Nejlepší způsob, jak zapomenout na historii, je přepsat ji. A při prepisování pečlivě vymazat odkazy na jakékoli historické události nebo okolnosti, které považujeme za nepříjemné. Americké historické knihy tedy o otázce těchto bílých otroků, většinou evropského původu s velkým počtem Irů, ale také Angličanů a Skotů, kteří byli uneseni nebo jinak násilně deportováni do USA jako otrocká práce, naprosto mlčí. Zkoumání dostupné dokumentace ve skutečnosti ukazuje, že bílé otroctví v Americe bylo mnohem rozsáhlejší operací než černošské otroctví a čísla mohou být silně podhodnocena.[1] Několik autorů tvrdilo, a já jsem viděl zprávy, které vypadají věrohodně, že bílí otroci v Americe převyšovali černé. Ve své knize Byli bílí a byli otroci,[2]Michael Hoffman napsal: „Černošské otroctví bylo efektivně zavedeno v koloniální Americe, protože černí otroci byli řízeni, organizováni a kontrolováni strukturami a organizacemi, které byly poprvé použity k zotročení a kontrole bílých. Černí otroci byli opozdilci zakomponovaní do již vyvinutého systému.“

Nový národ potřeboval levnou pracovní sílu, protože osadníci byli v procesu vyvražďování obyvatel velké země a zabírání půdy, ale postrádali dělníky, kteří by ji mohli rozvíjet. Tito bílí otroci byli důležitější než černí, co do počtu i ekonomické výhody. Jeden majitel bílých otroků, plantážník z Virginie John Pory, prohlásil, že bílí (ne černí) otroci jsou „hlavním bohatstvím národa“. Amerika si vybudovala základy bohatství z velké části díky drtivé většině bílých otroků, protože otroctví bylo výhradně záležitostí ekonomiky a zisku. Americký kapitalismus byl od dob svého zrodu zlomyslně dravý. Jeden očitý svědek hromadného únosu chudých bělochů odhadl, že jen z jeho osobních znalostí bylo nejméně 10, Americké historické texty odkazují na to, čemu se říká odhlášené nevolnictví, jako na druh „benigně paternalistického systému, v němž koloniální imigranti strávili několik let prací na cestě a šli za lepšími věcmi“. Mýtus spočívá v tom, že cesta do zámoří byla drahá a britští a evropští civilisté ochotně podepsali smlouvy, které po nich vyžadovaly, aby několik let pracovali, aby zaplatili náklady na cestu, a poté jim byla poskytnuta půda a svoboda usilovat o slavnou budoucnost v zemi. nový svět. Ale nic takového nebylo. Možná skutečně existovalo několik takových osob, které odpovídaly tomuto popisu, ale tvořili nepatrnou menšinu a jejich podmínky nebyly lepší než podmínky všech otroků. Ve skutečnosti se jejich závazky nejčastěji rovnaly doživotnímu trestu za těžké práce a životu, který by byl vzácně krátký, když se podíváme na příšernou míru úmrtnosti. Existují zdokumentované záznamy o bílých trestancích, kteří žádali, aby byli oběšeni v Británii, místo aby byli posláni do gulagu, kterým byla Amerika .

Je to pouze elitní establishment v dnešní Americe, kdo předvádí neupřímně vášnivou propagandu, aby zmírnil brutalitu. Faktem je, že pokud by tento proces byl skutečně standardem, pak by tisíce smluv přežily a naše muzea by jich byla plná. Neexistuje pro to žádný důkaz. Někteří židovští a jiní sympatičtí historici předstírají, že tento systém závazků, jakási privilegovaná forma vázané práce, reprezentoval celou zkušenost bílého otroctví v Americe. Ale tato definice by se vztahovala pouze na ty, kteří se dobrovolně zavázali ke službě, a těch bylo velmi málo, přičemž uzavřená smlouva byla udržována pouze jako falešná zástěrka pro prosté a jednoduché doživotní otroctví movitého majetku. Dokonce i bílí se označovali jako otroci, kteří nebyli lepší než dobytek, a kteří byli podle všeho znehodnoceným movitým majetkem na stejné úrovni jako hospodářská zvířata. Existují důkazy o mnoha nadějných, ale negramotných migrantech, kteří byli podvedeni, aby podepsali smlouvy, neznalí skutečného obsahu dokumentů, které je právně označovaly jako osobní majetek, který lze koupit a prodat, prohrát hazardem nebo zabít bez obav jako jakákoli jiná zvířata. V každém případě tyto smlouvy poskytovaly nesčetné omluvy pro vlastníky otroků, aby prodloužili dobu nevolnictví na neurčito, často o 7 let pro nejlehčí přestupky a 10 nebo 15 let pro ostatní. Málokdo utekl. neznalí skutečného obsahu dokumentů, které je právně označovaly jako osobní majetek, který lze bez obav kupovat a prodávat, sázet nebo zabíjet jako kterákoli jiná zvířata. Málokdo utekl.

Obchodníci s otroky vynaložili velké úsilí, aby přiměli svobodné bělochy podepisovat smlouvy, údajně se umístili do „dočasného“ otroctví s příslibem 50 akrů zemědělské půdy na konci období smlouvy, ale nebylo to nic jiného než opovržením hodný kšeft.

Zaslíbené pozemky byly svěřeny vlastníkovi otroků za předpokladu, že pozemkové nároky později přejdou na otroky, ale tato pozemková práva mohla propadnout téměř z jakéhokoli důvodu, včetně lenosti, přičemž pozemkové tituly se pak staly právoplatným majetkem pána. Mnozí majitelé otroků nakupovali velké množství těchto takzvaných indenturovaných osob a rychle si vymýšleli výmluvy, aby se zmocnili všech svěřených pozemků, občas s darem a mrknutím na příslušné úřady. Tímto způsobem byly jistě získány statisíce a potenciálně miliony akrů úrodné půdy, s mnoha otrokáři hromadícími obrovské majetky a velké bohatství, což je přesně důvod, proč byl vytvořen tento „benigně paternalistický“ systém. Nevolnictví nebylo nikdy víc než obrovský a krutý podvod.

Jeden autor napsal, že historici záměrně tvrdí, že „kdekoli bílí ‚sluhové‘ tvořili většinu nevolnických dělníků, pracovali v privilegovaných nebo dokonce luxusních podmínkách, které byly černošům zakázány. Ve skutečnosti byli bílí otroci často omezeni na špinavou, zvrácenou práci v terénu, zatímco černoši a dokonce i indiáni byli odváženi do plantážních domů, aby pracovali jako domácí. Major jménem Mordecai Manuel Noah, který byl popisován jako „nejvýznačnější židovský laik své doby“, podporoval otroctví tím, že je přirovnával ke svobodě. Je neuvěřitelné, že pronesl tato prohlášení: „Pod jménem otroctví je svoboda. Polní černoš má svou chalupu, ženu a děti, svůj snadný úkol, svůj malý kousek kukuřice a brambor, zahradu a ovoce, které jsou jeho příjmem a majetkem. Domácí sluha má hezké oblečení, luxusní jídla, přiznané soukromí, laskavého pána a shovívavou a často milující milenku.“

David W. Galenson napsal pojednání s názvem „Bílé otroctví s názvem Bílé nevolnictví v koloniální Americe“, ve kterém uvedl: „Evropští muži a ženy si mohli vybrat jak při rozhodování,

destinací.“Tyto komentáře, a mnoho dalších podobných, jsou čirou fikcí, velmi velkými lžemi, které mají vymazat zlo staletí. Bílí otroci byli získáváni z nejchudších vrstev britské společnosti, kteří byli vládnoucí třídou považováni za postradatelné. Ekonomové obhajovali zotročení chudých bílých, protože je viděli jako nejlevnější a nejúčinnější způsob rozvoje kolonií v Novém světě a zároveň se zbavovali přebytečných chudých, kteří byli pro Anglii „neziskoví“. Jak se americké zemědělství rozšiřovalo, majitelé půdy požadovali legalizaci praxe únosů chudých bílých do otroctví. Byla schválena parlamentní legislativa, která výslovně povolovala zajetí bílých dětí, což se stalo tím, co můžeme nazvat „otevřenou loveckou sezónou“ na chudé z Velké Británie a také na kohokoli, kým britská aristokracie náhodou pohrdala.

Vzhledem k utajení celé záležitosti bílého otroctví není překvapivé, že si jen málokdo uvědomuje, že velká část otroků deportovaných do Ameriky nebo Austrálie nebyla trestanci, jak uvádí záznam, ale byli ve skutečnosti politickými vězni a politickými disidenty. a mnozí další byli váleční zajatci. Zvláště Anglie si dala záležet na tom, aby pochytila všechny politické disidenty, uvěznila je a pak deportovala jako „odsouzené“. Politikou Anglie bylo také spolupracovat s obchodníky s otroky při povolování toho, čemu se říkalo „gangy lovící otroky“, kteří se volně potulovali po celé zemi a vysávali prakticky každého, kdo nevypadal bohatý, tento proces vnímala britská aristokracie s velkým souhlasem. Byl to Henry Cromwell, kdo nařídil všechny chudé bezdomovce po celé Velké Británii zajmout a deportovat obchodníky s otroky, za to, že je „neziskový pro říši“. Zákony umožňovaly zabavit v jakékoli části Anglie osoby, které se zdály být tuláky nebo žebraly, a nechat je převézt do britského přístavu a poslat do Ameriky k prodeji. V souladu s tím soudci nařídili zotročení a odeslání celkového počtu „těch, kteří znepřijemňovali život britské vyšší třídě“ do Ameriky. Lidé ze Západu si obecně uvědomují, že Austrálie byla téměř celá osídlena trestanci z britských věznic, ale jen málokdo si je vědom toho, že Nový svět

Ameriky byl zpočátku osídlen stejným způsobem ze stejných zdrojů. Anglická vláda prakticky vyprázdnila své věznice a převezla většinu svých trestanců, mužů i žen, do Ameriky, aby je prodali majitelům plantáží a dalším průmyslníkům, Historický záznam nám říká, že „američtí vlastníci otroků rychle začali množit bílé ženy jak pro své osobní potěšení, tak pro větší zisk“, ale tento výraz popírá brutální pravdu. Bílé ženy, zejména Irky, byly jednoduše svlékány donaha a opakovaně znásilňovány, dokud nebyly těhotné, a poté byly v tomto stavu udržovány. Děti otroků byly samy otroky, což zvýšilo velikost pánovy volné pracovní síly. I kdyby se irské ženě podařilo získat svobodu, její děti by zůstaly otroky a ona by je jen zřídka opustila, čímž by zůstala v nevolnictví.

Tato praxe křížení bílých samic s africkými muži se stala tak dlouhodobou a rozšířenou, že byla přijata legislativa zakazující tuto praxi, protože tato produkce potomků zasahovala do zisků velkého židovského obchodníka s otroky. Svou roli sehrály i perverznější verze judaismu. Jedním z důvodů, proč začal obchod s africkými otroky, bylo to, že afričtí otroci „nebyli poskvrněni skvrnou nenáviděné katolické teologie“, která infikovala Iry. Částečně kvůli tomu se nákup afrických otroků prodražil a často se s nimi zacházelo mnohem lépe než s jejich bílými protějšky. Černí otroci byli skutečně krutě využíváni, ale ne tak často k smrti, jako bílí, kteří byli k dispozici téměř za nic a byli plně postradatelní. Po příjezdu do Ameriky byli tito bílí Britové svlečeni donaha, spoutáni, Obchod s bílými otroky byl přirozený pro židovské obchodníky v Anglii, kteří dováželi cukr a tabák z amerických kolonií. Běloši unesení v Británii mohli být vyměněni za toto zboží v Americe, což obchodním lodím umožnilo přepravovat náklad oběma směry. Ale využitelnost těchto lidí v myslích těchto nelidských obchodníků ohromuje srdce. Existují zdokumentované zprávy, že jedna loď vyhodila více než 1300 bílých otroků do Atlantského oceánu, aby zajistila dostatečné zásobování posádkou potravinami. Jiné zdokumentované zprávy hovoří o 20 nebo 30 dětech, které byly najednou vhozeny do oceánu, aby se utopily. V mnoha smlouvách bylo také ustanovení, že bílí otroci byli předem prodáni vlastníkům plantáží, kteří byli odpovědní za plnou platbu, „pokud otroci přežijí za polovinou cesty“. Kapitáni lodí zřejmě pravidelně zásobovali dostatečným množstvím jídla pouze na první polovinu své zaoceánské plavby s úmyslem nechat otroky po zbytek cesty vyhladovět. Jeden zdokumentovaný záznam uváděl: „Uvěznění ve špinavých nákladových prostorech, spoutaní, hladovění a týraní, trpěli a umírali během přeplavby v obrovských počtech. Nikdo se neobtěžoval zaznamenat počet mrtvých.

Dokonce i ti, kteří měli to štěstí, že přistáli v Novém světě, by si vedli o něco lépe a trpěli šokující úmrtností. Šedesát procent všech bílých otroků, kteří se dostali do Ameriky, nepřežilo svůj první rok. Jeden duchovní navštívil plantážní základnu a scénu popsal jako „země živých mrtvých, trezor plný živých mrtvol“. Policista o nich hovořil jako o „hromadách hadrů pronásledovaných hmyzem“.

Tvrdil, že když otevřel dveře do jedné z jejich chatrčí, viděl: „Deset, dvacet, třicet, kdo je může spočítat? Muži, ženy, děti, z větší části nazí, se hromadili na podlaze jako červi v sýrárně, přízračné vystupování, nezahalené, z hrobu hadrů“. Bílí otroci, kteří se vzbouřili nebo se stali neposlušnými, byli potrestáni těmi nejkrutějšími a nelidskými způsoby. Majitelé pověsili své otroky za ruce a zapálili jim nohy. Často byli upáleni zaživa a jejich useknuté hlavy pak byly umístěny na kůly na veřejném tržišti, aby sloužily jako varování pro ostatní otroky.

Obzvláště šokující byl únos a zotročení velkého množství bílých dětí, které byly otevřeně zabaveny ze sirotčinců, chudobinců a ulic a odeslány do Ameriky, aby pracovaly v továrnách a na plantážích. Existovalo nespočet zásilek těchto odsouzených dětí do Ameriky po dobu snad 300 let, přičemž jen velmi málo z nich se dožilo dospělosti. V jednom případě, když bylo provedeno sčítání ve Virginii, bylo z mnoha tisíců unesených toho roku uvedeno jako živé pouze sedm dětí. Všichni ostatní byli mrtví a statistiky za další roky jsou stejně ponuré, někdy ten rok přežili jen tři nebo čtyři. Děti sirotků a také děti chudých rodičů byly terčem obchodu s bílými otroky, který byl popisován jako „mor“ a „hlučný živel“. Londýnská policie byla instruována, aby zabavila všechny děti nalezené na ulici a odvezla je do ochranného zařízení, kde by čekaly na zásilku do Ameriky. Jejich jediným zločinem bylo často to, že byli na ulici, když kolem šel strážník. Židovští obchodníci s otroky se konkrétně zaměřovali na chudé rodiny a požadovali, aby odevzdaly své děti na prodej pod hrozbou, že budou vyhladověny a podřídí se stažením veškeré pomoci z jakéhokoli zdroje. Mohli odevzdat své děti obchodníkům s otroky nebo být nuceni hladovět a zemřít. Toto staletí trvající nelidské využívání „jednorázových“ dětí bylo počátkem americké záliby v dětské práci, která začala na zemědělských plantážích, ale brzy se rozšířila i do amerických továren. jejich jediným zločinem bylo, že byli na ulici, když kolem procházel strážník. Irští otroci

Zdá se, že je obecně přijímáno, že Irsko bylo v minulosti silně vylidněno, přičemž nejčastěji uváděné procento snížení bylo 80 %. Jeden užitečný článek o anglických irských otrocích: Současné standardní vyprávění se s určitou vervou pokouší přisoudit toto vážné snížení populace nemocem nebo hladomoru, ale skutečnost se zdá být taková, že hlavním důvodem byl únos do otroctví. Existuje dostatek záznamů, které nám říkají, že Irové byli uneseni a odesláni po stovkách tisíc, včetně nejen dospělých, ale dokonce i nejmladších dětí, které byly násilně odebrány svým rodičům a prodány jako otroci v USA a Západní Indii. Za mnohé z toho můžeme jistě připsat Henrymu Cromwellovi, protože se zdál být obzvláště odhodlaný zajmout a deportovat všechny irské ženy: „Pokud jde o mladé [Irské] ženy, i když musíme použít sílu, abychom je zajali, přesto je to pro jejich vlastnit dobro a pravděpodobně bude pro veřejnost tak velkou výhodou, o tom není ani v nejmenším pochyb, abys jich mohl mít takový počet, kolik uznáš za vhodné k použití na tomto účtu."

Neexistuje způsob, jak slova toho muže špatně pochopit, a Cromwell v těchto poznámkách nemluvil o „smluveném nevolnictví“.

První dokument o prodeji bílých otroků byl vypracován v roce 1612, sedm let předtím, než do Jamestownu ve Virginii dorazili první afričtí otroci. V roce 1625 James II oficiálně rozhodl, že všichni irští vězni budou posláni do Západní Indie (Karibiku) a prodáni vlastníkům plantáží. První lodě deportovaly 30 000 Irů, v polovině 17. století tvořili většinu otroků v koloniích.[4] Na portugalském webu se uvádí toto: „Vyhlášení z roku 1625 vyžadovalo, aby byli irští političtí vězni posláni do zahraničí a prodáni anglickým osadníkům v Západní Indii. V roce 1600 byli Irové hlavními otroky prodanými do Antiguy a Montserratu. V té době tvořili 70 % celkové populace Montserratu irští otroci. Irsko se rychle stalo obrovským zdrojem lidského dobytka pro anglické obchodníky. Většina prvních otroků v Novém světě byla ve skutečnosti běloši.[5]

Jak jsem již psal dříve, jedním z principů propagandy je, že máme silnou tendenci věřit první věci, kterou o nějakém tématu čteme nebo slyšíme, zvláště pokud jsou tato tvrzení několikrát opakována.

Později, i když čelíme nezpochybnitelným důkazům, faktům, která nelze zpochybnit a dokazují, že naše nyní přijímaná přesvědčení jsou ve skutečnosti falešná, se překvapivě zdráháme změnit svůj názor a budeme „váhat a váhat a nadále věřit, že musí existovat nějaké jiné vysvětlení“. Naše mysl zjevně nedokáže přijmout, že jsme uvěřili lžím. To je důležité, protože to Židé velmi výhodně využívají k tomu, aby zabránili odhalení svých zvěrstev a zabránili racionálnímu myšlení. Pokud znalost jejich minulých zločinů obvykle vykazuje známky úniku z historického vězení, nemožnými. Wikipedie je přirozeně jedním z lídrů v tomto úsilí. Věrná svým židovským kořenům a lhaní jako vždy má Wikipedia článek s názvem „Mýtus irských otroků“, dokonce i název připravující čtenáře k tomu, aby nevěřili čemukoli o irských otrocích, když je to Wikipedie, komu je třeba nevěřit. Jejich pojednání odkazuje na knihu Dr. Michaela A. Hoffmana II s názvem „Byli bílí a byli otroci: Nevyřčená historie zotročení bílých v rané Americe“. Wikipedie nám příhodně říká, že tuto knihu vydal „konspirační teoretik a popírač holocaustu“, který také „obviňoval Židy z obchodu s otroky v Atlantiku“ – do kterého byli Židé zjevně velmi zapojeni. Wikipedie nám také říká (jako obvykle), že „Kniha byla popsána jako nekvalitně prozkoumaná“ a „vysoce problematická“. Pokud si vzpomínáte, byla to stejná obvinění vznesená ohledně knih Jamese Bacquea, které odhalily masové vraždění Němců v amerických koncentračních táborech po druhé světové válce. Tato obvinění popíračů holocaustu, kteří píšou chatrné historické knihy, je součástí standardní šablony, kdy Židé nechtějí, aby veřejnost měla přístup k informacím, které odhalují židovské zločiny. Wikipedia dále informuje své čtenáře, že Dr. Hoffman představuje „nedbalé stírání hranic mezi otroctvím a nevolnictvím“, ale ve skutečnosti je to Wiki a její bratři, kdo záměrně maže hranice, aby zamaskoval skutečnost, že „indentures“ jsou pouze dnešním eufemismem. chtěl pohřbít pravdy bílého otroctví.

Existuje mnoho náznaků, že se Židé snaží buď odstranit povědomí a diskusi o irském obchodu s otroky, nebo beznadějně zmást problém tak, že se ztratilo zaměření a závěry se staly obtížnými nebo

Italská webová stránka Wikipedie k tomuto tématu nám říká: „Irsko bylo vždy vystaveno silné emigraci, a to natolik, že dnes se odhaduje, že v USA žije desetkrát více lidí irského původu než v Irsku. V osmnáctém století opustilo Irsko asi 9–10 milionů Irů. Nejchudší z nich odešli do Británie, zejména do oblasti Liverpoolu, zatímco ti, kteří si to mohli dovolit, asi 5 milionů, se přestěhovali do Spojených států amerických. Od devatenáctého století, po velkém bramborovém hladomoru, se emigrace stala masivní: v roce 1890 žilo 40 % všech Irů v zahraničí. V současnosti je na světě asi 80 000 000 lidí, kteří tvrdí, že mají irské předky, a z nich pouze 4 700 000 žije v Irské republice.

Wiki nám pak dále říká: „V roce 1800 byl fenomén emigrace z Irska do Spojených států amerických způsoben náboženským pronásledováním v Irsku, nadměrnými životními náklady v Irsku a velkým hladomorem, který zemi zasáhl. Tento fenomén byl masivní: ve skutečnosti se za deset let od začátku tohoto fenoménu počet obyvatel Spojených států zdvojnásobil.“ To nás trochu přibližuje pravdě, ale ne dostatečně. Stejně jako u jiných židovských webů, Wikipedia klade rovnítko mezi únosy a otroctví s „nevolnictvím“ a „emigrací“.

Dalším náznakem je, že Global Research publikoval článek Johna Martina o irském obchodu s otroky, „The Slaves that Time Forgot“, ale pak najednou zveřejnil dva další články částečně popírající existenci tohoto obchodu. GR nás pak informuje, že původní článek „prohlíží povrch složitého historického procesu, který byl předmětem kritické debaty, kontroverze a zmatku“, a že následující články byly zveřejněny „s cílem podpořit další diskusi“ a „s cílem poskytnout širší historické pozadí“. Ach jo. Buď to, nebo někdo vyvinul velký tlak na GR, aby buď revidoval svůj postoj, nebo byl odstraněn z internetu. Snad nejlepším náznakem je článek představující Ira jménem Liam Hogan, který je zveřejněn na webových stránkách Southern Poverty Law Center. Pro ty, kteří nevědí, SPLC je totálně židovská organizace, která je silně politická a má naprosto odpornou pověst. Hogan zřejmě pracuje (nebo pracoval) ve veřejné knihovně v Irsku a je nám prezentován jako „nezávislý učenec“, článek SPLC s titulkem, který nám říká (jako Wikipedie), že irští otroci jsou „mýtus“ a slouží pouze jako „meme“ pro „rasisty online“. Nechává nás hádat, kdo jsou „rasisté“ a proti komu vyjadřují svůj rasismus. Článek odkazuje na sérii esejů napsaných Hoganem, které mají za cíl odhalit celé téma irských otroků, ale ve skutečnosti nic takového nedělají. Musím říci, že Hoganovy eseje se mi zdají zásadně nečestné, protože vše, co skutečně dělá, je demonstrovat, že některé fotografie použité na podporu článků o otroctví jsou čerpány z nesouvisejících zdrojů, a to je k tématu zcela irelevantní. Jde však o to, že tato organizace se aktivně zapojuje do předjímaní otevřené diskuse o irském obchodu s otroky a vzhledem k jejich zaujatosti by k tomu došlo pouze v případě, že by Židé měli obavy z postupného odhalování své účasti na této parodii. Bez tohoto strachu by nebylo nutné jejich zapojení, Ale je tu ještě jedna věc, která je velmi zajímavá. Irsko ze všech zemí světa zjevně nemá před rokem 1850 žádné populační statistiky, a dokonce i záznamy z tohoto pozdního období se zdají být vymyšlené a zfalšované. Všechny údaje o populaci země jsou pryč. Ve městech a obcích, na státních úřadech, v kostelech, na hřbitovech jakoby vše zmizelo. Mělo by být jasné, že se to nemohlo stát náhodou. Jedna kancelář na jednom místě by mohla utrpět katastrofu, ale když zmizí všechny populační statistiky pro celý národ, musí to být výsledek svévolné akce a provedené značným počtem lidí. Mělo by být také zřejmé, že se nemohlo jednat o domácí podnik: žádná vláda by si nevzala na sebe úkol zničit všechny své vlastní populační záznamy za celou svou historii. To znamená, že na zničení záznamů by se musel podílet zahraniční agent, a to nás vede zpět k našim židovským obchodníkům s otroky. Pokud nemůžete dokázat, že Irsko mělo lidi, nemůžete dokázat, že ti lidé byli uneseni jako otroci. Nemáme žádné přímé důkazy, ale ze zničení těchto důkazů by měli jistě hlavní prospěch židovští obchodníci s otroky a je třeba připomenout, že chazarští židé byli nejaktivnějšími obchodníky s otroky na světě po stovky let, a určitě během tento časový rámeček. Ve skutečnosti byli Židé hořce nenáviděni občany mnoha národů za jejich únosy a obchodování s otroky, což je jeden z hlavních důvodů, proč byli Židé vyhoštěni z tolika zemí – a ne kvůli předsudkům nebo „antisemitismu“, jak jsme tak často my. řekl dnes. a určitě v tomto časovém období. Ve skutečnosti byli Židé hořce nenáviděni občany mnoha národů za jejich únosy a obchodování s otroky, což je jeden z hlavních důvodů, proč byli Židé vyhoštěni z tolika zemí – a ne kvůli předsudkům nebo „antisemitismu“, jak jsme tak často my. řekl dnes.

Vzhledem k tomu, že existují důkazy, že obchodníci s otroky byli v Anglii a Skotsku velmi aktivní, neexistuje žádný logický důvod předpokládat, že ignorovali Irsko, a zdá se, že krutá depopulace mluví sama za sebe.

Existuje jeden web, který se zabývá populačním problémem Irska. Jeho informace jsou rozptýlené, ale poskytují trochu osvětlení. Uvádí: „Neexistují žádné spolehlivé údaje o populaci pro Irsko před rokem 1841“ a že „Jediná tvrdá data, která přežila, jsou sčítání z let 1841 a 1851, ale jejich přesnost byla zpochybněna. Poté však předstírá (stejně jako mnoho webových stránek), že ukazuje grafy irské populace sahající až k 1200, které jsou nutně zcela fikcí. Stejná webová stránka nám říká, že „emigrace byla součástí irské historie více než téměř kterákoli jiná země na světě“ a zdůrazňuje to tvrzením, že „To dokazuje skutečnost, že kromě 5 milionů lidí v Irsku, odhaduje se, že na celém světě je 55 milionů lidí, kteří mohou vysledovat své předky až do Irska“. To by bylo pozoruhodné, pokud by to byla pravda, a jistě by podpořil tezi o milionech Irů, kteří byli v průběhu let uneseni jako otroci. Web také uvádí, že – na podporu svého tvrzení o „emigraci“ – Irové představovali třetinu veškerého „dobrovolného obchodu“ přes Atlantik. Zlomek může být pravdivý, ale „dobrovolné“ tvrzení nemá žádný podpůrný důkaz a nejsem si jistý, zda bych zařadil únosy a obchodování s otroky jako „emigraci“.

Read an interesting account at St Malachy cathedral County Monaghan –a plaque reading to the effect that Ireland population prior to 1800 was 8 million –then came the 1800's with agriculture produce completely confiscated –taken and sent to England (meat -vegetables) and only a fraction left for the Irish–then came the potato blight but during this time -- Workhouses were set up and residents off-shored. Today Ireland's population is 4-5 million. What transpired during the 1800's was Ireland losing agricultural produce and then civilians –a Blow from which Ireland has still not recovered. Ireland 1800's –Ukraine today ??

Same goes for Scots-Irish, as explained in former Virginia Senator Jim Webb's book "Born Fighting." While the majority were indentured (the ol' "forty acres and a mule" deal, in Appalachia of course), there were white slaves among this group as well. Glad you referenced Hoffman's book, which, when I heard about it in the early 80s, was a huge wake-up call! This book should be required reading for ALL White Americans! That'll get them, except for the most asleep wokesters, to finally get over whatever guilt-trip the psychos in charge are forcing down their throats!

Yes, the white slave trade worked in different ways. For instance, many years ago my mother's father died, her mother remarried, then her mother died. My mother's step father sent my mother and her two siblings to an orphanage. This happened in the province of New Brunswick, Canada.

Each year the provincial government would auction off the children. For example, the government would pay $100 per year per child to anyone who was willing to take the child. The way the auction worked is that someone would be willing to receive only $90 per year for taking the child. A competitive bidder would be willing to take only $80 per year for the child. And so the bidding went. The person willing to receive the least subsidy for the child got the child.

That is how my mother was auctioned off at ten years old.

thousands of the contracts would have survived and our museums would be full of them

Very good observation. As a rare book dealer, I have seen and handled many colonial era indentures (the word is simply the archaic term for contract) regarding land sales and rental, but never have had or heard of one dealing with servitude.

Supposedly, the tradition was to burn them on completion of the term, but still, at least some would surely have survived.

The American colonies began as private commercial ventures, chartered by London stock companies, financed by shareholders who expected a return on their investments. Slavery was fundamentally every capitalist's wet dream, a system that legalized the theft of employees' wages. Slavery for Africans became prominent because so many whites were able to run away and blend in with the communities they fled to, while dark skin could not be easily concealed. Old newspapers also contain many ads for runaway indentured servants that are little different from runaway slave notices. Interestingly the Constitution does not use the term "slaves" but rather "persons from whom service is due" which covers a lot more ground.

There should also be a discussion about the Chinese slave trade and poisoning of a nation from opium which the same Khazars introduced into china. The current Fentanyl crises seem to be a payback from China. The Chinese slaves were treated much worse than the black and Irish slaves. And again: the Khazars were the perpetrators.

put much more simply, the very notion of “WHITE PRIVILEGE” is AN OUTRAGE, a BIG FAT STINKING LIE, and an AFFRONT to decency and common sense.

Did the nearly HALF A MILLION mostly “White” Americans who DIED in the CIVIL WAR count as “WHITE PRIVILEGE”?

Do the MILLIONS of “White” Americans who SUFFERED DURING the “great depression” COUNT as “white privilege”?

Do the MILLIONS of IRISH VICTIMS of INTENTIONAL BRITISH FOOD-SEIZURE i.e. “the great famine” COUNT as “WHITE PRIVILEGE”? (IrishHolocaust.org)

Do the MILLIONS of EUROPEANS who DIED of ALL THE INNUMERABLE WARS across that continent COUNT AS “White Privilege”?

And it’s not just huge numbers of MILLIONS of victims that prove THE LIE “white privilege” – what about the 58,000 Vietnam war KILLED (the vast majority of whom were White), and likewise Korean War KIA?

I read somewhere that fully HALF of the SWISS MERCENARIES hired outside of their country (many of whom sent their pay back to their families) DIED fighting for whatever armies they worked for. Certainly there were many rulers who would LOVE to NOT PAY their mercenaries.... they just had to get enough of them killed before cheating the rest so the survivors would not be a threat. Queen Elizabeth herself STARVED HER OWN SAILORS who WON the BATTLE AGAINST THE ARMADA for her! She kept them on the ships WITH NO PAY and NO FOOD until they starved because her finances were so tight with the Spanish threat still hovering even after the Armada had been disbursed.

Speaking of sailors, one of the leading causes of the American Revolution was IMPRESSMENT of AMERICANS as sailors upon

British warships... THIS WAS SLAVERY in ALL BUT NAME!
Sailors could be WHIPPED and KILLED for ANY offense, and to leave was considered desertion – a hanging offense. And British ships were notorious for poor, bad food – and they were better than all other navies until the Dutch and American navies arose!
Our grandfather was a hardworking cuss WHO COULD NOT GET A STEADY JOB for the ENTIRE DECADE of “great depression” until shortly before WWII started, when, with BIG GOVT SPENDING on war build-up the economy finally started to revive FROM THE CENTRAL BANKSTERS’ financial

as far as I’m concerned, anyone who spouts off about “white privilege” is A CRIMINAL, a TRAITOR PROPAGANDA TERRORIST SPEWING LIES to WHIP UP HATE to DESTROY these DISUnited states...

They had to have poor Whites because back then as now Blacks are lazy. Blackie worked but more than likely spent more time shucking, jiving, muh dikn' even back then. I can count the number of hardworking Blacks that I have seen in my lifetime on 2 hands. One was a guy that packed me for a move, the guy worked all day by himself, never took a break, stuff was packed immaculately. Then once I had 3 sorry ass Whites take about 6 hours to do what that one Black guy did in 8 hours. Stuff came up missing, broken, with the White packers/movers. That was a rare exception. That Black might have been the hardest worker I have ever seen. Worked like one of those Japanese street vendors. Whites picking cotton? Some of my kinfolk did it. Only the edumucated think that only Blacks worked the fields. They learned about it in (((books.)))

From the nineteenth century, following the Great Potato Famine, emigration became massive: in 1890 40% of all Irish people lived abroad. Nowadays there are about 80 000 000 people in the world who claim to have Irish ancestry, and of these only 4 700 000 live in the Republic of Ireland.”[7]

Tens of thousands were sent to Quebec, Canada (Grosse-Ile Quarantine Island) on overloaded coffin ships and died from typhus while crossing the Atlantic.

The text in gaelic engraved on the celtic cross mention that they fled their foreign tyrants and an artificial famine (both of which are not mentioned in the french and english translations on the cross).

During WWII, Grosse-Ile was used by the military to test a biological weapon: anthrax.

Today, the descendants of Irish and Scot immigrants (particularly the french-speaking catholics) are, in my opinion, among the most brainwashed and obedient people on earth. It's very difficult to convince them that the official narrative could not be 100% true, as they are never ready to other versions.

There have been some excellent articles posted at this site on the devastation of the opium trade in China.

I have a hunch that the current Fentanyl crisis in the U.S. is being led and financed by the very same tribe of perpetrators that caused the opium crisis in China.

If China were solely responsible for the Fentanyl crisis and the U.S. government were truly opposed to this loss of American lives, you can bet this news would be plastered all over the Western media 24/7, but it's not. They would have stopped this practice dead in its tracks if they wanted it stopped, but they don't.

While no doubt there are some Chinese players getting rich from this trade, the facilitators, the powerful people allowing it to happen, must be making a fortune and don't want to see it ending any time soon. It's got nothing to do with "payback", but everything to do with an easy way for the powerful to make money. This time it just happens to be American lives being lost.

When you read history and follow the money to the top, it's the same thing over and over again: ordinary people suffer, their lives are destroyed, whole countries are destroyed, while the wealthy are laughing all the way to the bank.

Typical “Romanoff” spewing of swill. Misdirection, half truths and flat out lies are all Romanoff’s stock in trade. His aversion to the truth makes one wonder if he is Jewish. I guess the Chinese are not called the Jews of Asia for nothing.

In 1600, the Irish were the main slaves sold to Antigua and Montserrat. At that time, 70% of Montserrat’s total population were Irish slaves.

Now this is something. Antigua and Montserrat were not settled until 1632. Montserrat was heavily settled by the Irish.

Montserrat was first settled on by Irish Catholics in 1632, who were sent there by Sir Thomas Warner, the first British governor of neighbouring St Kitts.

A few days ago I was reading about the Plantations in Northern Ireland, a process whereby the leaders threw the Irish off their lands, then brought in English and Scottish (non-Catholic) settlers to replace them. Adding in the slave trade and the potato famine, I thought to myself, “Good God, the Irish people have been through so much.” A culture wiped out.

Found this article in the Washington Post titled “The Irish Famine: Complicity in Murder”:

“...more than 26 million bushels of grain were exported from Ireland to England in 1845, a ‘famine’ year. ...nearly 4,000 vessels carrying food left Ireland for ports in England during ‘Black ’47’ while 400,000 Irish men, women and children died of starvation. Shipping records indicate that 9,992 Irish calves were exported to England during 1847, a 33 percent increase from the previous year.

...1,336,220 gallons of grain-derived alcohol were exported from Ireland to England during the first nine months of 1847. In addition, a phenomenal 822,681 gallons of butter left starving Ireland for tables in England during the same period.

The food was shipped from ports in some of the worst famine-stricken areas of Ireland, and British regiments guarded the ports and graineries to guarantee British merchants and absentee landlords their ‘free-market’ profits.”

Okay, let's correct it to say "in the 1600's" then. There, fixed it. Getting hung up on dates doesn't change what happened. The Irish people have been decimated over the centuries.

Let's have an open discussion of exactly what occurred re the Irish, the Atlantic Slave Trade, the Holocaust, let's get to the bottom of what's fact and what's fiction, and name the people who benefited from the above. Then we can tackle who benefited from the opium trade, the diamond trade, the Boer Wars, World War I and World War II, etc.

Let's lay it all on the line. Name names. You'd be all for this transparency, wouldn't you, Chris?

...Ireland population prior to 1800 was 8 million –then came the 1800’s with agriculture produce completely confiscated –taken and sent to England (meat - vegetables) and only a fraction left for the Irish–then came the potato blight during this time —Workhouses were set up and residents off-shored.

The Irish well knew the score at the time this was taking place that the destruction to Irish life wrought by the Famine acting in combination with the destruction to Irish life caused by the ‘help’ offered of being ‘off-shored’ en masse as wage slaves (ie so called ‘cheap labor’) to the United States, most never to see Ireland again, was utterly destroying them.

As documented by the 1847 Famine era Spectator of London article excerpted and linked below, they saw this ‘offshoring’ business not as ‘help’, but as a predatory and genocidal act of hostility towards them, and hence their own Irish term for it of ‘extermination’.

According to the article, members of the British aristocracy in Ireland were being shot for promoting this cynical scheme.

That was their ‘vengeance’.

Extermination and Vengeance

“EXTERMINATION” is the offence alleged by Irish incendiaries, lay and clerical, against the landlords... The case of Mr. Ormsby Gore is very instructive. The Irish papers, alluding to his estate of Leganommer, had a terrific story of “extermination in Leitrim,” full of direct falsehoods.’

‘Setting aside smaller matters, it appears that the tenants on the estate owed rent for several years, in some instances for as many as twelve or fourteen; one year’s rent was demanded, under pain of a twelve month’s notice to quit. Not a shilling of rent was offered, and the notice was enforced; but the enforcement was accompanied with a declaration that those who could not retain their holdings would be aided by their landlord to emigrate to America.’

‘Such is the conduct which the Irish incendiaries name “extermination”. It is well, in the approaching debates, that the Irish meaning of that word should be understood.’
The Spectator – Nov 20, 1847

<http://archive.spectator.co.uk/article/20th-november-1847/12/extirmination-and-vengeance>

Slave purchasing/owning elites and hangers on, importing and then employing alien chattel slaves so as to hook or by crook avoid paying their own people the prevailing real time local rates for their labor, and thus seriously depressing their own people’s wages, while at the same time these slavery corrupted elites make a pretty penny off the value of the labor that is systematically stolen from the slaves, is the awful template of chattel slavery and it’s trade.

Driven by the same self centered greed of the same type of sociopathic slave owning elites and hangers on as before with their chattel slaves, this same horrible template not uncoincidentally remains in place today in the United States with the importation by diktat of wage slaves, aka so called ‘cheap labor’, or, simply, ‘immigrants’.

As the ‘Extermination and Vengeance’ article shows, it is a terribly destructive system to those preyed upon as a source of wage slaves. It is also terribly destructive to those on the receiving end as well, through physical displacement, fewer jobs for hire, and depressed wages, as well illustrated in The Gangs of New York video clip below, which shows Bill the Butcher and his gang of Anglos being displaced in real time at the docks by newly arriving Irish wage slaves.

Those who promote slavery, whether chattel or wage, don't care about anyone or anything other than their money, their political power, and their own individual selves.

To hell with everyone and everything else!

Watch Video At: https://youtu.be/Z4_4p15iGIU

More than one way to skin a cat.

As documented in the 1850 Famine era news article linked below, plans were being laid to export US manufacturing plants to famine stricken Ireland, where Irish workers could be paid pennies on the dollar what Anglo workers would be paid in the United States.

If you can't get enough of the slaves to come to you, you go directly to where the slaves are.

All written history is written by the liars thieves and murders... those families are still in privilege positions although the Winsors are on the way-out.

The truth is that all groups, tribes, nations have used slaves...the races who used them most were from the middle east, Arabs, why don't they cop the heat like white people is because we have been on top (not me) supposedly for centuries now but most whites have never been on top, only the families close to power benefit due to their willingness to do the dirty work.

That is the nature of the pyramid of power, as long as those at the pointy end can spin a web of lies and propaganda the rest will follow...eventually all that is built on lies collapses once the lie is realized by enough.

The West is going through that now, don't expect those at the pointy end to change, they will double down until the rope is around their necks!

One thing for sure, America's curse wasn't slavery but blacks.

If the US had enslaved lots of whites at one time but brought over free black labor, we would still see more problems with blacks than with whites.

Or imagine if US had brought over 300,000 Chinese slaves and 300,000 FREE African laborers long ago.

Which group would be causing more problem today? Blacks.

Europe is bringing in free blacks, and they are messing things up.

So, the real 'sin' of America wasn't slavery but blackery. Letting tons of blacks in, free or slave, was bound to be problematic cuz of BAMMAMA or blacks are more muscular and more aggressive. And it was going to eventually lead to white boy cuckery and ACOWW or Afro-Colonization-of-White-Wombs that is now in UK as well.

This story is somewhat exaggerated. New England historians have worked hard to make colonial Virginia a land of evil people compared to the righteous Puritans of Massachusetts. The freeholder population increased all the time in Virginia, but the Yankee historians want to make Virginia look like a land of exploitive thugs so that they can give New England precedence as the real. Americans. Do we really want to accept that the fathers of Washington and Jefferson were that way? Several such historians have claimed that the story of Capt. John Smith and Pocahontas was not true, but we know from other sources that it is true. Of course conditions throughout the world were crude and everyone worked hard, although agricultural rythm allows downtimes. Certainly white people were virtual slaves in many places in the world for long periods of time. Selling one's labour as an indentured servant was not necessarily a bad deal and was commonplace in Europe. . You worked hard but got bed and board while learning the ropes and got land when finished. Some of my forebears came that way as a family from a small town in Germany and subsequently did well. The permanent bondage of the alien black population is an entirely different matter.

Some notes, though there may have been some white and or irish slave type situations, it can be difficult to see or separate what or how much of anything is true as so much what's claimed as 'history is mostly to entirely fraudulent, even things people assume as definite. Just to put a few questions on, its been said there wasnt really a civil war, which I agree with. The cons have been dressing in costumes and making their paintings a long time, then photos, then photoshop, they are many and their cons are many. Then to add a few facts, around 1860 the cons here scribbled what's labeled the 'homestead act', which was different that what homestead 'law' is now, two different things. The cons here, having got their 'constitution' by people, and other cons claiming 'states' etc, then decided they were entitled to, beside claiming most of the forests, trees, logging, to hand to their choice of cons, also hand off millions of acres to who they decided, scribbling 'homestead act'.

If search, first results are pages claiming 'lincoln.. so blacks could have come land' blah blah. But if search further, around same time, homestead act 1862, a bunch of irish were being beckoned by 'media' here, media being cons, or jews, whatever cabals, and many irish snapping up the 'free land'. That continued here and there in patches into early 1900's as a couple other waves continued in, also furthered by the cons here. They were able to squat and use and sell later or pass on to further spawn, and for that matter, who are the people putting up housing developments and apartments even now, as we're drowning.

Another thing to note, is some of irish arent who people assume. Though most whites are mixed, there are some irish that are cons, businesses, or politics, or legal biz etc, can also search irish gangs, though quite a bit has been tamped now in searches. Maybe look around, notice irish names, see what people do. Anyway example, could ask what's was supposed media doing advertising for irish –

<https://irishamericancivilwar.com/2016/12/03/hard-graft-grasshoppers-irish-homesteaders-in-1870s-nebraska>

It's not as if it were for business per se, as there wasn't much here yet, and only had to 'improve the land for five years' to have it. Putting up a shack for a hundred acres sounds a deal, or con, for cons, generations of cons. Of course wasn't only nebraska but many places over the seventy years or so the cons were handing land around.

That's not to say there weren't other whites or some irish here in uncomfortable situations, and most whites today should see situations now as slavery bound, and worse, and of course make effort to share what we know, the point is questioning.

Appreciate the article.

“Decimate’ does not mean what you think it means.”

Here’s the definition I found:

“Kill, destroy, or remove a large percentage or part of.

“The project would decimate the fragile wetland wilderness”

The Plantations (stealing Irish land), white slavery (stealing Irish children and adults), the Irish Potato Famine (starving the Irish people when food WAS plentiful) – and you say they weren’t decimated? If anyone is worthy of a museum, it’s these people.

There is one other aspect of slavery involving poor whites. Slavery of whites involved businesses who owned company housing and the “company store”.

Quite often, whites who managed to gain employment with these primarily jew-owned businesses were indebted to the “company” as store prices and company housing “rents” were purposely inflated to keep the employee (and his family) from leaving.

Wages were never commensurate with expenses. This was all by design.

This insured a more stable workforce at the employee’s expense. Those who wanted to leave employment were presented with a bill for unpaid “debts”. Legal action was always threatened which almost always discouraged the employee from leaving. It was difficult to “break the cycle” of permanent “bondage”.

Slavery of whites was much more subtle but was a reality in previous times.

We are seeing a microcosm of wage slavery with the present-day experimental “vaxx” mandates that some businesses are using, threatening loss of employment for those employees refusing to take the “jab”...

The SPLC and ADL are evil Jewish organizations that strive to cover the utter brutality of the Jew in history by painting it with a coat of the holocaust. They run the USA and any negative mention of them, or denial of the holocaust numbers results in one's life being destroyed. I have no doubt they were the ringleaders of American slavery, and now work full time to hide that truth. They consistently point the finger at Whites, and encourage black violence against Whites in an attempt to further cover their tracks. More information like this article needs to come to light so the truth of slavery can finally be told.

Under Cromwell, during the fourth Plantation in the 1600's (where English and Scottish planters were brought in to replace the Irish peasant farmers), the following occurred:

“The plantation began with an Act of Settlement, which listed all of those who would have their lands confiscated. These were then ordered to go ‘to Hell or to Connaught’. Parliament then ordered over 30,000 soldiers who had surrendered to be deported from Ireland. Up to 50,000 widows and orphans were sold into slavery in the Caribbean and all Priests were executed.”

To do this sort of thing you need to define 'slavery' which naturally wasn't done.

Because: are modern jobs slavery? Yes.

If you can sell 8 hours a day, why can't you sell 24 hours a day? What's the difference? There's only a difference of degree, not of kind.

The thirteenth amendment didn't ban slavery. It banned freedom of association. It banned the alienation an alienable product. It arrogated some of your property to the government. It was a tax, not a liberation.

See also: sharecroppers lived exactly like slaves but with extra hassle and expenses. It accomplished nothing.

See also: England – before 1861 – got rid of 13th "slavery" without having a war. Instead of bullying the slave-owners, it bought the slaves. Honourable and responsible instead of an irresponsible, dishonourable surprise attack.

See further: "But slaves couldn't quit." I'm told having to quit your job instead of being vaxxed is being 'forced' to be vaxxed. Americans still can't quit.

They got rid of the few de jure slaves so you wouldn't notice you're a de facto slave, along with everyone else they can get their hands on.

Even further: "It's not slavery if you get to choose which slave-owner in which industry to enslave yourself to." Umm....about that....

Even more: "public" school. "It's not slavery if we're forcing you to do something nobody would pay for."

Work for pay, voluntarily engaged in, which automatically proves someone thinks its valuable: degrading, demeaning.

Meaningless work, no pay, compulsory: vital to the human soul.

No wait I mean vital to justifying teacher union money laundering. Sorry, I get those confused all the time, as I'm well-schooled. Got a great education; you can tell because it cost the taxpayer $200,000 and cost me like $40,000, not including lost leisure time. displaced wages, stress and misery.

Basically if this is the alternative, I'm pro-slavery. Legalize the daylights outta that nonsense.

P.S. America isn't and has never been about freedom. Slavery went from mandatory to forbidden. Fun fact: there's a third option. Neither of the previous two are freedom.
See also also: divorce. Lifetime monogamy went from mandatory to forbidden. Bzzt, fail.

Supposedly, the tradition was to burn them on completion of the term, but still, at least some would surely have survived.

Actually I'm the legitimate monarch of the entire world.

However, I was usurped.

There would be geneology to prove that I'm descended from the Omega King but the tradition was to burn the family tree every four generations or so.

Also the records of an Omega King existing were deliberately destroyed, along with all references. Tradition, you see.

By 'me' I of course refer to the specific text box on your monitor or phone displaying these letters you're reading right now.

P.P.S. I forgot the most important part.

Is taxation slavery?

Even more than your job, you can't quit taxation.

“But it's not 24 hours of your labour.” Right, so if you were a slave for 80 hours a week you wouldn't be a slave?

Why are slaves whipped? Because they can't leave. Whipping is the lazy way to motivate someone who can't decline poor work conditions.

Why are tax-evaders, metaphorically speaking, whipped?

What's this 'history' of white slavery? (P.P.P.S. Who only think in black and white?) There's plenty of part-time piecemeal slavery right now.

If Irish and other white European female slaves or indentures were forcibly bred with black men, the genetic footprint of this practice should still be able to be found in the mitochondrial DNA of contemporary American blacks. With all of the DNA testing being done, someone should already be in possession of the data.

If this happened, we don't know because we are not being told, not because no one knows.

Completely wrong. What the Constitution actually says is:

Representatives and direct Taxes shall be apportioned among the several States which may be included within this Union, according to their respective Numbers, which shall be determined by adding to the whole Number of free Persons, including those bound to Service for a Term of Years, and excluding Indians not taxed, three fifths of all other Persons. At the end of the day, the hub-bub of black slavery comes down to the pathology of dis'rispek, on par with scuffing one of their tennis shoes, or asking for payment on a retail item.

A white guy would react with passive bemusement if you could prove that this ancestors was some sweatshop plantation peasant a century or two ago. There's no humiliation. There's no sense of generational embarrassment.

As an aside, non-whites surely view things like country music to be no more than slave field songs for white people, what with the lyrics about the blue collar workin' men, agriculture, life of anti-luxury etc.

Again, to browns, this is all weird. Anyone individual or race that doesn't want to climb the ranks and be a drug lord is a sucker, I guess.

Cit: “They came in like slaves: a human cargo carried by British ships on the road to America. They were sent from Ireland, hundreds of thousands of men, women, and even the youngest children. Whenever they rebelled, they were punished in the harshest manner. Slaveholders would hang them or lay their hands and feet on fire, as one of the forms of punishment. Some are burnt alive, and their heads are left on spears on the slave market, as a warning to other prisoners. We know very well the crimes of African slave trade. But the African slave has written and spoken a lot about the Irish slave?”

King James VI and Charles I continued to enslave Irish. Cromwell has deepened this practice of dehumanizing his neighbours. In Ireland, slave trade began when James VI sold 30,000 Irish prisoners as slaves to the New World. His Proclamation from 1625 has enabled the sale of Irish political prisoners abroad, as well as sales them to English immigrants in Western India. By the mid-1600s, the Irish were the main slaves sold in Antigua and Montserrat. At that time, 70% of the total population of Montserrat were Irish slaves. Ireland soon became the largest source of human cattle for English merchants. Most of the early slaves in the New World were actually WHITES.

From 1641 to 1652, more than 500,000 Irish were murdered by the English and another 300,000 sold into slaves. The Irish population fell from around 1,500,000 to 600,000 in a decade. Families collapsed because the British did not allow Irish fathers to take their wives and children with them across the Atlantic. This led to the helpless population, homeless women and children. The British solution was to sell them at auctions.

During the 1650s, over 100,000 Irish children aged 10 to 14 years were taken away from their parents and sold as slaves to West Indies, Virginia, and New England. In the same decade, 52,000 Irish (mainly women and children) were sold to Barbados and Virginia. Another 30,000 Irish men and women were transported and sold to the best bidder. In 1656. Cromwell ordered those 2,000 Irish children to be driven to Jamaica and sold as slaves to English immigrants.

Many people still avoid calling the Irish slaves what they really were: slaves. They will conditionally call them “indentured servants” to describe what happened to the Irish. However, in most cases from the 17th and 18th centuries, Irish slaves were nothing more than human cattle.”

Cit: “As an example, African slave trade has just begun in that same period. It is well noted that African slaves were much more expensive than Irish, even up to ten times, and they were often treated far better than their Irish counterparts. African slaves on the market were valued during the late 1600-es, £50 sterling and the Irish slaves were no more than £5 sterling. If Irish slaves have been beaten to death on plantations, it has never been a crime. The death of Irish goods was only a financial loss, but far cheaper than killing more expensive African slaves.

The English masters soon began breeding Irish women for their own personal enjoyment and for greater profits. Even if an Irish woman somehow gets her freedom, her children will remain slaves to their master. Thus, the Irish mothers, even with this newly acquired emancipation, will rarely abandon their children and remain in slavery.

Over time, the English have come up with a better way to use Irish women to increase their market profits: The settlers have begun to cross Irish women and girls (even younger than 12) with African people and thus produce slaves with a lighter shade. These new “mulat” slaves had a higher price than the Irish “livestock”, and also made it possible for English settlers to save money rather than buy new African slaves.

This practice of crossing Irish women with African peoples lasted for several decades, and was so widespread that in 1681, a regulation banned the practice of mating Irish slaves and African slaves for the purpose of making slaves for sale. In short, it was stopped only because it impeded the earnings of large slave carrier companies that brought slaves from Africa.

England continued to ship ships of tens of thousands of Irish slaves for more than a century. The records state that after the Irish uprising in 1798, thousands of Irish slaves were sold to both America and Australia. There were terrible abuses of both African and Irish prisoners. A British ship threw 1302 slaves into the Atlantic Ocean, so the crew had enough food to eat.

In 1839, Britain finally decided to end its own participation in the slave transportation. Although their decision did not prevent pirates from doing what they wanted, the new law slowly concluded this chapter of Irish misery.

But if someone believes that slavery was just an African experience, then he is completely wrong. Irish slavery really existed, but it was wiped out of our memory. But why is this so rarely discussed? Does the memory of hundreds of thousands of Irish victims deserve more than just to be mentioned in a comment like this? Or their story was the one the English teachers wanted: to completely disappear, as if it had never happened.

None of the Irish victims ever returned to their homeland to describe their tribulations. These are the lost slaves, who have been completely forgotten over time due to the biased books of history.”

Indians and Sri Lankans were also kidnapped/cheated into slavery under guise of “indentured labourers”

Nobody was kidnapped, this is pure B.S. such practices would have been easily possible by a Mughal Government but not by a British Imperial Government of its time.

Indian migrants were brought to a magistrate’s office, where the emigration agreement is read to them, and, if they assent, is executed. They then proceeded from their district to the depot at Calcutta or Madras, where the conditions of service are again explained to them, and they were always at liberty to withdraw if they wished. The system of indenture imposed obligations and conferred rights both on employer and labourer. The penalties which either employer or labourer incurred for violation of the terms are set out in the agreement which the emigrant signed. The period of contract of an Indian emigrant who emigrated under the safeguards of the indenture system was mere five years.

A committee on this issue were impressed by the independent evidence as to the care and consideration with which employers generally treated their Indian labourers, but made a series of recommendations which were given careful consideration.

Indians went to the Caribbean because blacks after given freedom from slavery turned out too lazy and incompetent. Native Americans in the interior were more competent than blacks but were found “too proud” to work. Thus more industrious, hardworking and smarter Indian labourers had to be brought in. A few Chinese went too who were found even more industrious and hard working than Indians. Indian labourers were sent to Fiji as the natives were again lazy and incompetent. Indians have now taken over the economies of many Caribbean countries and the blacks screech and scream for being left behind and commit loads of crimes against Indians especially “muh dicking.” Indeed in Guyana or Trinidad, I do not remember, influenced by the Indian Independence Movement, the Indians there started an anti-colonial movement against Britain while Blacks supported continuation of British Rule to protect them against the more smarter and entrepreneurial Asian Indians. But now Indians run most businesses. similarly in Fiji, the native Fijians do not like Indian domination of their economy and one Fijian George Spreit even took over the country by a failed coup to kick all Asian Indians out.

The best way to forget history is to rewrite it. And in the rewriting, to carefully delete references to any historical events or circumstances we find uncomfortable.

This piece started well, and could have been quite a respectable essay if it had continued in the same vein. Mr. Romanoff might have explored the current trend of shaping history books so as to erase parts which some currently powerful politician doesn't like.

But no, the thing quickly disintegrated into a hopeless mess.

The historical record tells us that "American slave-owners quickly began breeding the white women for both their own personal pleasure and for greater profit", but this expression denies a brutal truth.

Is Mr. Romanoff or any of the white peckerheads here on record of deploring the same forced breeding on a 1000x scale when it happened to black women?

This practice of interbreeding White females with African men became so long-term and widespread that legislation was passed forbidding the practice because this production of offspring interfered with the profits of a large Jewish slave trader.

I doubt of Author Romanoff can provide evidence for this in terms of the "long-term" and "widespread" claims. Maybe there is a diary of a pervert or two in existence somewhere, but notice the non-existent "documentation" for stuff like this.

My own viewpoint? US Americans learned from the masters – the UK Brits. You'll have to scour the history books to find more "long-term" and "widespread" barbarism than done by the latter bunch. It wasn't just the Irish they mistreated so badly, it was Everyone They Could Get Their Bloody Hands On.

So-called White Slavery at least had one benefit, it didn't have the side effect of filling the continent with problematic subsaharan Africans which later you could not get rid of. Yeah, I know, some people don't like the Irish too, but besides liking their drink they're not that bad.

Unfortunately, slavery has always existed and in some ways, it still does, only under other names. For all races.

I've a great opportunity for you, Sierra.

Exactly the same thing is happening today as happened in Ireland during the famine years. The planet can't support 8 billion people, the US enforced "free trade" and "new markets" and "Cheap Asian labor that will do for a nickel what a . . ." is dying (autarky, don't you know), and the situation is going to get much worse as Europe is either deindustrialized by the end of cheap Russian resources or leaves the US system to ally with the Russian Federation and avoid the poverty/warfare that the US is imposing on it.

So: What, exactly, are you going to do about it? What the English landlords should have done, maybe? Go bankrupt feeding the hungry, so that they can have more children when you cannot? Beggar your neighbors with taxes to support people who aren't even distantly related to you? Tell you children how morally superior you are because you care about strangers but not them?

The US rescued quite a few Irish by providing them with a living. Same with the Polish, who also had a potato famine at the same time, from the same micro-organism. The reward was the New Deal, the immigrant/ethnic party which worked for WW II, became an ethnic tyranny, and then de-industrialized the US in order to win the Cold War, and is now trying to finish off what's left with "wokeness" and its hatred of "abelism". Not much of a reward, more like a punishment for the existing US population throughout the process. And now Obama's Democratic Party is repeating the process with his ethnic group reinforced by a new group of immigrants.

I, myself, have been rewarded quite enough, thank you. No more of this.

Irish slavery was morally acceptable because according to the scientists of that time red-haired Irish had absolutely nothing to do with Whites. They were considered at least as far from normal Whites as African Blacks were. They were also measured as low on the IQ scale or even lower. Like the Blacks who were sold to Whites by other more intelligent, more human Blacks, Catholic Irish were sold to the English by quite close related Kelts like the Orangists of Bekfast. Irish Catholics were considered as Hamites, while the Anglo-Saxons proper entertained the idea they were lost tribes of Israel.

Articles like this have one of two goals: either to paint the 13 colonies as evil from the start, or second, to portray Southern whites as mostly descended from criminals, vagrants, and orphans whose extended families were so degenerate or poor as to be unable to care for them.

To accomplish such rhetorical tasks the writers cast so wide a net as to become ridiculous. For example, they are not specific about geography, implying that what happened on West Indian sugar islands was typical of North American plantations. Thousands of Irish were in fact deported to Barbados, where a remnant of their descendants incapable of rising economically still reside, the Red Legs. More truthful history recognizes that Irish slavery in Barbados was a brief interval based on removing rebels from Ireland, and that African slavery followed.

Another trope is portraying the colonies as a society of masters and slaves without a middle-class. Nothing could be further from the truth. Land was readily available upon which to base a life of economic self-improvement. At the time of the American Revolution, the average married couple produced four surviving children in England but eight in the 13 Colonies, hardly evidence for the absence of a rising middle-class. One of the reasons that the Americans struggled so hard for Independence was that they knew they were better off than the average Briton under the caste system there.

Then if the writer is going full bore for historical misrepresentation, he will claim that the estimable Scots-Irish mostly came to the Colonies as indentured servants. This is entirely false. Most Scots-Irish came as whole families, indeed often as whole Presbyterian congregations led by their minister. An underclass of indentured servants would never have had the cohesion necessary to drive Cornwallis's army from the Carolinas. Successful completion of that task required active and effective militia participation, e.g., Musgrove's Mill, Kings Mountain, Shallow Ford, Blackstock's Plantation, Cowpens, Guilford Courthouse, Eutaw Springs, which was possible precisely because the Scots-Irish militias were composed of family members, neighbors, and squads from the same church and thus were highly cohesive and tenacious.

Sheesh! This all sounds a lot worse than we were taught in Catholic grade school back in the mid-50's. They told us it was just contracted work of all sorts and a smart, efficient way to populate the new world. I guess even the Irish nuns didn't know their own history. Back then white "slavery" in Europe was basically portrayed as Russian serfs, but they were bound to the land regardless of who owned it, and they shared in the crops produced. They certainly were not shipped off to overseas colonies. Drafted into the Tsar's army? Supposedly. But hardly any found their way to Amerika to be exploited like draft animals. Probably the largest contingent of white slaves were captured by Vikings and sold to Arabs in the Middle East, as concubines if you were a woman, and as castrated eunuchs if you were a man, with none of today's Trans privileges. Things were much worse in antiquity for the very commonplace slaves throughout Europe, notably in classical Greece, Rome, Germania and Judea.

I largely agree with your criticisms of Mr. Romanoff's rhetoric. However, it should be recognized that believing that coercion was typically required to get a female slave to copulate with a white man does not fit the known female behavioral tendency of hypergamy. Any white male who has been active during the Sexual Revolution can easily have noticed that black females were quite eager for his attention.

1600 vs. 1632, this is only a round-off of the year in question.

Everything else is correct about this minor point which is not disputed by the source you quoted. Furthermore, the inaccuracy is inconsequential to his argument, assuming Britannica is even correct.

In no way does it warrant the tone and scope of your rebuttal! Not really sure what the point of nitpicking is, just write your own correcting article if you must.

What transpired during the 1800's was Ireland losing agricultural produce and then civilians – a Blow from which Ireland has still not recovered. Ireland 1800's – Ukraine today ??

Under the common thread of a steadfast disenfranchisement of a narrative population from their land, Ukraine is less of a good example (where the Russians don't consider them as sub-human, as the British did the Irish), than Israel where the plight of the Palestinians is an almost direct parallel to the Irish victimization.

Minus the mass deportations (or worse) which are surely now in the works.

Same goes for Scots-Irish, as explained in former Virginia Senator Jim Webb's book "Born Fighting." While the majority were indentured (the ol' "forty acres and a mule" deal, in Appalachia of course), there were white slaves among this group as well.

Not so. The majority of Scots-Irish immigrants paid their passages to North America. The vast majority came as families, groups of extended families, or Presbyterian congregations led by ordained ministers. Few came as single indentured persons.

The first area of Scots-Irish settlement was in east-central Pennsylvania where entire new towns were founded, e.g., Carlisle and Easton.

<https://philadelphiaencyclopedia.org/essays/scots-irish/>
From the Encyclopedia of Greater Philadelphia:

... Pennsylvania's Scots Irish were a socioeconomically diverse immigrant group from a variety of class, occupational, and educational backgrounds. While many did settle on the Pennsylvania frontier, many others did not; not all Scots Irish were country bumpkins and gun-toting ruffians. Many Scots Irish individuals and families, who ranged in status from impoverished indentured servants, to middling shopkeepers and traders, to wealthy Atlantic World merchants and professional men, made their homes in urban Philadelphia and its hinterlands and in other, smaller interior Pennsylvania towns such as Carlisle, Easton, Bedford, and Pittsburgh. They did not farm, but traded, retailed goods or services, practiced professions or trades, or labored as servants. And while some did live in log cabins, many others resided in stylish stone and brick homes where they enjoyed the kind of cosmopolitan lifestyle that other elite Americans did, albeit with a Scot-Irish emphasis on family, church, and education.

If Jim Webb wrote what you quoted, then he is a lousy researcher and historian.

Very excellent article. This reminds us of the current situation in the Ukraine. Millions upon millions of white people pushed out of their once developed nation to other parts of Europe/west.

Their jew president with huge khazarian backings and Bandera/Neonazi mimicking a weird version of Ukrainian ultra-nationalism etc. It's amazing how these confused Ukrainians will end up being slaves in the near future if not already. Lucky are those 3 millions that made it to Russia during these years.

Mr. Romanoff,

I would like to inquire about the epigraphic photo that accompanies this article. By whom are the photos chosen? By Mr. Unz or an employee of his, or by the author?

I ask because the photo above is disingenuous. By the children's clothing, it was taken in the early 20th century; therefore it implies that white slavery continued into that period.

The children could easily have been on my paternal grandfather's subsistence farm in North Alabama where my father was born in a log house in 1902. Not long before my father's death at 86, I asked him what the transition was like between working 10 years on the farm (ages 11-21) and entering the urban work force in Birmingham, where by the way he rose to be the general manager of a large local business.

Unhesitatingly, he replied, "It was like going from being free to being a slave. On the farm I had control of my work." That was generally true even of tenant farmers, who unlike my grandfather were not landowners. Extending the label of slavery to tenant farming is invalid. Even indentured servitude had the potential for advancement if the servant had a strong work ethic. One of my great-great-grandfathers was bound out to a saddler when he became an orphan at age 8. He learned that trade and practiced it well enough to accumulate greater than average wealth in the first half of the 19th century.

Every person on this planet is owned as a slave by their gov't.

That most don't recognize this for what it is can only be attributed to miseducation and propoganda being very effective.

Taxation is legalized theft, done so by the 'laws' that determine legality created by the thieves. Why people can't understand this after being informed of it as I've just done can only show how thoroughly brainwashed the masses are.

The period of contract of an Indian emigrant who emigrated under the safeguards of the indenture system was mere five years.

I didn't notice that any were sent back. Tamils in Malaysia in the 2000's were demanding a million pounds each from the British Crown and to be repatriated back to Sri Lanka but the Crown declined. I thought Larry explained how illiterate Whites were also cheated by these indenture "contracts". Are you saying that indenture of subcons was markedly different and more humane than that of Whites?

The great problem with discussing any of this is that to do so means you are talking how evil WASPs are. You are talking about WASPs (which until revamped for propaganda) means Wealthy Anglo-Saxon Protestant. It is a tribal designation that is based on pagan Germanic concepts that feature class; the WASP Is not just the person with some Anglo-Saxon blood who speaks English and is Protestant. The WASP is elite in some form and therefore is part of a ruling class over large numbers of whites who are the ones required to row the pirate ships.

That pattern has never changed and never will. WASP culture in charge means the kind nasty exploitation of the vast majority of whites that took place In Ireland and Scotland. Most of the time, it is not about war to slaughter into utter submission. Most of the time it is about using economic strangulation to keep the white trash surviving to serve the WASP class.

Jews became the logical partners because Anglo-Saxon Puritan successful Revolution had bankrupted the Commonwealth. Loans from Jews saved it. So it then became and forever since has remained Anglo-Zionist Empire. WASP Empire is Anglo-Zionist Empire.

Michael Hoffman sees all of that, but most who realize his work is important are still bound to the lie that they must promote WASP culture in order to somehow stop the Jews or the blacks. Jews are allies of WASPs and blacks are their street level goons. Until you see that, you are blind, and your efforts always rebound against your desires.

That was a leftover from British colonial rule, which in the most important sense actually never ended in Canada. People who needed farm labor, or at times logging or even small mine labor or sticking shelves and cleaning, would buy such orphans. They were not adopted for love of family, and that was not on the adopting families. They too were poor and easily ground into dust by the WASP system. They required cheap labor to maximize survival. So the easiest way was to adopt an orphan or two and work them even harder than their own children were worked.

And the propaganda that still wants that buried is the same propaganda that is itching to promote any lie that Catholic orphanages murdered no telling how many children, especially Indian children.

Anglo-Zionism is the heart of the problem.

And you can bet that every auction, there were paid actors for the Government whose job was to drive down the prices. The Yankee or Saxon trader historically has the same reputation as the Jewish trader: lying cheat of the worst sort.

Unless you've met a Muslim or a Bantu, of course. Or heard of the Comanche. Or the Aztecs. Or read the Old Testament. Or...

It was Poles (and at times Germanics) , not Russians, who were the white Christians who treated Ukrainians as nearly subhuman. That is the reason that Stepan Bandera, the WW2 era founder of a type of Ukrainian Nazism, hated Poles far more than he hated any ethnic group. Russians saw Ukrainians always as what they are: rural western Russians, with an archaic dialect made a bit stranger by forced Polishisms, whose lands were often overrun and ruled brutally by non-Rus, Turks more than Poles.

Bandera's simplistic thinking meant that his hatred of Poles led him to forget what Germanic peoples had done to Ukrainians every time they ruled any part of the Ukraine, so he could ally with Nazis against Bolsheviks. And it also meant that he ignored the grave problem of so many Ukrainians supporting Bolshevism, which included the fact that a higher percentage of Ukrainians than of Great Russians had been Old Bolsheviks. That's why the USSR kept taking from from the Russian Soviet Socialist Republic to give to the Ukrainian Soviet Socialist Republic, which is how those insane borders the US/UK imposed on Russia in 1991 came to be.
