To je velmi zvláštní věc. Ze všech částí světových dějin, které byly hluboce pohřbeny, byla tato jediná událost tak důkladně dezinfikována každou částí židovských médií, vymazána vydavateli knih a časopisů, knihovnami, dokonce i vzdělávacími institucemi, že nemusela to být žádná osoba, která měla tyto informace ve své dostupné paměti. Určitě ještě byli naživu nějací lidé, kteří by o této události věděli z druhé ruky, ale bylo by to dávno v minulosti a ztraceno v díře věčné paměti. Ale, jak napsal Thomas Campbell ve své básni, *Lochiel's Warning : „ Vždyť můj zrak, temný a zoufalý, mohu zapečetit, ale člověk nemůže skrýt to, co by Bůh zjevil. A tak, obskurní úředník v Knihovna Kongresu náhodou narazila na originální kopii Kongresového slyšení a nepochopitelně ji rozeslala k publikaci. Musela nastat obrovská panika, když se příslušné osoby snažily získat zpět a získat zpět všechny distribuované kopie. Ale neuspěli a někteří zůstali ve veřejných rukou a záležitost se znovu dostala do povědomí Američanů a celého světa. Bylo vynaloženo obrovské úsilí, aby byl znovu pohřben, a stále si to uvědomuje jen velmi málo lidí, ale alespoň je to nyní v povědomí veřejnosti.

Tajná americká vláda a evropští bankéři po mnoho desetiletí ctily plán nastolení fašistické diktatury v USA a získání plné kontroly nad zemí a její rozsáhlou armádou. Jejich plán téměř uspěl, když chazarští Židé v The City of London prostřednictvím skupiny amerických finančníků (včetně otce George HW Bushe Prescotta Bushe) provedli v roce 1934 neúspěšný pokus o fašistický vojenský převrat. Tehdy muž jménem generál Smedley Butler byl těžce vyzdobený a v USA velmi obdivovaný válečný hrdina, kterého všichni tehdejší vojáci zvláště ctily. Během své dlouhé historie v námořní pěchotě Tvrdí se, že Smedley Butler byl jedním z pouhých dvou mužů, kteří dvakrát obdrželi Medaili cti za význačné hrdinství. Toto je muž, kterého si spiklenci vybrali do čela své nové fašistické vlády. Sám Butler napsal o své kariéře stručnou brožuru s názvem „ Válka je raketa “ [1] a stojí za přečtení.

Kabala spiklenců nabídla Butlerovi 3 miliony dolarů na sestavení armády 500 000 mužů, většinou veteránů z první světové války, kteří budou prakticky zaručeně následovat, ať se je Butler rozhodne vést. Butler měl použít tuto soukromou dočasnou armádu ke svržení Rooseveltovy vlády, načež spiklenci nastolili fašistickou diktaturu s Butlerem jako obraznou hlavou. Záměrem bylo, aby byl Roosevelt nucen v podstatě abdikovat na svou pozici prezidenta a byl zredukován na ceremoniální roli, „stejně jako Mussolini s italským králem“. Roosevelt bude dále nucen jmenovat Butlera do kabinetu na nově vytvořenou pozici „sekretáře pro obecné záležitosti“., nechal ho vládnout zemi, zatímco Roosevelt zůstal loutkou. Butler také pod přísahou v Kongresu svědčil, že viceprezident a ministr zahraničí rezignují a že nový ministr pro všeobecné záležitosti převezme roli ministra zahraničí a bude pokračovat v prezidentské posloupnosti. Soukromé svědectví od různých jednotlivců obsažené v samostatných dokumentech tvrdí, že kdyby Roosevelt odmítl souhlasit s plánem, byl by zabit.

Spiklenci tvrdili, že mají za sebou „noviny“ a začnou povídat o tom, že Rooseveltovo zdraví selhává, a jmenovali Butlera jako „supertajemníka“, aby byl „asistentem prezidenta“, ale ve skutečnosti se řídili jeho pokyny od londýnské City. Butler tvrdil, že mu spiklenci řekli: „Víte, prezident je slabý. Půjde rovnou s námi. Narodil se v této třídě. Vyrostl v této třídě a vrátí se. Bude běžet věrně formě. Nakonec přijde. A hloupý americký lid tomu ve vteřině propadne.“ Je pozoruhodné, že General Motors tento převrat silně podporovala, spolu s rodinami Heinzových, Dupontových a Bushových, stejně jako bankovní zájmy JP Morgan .– který byl vždy agentem Rothschildů.

Spiklenci řekli Butlerovi, že mají připravenou hotovost ve výši 300 milionů dolarů a v případě potřeby až 800 milionů dolarů, aby dosáhli svého cíle. Peníze by byly použity na zaplacení Butlerovy dočasné armády a také společnosti Remington Arms, která byla dychtivá dodat potřebné zbraně. Naneštěstí pro bankéře byl Butler více loajální než chamtivý a informoval Roosevelta o plánu a poté poskytl plné svědectví pod přísahou Kongresu.

Zde je v pořádku poznámka o objemech peněz. V mnoha případech nemá žádný užitečný účel srovnávat dnešní hodnotu měny s hodnotou předchozího data pouhým použitím převažující depreciační sazby v průběhu času, protože jiná srovnání jsou mnohem platnější a smysluplnější. Jako jeden bod zvažte 3 miliony dolarů nabízené Butlerovi na vedení tohoto plánu. Statistické tabulky nám říkají, že dolar z roku 1934 by dnes měl hodnotu možná 22 dolarů, ale mějte na paměti, že na počátku třicátých let byl typický plat průměrného pracujícího člověka jen o málo více než 1000 dolarů ročně. To znamená, že 3 miliony dolarů v „hotovosti předem“ nabízené Butlerovi jako úplatek byly ve skutečnosti asi 2 500 až 3 000 let průměrného mužského platu. Můžete zvažít 300 milionů a 800 milionů dolarů v podobném světle.

Americký Kongres samozřejmě provedl oficiální vyšetřování – McCormack-Dicksteinův výbor – před nímž Butler svědčil o podrobnostech celého plánu, včetně skutečnosti, že stojí na čele vlády ovládané bankéři a jejich korporátními spojenci.[2][3] Výbor nakonec potvrdil jako pravdivé vše, co jim Butler řekl, příčemž

Butler veřejně prosil Výbor, aby zatkl a stíhal DuPonty, Morgany a další, ale Kongres se příliš bál a zoufal si z jejich schopnosti přivést tyto mocné muže k odpovědnosti. Nakonec Kongres zveřejnil pečlivě dezinfikovanou zprávu, která událost potvrdila – ale až po vymazání jmen plotrů, a pak celou záležitost potlačil. Jak se dalo očekávat, Židy kontrolovaná média, zejména v USA, tento příběh ignorovala, až na to, že se Butlerovi otevřeně vysmívali za pokus o podvod, a pak tuto záležitost rezolutně nechali zemřít. Původní dokument Kongresu je dostupný zde, a to ve dvou verzích. První[3] je původní verze fotografií s textem, který lze vyhledávat a kopírovat, zatímco druhá je pouze textová, ale snáze čitelná.[4] Soubory mají velikost 69 Mb. BBC provedla vyšetřování a vytvořila poněkud vlažný dokumentární pořad s názvem The White House Coup, který uvedl: „Puč byl zaměřen na svržení prezidenta Franklina D. Roosevelta s pomocí půl milionu válečných veteránů.“[5] Roosevelt neměl žádnou moc zatknout a stíhat členy této extrémně mocné elitní skupiny za zradu a nemohl udělat nic lepšího, než propustit zprávy do médií. Dokument BBC uvedl (pravděpodobně přesně), že „hlavním zájmem FDR bylo, aby byl schválen New Deal, a tak uzavřel dohodu, ve které bylo dohodnuto, že spiklenci odejdou na svobodu, pokud Wall Street ustoupí ze svého odporu vůči New Dealu. a ať si FDR dělá, co chce“. Závěrečné zprávy týkající se samotných spiklenců uváděly: „Vyšetřování se záhadně změnilo v páru, když nadešel čas je zavolat, aby svědčili“, a sám Butler nadával americkému Kongresu za jejich zbabělost a řekl: „Jako většina výborů povraždil malé a dovolil velkým uniknout. Velcí střelci nebyli ani povoláni, aby svědčili. Všichni byli zmíněni ve svědectví. Proč byly všechny zmínky o těchto jménech ze svědectví vyřazeny?" V tomto ohromujícím a neuvěřitelném pokusu svrhnout vládu Spojených států Kongres toto vyšetřování vybítil stejně jako všechna ostatní. Ale je tu ještě něco, co je nesmírně zajímavé. Jeden z dokumentů podporujících Butlerova tvrzení uváděl, že „spiklenci buď (1) zůstali v zahraničí a mimo dosah výboru, Rothschild a další židovští bankéři v City of London nejdou v Butlerových spisech jmenovitě zmíněni, ale z jeho svědectví v Kongresu bylo jasné, že hnutí vzniklo v Evropě a kdo jiný , uprostřed Velké hospodářské krize v roce 1934, měl takový druh Z peněz?

Fascinating history of Judeofascism I wasn't aware of. It's an abortive version of the successful Nazi coup staged in Germany that ended up installing Hitler. No doubt the American people would have eventually been accused of a "Holocaust" had it succeeded. They are being accused of a holocaust of sorts today: the irredeemable sin of racism (which yet again, a real accounting of history shows, is a Zionist inside job, as most of the slave brokers and plenty of the slave owners were "Jews" of the Golden Calf strain, same as the Rothschilds/Cousinhood in the City of London).

So scapegoating Christians for what they themselves have perpetrated (and even hiring or placing phony "Christians" to "confess" their guilt) is part of the Zionist playbook, all to discredit "anti-Semitic" Moses-Christianity as the rightful moral authority of humanity, and appoint themselves and their Satanic mammon religion in its place.

Smedley Butler's "War is a Racket" was simply an early version "Confessions of an Economic Hitman."

But the question remains: why do these confessors go to work for the Zionists in the first place? And I'll tell you why: because they're young and dumb and ambitious, and eager to sell their souls for a relative pittance, and to advance their careers.

This is how the "Jew" debases Christian humanity, and drags it down to his soulless, reptilian level.

So why don't the Butlers and the economic hit men in the know actually name the "Jew" and swear fealty to Christianity when their careers as Satanic lickspittle are done? Well, would you want to admit — even to yourself — that you're a soulless hellion? Because once you sell your soul, you can't get it back. So instead they blow the whistle in general, but rarely declare it a Zionist inside job.

The most interesting facet of the story is the coverup. I'd read Butler's pamphlet at least a decade ago and was aware of the plot, plus the official narrative that it was some overblown plan involving some of the old Yankee elite (like the Prescott Bush famiglia, et al.) unhappy over FDR's New Deal, not even seriously underway yet. The assertion that FDR, who had already issued a completely lawless EO confiscating gold owned by Americans early in his term (which started in March 1933) was somehow against the usual suspects in where I suspect Mr. Romanoff has at least partly gone off the rails.

The massive amount of gold which was turned in by the trusting fools of 1933 Murika has never been honestly accounted for, despite the construction of a "Federal Depository" in Ft. Knox – which not even sitting members of congress can access to account for the items supposedly held there (Ron Paul tried – and was given a dog-and-pony show "tour" in which nothing was revealed). The bulk of the gold – all of which is now likely long gone – probably went to the usual suspects in the (((City of London))). Perhaps it's now used to store crates of Depends for the retarded ventriloquist dummy who is the current "President".

Not long after the plot we also have the FDR administration's enactment of the 1934 National Firearms Act, which effectively outlawed automatic weapons, silencers, and other military-grade weaponry to all who could not pay the tax (a very steep 250 dollars at the time). The law was upheld in 1939 by the USSC despite the fact that the defense was totally absent for the trial. FDR was a very obedient shabbas-goy for the city and its allies at the end of the day. Not sure what he said or did that got the usual suspects worried to the point where the actually went so far as to approach Butler with such a plan.

@Exalted Cyclops

The “tax” is still $200, not $250.

It could be argued, from a constitutional stance, that imprisoning someone for 10 years and fining them $10,000.00 for mere possession of an unregistered (untaxed) automatic weapon over failure to pay a $200.00 “tax” constitutes “cruel and unusual punishment” and is constitutionally offensive.

Why has no one in such a situation adopted this line of thinking and brought it to federal court?

Thanks for bringing this fascinating story to our attention.

Years ago my father told me that part of the dark pall hanging over the country during the depression years consisted of the fear that a fascist coup would unfold that would stomp the workers into the dirt at the behest of “the big money boys,” who were whipping up anticommunist hysteria. He said the odds of a coup seemed about 50/50. His father and many others were sympathetic to the workers in the mines who were standing up to the owners and getting gunned down and their heads bashed.

A few years later I ran across the book “Trading with the Enemy” documenting how industrialists, financial houses, and oil men continued doing business with Nazi Germany during the war. My father remembered well the scandal of the major ball bearing factory whose production was going to the Nazis by way of Sweden.

Perhaps some of the reluctance to shoot down China’s balloon stemmed from the fear of the symbolism of a deflating, crashing balloon getting etched into peoples’ minds.

“ The Attempted 1933 Jewish Fascist Coup in America” wasn’t a failure, it succeeded beyond anyone’s imagination. There is a counterpoint to this, saying that this ‘Business Plot’ was a Roosevelt-managed hoax to legitimise himself, against more authentic populists on the scene such as Huey Long.

The “business plot” was manufactured to make it appear to the public as if Roosevelt’s policies were really for the common good and not a big giveaway to bankers and industrialists.

Indeed there are strange elements, such as Butler apparently already giving speeches against ‘war profiteers’, when those very same ‘war profiteers’ asked him to lead the coup plotting.

But another odd aspect is that the main visible critique of the Butler narrative is hosted on the dodgy Miles Mathis site, which seems to be a distracting, half-disinfo but entertaining site run by intel agencies, with lots of bizarre stuff on it, ‘Miles Mathis’ seeming to be at least 4 different people, one of them much more British than American. prescott bush had a bank seized during ww2 for laundering nazi money, as did the walker family (prescotts in-laws, accounting for daddy bush's, second middle name). the banks were then quietly returned to them in the fifties when the heat was off.

fdR's insouciant response (and yes pcr, that is for you) to the banksters attack, allowed the cancer within the system to metastasize and lead directly to the complete skull and bones, zioneocon takeover of our political system. the cancer has now advanced to a stage 4 inoperable condition. we seem to be passing into the acceptance stage of our grief. let us not, hold on to false hopes of a political cure for the dieing beast, let us concentrate rather on how the hell we're going to dispose of the bloated carcass.

i once saw a video of some small town, trying to dispose a beached whale carcass, they decided to "blow it up good", it did not work out well, i would advise against this method.

Thanks for the correction. You make a good point about the excessive fine for failure to pay a 200 “tax”. I’ll not be holding my breath for the ACLU to go and spend some of their multi-million dollar ‘war-chest’ to fight it.

The intention was that Roosevelt would be forced to essentially abdicate his position as President and be reduced to a ceremonial role, “the same as Mussolini did with the King of Italy”.

This would have been a worse outcome than what happened?

Fascism that classifies itself ‘humanist’ remains anti-Christendom and therefore will always serve the interest of Jews the one race or tribe that is truly anti-Christ.

It is either Christ and Christendom or else Chaos with Jews reaping the majority of the spoils.

Benjamin Freedman always said “so-called” Jews. He was emphatic that the Khazars were really not Jews but Talmudists. And Talmudists are the reverse of Jews. Their bizarre, legalistic nonsense is what gave the world Islam. That and the RCs, idolatrists with their legalistic “canonical” nonsense.

So, Larry, they are not Khazar Jews. There’s no such thing. They are Khazar Talmudists.

War profiteers dont identify any particular group who need to be named and shamed .It was a wake up call against the war fever that was infecting the ambience .

Just because it is now parked in some obscure website,doesnt mean it has lost its legitimacy or authenticity .

What kind of plots or issues did get heard by the congress in thsoe days ? Did it admit whether there were a threat or not to the presidency ?

Did they blame Butler for making things up or being duped or accuse him of being gullible ?

USA was not new to making things up in order to justify military intervention .Flip side of that coin is suppressing facts,truth,and real conspiracy .A tireless anti war would have been a thorn by their sides . They would rather have him exposed as fraud,liar,and attention grabbing demagogue than simply acknodledged . They showed incompatible and internally contradicting responses.

It is like 911 . The issues not raised and not allowed to be raised tell us that there are serious unresolved important issues in that event which establsihement doesnt want become public and I am not talking about periodic false accustaions and threats to Saudi. Though the real culprits will tell Americans that the failure to expose Saudi shows the power of bribes, money and of chokehold of oil on US . These rascals even might add that the fear of Saudi ditching dollars or dumping treasury has prevented US from naming.

All those seemigly on the surface are viable explanations but they are incorrect. It doesnt mean someone trying to hide important actors's palmprints will not resurrect the bullshit in 20 or 50 years .

I guess TIL FDR was a Jew.

“Attempted.”

America was already Fascist in 1929. Yes, FDR made it significantly more Fascist, but it has met all six diagnostic criteria for Fascism since 1776. E.g. the public-private “partnership” (meaning de facto State ownership and politicization of for-profit corporations) was already in full swing when GM et al “bought up” all the tramlines so they could be sold for scrap.

Indeed Jamestown was an outright Communist colony. Then there were the Owenites in the 1830s, along with numerous fellow travellers.

What this country needed at the time was Huey Long, the Trump of his day, if you will. Had he been able to campaign and say what he would say, he probably would have been elected. I was born and raised in Louisiana and I saw firsthand how he brought LA out of the Dark Ages. But, he was, of course, assassinated.

I read about “The Businessman’s Plot” in college, and it mentioned that “a couple of U.S. Senators” were involved, and Wall Street financiers, but it didn’t name who. I remember thinking it odd. The Bush Family (Prescott’s involvement) should have been solidly locked out of politics after this, but George the Elder was present in Dallas in November 22, 1963, Marvin Bush dined with John Hinkley 2 weeks before Hinkley shot Reagan, and Shrub W. was president on 9/11.

Let’s not ever allow another Bush in office folks. Ever.

Morgan was obviously the big money behind the plot and Rothschild the bigger money behind Morgan. Those “Great stores of wealth” spoken about in the protocols of zion are obviously international corporations and international and Central banks. Too much power is always bad. Take it away from them folks.

Its called Sheep Dipping. This is when some powerful force, usually Jewish or Masonic, fake and even in order to give one of their agents credibility, so that the lifetime actor can fulfill some assigned role.

In this case we have 32 degree Scottish Rite freemason FDR, born with a silver spoon in his mouth from a dynasty of millionaires going back to the Delano opium fortune, and a typical corrupt Democrat, who was supposed to lead the world into WWII on behalf of Judea.

It seems some higher-ups wanted to prosecute ol' Prescott and his pals, but 'twas not to be— how dreadfully unseemly! I think he also held an interest in the Silesian American Coal Company, along with such names as Harriman and Brown, and possibly Dulles—that utilized internment camp slave labor—you know what they say about idle hands!

I seem to recall the book describing how Ford's plant in occupied France kept building transport trucks for the German army, and Texaco shipping oil to them, and German chemical giant IG Farben's patent rights to its synthetic rubber process being honored by the Americans. And Germans shipping gold to London and New York in payment, or some such arrangement.

A racket, indeed, as Smedley said. Meanwhile, contentious objectors, like one of my relatives, caught hell.

“You know, the President is weak. He will come right along with us. He was born in this class. He was raised in this class, and he will come back. He will run true to form. In the end he will come around. And the dumb American people will fall for it in a second.”

The dumb American people have fallen for the fascistic coup by means of the assassination of JFK. The result of the assassination is an unaccountable military industrial complex together with an unaccountable CIA. The results are the same even though we may not view it that way. We are a military dictatorship under the surface but propagandized to not believe it has taken place.

I've always suspected this coup story is a bit of disinformation probably cooked up by the mendacious FDR himself. It ties in with him representing himself as the courageous man of the people, heroically battling the insidious banking and business interests whose greed had triggered the Great Depression. In fact, his actions were exactly the opposite. He came into office hostile to the interests of working people, with incentives, loans and bailouts for failing corporations, much like Obama's response to the 2008 crisis. It was the violent rebellions of militant, organized labor across the nation in 1934 that led to Social Security and Unemployment Insurance in 1935, not the kindness of liberal Democrats. FDR's "second New Deal" was an attempt to ally with union leaders to create a state-sponsored system of union recognition and negotiations that would keep the working class under control within the framework of capitalism. Democratic Party politicians on all levels turned their back on labor as local police departments and National Guardsmen brutalized, and sometimes killed, strikers. By 1941, FDR was himself responsible for smashing strikes, including a massive one at North American Aviation.

The American ruling elite had but one goal then (as it does to this day): global domination. One bloc saw alliance with the rising new authoritarian states as key to achieving this objective, while the rival faction, led by FDR, saw making war on them as the more effective strategy. Their difference was a matter of tactics, not strategy, and certainly not so great as to risk the uprising of the American people, the way they had responded to the slaveholders' treason almost eighty years earlier.

I repeat here my reply to your comment on another of my articles. I have no more tolerance for your lies. Any more of this rubbish from you, and you won't be commenting any more/

Almost every statement you made in your comment is either factually incorrect or twisted and misleading. "Surrender" under threat of a $10,000 fine and 10 years in prison is not different than "confiscation". The seizures were not made "necessary" by anything, and the "planned devaluation" was only to protect the FED who were more than 50,000 metric tonnes of gold short of what it was supposed to hold to back the currency it had issued (illegally).

The seizures were presented to Congress as "hoarding" gold by private citizens was "preventing the economy from improving", which was an outright lie. And the order was not aimed "primarily at the banks". Your statement about "generous exemptions" being made for coins of numismatic value is also false. Very few coins fit this description, and to state that the number of these coins "theoretically exceeded all the gold then in circulation" is an outright lie. Your statement that "at most 22% of gold coins were surrendered is also an outright lie.

And there is no evidence that "literally tons" of US gold coins were held by foreign banks as currency reserves, since they held only bullion. No central bank hold coins as foreign reserves. Your other statements are irrelevant smoke meant only to confuse the issue.

I am becoming very tired of all the Hasbara lies (and the liars) commenting on these articles. I think the whole damned lot of you should be banned from commenting. You lie like you breathe and you dirty everything you touch.

Huey was on a roll and gaining momentum, and would've made short work of his opponents. His killing was a tragic loss for this country, which has a nasty habit of killing off or otherwise sabotaging populist leaders.

Not long after the plot we also have the FDR administration's enactment of the 1934 National Firearms Act, which effectively outlawed automatic weapons, silencers, and other military-grade weaponry to all who could not pay the tax (a very steep 250 dollars at the time). The law was upheld in 1939 by the USSC despite the fact that the defense was totally absent for the trial.

Rule of Law or Legal Principle Applied:

A weapon that has no reasonable relationship to the effectiveness of a well-regulated militia under the Second Amendment can be regulated by the government.

Reasoning:

The Second Amendment states that "A well regulated Militia, being necessary to the security of a free State, the right of the people to keep and bear Arms, shall not be infringed." Because there is no evidence in this case that a sawed-off shotgun has a reasonable relationship to the preservation or efficiency of a well-regulated militia, the respondent's weapon is not covered under the Second Amendment. The concept of a civilian militia is an often-cited principle in many writings before and after the drafting of the Constitution. Thus, the charges are appropriate and the district court's decision must be reversed.

Plenty of evidence existed for the use of shotguns in military usage in the early 1930s.

There was no defense because the defendant, Jack Miller, had DIED.

United States v. Miller is a case that comes to the obvious conclusion that the “well regulated Militia” portion to the Second Amendment has meaning. Unfortunately, the existence of the “well regulated Militia” text in the Second Amendment is something that seems to have been conveniently overlooked by gun advocates and conservative Supreme Court justices for many, many decades.

Their argument is based on that amendment’s reference to “a well regulated militia,” which they define as a military force organized and supervised by the government. Outside a well-regulated militia, they suggest, the Second Amendment has no practical effect a lawmaker need respect. Some gun control advocates also argue that the descriptor well regulated implies that the government has wide latitude to decide who may have which weapons under what circumstances. But as the Supreme Court correctly concluded in Heller, these arguments are inconsistent with the text and context of the Second Amendment.

The structure of the Second Amendment has invited decades of dueling interpretations. “A well regulated Militia, being necessary to the security of a free State,” it says, “the right of the people to keep and bear Arms, shall not be infringed.”

The part of the amendment that could be its own stand-alone sentence—the right of the people to keep and bear Arms, shall not be infringed—is known as the “operative clause.” The well regulated Militia part—the prefatory clause—is understood by enthusiastic gun regulators as defining the only reason for preserving the right to keep and bear arms (as opposed to one of the reasons). Anyone who is not a member of a well-regulated militia would have no such right.

The late Justice Antonin Scalia, who wrote the majority opinion in Heller, thought it made no sense to read the prefatory clause that way, because that would essentially nullify the direct and clear meaning of the operative clause. While the prefatory clause could give insight into some of the specifics of how to apply the operative clause, he argued, it could not make the right to arms contingent on militia service.

Scalia pointed out that the amendment refers to “the right of the people.” When that language is used elsewhere in the Bill of Rights—in the First and Fourth Amendments, for example—it plainly means a right that belongs to every individual, as opposed to a collective with special properties, such as a militia. A prefatory clause mentioning a purpose, Scalia argued, is not sufficient to overwhelm the commonsense and contextual meaning of a right guaranteed to everyone. Furthermore, he said, contemporaneous usage makes it clear that the phrase bear arms cannot be restricted to a military context, as Justice John Paul Stevens suggested it should be in his dissent.

The money would be used to pay for Butler’s temporary army, and also to the Remington Arms company who were eager to supply the needed weaponry.

Did Remington have an inventory of surplus guns, or where they going to produce guns, a far more arduous task?

@Chris Moore

It's an abortive version of the successful Nazi coup staged in Germany that ended up installing Hitler.

I'm no historian, but Hitler was not 'installed' by a coup. There was no Nazi coup. There was no fascist coup.

Wiki list 26+ definitions for 'fascism', https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Definitions_of_fascism, so it has effectively become meaningless. Yet is used constantly to mean bad, evil, the worst ever, etc. I believe the subliminal meaning of fascism, that accompanies the 'bad' meaning, is 'the opposite of Judaism'. The fascists, i.e. the Nazis, were the only real opposition the Jews have faced in 100 years. Thus using the word carries two meanings, the primary meaning that the fascists are pure evil, and the secondary implied meaning that the Jews are innocent victims. Everyone who uses 'fascist' as a condemnation is reminding us of the virtue and (imaginary) victimization of the Jews.

| the Nazis, were the only real opposition the Jews have faced in 100 years

They were controlled opposition, framed as the “ultimate anti-Semites” when they were no such thing.

Christendom were the ultimate anti-Satanists/anti-Sociopaths, which is what “the Jews” really amount to. But they call it “racist anti-Semitism” in order to harness the nations against it.

There are degrees of anti-Satanism/anti-Sociopathy, with Christendom as the gold standard. The Nazis walked right into ZOG’s war agenda which is pure divide and rule. Yes, the dimwitted Slavs did as well when they previously allowed/helped the ((Bolshevik)) coup that put Russia under ZOGs thumb. Jackass Hitler took the bait, and ended up destroying his own nation, hundreds of millions of Christians, and getting framed for the phony and contrived “Holocaust/Shoah,” exploited ever since by Zionists.

If Hitler hadn’t been damaged goods himself, he would have gone after the Satanists/Sociopaths (the Rothschilds/Cousinhood in the City of London) first and foremost. But he saw easy pickings in Russia, and didn’t want to launch on ZOG HQ.

BTW, the same can be said of Putin (that he should be fighting ZOG’s HQ), but at least he hasn’t allowed “the Jews” to start WW3, although ((Zelensky)) and his ((backers)) have repeatedly tried. Putin has wisely let it be known that the Rothschild/Cousinhood headquartered City of London would be among the first targets in a nuclear exchange, but he hasn’t threatened Tel Aviv, which should also be publicly on the kill list.

At any rate, ZOG must be destroyed, but it can't be done at the cost of a nuclear war. ZOG must be gotten to by resurrected Christendom, which is its first, foremost and natural enemy, and put in a permanent straightjacket, along with all its demonstrably insane stooges and supporters.

Once again, I am insulted by a fine article initially displaying an ambiguous photo of several unnamed humans. Blithely the article commences. I've a special disdain for the exploiters of media to repeat this use of borrowed photographic attempts to legitimize an already legitimate article. Where it started is not difficult to imagine but it is an error in judgement found, now, throughout the media; is misleading distracting and deceptive. Thank you.

| 'Miles Mathis' seeming to be at least 4 different people

He/they are self-destructing at the moment. His addiction to genealogy has become an inside joke, what with people only reading it to see of the trail he happens to be sniffing leads to them. And face it, all it ever proved is that humans are related to each other... which proves nothing by itself.

One GOOD effect of Mathis and others is the ubiquity of the Agencies and their near-total power that essentially has been ceded to them by lack of citizen awareness. J. Edgar Hoover was the ne plus ultra of 20th century publicity as public policy. There is not one part of the FBI's warrant that would be legal in the Old Republic. Hoover, however, had newsreels, movies, blackmailed columnists; he just lied and terrorized his way to immortality.

Mathis fails to realize this is ALL THERE IS. He ignores the Drug War because he has no dog in the fight, but it's been pointed out that with the establishment of the DEA under Nixon the USA met all the legal definitions of a Police State. Naming nearly any chemical compound an "illegal drug" is a total blank check, so much so that when the Patriot Act was signed after 911, legal scholars pointed out that the specific detention-without-charge rule had already been in effect for forty years thanks to the drug contraband law.

Mathis, or whoever, is oblivious to all this. But then being aware of it would make geni.net a bit superfluous.
