be able to attend a school where there are dedicated classrooms for students assigned to his pace on the regents' series to which he is assigned. It's important that teachers' salaries and equipment expenditures per youth not vary within a district and not vary much between districts. Racial composition is not important.

9. Requiring private tuition-funded schools at all levels to publish audited data on the demographics of their student body, faculty, and other employees, stock and flow. In particular, the median scores on regents examinations and other standardized tests of different segments of their student body must be public information, with schools and their officials and their outside auditors subject to prosecution for lying. Otherwise, leave them alone. Eschew public funding for tuition-funded schools at the primary and secondary level and limit such funding at the tertiary level to ROTC, veterans' benefits, and a scatter of scholarship programs for niche clientele.

10. Distributing berths in state colleges and universities according to a vector equation which includes high school GPA and standardized test scores as arguments. Students would apply to a central admissions bureau, sending them their preference ranking from among the state's institutions. The probability of a student receiving his first choice from among the state schools would be positively correlated with his composite score computed by the vector equation. The student in question would if admitted pay a recipients' fee to the state treasury to receive a tuition voucher and a room-and-board voucher. The fee would be inversely correlated with the number of times he's been listed as a dependent on income tax returns filed in the state in question and would be a token amount for many students. The fee could be financed out of family resources, private (unsubsidized) bank loans, third-party grants, or grants from the institution itself. The vouchers are presented to the school and clear the student's obligation. The school presents the vouchers to a dedicated state fund itself financed by a special income tax, and is compensated in cash to the tune of the face value of the vouchers.

11. Requiring recruitment and promotion in public employment be according to impersonal examination results, most commonly requiring hiring managers to select from the top three scorers on an examination. Such examinations would have to be timely, held within sixty days of when notice of a vacancy is posted. Some posts would be filled from a pool of those who received a passing score. Positions in protective services would have different components – athletic, psychological, &c. most establishing an eligibility pool and perhaps one generating a ranked-list from which hiring managers would select. A similar system could be imposed on privately owned utilities.

12. Have something resembling at-will employment in the public sector. It's important that recruits to the public services are screened in an impersonal way. It is not necessary to nail their feet to the floor. Public employees terminated could apply to outside arbitrators for an indemnity to be awarded if they could prove by a preponderance of the evidence their supervisors canned them for an impermissible reason (whistleblower, &c) and an impermissible reason might be racial discrimination, but the burden of demonstration would be on the terminated employee.

13. Allow all other employers plenary discretion over hiring and firing, bar constraints to be found in union contracts, contracts issued to specific employees, and commitments made in written recruitment materials. Acts at workplaces which map to common crimes like extortion and harassment could be defined in law as tortious (with liability for the individual bad actor always and the company sometimes), but there would otherwise be nothing resembling employment discrimination law in private employment.

14. Having mandated service in some restricted realms: public utilities, oligopolistic shipping and transportation firms, fuel sales generally, and sales of food and lodgings to travelers in small towns and rural areas. Otherwise, freedom of contract should prevail. Freedom of contract would mean an end to state-mandated segregation as well, and in all venues.

15. Mandating by statute a list of requirements for state and local government to meet in order for their elections administration to avoid placed under federal trusteeship. These would include standardized voter registration forms, registration by mail or drop box, mandatory processing of registration forms within three business days, precincts with populations which vary within a narrow band, a mandatory minimum of precincts per person, voting on Friday and Saturday (not other days), uniform eligibility requirements for voters (no 'grandfather clauses'), administration of literacy tests by the state board of regents (with one pass all you need), blind grading of literacy tests, limiting poll taxes to a fixed % of personal income per capital in a county (as determined by the Census), the use of a species of PR to allocate seats elected from multi-member constituencies, and single-member constituencies roughly equal in population (say, deviance a function of respecting local government boundaries and 90% of all constituencies + / - 10% of the mean).

16. Providing in law for misbehaving prison officials, jail officials, police officers, prosecutors, and judges to be sued in federal court and not be permitted to hide behind the corporate veil.

17. Desegregating public property. Not mandating segregation on private property.

18. Limiting cash doles to the elderly, the disabled (s/t and l/t), the s/t unemployed, survivors, and a set of inncome tax rebates which for each net beneficiary are a function of their earned income (no earned income, no net rebate).

19. Eschewing public subsidies to people's mundane expenditure. Leave the subsidies and public provision to certain problem markets (medical care, long-term care, schooling, legal services, and (in odd circumstances) shipping and transportation).

20. Draw child protective investigators from the ranks of nurses, junior grade psychologists, and police officers. Fire all the social workers.

The most serious difficulty has been that people like Joseph Rauh had a vast social work project in mind which they persuaded courts, regulatory agencies, and government school bureaucracies to implement often ignoring the express provisions of constitutional and statutory law. It involved making permanent clients of the black populations rather than removing contrived disabilities and discourtesies. A secondary difficulty has been that everybody's business is subject to the second-guessing of lawyers and notions of freedom of contract and freedom of association have been obliterated (though in a blatantly asymmetric way). The third problem is that the quality of service public and private has suffered from the inability to recruit and promote with impersonal measures.

@Shamu

Yes, also the Frankfurt school Marxists were puzzled as to why the Marxist revolution did not happen in capitalist countries (1917 Russia was not a capitalist state). Herbert Marcuse thought that capitalism was making the working class lives better so the Marxists needed another strategy. Marcuse said that the “new proletariat” would need to be used against capitalism and that included “ghetto blacks and sexual degenerates”. Marcuse was a “rock star” leftist in the 60’s and 70’s, the New Left chanted “Marx, Mao, Marcuse” during demonstrations and when the movement failed they moved into academia. They have successfully weaponized the black movement and raised the normalization of sexual degeneracy to new heights, more than Weimar.

Hey truthie, sorry, maybe I may have missed your post.

| You said that Jesus, and Moses and Judah were fake

My honest opinion is there is a POSSIBILITY that they are fake. There is also a POSSIBILITY that they were real and what we know or what is claimed about them is real. That Jesus may truly be the Son of God who died for our sins. This holds true for Mohammed too. Maybe he is fake (manufactured centuries after the Arabs conquered huge territory), maybe he was real.

| re Kali and Lord Shiva fake, or real?

Same standards applies to them. There is a POSSIBILITY that they are fake.

I have heard all kind of things about Shiva, one claim is that he is actually Nimrod of the Bible. One more possibility is that Kali was a major deity of the Native Indians (South Asian) who were black. The Aryans eventually started mixing up with the other populations and started assimilating their gods into their new Composite pantheon (Modern Hinduism against more ancient Vedic Aryan Hinduism of Mimamsa and Vedanta periods). Shiva had three wives Gauri (White), Kali (Black) and Ganga (Yellow) and thus the coming together of the three races to form brown South Asians. Shiva is mostly likely a Vedic-Indus Valley-Tibetan Bon combination syncretic creation. “Shiba” term comes from the Kiratas, the Mongoloid populations, the Aryans faced near the Himalayan mountains and has serious Bon Tibetan roots. Shiva’s abode is in Tibet at Mount Kailash, holy for Lama Buddhists too.

So maybe they are real or maybe they were manufactured.

If there was a time machine, Truthie, you and me could have gone in the past and checked them all out.

Are you a “public school teacher?

With your proposals # 8 and #9, you sure sound like one. Are you afraid of true competition?

You seem to be contradicting yourself. In #8 you propose the dismantling of “parallel school systems” while in #9 you propose to enact restrictions on private schools that would not apply to your “public school” systems.

Such is the case today in many localities. Public school systems can push out unqualified uneducated students at will while private schools are held to a much higher standard.

Most of your proposals do not make sense.

The best solution is to repeal ALL civil-rights laws, proscriptions and mandates and restore true “freedom of association”.

Until recently the wikipedia page for income by nationality in the United States showed Hindu Indians highest by far, then Jews at no. 2, and Taiwanese at no. 3. Living in a Washington, DC suburb with a lot of McMansions probably paid for by political corruption, I would say this ranking is probably correct. Hindu control a lot more than you think in the USA.

In today’s America, Hindu are probably most influential in the pharmaceutical industry. Sure many senior leaders are Jewish. But in the $200k+ range are a lot of Hindu professionals you never see or hear from, but have a lot of power to make life-or-death decisions about your health.

Race Problems are inherent in Multi-Ethnic States like Murica; and Tensions and Incidents will continue.

Slavery happened. IMHO, Murica could have encouraged more “Repatriation Motherland Relocation Incentive Investment Programs” to Africa with welcoming African Nations. African States are now recruiting –

NAACP/BET/Oprah/BLM/BlackColleges/BlackCongressionalCaucus/ESPN/NFL/(W)NBA/Veterans Administration/Military Retirement/Social Security/SBA should be endorsing those programs.

Of course, Murica are transitioning into a Hispanic-Dominant Demographic State over the following decades, so they will blend in with as they replace the European Whites as the “Dominant Ethno-Culture”(for a lack of better terms).

Unlike Murican Whites whose reproduction have been stymied by the Oligarchs who wanted to keep Wages low – the Scenario is different for many Immigrant Hispanics arriving from “South of the Border”, because their Wages have been lower – at places even suppressed further by Murican Oligarchs under the”Monroe Doctrine” Mantra.

It’s no use “Whining” about “Race Problems” at this Stage of the Game since Murica’s Founding and Transition to a Colony/Vassal Hosting Entity.

Masonic-Zionist Plutarchy+Vassal_Oligarchs commandeered Murica from the Founding Faction of Landed Gentry Masons.

The Labor-Wage Suppression, OpenBorders, and Trafficking Advocates found common ground in allowing the inflow of Legal+Illegal Migrants into Murica.

For the Record – I’m all for Legal Immigration and against Illegal Immigration, Trafficking, and Anchor-Birthing/Fake Marriage Loopholes. The Legal Immigration alone would have made similar Demographic Shifts at a much slower pace with greater representations from other World Regions.

The Plutarchy and Vassal_Oligarchs still run Murica.

Same Song, Different Demographics...

I came of age during the first so-called “civil-rights” movement and observed for myself the underhanded dealings, the demonization of decent, law-abiding whites, and in general, the deterioration of civil society.

Almost all of the “civil-rights” workers and demonstration “handlers” were of one persuasion—New York based leftist communist jews. They cared not one wit about true “civil rights”, but were there to create hate and discontent among their black charges (who were too stupid or naive to see that they were being used to suborn and destroy legitimate government and society—a favorite communist tactic).

These New York-based “carpetbaggers” fomented their hate and discontent, only to become future “civil-rights” attorneys, race-hustlers, and America-hating leftist communists...and the ADL and $PLC being created.

Those of us whites who were in the middle of this “civil-rights” revolution had a saying: “Behind every negro, there is a jew”. No truer words were ever spoken.

Let’s not forget jewish infestation of the nation’s education and entertainment systems, (which continues to the present day), in which they can spread their jewish supremacist poison.

The so-called “non-violent civil-rights demonstrations” were anything but “non-violent”.

Robberies, rapes, and other criminal acts committed by jewish civil-rights handlers and their black “pets” were common, but never reported, as even the “mainstream media” of the day was “in on the game” and conveniently turned off their cameras during the acts of violence. You see, even then, “creating crises” was a part of the agenda.

The “beginning of the end” of America was the use of federal troops against white Americans, which, in itself was a violation of “posse comitatus”—the prohibition of the use of federal troops for domestic law enforcement purposes.

President Eisenhower, being of jewish extraction showed his visceral hatred of white gentiles by using federal troops to suppress constitutionally protected dissent.

As most whites were (and still are) law-abiding, they (we) were “steamrollered” by the use of federal troops to crush our (white) honest dissent.

We never recovered from those unconstitutional actions. It was all downhill from there...

By 'parallel school systems' I meant those prescribed under state law. These were the mode even in areas like western Virginia, where there are few blacks outside of Roanoke and Staunton.

I could have discussed replacing public schools with a mix of voucher-funded and tuition-funded private schools. Schooling is a fee-for-service activity which appears spontaneously on the open market and that would certainly be practicable for common-and-garden schooling in metropolitan centers (and a desirable replacement for core city systems). You get out into outlying areas or into specialty programs like education for the retarded or vocational-technical instruction, it's not as practicable. I could also have discussed the teachers' colleges. The comment was already getting too long.

I would very strongly advise Whites to think carefully about ordering food that is prepared by, and delivered by, any non-white race – because this ‘hatred for White people’ is a universal cancer that all non-whites harbor inside them.

I would second that advise. Stay away from non white owned and non white staffed eateries as much as possible. It is possible now a days to learn how to cook all kinds of global cuisines online and quite easy to get the ingredients online. So why not cook all those ethnic dishes at home if one is so interested in eating them? There should be no excuses.

For Indian food, one could try out Madhur Jaffrey videos

She is from the part of India as me, same caste as me (UP Kayastha) and same surname as me (her surname is “Bahadur” which is a British Imperial Title surname but originally she is a Mathur) and she cooks a lot of dishes my mom regularly cooks.

The most well known chef in India is Sanjeev Kapoor. He speaks in Hindi but there are instructions in English in the video. Easy-peezy.

And what are your sources for such a bold unbiased declaration?

“France is a multicultural society because of large-scale immigration over the last century.

According to some estimates it is postulated that about 51 million are white who account for 85% of the total French population, six million people are of North African descent accounting for 10% of the total population, two million are black who account for 3.3% of the population, and about one million or 1.7% of the population are of Asian origin.”

How does it come to pass that we are morally obliged to let them come here and take control of our country? I certainly wouldn't let a stranger move into my house and start redecorating.

The (((radical civil rights regime))) that we now languish under must be abolished. I think everyone knows that so called civil rights didn't ease tensions between whites and blacks, foster interracial amity and make blacks civilized and high functioning. It did just the opposite and purposely so.

White people should never lose sight of the fact that since 1964-65 blacks have been placed on a pedestal and given virtually everything, even nearly unfettered access to white women, and yet they hate us even more and still demand more. So common sense would dictate a more confrontational approach to include stripping them of all their unearned privileges and capital punishment for any violent crimes committed against white people.

Whites and blacks have simply traded places under the Jewish created civil rights and has put the shrinking white majority under the heel white scalawags and black supremacists who themselves ultimately answer to Jewish commissars and oligarchs.

Jewish occupied America needs to be burnt to ashes. It cannot be reformed. We need to completely start over.

2% of Americans come from families that owned slaves and that includes Kamala Harris. “Roots” was a lie, soup to nuts and btw, Alex Haley was convicted of plagiarism.

Sir Henry Morton Stanley, (“Dr. Livingston I Presume”) called the “Rock Breaker” (Bula Matari) was feted the world over because he went deep into the Congo and lived through it.

Richard Francis Burton and John Hanning Speke are depicted accurately in the movie, “Mountains of the Moon” as explorers searching for the source of the Nile in Africa. They were also feted world wide, as intrepid & courageous for going into Africa.

White boys, as opposed to the “Narrative” did NOT go into central Africa looking for slaves, they would all die from disease and get eaten faster than Michael Rockefeller.

Slaves were 100% sold into slavery by black people first.

The underlying premise behind all racial disputes and disagreements, is that there very well could be violence from blacks if you question the “narrative”. If you resist, or fight back, with the exact same violence visited upon your “oppressor” head, YOU will be marched up the hill to Golgotha in the same way as Derek Chauvin.

So, the great majority, bow their heads and take the calumny and know, they now live in a nation, that hates them for the color of their white skin and sees zero irony in this fact.

The greatest slavers in history, were blacks.

What is funny is that Indians screech and scream about illegal immigration from Bangladesh. Because it is mostly Muslim. They accuse Bangladeshis of undercutting wages of Indian labour. So India is building a great Wall. And just like the USA, liberals/leftards in India are opposing it but they make at most 0.5% of the population. A whole 99.5% of the Indian population supports the wall in between India and Bangladesh.

MHA-Ministry of Home Affairs, I guess.

Not only that, people from many states in India, states which are more developed, regularly attack or oppose the movement of both educated and unskilled labour into their states from other poorer backwards states.

The State of Maharashtra (Capital Bombay-Mumbai city) is more prosperous and developed. On the other hand, the state of Bihar is backward and poor. There has been a lot of opposition to Bihari labour going to Maharashtra to seek work from native Marathis. A political party called Shiv Sena even came to power in the Maharashtra Legislative Assembly (state level parliaments) with overwhelming votes. This is equivalent of the British Nationalist Party winning the British parliament with overwhelming majority.

<http://archive.indianexpress.com/news/now-thackeray-says-migrants-a-nuisance/275707/>

On Thursday, party chief Bal Thackeray not only lambasted migrants, calling them a nuisance and a burden, but also vehemently opposed the introduction of Hindi as an official language in Sena-ruled Brihanmumbai Municipal Corporation (BMC).

White people are really not survivalist enough or atleast the percentage of population who are survivalist is way smaller than most non White populations. This is much truer for Western Whites and more so for Northern Western European Whites.

There was no particular reason to bring Muslims into this thread but you did.

Americans should know that Indians are being promoted here as part of an Israeli/Jewish plan. There're 'force multipliers' for Zionist interests. Otherwise there is no reason why they're getting into high positions in politics and business. Doing well because of good education is understandable but being promoted to top political and corporate positions is part of an agenda.

People here should be asking why, all of a sudden, USA, UK, Canada, have Hindus in top government positions.

Brain dead is a possibility. That could explain Mr. Roberts' being a straight-up Mao sackhanging Communist.

Last I read of his site, he was trying to make money to help Americans retire in Thailand, where he lives. As Totalitarian and sick as the CCP and Chairman Xi are, none of those guys want real ECONOMIC Communists taking over the country, so they won't let an actual Commie like Godfrey Roberts immigrate. His parents were Communist missionaries to China out of Massachusetts or somewhere (where else?), and Godfrey never grew out of his red diapers.

I think comments like these are a throwback to the days the Communists would spout the big lies to their countrymen who'd better act like they believe them. We are lucky to still be in a position to tell guys like Godfrey Roberts to go fuck themselves.

I’ve been to France. There are much more than 3% of blacks. There are a lot of blacks and not just in Paris. I don’t know how many but they are all over. Arabs, who knows, but they must be at least 15% or 20% of the population by now. They’ve been coming since the 1960s. All those statistics are fake and understating the problem. We don’t know how many there are, and there is little interest in finding out — and a lot of interest in bringing even more in.

Also, in the 1950s, France was basically 99% White, so what’s so great about being 85% white now?

This is because anglos are a slave race. They are a relatively competent slave race, probably the most competent slave race in history, but a slave race nonetheless. Unlike other races that have been used for slavery, such as the negro, anglos have absolute loyalty to their masters. Whether those masters are Normans, Jews, Hindus, or Pakistanis, the anglo will serve them dutifully without question or complaint.

The anglos have always gotten along with Jews because Jews possess inverse characteristics. While Anglos are fundamentally incapable of rulership, Jews are fundamentally incapable of being ruled. Anglos possess absolute loyalty, while Jews rebel against anyone who sets himself above them (even their own god). To put it in simple terms, Jews are a head without a body, while Anglos are a body without a head. The British and American empires are the monstrous chimera created from the grafting of these components.

The scandal of allowing Indians to take the physician’s licensing exams in all 50 states, which Indians’ medical education may consist of roughly the nursing program for a nurse in the US and in which half the work consists of learning English and test-taking skills, has been documented by Reuters, as well as by The Washington Post. It is not contentious to say that in India wealthy parents buy not only a seat in a medical college, but their kid’s grades as well.

My belief is that the Jews who control almost all of this country’s medical schools are importing these Indians as proxies. The idea is that demand, which would otherwise have to be met by enrolling white American males (who’re generally twenty times more qualified than either woman or these Indians), is met by importing these American-hating Indians. These Indians in turn know it’s the Jews who butter their bread. Obviously there are brilliant and competent doctors from India, but your local hospital or Jewish medical practice hires the worst of them when it can to make a buck.

“Within living memory, many of the problems blacks cause today (and that blacks themselves experience) were non-existent or at least much less than today.”

Not within my living memory. Blacks have been burning our cities since at least my eleventh birthday. I seriously doubt that there has been any significant time or place when majority black behavior has been as civil as that of other races, when their family structure was not dysfunctional, when they embraced education and wealth-saving norms.

There was a time their worst impulses were a bit checked, but that was out of fear of vigilantism, which the USA became ashamed of around 1930. (Arson riots in black areas before 1930 are always blamed on white provocations, and based on today’s evidence of exuberant black behavior, I’d say that’s balderdash.)

In 1994, Democrats and Republicans (surprisingly!) united on the issue of the danger of black violence, and sent tens of thousands of the most incorrigible beasts to long prison terms. This refreshing acceptance of reality brought almost a couple of decades of partial suppression of their depredations.

I always found this to be a good primer on the reality of “multiculturalism,” so much, you could say, if you are a boomercon, I have been “brainwashed by racial/ethnic realism.”

There’s only three ways to resolve this. 1)Separation like in Switzerland, 2)”Strong Man” like in Malaysia, 3) “Social disfunction” like the US post Jim Crow. Jim Crow was unjustly demonized, it’s defacto, black powersharing in places like Atlanta, GA.

Most US Blacks want separation and power sharing. My estimate, it’s as high as 95% of blacks when push comes to shove. Maybe as low as 75%, if you get a Trump into office, and then the Dems unleash the BLM/Antifa mob to get their golems in line.

Then the Confederate statues came down. Fuck you too, to the boomercons/shitlibs lionizing MLK, something short of a rapist.

There are higher emotions just like higher intellect. Having spent time in Central America, where they have adopted the British style justice system of policing and courts, it does not run the same and is corrupt, and runs on bribes. Why? The laws are written by people who have nuanced feelings. the Bible even says that laws are written on the human heart. Some members of the society are not refined enough to FEEL and thus understand why the law is the way it is, so they resort to bribery and payoffs. I had some money stolen. Quite a large sum. I gave the ministero the evidence in just the format they wanted. They arrested the man. Then, they tell me the prosecutor has to come to my home to inspect it. Why? Was he curious if I was harboring stolen goods? No, he wanted to see how big my house was and get his payoff. I declined and they let the guy out of jail. Crime pays in some places. But had I pursued it at the cost of a bribe to the prosecutor, I would have been robbed twice.

Racism is a very sensible feature of human nature. We have evolved so that we support people that we share genetic heritage with. When someone has a different skin color we instinctively and instantly know they are not related to us and we should distrust them.

Mixing races always leads to trouble. Diversity is a horrible idea.

King did March west down West 79th Street on Chicago’s Southside through a neighborhood that was heavily middle class Irish Catholic at that time. As I recall no one went out to confront that march. That Southside neighborhood is now mostly black city workers. Whites moved away decades ago.

First, according to the Protocol, people (society) had to be brought to a certain level of moronism. Now it is only necessary to maintain that level of slavery by blocking the media, universities and forcing celebrity culture, reality shows, junk food, and various forms of perversions so that even those who understand the situation have no chance to open the eyes of the morons, whose brains are permanently switched off.

Morons can even be successful in certain specialties – business, sports, crafts, technology, writing software or commentaries, which fools them into not seeing that they are essentially morons. How to recognize them? The litmus test is an exaggerated frustrated reaction to trying to open their eyes with something beyond their nose or line of sight.

| The Aryans did not accept the local gods, but they brought the mythology and language to South Asia.

Not true. Eventually they did. There is no Shiva in the Rig Veda. There is a 'Rudra'. There is no concept of Kali in the Vedas as well. Many of the deities were taken from Indus Valley Civ, from local native tribes or from Tibet. In many cases, a local deity was made into a form of an established God or made into wives or husbands of established gods.

Even the Aryan (Northern Indian + Sinhalese) languages in the Indian subcontinent picked up elements of Indus Valley Dravidian languages such as reflexive consonants which are not found in other Aryan languages around the world from Persian to Icelandic.

You just said above that Shiva might have been the Nimrod of the Bible. Who was Nimrod? He was the first leader of the Aryans and the founder of Babylon. Bible says – first before the God. Of course, the mythology and language of the Aryans changed over time and new Vedas were created later, but the basic mythology, language and Rg Veda were brought by the Aryans.

Otherwise, how to explain the similarity between Hinduism and proto-Slavic (i.e. Serbian) religion if neither religion nor language came from S.Asia to Europe, but vice versa. I know that this is the most difficult thing for Indians to accept because then they wrongly believe that their entire culture has been imported.

It is the same with language, Sanskrit did not exist before the arrival of the Aryans. Its similarity to modern Serbian (and later Slavic) languages shows where its source was. Yes, reflexive consonants exist in other languages. As a descendant from Aryans from Ukraine, you should know that.

RASA is a primordial Serbian expression for single-tribeness, single-bloodness and single-kinness. This primordial word is preserved later in English language in the expression RACE, meaning absolutely the same. It is preserved in many other languages in very similar form and identical meaning. RASA means: my image, my blood, my tribe and could have been used by people of same origin to name themselves. The meaning of ‘race’ is the same as the primordial meaning of ‘srb’ (i.e., serb=cousin, relative). Out of this same root emerged the name of Russia and Russian people who pronounce the name of their country: RAS-SEE-YA.

Read Judith Harris’s work. While genetics accounts for something like half of the differences between us, the other half is not caused by family, social class, economic class, culture, etc. The other half are the random differences in our different environments.

Sure, if you stop enforcing the law in black neighborhoods then black crime will get worse. That doesn’t mean black genetics aren’t the root of the problem. Compare American black crime rates with American Japanese crime rates. Genetics is 100% causing the difference.

The problem with Indians is this: They're fond of bashing other people, but when they get some back they start squealing. Please read post 23 above where you, or one of you, compared Muslims in India with blacks in America and how your glorified leader, Modi the Butcher of Gujarat, was dealing with them.

Since the British created the Aryan Invasion theory Indians have started thinking of themselves the same as Germans, the master race. But they're not. They're scrawny, dark brown creatures, closer to Africans in IQ (80) than to Europeans. In fact, blacks in America have a higher IQ (85) than the average for India.

There are under 3 million Indians in America and 41 million blacks. If someone removes 38 million blacks, leaving only 3 million of the smartest and most successful ones, blacks will have a lot higher income and power than Indians. But does that imply that Africa is a great center of civilization? But Indians think they've conquered the world.

So, all I hope is that Indians look at themselves in the mirror and see themselves for what they are, and stop living in a fantasy world of their imagination.

Anglos ruled the largest empire in Human history, the British Empire. Sure, some Jews were counting the profits back in London but the fighting and ruling was done by Anglos. The Anglos ruled India, one of the most difficult place to run full of macho dacoits/bandits, ferocious warrior Sikhs, Rohilla Pathans, Rajput Lords, and Maratha leader. Not a joke. A chaotic place full of chaotic people and they ran the place well. The earlier Mughals hardly had complete control, half the territory were run by scary ass bandits. Ibn Butatta, an Arab official in high position in the Muslim emperor's Government was stopped and looted out by bandit men on his way to the coast on his journey to China. That was the security during those days. LOL. Secret societies like thuggess taking sacrificial victims and scary Pindari dacoits abound. No Mughal, or Muslim ruler had the guts in their ass to take these all, all they wanted were taxes for their luxury. Not the British, they fucked them all, ended scary Pindari dacoits, ended thuggee secret cults, brought supreme control over the unruly place for the first time and brought law and order.

The British also went in and flattened Afghanistan in the second Anglo Afghan War, obtained SUPREME DOMINATION over Afghanistan, something the two superpowers USSR and USA could never achieve, after panting in futility, eventually they ran away like pussies. Not the British Empire.

There is a reason why the great Nigerian Igbo writer, Chinua Achebe, admitted later in his book 'There was a Country', p. 43.

"The British governed their colony of Nigeria with considerable care. There was a very highly competent cadre of government officials imbued with a high level of knowledge of how to run a country. This was not something that the British achieved only in Nigeria; they were able to manage this on a bigger scale in India and Australia. The British had the experience of governing and doing it competently. I am not justifying colonialism. But it is important to face the fact that British colonies were, more or less, expertly run."

The Jews were counting the money behind the scenes but when the Jews decided that they were Anglo Lords too and came to India as such, shits like Montagu etc... the whole Raj started collapsing and finally collapsed. They cannot run things directly, only indirectly behind the scenes.

| This is probably the most absurd sentence ever written.

Nope, the British Empire being the most benevolent Empire in human history is fact. I have 100% track record in defending this fact in debates. Ending Thugges, ending Sati, ending slavery etc...

The closing words of the Muslim history book, Riyazu-s-Salatin (1788) eulogized the English in India as 'unrivalled in their laws for the administration of justice, for the safety of their subjects, for extermination of tyranny, and for protection of the weak. . . . And, notwithstanding their difference of creed, they do not interfere with the faith, laws, and religion of Musalmans.’

| They're fond of bashing other people, but when they get some back they start squealing

That is true for Muslims, Chinese, Indians, Jews, Blacks etc.....Same behaviour. I agree that his statements praising Modi may be hurtful to you. But Muslims justify their brutal rule over Hindus but beat chest and scream/cry about European Colonialism.

| Since the British created the Aryan Invasion theory

It has been proven beyond doubt recently via genetics. Check out Prof Reich's extensive research. The early European scholars came to the conclusion based on religion/mythology about how pre-Christian European religions/mythologies, Zoroastrian/pre Zoroastrian Persian and Vedic Hinduism had peculiar similarities. That as well on linguistics about how most European languages (excluding Basque, Finnish, Hungarian, Estonian etc.), Persian, Dari, Tajik and North Indian languages and Sinhalese of Sri Lanka had peculiar similarities which beyond any doubt could have only come from a common source. All that was discarded as colonial hogwash after WW2 but was proven right recently based on genetics. It is just that in India, the Aryans mixed up with other populations including the original black aboriginals who looked like Australian Abos.

But for your kind information, Indian Nationalists and Hindu fundamentalists do not agree with the Aryan Invasion/Migration theory (AIT/AMT). They have their own Out of India theory (OIT) which was also created by the British, by Imperial Colonial Olcott that Indians were the original Aryans who went and civilised the World. But thanks to new genetic studies, that theory of Out of India is now impossible. But not for the Hindu fundamentalists who live in their own unscientific bubble.

My main point is that Hindus are not proud because of the Aryan theory, but in spite of it. Hindus just consider non Hindus as mlecchas or unclean barbarians.

Conservative Hindus even today do not even eat from vessels touched by a Muslim because according to them, Muslims are especially unclean. A Muslim touching an utensil makes it impure for them and it needs to be cleansed before use.

Not my personal belief. I frequent Muslim restaurants often.

| Anglos ruled the largest empire in Human history, the British Empire

False. This is a fairy tale for stupid children. First, the British empire was not the largest empire in history. That is the American empire. Second, the British empire was not ruled by Anglos. It was ruled by Jews and racially degenerated Normans.

| Sure, some Jews were counting the profits back in London but the fighting and ruling was done by Anglos

Anglos fought because they are a slave race, so naturally they took the role of cannon fodder. Rule (decision making) was by Jews, not Anglos.

| There is a reason why the great Nigerian Igbo writer, Chinua Achebe, admitted later in his book 'There was a Country', p. 43.

What is describe here is not "rule." It is middle management. The decisions of empire were handled by the rulers, the plutocrats who stood to profit, i.e. by the Jews. Again, not by Anglos. Anglos followed orders. Your entire post ignores the fundamental point that Anglos were not in control of any of this (i.e. ruling). Everything you post only supports my point that Anglos were the most competent slave race in history. Excellent at following orders and serving their masters.

| Nope, the British Empire being the most benevolent Empire in human history is fact.

More fairy tales taught to fat, ugly Anglo children. If you truly believe this, then there is no reason for you to believe that the American empire is monstrous, since the two are essentially identical. There is also no reason for you to dislike Jews, since they ran both of these. The more intelligent Anglophiles (not you) have recognized this, which is why the most intelligent Anglophiles are uniformly pro-Jewish. It is impossible to admire the British empire and not also admire Jews, without which the empire would not have even existed.

Don't make me laugh !! You do not know how the Islamic invasion changed the country and divided it into three. What about the limited number of the British colonialists who controlled the country for many years with minor problems.

1_ From India: A Wounded Civilization published in 1976:

India has been a wounded civilization because of Islamic violence: Pakistanis know this; indeed they revel in it. It is only Indian Nehruvians like Romila Thapar who pretend that Islamic rule was benevolent. We should face facts: Islamic rule in India was at least as catastrophic as the later Christian rule. The Christians created massive poverty in what was a most prosperous country; the Muslims created a terrorised civilization out of what was the most creative culture that ever existed. India was wrecked and looted, not once but repeatedly by invaders with strong religious ideas, with a hatred of the religion of the people they were conquering. People read these accounts but they do not imaginatively understand the effects of conquest by an iconoclastic religion.

2_ He told The Hindu in 1998:

I think when you see so many Hindu temples of the tenth century or earlier time disfigured, defaced, you know that they were not just defaced for fun: that something terrible happened. I feel that the civilization of that closed world was mortally wounded by those invasions. And I would like people, as it were, to be more reverential towards the past, to try to understand it; to preserve it; instead of living in its ruins. The Old World is destroyed. That has to be understood. The ancient Hindu India was destroyed.

3_ On Ayodhya, according to Patrick French:

For the poor of India to identify something like this, pulling down the first Mughal emperor's tomb [s/r masjid], is a marvellous idea. I think in years to come it will be seen as a great moment. ... It would be a historical statement of India striving to regain her soul. What puzzled me and outraged me was the attitude that it was wrong, that one must not undo the [Muslim] conquest. I think it is the attitude of a slave population.

4_ From The Enigma of Arrival published in 1987:

Men need history; it helps them to have an idea of who they are. But history, like sanctity, can reside in the heart; it is enough that there is something

We can go after both, you know.

American blacks have gone feral, and need to be treated like rabid animals.

European and also British success in colonizing and conquering the world due to one reason and one reason only, superior fire-power (under the barrel of a gun with lots of bullets). Without guns and bullets, it's almost impossible to even consider conquering your next door neighbor.

The Mongols under Genghis Khan conquered the largest continuous land empire in history by simply riding on a horse or pony with a bow and arrow in his arm. That's because the bow and arrow was the most advanced weapon of it's time. The Europeans weaponized Chinese gunpowder centuries later and created the most deadly weapon in existence, the GUN.

Without the GUN, any invasion force into distant foreign land would have to outnumber the locals in order to win a close up hand to hand combat. Notice that hand to hand combat would resemble a gang street fight, and 3 young little kids can easily overwhelm and destroy a giant like the Rock (Dwayne Johnson) with nothing but a bricks and rocks. You can see you-tube videos of little kids / teenagers ganging up on a single or two adult sized males and destroy them almost effortlessly in an all out brawl / street fight.

Without superior artillery and advanced weaponry, the only way Russia would be able to invade Ukraine would be marching a force of 80-100 million people into Ukraine (hence outnumbering the locals 2 to 1). An impossible task since 99% of the population would flat out refuse marching orders into Ukraine to participate in the largest street brawl in the history of planet earth.

So you see, without GUNS and bullets, you have little chance of conquering anyone in the distant, let alone your next door neighbor down the block from where you sleep.

‘The American empire might have been a monstrous chimera but the British Empire was the most benevolent Empire in human history.’

We were actually pretty good back in the day, too. The Filipinos certainly missed us — right through the eighties or so there was a fringe party that ran on a platform of bringing back the Americans.

The Germans seem to have been bad in Southwest Africa but good in East Africa. Von Lettow-Vorbeck demonstrated that in the merry chase he led the Allies for most of the war.

...good story about Lettow-Vorbeck’s Askaris. Sometime in the early Sixties West Germany hit upon the idea that the survivors should be paid pensions. So off to Tanzania goes a bureaucrat with a suitcase full of marks and the word goes out and the surviving veterans flock in.

...problem is, nobody has any records. Even their old uniforms have rotted away. Then the bureaucrat has a brainstorm. He hands each claimant a broomstick and asks him to carry out the manual of arms.

...after more than forty years, every single one remembers it perfectly.

Truth, you are truly the master of obfuscating and twisting the salient, race-realist points made by whites on this board.

Someone on here asked; Must everything be about race?

And you replied; For the stupid, simple saps among us; Why yes, it is.

Then anon pointed out your hypocrisy, as you are on here with great frequency to spar with whites about race, from your negroid viewpoint. So you are precisely one of the “stupid, simple, saps” you referred to. You tried to obfuscate anon’s comment by playing on his use of the term “pro-white.”

You’re busted dude. You said peeps who see everything based on race are “simple, stupid, saps.” Your comments here indicate that you see everything based on race. Ergo, you yourself are a simple, stupid sap.

Your self-awareness and honesty are lacking, to put it mildly.

| V. S. Naipaul: Quotes to remember – Swarajya Staff

V.S. Naipaul was born in Trinidad, educated in England, married an Englishwoman, and visited India for the first time when he was thirty.

How does he become an authority on India?

Now that may, or may not be the case, Park Song Sung Nim, but peoples cannot be painted with a broad brush; for example, I worked in Korea for some time years ago. I am told that Koreans are generally smart, and I do not doubt it, but you strike me as, no offense... kinda dumb.

| you referred to. You tried to obfuscate anon’s comment by playing on his use of the term “pro-white.”

Precisely, and I asked why he considers himself “pro white”. Does he care about the ridiculous numbers of whites aborted, suicide and overdose victims, in the Ukraine now, etc. Or does he only care about blacks?I feel that the answer is kinda simple, and again, I feel that so are you.

Again, I say that with no intended offense, merely a statement dedicated upon what I have read attached to your moniker.

Truth, “prowhite” is all about equality vs equity, liberty vs coercion, and, most importantly, not allowing violent, low-IQ populations to set policy in European lands. Look at the horror Affirmative Action Barry unleashed by forcing “equity” on public education. Now it’s virtually impossible to expel violent Bantu students.

Truth, integration has failed, and if you think Hispanics and Asians will put up with your nonsense I have a kite that needs gas.

English King Edward the Confessor died on January 5, 1066. One year and one day after his death, on January 6, 1067, the Roman Catholic William the Conqueror was crowned king of England in Westminster Abbey.

Then began a terrible campaign of pillage and bloodshed by the Conqueror against the English people, which culminated in the pseudo-council of Winchester in 1070, when papal legates deposed the Orthodox Archbishop Stigand, who had refused to crown William, and placed the Roman Catholic Lanfranc in his place.

On October 15, 1072, the last English Orthodox bishop, Ethelric of Durham, after anathematizing the Pope, died in prison at Westminster, and the grace of the priesthood left the English land, in accordance with King Edward's prophecy.
