"Prvotní zpráva – IDF aktuálně útočí v Gaze. Podrobnosti budou následovat," uvedly IDF na Twitteru.

Izraelská armáda rovněž uvedla, že provedla úder na zařízení na výrobu zbraní Hamásu v pásmu Gazy.

"Stíhací letouny IAF zasáhly jak areál výroby zbraní, tak vojenský areál patřící Teroristické organizaci Hamás, který se nachází ve střední a severní Gaze," napsala IDF na Twitteru.

Již dříve IDF uvedla, že pět ze šesti raket vypálených z Gazy směrem na Izrael bylo zachyceno.

Vztahy mezi Izraelem a Palestinskou samosprávou jsou od založení Izraele v roce 1948 rozporuplné. Palestinci usilují o diplomatické uznání svého nezávislého státu na územích Západního břehu, včetně východního Jeruzaléma, který je částečně okupován Izraelem, a Pásma Gazy. Izraelská vláda odmítá uznat Palestinskou samosprávu jako nezávislou politickou a diplomatickou entitu a navzdory námitkám Organizace spojených národů buduje v okupovaných oblastech osady.

Bývalý poradce Donalda Trumpa pro národní bezpečnost Michael Flynn vyjádřil obdiv k hodnotám, které podporuje a prosazuje ruský prezident Vladimir Putin v opozici vůči ideologii Západu.

Retired Lt. General Michael Flynn went on Twitter to underscore that it was “fascinating” to hear the Russian leader discuss “the strong values the West is destroying”.

Fascinating to hear the Russian President discuss the family and God as strong values the West is destroying.

Vlad. Poutine : "Ils détruisent l'institution de la famille, leur identité culturelle et historique et diverses perversions concernant les enfants. Les prêtres sont obligés de reconnaître et d'officier les mariages homosexuels. La famille est une union entre la femme et l'homme."

While delivering his annual Presidential Address to the Federal Assembly on February 21, Vladimir Putin had deplored the kind of spiritual “degradation and degeneration” that has already befallen many Western countries.

“They can’t help but realize that it’s not possible to defeat Russia on the battlefield, and so they are carrying out ever-more aggressive information attacks against us. The chosen target is, first and foremost, our young people, the younger generations. And here again they lie constantly, distort historical facts, engage in non-stop attacks on our culture, on the Russian Orthodox Church, and other traditional religious organizations of our country,” Putin said during his speech to the Federal Assembly.

“Look at what they’re doing to their own peoples: the destruction of the family, of cultural and national identity, perversions and abuses against children, up to pedophilia, are declared to the norm, the norm of their lives, while clergymen and priests are forced to bless same-sex marriages.”

The Twitter post on Putin's words made by Mike Flynn, who was the 24th US National Security Advisor during the first 22 days of the Donald Trump administration, prompted many on the internet to weigh in. Some remarked that Putin "seems genuine" while "everything about Zelensky seems manufactured."

The more I actually hear Putin speak on the west the more I support him in this conflict.

Putin seems genuine while everything about Zelensky seems manufactured.

Others agreed that the support for traditional family values expressed by the Russian President were "exactly the words we should be hearing."

I enjoyed his speech he covered everything came across as honest and displayed a love for his country and fellow Russians. I loved the financial and emotion support to all soldiers, saying they also need time away from the War to be with their families regularly. True leader

Earlier, Twitter users similarly commented on Putin's speech after a post made by a user under the name of @stillgray, who asked what tweeps thought of his words about "the culture war."

Ian Miles Cheong ✓

Putin gave a speech today, and dedicated part of it to the culture war, including the destruction of culture, history, churches and religious institutions, nuclear families, the normalization of pedophilia, and the transing of children. Do you agree with his remarks?

These remarks are truthful.
We (the west) are destroying ourselves from within by moving farther away from traditional life and values. We must move closer to God, not farther.

I do !! those remarks are directed toward us. And it's so true. We have allowed the Elites to degrade our Culture. Say what you might about the Russians but right now they are on the High Road... can you see the difference between Putin and Biden?
