Mike Whitney – Bidenova administrativa je odhodlána vyprovokovat Čínu v otázce Tchaj-wanu. Bílý dům nyní věří, že musí zaujmout agresivnější přístup k Číně, aby omezil svůj rozvoj a zachoval si roli Ameriky jako regionálního hegemona. Ironií postupu Washingtonu je však skutečnost, že desítky tisíc amerických korporací uprchly z USA během posledních 3 desetiletí, aby využily čínskou málo placenou pracovní sílu. Ve skutečnosti – podle Registration China – je nyní na pevninské Číně registrováno více než 1 milion zahraničních společností, z nichž mnohé jsou vlastněny Američany. Tyto korporace jsou z velké části zodpovědné za raketový ekonomický vzestup Číny ve stejném časovém období. Moje otázka na vás je tedy tato: Proč je Čína obviňována a cílem explozivního růstu, za který jsou zodpovědné hlavně americké korporace? Nebo nesouhlasíte s mojí analýzou?

Paul Craig Roberts – Vaše otázka je opravdu několik. Vaše otázka sama o sobě identifikuje hlavní nebo převažující důvod, proč Washington ustupuje od politiky jedné Číny, která platí od roku 1972 – čínské hrozby pro hegemonii USA. Neokonzervativci, kteří dominují zahraniční politice USA, jejímž hlavním účelem je podle jejich slov zabránit vzestupu dalších zemí s dostatečnou mocí omezovat americký unilateralismus, nyní čelí Číně i Rusku jako hrozbám pro hegemonii USA. Ruským trestem je konflikt na Ukrajině, sankce, rakety na jejich hranicích a vyhození plynovodů Nord Stream. Cílem je izolovat Rusko od Evropy a postavit Kremlu dostatečné problémy, aby se Moskva nedostala z cesty Washingtonu. Stejně jako USA porušily dohodu s Ruskem o nerozšiřování NATO a odstoupily od dohod uzavřených během studené války, které sloužily ke snížení napětí, Washington nyní směřuje k odmítnutí politiky jedné Číny, protože již neslouží zájmům Washingtonu.

V roce 1972 po studené válce a válce ve Vietnamu mělo uvolnění napětí s Čínou strategický smysl. Existence Sovětského svazu vylučovala jakoukoli představu o americké hegemonii.

Neokonzervativci získali svou představu o americké hegemonii o dvě desetiletí později, když se Sovětský svaz v roce 1991 zhroutil. Tehdy panoval názor, že Jelcinovo Rusko není pro dominanci USA žádný problém a potrvá desetiletí, než bude Čína dostatečně silná, aby se postavila Washingtonu do cesty. . Jak ale zdůrazňujete ve své otázce, offshoring americké výroby do Číny rychle proměnil Čínu v ekonomickou velmoc a zároveň značně snížil ekonomickou zdatnost

USA. Nešlo ani tak o to, že americké korporace odešly samy a hledaly vyšší zisky z nižších mzdových nákladů, jako spíš o to, že je tlačila Wall Street, která hrozila financováním převzetí, aby využila příležitosti nižších nákladů. Rychlý vzestup Číny byl zkrátka výsledkem Wall Street a korporátní chamtivosti, za kterou Čína nenese odpovědnost.

Američtí neoliberální ekonomové vysvětlovali offshoring pracovních míst ve výrobě v USA jako fungování volného obchodu, z něhož by Amerika těžila. Byli to dva miliardářští podnikatelé, jeden Američan a jeden Angličan, americký textilní magnát Roger Milliken a britský finančník Sir James Goldsmith, kteří zpochybnili neoliberální ospravedlnění rozdávání výroby. Určitě mě přiměli o tom přemýšlet, a jakmile jsem to udělal, bylo zřejmé, že offshoring pracovních míst ve výrobě nemá nic společného s volným obchodem. Ekonomové se vymaní z vymývání mozků stejně těžko jako věřící ve vyprávění o 11. září, „vakcíně“ mRNA a zbraním hromadného ničení Saddáma Husajna. Debatoval jsem s předními zastánci offshoringu, kteří tvrdili, že je to bonanza volného obchodu, přičemž Wall Street Journal výrazně uváděl mou debatu s Jagdishem Bhagwatim, Univerzitní profesorem ekonomie, práva a mezinárodních vztahů na Kolumbijské univerzitě. Před deseti lety moje kniha, Selhání kapitalismu Laissez Faire přesvědčivě prokázalo, že přemístění americké výroby do zahraničí bylo pro americkou ekonomiku nesmírně škodlivé, ale to vše bylo bez účinku. Došel jsem k závěru, že američtí ekonomové byli všichni koupeni Wall Street jako „poradci“ nebo žili z výzkumných grantů od offshoringových korporací a produkovali zdůvodnění offshoringové politiky. Zkrátka Amerika přišla o výrobu kvůli Wall Street a neoliberálním ekonomům. Prezident Donald Trump pochopil, že Ameriku poškodila ztráta výroby. Byl to Trump, kdo začal obviňovat Čínu. Trump bez kompetentních poradců spojoval velký čínský obchodní deficit Ameriky s nekalými čínskými praktikami, a ne s tím, že polovinu amerického obchodního deficitu (když jsem se díval naposledy) připadá na offshore produkci amerických korporací uváděných na trh v USA. Zboží vstupuje do USA jako dovoz. Trumpův sklon obviňovat Čínu namísto Wall Street a amerických ekonomů byl posílen obviněním z Russiagate, podle nichž Trump pracuje v ruském zájmu. Být tvrdý vůči Číně byl způsob, jak ukázat, že Trump hájí americké zájmy.

Abychom to shrnuli, čínský trest za vytěsnění USA jako asijského hegemonu je problém s Tchaj-wanem. Trump otevřel dveře svým neokonzervativním nepřátelům tím, že obvinil Čínu z toho, za co mohou Wall Street a neoliberální ekonomové.

Hrozbu Washingtonu vůči faktu jedné Číny považují za šílenou – ještě šílenější než provokace Ruska. Čínská pevnina a Tchaj-wan procházejí hospodářskou integrací. Neexistuje způsob, jak to USA zastavit. Navíc neexistuje žádná vyhlídka, že by Čína umožnila Tchaj-wanu stát se americkou vojenskou základnou o nic víc, než by se Rusko vzdalo Krymu.

Mike Whitney – Novinář Ben Norton naznačuje, že velké americké banky a Wall Street mohou být příčinou toho, že Washington dělá z Tchaj-wanu problém. Čínský finanční systém je do značné míry socializovaný a používá se k financování reálné ekonomiky namísto spekulací s finančními aktivy. Americké banky chtějí přenést hazardní kasino do Číny a nemohou. Myslíte si, že by Washington mohl využívat Tchaj-wan k nátlaku na Čínu, aby pustila Wall Street?

Paul Craig Roberts – Bezpochyby hlavní příčinou nebezpečně rostoucího napětí mezi Washingtonem a Ruskem a Čínou a také Íránem je úspěch, kterého neokonzervativci dosáhli při prosazování hegemonie jako prvořadého cíle americké zahraniční politiky. Samozřejmě, aby neokonzervativní ideologie měla trakci, musí sloužit mocným ekonomickým zájmům. Napětí s Ruskem a Čínou jednoznačně slouží materiálním zájmům vojensko-bezpečnostního komplexu. Hegemonie spolu s rolí rezervní měny dolaru také slouží dominanci amerických bank. Ale americká zahraniční politika by nezvýšila napětí s Čínou pouze kvůli americkým bankám. Napětí s Čínou je skutečně nebezpečné pro mnoho amerických korporací, jejichž výroba sídlí v Číně. Tyto firmy by mohly být snadno znárodněny nebo by mohly být zamítnuty vývozní licence. Pokud USA mohou porušit mezinárodní právo, může to udělat i Čína. Napětí s Čínou je také nebezpečné pro trh státních dluhopisů a směnnou hodnotu amerického dolaru. Pokud by Čína uvolnila své držby amerického dluhu na dluhopisovém trhu, Federální rezervní systém by musel tisknout peníze, kterými by dluhopisy splatil, aby se cena nezhroutila. Pokud by však Čína poté vyhodila dolary ze splácení dluhopisů na měnovém trhu, Federální rezervní systém nemůže tisknout cizí měny, za které by dolary nakoupil, a směnná hodnota dolaru by klesla, což by zvýšilo cenu dovozu, který byl nutný offshoringem americké výroby. a dovoz potravin, čímž se zhoršuje inflace v USA a snižuje se životní úroveň USA. Nepřátelství neokonzervativců vůči Rusku a Číně rozhodně není v americkém zájmu. V čínském případě jsou to americké korporace a americký dolar, které toto nepřátelství činí zranitelnými, nikoli Čína. V ruském případě je to Evropa, kdo trpí nepřátelstvím, nikoli Rusko. To, čeho neokonzervativci dosahují, je opakem jejich cílů. Jejich politika uvaluje náklady na Evropany, nikoli na Rusko, a Evropané budou nesnášet utrpení, které jim bylo vystaveno. Přestože všechny evropské vlády spolu s evropskými novináři dostávají, jak mi před lety řekl náměstek ministra obrany pro mezinárodní bezpečnostní záležitosti, plný pytel peněz za zastupování zájmů Washingtonu (které podle mých zkušeností mají jen zřídka něco společného se zájmy Američanů), dříve nebo později evropské národy dojdou k poznání, že „jejich“ vlády zastupují Washington, nikoli oni. Lidé budou hodně trpět, než se těžkosti stanou nesnesitelnými. V tu chvíli, pokud lidé nebyli zabiti „vakcínami“ a vypuštění patogeny nebo v jaderné válce, přichází gilotina a vlády padají.

Mike Whitney – Kritická infrastruktura Ameriky jde do rukou psů. Silnice jsou plné výmolů, letiště dělají ostudu a ročně vykolejí přes tisíc vlaků. Mezitím stále větší část čistého příjmu země připadá miliardářům, kteří již mají více jachet a prázdninových domů, než mohou spočítat. Byli byste proti tomu, aby Bidenova administrativa rozšířila olivovou ratolest do Pekingu tím, že se připojíte k čínskému plánu infrastruktury v řádu bilionů dolarů, iniciativě Belt and Road, abychom mohli spolupracovat se zahraniční vládou na zásadních opravách okresních silnic, mostů? přístavy a především vysokorychlostní železnice? Je zřejmé, že Číňané vědí, co dělají, a – já bych si představoval – projekt by představoval desítky tisíc pracovních míst pro americké stavební dělníky.

Paul Craig Roberts –Miku, jak víš, považuji tě za jednoho z nejnámavějších lidí naší doby, ale tato otázka je k neuvěření naivní. Za prvé, nezáleží na tom, co bych podpořil já nebo vy, nebo americký lid. Rozhodnutí nekontrolujeme ani neovlivňujeme. To je důvod, proč nakonec dojde k posílení nebo revoluci. Americký lid zvolil Trumpa dvakrát. Poprvé mu elita nedovolila vládnout. Podruhé mu ukradli volby a zabránili jakémukoli vyšetřování krádeže. Kvůli síle peněz v příspěvcích na kampaň od vlastních zájmů, nyní legitimizované Nejvyšším soudem USA, je nemožné v USA zvolit vládu, která slouží zájmům lidu, a pokud se to stane, elita má možnost volby lidí pomocí médií. vlastní.

Za druhé, každý Američan, který navrhne jakkoli spolupracovat s Čínou, bude označen jako „čínský podvodník/agent“. Už jsme to zažili s Ruskem. Prezident Spojených států byl pronásledován svým vlastním ministerstvem spravedlnosti (sic) jako ruský agent jednoduše proto, že chtěl „normalizovat vztahy s Ruskem“. Byl jsem označen za Putina agenta/Dupe webovou stránkou, kterou upřednostnil Washington Post, financovanou nevíme kým, protože jsem poskytl pravdivý a správný popis odpovědnosti neokonzervativců za konflikt na Ukrajině.

Zatřetí, podle moderní monetární teorie je vytváření peněz vládami na financování infrastrukturních projektů, které vedou k vyšší produktivitě nebo snižují náklady podniků, neinflační. Místo toho snižuje výrobní náklady a dělá podniky v dané zemi produktivnějšími a úspěšnějšími v mezinárodní konkurenci. Renovace americké infrastruktury je cíl, kterého můžeme sami snadno dosáhnout. Není vůbec potřeba, aby se USA účastnily infrastrukturních projektů, jako je Belt and Road. To, co by měl Washington udělat, je odstranit bezdůvodné napětí se dvěma rostoucími mocnostmi. Přijměte je a integrujte se s jejich úspěchem. To by prospělo všem a odstranilo by se nebezpečí jaderné války.

Ale kde jsou nějací američtí nebo západní vůdci vize?

In short, China's rapid rise was the result of Wall Street and corporate greed, for which China does not bear responsibility.

There are those G*D* ((Jew)) sharks again.

Is it Satan or the golden calf that keeps these psychopaths animated? The two seem to have merged in the person of the ((Jew)) and its Zoglodyte stooge. They have become One vile creature, to be dispatched into the depths of hell (or at the very least prosecuted for 9/11 and "vaccine" treason).

cause it's done. the indispensable nation is now the indefensible nation and soon to be persona non grata, around the world.

Promise? Seriously though, you're probably right.

From the article:

PCR: The neoconservatives' hostility toward Russia and China is definitely not in America's interest.

Especially since that hostility is extended to America.

In fact, that's where the hostility started. And it has to be admitted that Supremacy Inc. has successfully completed its hostile takeover of the United States. But this has created some unforeseen problems that we'll get to in a moment.

What PCR refers to as neoconservative, I refer to as Supremacy Inc. (having come to realize that the phrase Jewish Supremacy is redundant). And Supremacy Inc. never intended to limit its desire for Full Spectrum Dominance to the United States.

In deed, it couldn't. It would have to extend its power beyond any national interest. But, there's a snake in this garden. Now the problem is this:

Supremacy Inc.'s attempt to impose a social order over the United States that is free of control and sustained by force has only ended up increasing the uncontrolled exercise of naked power.

And it's that force, constantly applied, that is fast undermining Supremacy Inc.'s ability to manage the social institutions its power now controls. This is why PCR was right to use the word insane foreign policy. Because it has actually extended what has already proven to be the maladaptive model of its domestic policy, to its foreign policy, both of which of course are dependent on its economic policy.

Put bluntly, Supremacy Inc.'s Foreign, Domestic, and Economic Policies of Invite The World, Invade The World, In-Debt To The World, is in the process of imploding on itself. Or, to use a phrase it should be familiar with – given its involvement in the events of September 11th, 2001 – the very policies keeping Supremacy Inc. in power are collapsing on their own footprint.

History just might have a Joker up its sleeve yet.

“The readiness is all.”

“All warfare is based on deception.” (Sunzi)

First, you have to ask yourself two simple questions: What do China and its ruling party want? What means are available to achieve their goals?

To achieve its goals, the Chinese Communist Party (CCP) uses two doctrines: The “Three Wars” and “United Front”.

The “Three Wars” doctrine uses psychological warfare to demoralize the enemy; public opinion warfare to shape the hearts and minds of the masses; and legal warfare to use the legal system to deter enemy attacks.

“The United Front doctrine seeks to Eliminate its internal and external enemies

Control groups that could challenge its authority

Build a coalition around the party to serve its interests

Project its influence abroad

The principles of these two doctrines are used by the Chinese regime to expand its influence and infiltration into Western democracies. The very fact that the CCP calls its doctrine “psychological warfare” proves that it is waging a war against the free world without firing a single shot.

On a global issue, Australia is about to be sold out by its “U.S puppet” Albanese government to India with a “free trade agreement” which will see the last of the white population snuffed out by a blanket of Indians being allowed to move freely between both countries for “economic tie” reasons.

This is how the U.S treats its friends for global hegemony, they will throw you under the bus for the one percent who rule in the U.S.

What do the U.S get out of this deal?

The G20 meeting showed you what, an India going cold on the breakaway Russia, China BRICS project.

The U.S is peddling like crazy under the water diplomatically with threats and inducements to pick-off state after state that talk about BRICS membership.

If those playing both sides think it a good idea then think again... once -if the U.S is successful- the game is finished then you will go back to your “Uncle Tom” status.

The people losing are whites because they don't have the numbers that can stand against a coloured tidal wave, but of course the Jewish one percentage point who own the U.S don't give a damn, what gangster does?

Russia's punishment is conflict in Ukraine, sanctions, missiles on their border, and blown up Nord Stream pipelines.

Here he goes again, hitting a new low. The only “punished” in this war of annihilation are Ukrainian civilians, Paul Craig Roberts. If you don't agree with that, just stop writing, stop giving interviews, or even thinking that your opinions still matter. They don't!

The Russian oligarchs want Ukrainian uranium, lithium, oil, gas, titanium and other rare earth metals. They want Ukrainian steel mills, they want Ukrainian MotorSich, KrivorizhStal and other jewels, that's why Putin is not bombing them. If you know this and still whine about sanctions, you are being dishonest.

After World War I Great Britain realized it could no longer afford the large navy that had made it a world power. Over the next several decades the British empire contracted. Before that, there were probably arguments back and forth on whether they should reduce military spending. In the end, those arguments made little difference. Military spending was cut just because they ran out of money. What was going to happen was inevitable.

The U.S. is in the same situation. The federal government has a 31 trillion dollar and rising debt and almost a hundred trillion dollars in future unfunded liabilities. An eventual default is likely and after that it will become difficult to borrow more money. Any attempt at more money printing will be inflationary and will lead to reduced standards of living for the American population. Wages adjusted for inflation have already dropped twenty months in a row. Within a dozen years almost a third of the adult U.S. population will be retired. Among the remaining two thirds, about half of them will be low IQ nonwhites who will be paying little in taxes. Reductions in U.S. military spending and a move to a noninterventionist foreign policy are just inevitable.

China adroitly initiated commercial-interpreting programs in colleges, graduating tens of thousands of specialists who went on to facilitate the shifting of American manufacturing. They sub-specialized in different industries, and advertised their expertise. Then the takeover became easy, even fun. You were met at the airport, driven to a fine hotel, dinner at the best restaurant in town, and then the next day the factory tours and vendor interviews began. About $250 per day per trained consecutive or even simultaneous interpreter, with commercial connections. Smart ladies; it helps to have 300,000 people with an IQ of 160 or above. | contain their development and preserve America's role as regional hegemon

A quick look at a map shows that the US is not located in Asia at all but is thousands of miles away on another continent. It inserted itself into Asia as a result of the Spanish-American war and has been there ever since. Being a hegemonic power is going to become very tenuous now with the rise and development of China. An Asian country becoming the preeminent power in Asia seems rather logical and inevitable. The US at this point appears to be fighting against the relentless march of history.

This is why the situation in Ukraine is so dangerous. Russia is winning, slowly. It's holding back most of its army in reserve to react or deter whatever crazy plots the Poles and Biden team are thinking of. This is why it doesn't take the common sense action of attacking from Belarus to cut off Kiev from the west. Poland might attack Belarus.

Taiwan is watching Ukraine being destroyed after it followed American advice and played tough with a nearby superpower. It has ignored American suggestions for free military aid and basing troops. As Ukraine is destroyed, Taiwan is moving closer to China, its largest trading partner. Better red than dead.

Potential American ally Vietnam sees the same thing. There is big talk about new agreements with the Philippines for new bases. That nation's economy is booming because China is booming. It is packed with Chinese tourists and business ventures. Half of businesses in the Philippines have been run by ethnic Chinese for decades. They will accept millions of dollars in American aid each year to improve its ports and airfields just for signing a piece of paper. But if serious tensions arise and the USA says it will deploy forces to these American built facilities, President Marcos will say no and enjoy a good laugh. He's probably shared this with China.

Jews of the City of London need to control all of the world. They've convinced themselves and all Jews that if they don't have all the money and all the power of the world, another Holocaust will happen. They can't have governments that are not "democratic" because democratic governments are far easier to control/corrupt/coerce than autocracies, esp. ones that are nationalistic like those of China, Russia and Iran.

Meanwhile, of the top 10 countries with the largest oil reserves in the world, only 3 are not under direct or indirect US control – Venezuela, Iran and Russia. (((Washington))) knows that whoever controls all the oil controls the world, because China, Europe, Japan, India and most of the rest of the world are 100% energy dependent. Which is why these 3 countries must be brought under US control, because whoever controls the oil controls China, and China is the once and future gold mine. Europe, India and Japan are already our lap dogs, hence China is the biggest (remaining) threat.

The very fact that the CCP calls its doctrine “psychological warfare” proves that it is waging a war against the free world used by the Chinese regime to expand its influence and infiltration into Western democracies.

Hahaha. What “free world”, moron? Have you been in a time warp? You’re 60 years late. We can’t even avoid being replaced by immigrants, our children are forced to wear masks and turn gay, and 100 billion of our taxes go to corrupt oligarchs in the Ukraine. Some freedom.

Ha again. It’s not the “Chinese regime” who is promoting gay and transgender stuff in the media and in schools for children, pornography for men, and sluttiness/cat lady feminism for women.

Short-term the military industrial complex and the energy companies and BigAg and BigPharma are making huge profits for their Wall Street investors, so the anti Russia and anti-China policies make perfect sense.

Long-term: the investors and their political puppets do not make decisions, in fact CANNOT make decisions, based on long term strategies.

In my opinion the above formulation is accurate and explains everything.

In response to Mike Whitney’s question, PCR wisely responded: “First of all, it makes no difference whatsoever what I would support, or you would support, or the American people would support. We neither control nor influence the decisions. This is why in the end it comes to enserfment or revolution.”

Thanks so much, Dr. Roberts, and am in total agreement.

Btw, either wealthy or poor, “enserfment” is the precise American condition, until my divided nation inevitably enters a bloody revolutionary stage.

My prediction:

Is all planned by International and America’s Supremacist Jews & Shabbos goy neoconservatives, who will likely transform into the saviors & Founding Fathers of what glorious mess emerges.

As the H8 Masonic-Zionist Hegemony have run into a “Massive Barricade that pushes back” in RUS over UKRaine+Sanctions, they’re encountering a “Massive Barricade ready to Snuff Out Insurgencies and Mow Over Containment Blockades” in CHN over Taiwan_Island+HKG+SilkRoad+Sanctions.

Both RUS and CHN can longer be crushed/contained/subjugated/felled by the Hegemony via:

A) Currency/Economic/Trade/Financing/SovereignDebt Venues; nor by

B) Proxy-War/5thColumnColorRevos/Direct_Confrontations.

The major problems for the Hegemony lie on the fact that CHN will provide “Alternative”

Financing+PublicInfrastrureDevelopement+Trading Schemes which won’t be as exploitative as those employed by the Hegemony.

The Grain/PetroU$D/MIC dominance held by the Hegemony over the World since WW2 are diminishing.

IRN(Trading Hydrocarbons for major Non-U$D Currencies, Gold, and Barter), RUS(Insta-~~P~~UB Payment Conversions), and CHN(by their PetroCN¥-Gold and DirectPurchaseSchemes) graduated from the PetroU$D Scheme; and their Hydrocarbon Partners don’t need to buy/carry U$Ds and U$Ds for these Trades.

IRQ are the newest OPEC-GCC Member to Openly Trade with CHN – in CN¥. More are expected to follow suit. As OPEC-GCC Members Trade in CN¥ to CHN and IN₹ to IND, the necessity/influence of the U$D in the Orient will significantly diminish.

These trends are irreversible.

The “Rogue States” of IRN and PRK can not be invaded/felled/ColorRevo’d/Collapsed either. IRN are too large, well equipped with Missiles+Drones, well versed with RUS/CHN/PRK Military Gear. CHN_PLA and PRK_KPA advise IRN as CHN_PLAN Ships make Port Calls in IRN; and IRN+RUS collaborations on Fighter Jet Acquisitions and Drone Licencing are impressive.

PRK – have 8~10Million Troops on Full Activation, Artillery to level Seoul within the Hour, Nukes, ICBMs-that-will-reach-CONUS-probablyDC+NYC, TBMs, Hypersonics, Supersonics, and Cruise Missiles that can reach Taipei. SLBMs imply misery+hardships for Targeted Nation-States crossing PRK’s “RedLines” (I’ll leave it at that – I’m an ex-Naval Officer, so I won’t discuss Specific Strategy+Tactics that can be used against Descendants of friendly Classmates and Shipmates currently Serving).

That would leave Africa, ISR’s Neighborhood, and the Americas vulnerable to the Hegemony. €URoZone De-Industrialized aren’t that great a prize – their “Consumer Influences” have taken a back seat to CHN, IND, and RCEP-Asia’s in Volume. IIRC, PhD Michael Hudson one stated that €Urope will soon become a Cultural Theme Park for Murica the way GB Rittania already are(smh).

My hunches are that the SCO/SilkRoad/RCEP-Asia Trading Blocks will most likely outgrow+”out develop” the H8_Hegemony this Century.

The Hegemony's Plutarchy+VassalOligarchs are facing permanently waning influences over the Orient. Hence the Panic.

Will the H8 resort to "Scorched Earth" Wars against RUS+CHN? Soros have engaged in Regime Change Ops for RUS+CHN+IND. The Jewish Khazar-Ashkenazi Tribal Faction led by Soros/Blinken/Nudelman-Khagan just might start a full War over Russia – ZATOceania are Expendable. RUS+CHN+IND declaring the Soros-Schwartz Faction as a Jewish Diaspora and "Greater Israeli Entity" – therefore making All Jewish Diaspora and Israel Culpable for Soros-Schwartz/Blinken/Nudelman-Khagan/ISW/RAND/Kolomoisky/Zelensky/OtherDiaspora Activities against their States – may get some Tribals motivated to "retire" the Soros Faction.

The Plutarchy+VassalOligarchs can be targeted as well. RUS+CHN+IND declaring them as Targets could curb Brandon, Blinken, Sunak, Macron, von der Leyen, Borrell, and Baerbock's Irrational Enthusiasms.

PS – Trump or De Santis won't solve this from Murica's End...

Excellent perspectives, thank you.

My hunch is that China is a stand-in for Trump to personify his attack on the Deep State. Bannon is doing exactly the same. Bannon recently had a guest on War Room who said China “stole” the jobs that Western financiers shipped over there (and that it was a “war crime”). Both Bannon and Trump surely know America is controlled – financially, politically, and media – by Zionist financiers. But they can’t risk saying that outright, at least not yet. Still, Bannon occasionally drops a reference to the City of London when talking about the Globalists. He must know that is the headquarters of the Rothschild bank, one of the preeminent globalist banks.

<https://warprofiteerstory.blogspot.com/p/war-profiteers-and-israels-bank.html>

And they don’t want to fan the insanely dangerous conflict with Russia (provoked for 20 years by the Zionist financiers controlling America), so they focus on China as a way to manage the anger of their base toward the mysterious Deep State.

They can’t openly talk about the Zionists because of the enormous power the Zionists still have in America. They would risk an onslaught that could potentially cripple their efforts. Trump has the added problem that much of his base are duped Christian Zionists, who would freak out at any revelations of the truth about the Zionists and Israel.

In general, he has to stay within an Overton Window that has been partially defined by well-entrenched lies. So he has to at least pretend to go along with some of those lies, at least for now. (Similarly for some politicians on the Left.)

A big clue about Trump's view, it seems to me, is that on 9/11 he was interviewed on a NYC news show, and said definitively he did not think a plane could have brought down the Twin Tower, and that additional explosives would have been required. He gave a clear engineering explanation for his conclusion.

Donald Trump Calls Into WWOR/UPN 9 News on 9/11

Watch Video At: <https://youtu.be/PcKlPhFIE7w>

Two days later Trump had gotten in line with the official story. My estimate is that he saw how everybody was covering up the crime, figured out it was an operation from very high up, as a NYC insider quite possibly had a pretty good idea who was behind it, and knew how dangerous they were. Despite being very focused on personal success, and an imperfect vehicle, this attack was too much, and aroused his sense of patriotism.

Over on the West Coast Steve Bannon was so affected by 9/11 he abandoned a large media project he was working on. From his background, he may also have had a pretty good idea of who was behind it.

And thus began their stealth attempt to take down the Deep State. The extreme danger posed by the ruthless Zionist mafia gave rise to a careful approach, featuring policy feints and ambiguities. Many of Trump's apparently contradictory statements and actions may be more understandable in this light. Trump did not have a populist path to the presidency through the Democratic party with Bernie Sanders in that lane, but he was able to steal the Republican voting base away from the Wall Street establishment.

And thus also began the Deep State's attempts to attack, marginalize, and effectively destroy Trump (and Bannon) in every conceivable way. The prolonged intensity of those attacks is serious evidence that the Zionist financiers who control America's establishment see Trump as a serious threat.

There is another elephant in the room and its never discussed – the Department of Commerce. One of the men who ran the department named Roth is a sketchy individual and I see that my search engine has sanitized his name in regards to the DOC

The United States Department of Commerce (DOC) is an executive department of the U.S. federal government concerned with creating the conditions for economic growth and opportunity. Among its tasks are gathering economic and demographic data for business and government decision making, and helping to set industrial standards. Its main purpose is to create jobs, promote economic growth, encourage sustainable development and block harmful trade practices of other nations.[3] It is headed by the Secretary of Commerce, who reports directly to the President of the United States and is a member of the president’s Cabinet. The Department of Commerce is headquartered in the Herbert C. Hoover Building in Washington, D.C.

Obviously Roth and others sold out the workers of the USA for Wall Street, International Bankers, and a whole lot of money. Not to mention the main Guys they reported to – The Presidents of the USA. This is Treason – Again and Again and Again.

But if China then dumped the dollars from bond redemptions in the currency market, the Federal Reserve cannot print foreign currencies with which to purchase the dollars, and the dollar's exchange value would fall, raising the price of imports made necessary by the offshoring of US manufacturing and food imports, thus worsening US inflation and lowering US living standards.

Here you are wrong. The Federal Reserve can and will order the printing of foreign currency to soften the fall of the US dollar because the USA owns the European Central Bank and controls several other central banks, including the Canadian, Australian, and South Korean (the British and Japanese CBs are already maxed out).

Although all European governments along with European journalists receive, as the Assistant Secretary of Defense for International Security Affairs told me years ago, bag fulls of money for representing Washington's interests [...]

If you understand this, then you should understand that the ECB (and the other CBs I mentioned) are also controlled by the USA, therefore the veracity of my reply above follows.

At that point, unless people have been killed off with "vaccines" and released pathogens or in nuclear war, the guillotine arrives and governments fall.

Check out the song by Combichrist called "Fuck that shit". It's about politicians and their journos and the guillotine.

Thirdly, according to Modern Monetary Theory, the creation of money by governments to finance infrastructure projects that lead to greater productivity or reduce costs to business is non-inflationary.

But you have MMT right now according to wise and knowledgeable TUR commentators eah and skrik, commentators that have no doubt whatsoever about the absolute truth of MMT. They are saying that the federal govt can produce all the dollars it needs, that the federal govt is not funded by the taxpayer, that tax payments are simply economic repression, because the federal govt practices MMT and the taxpayer is not the ultimate creator of all wealth. So if MMT is being applied right now by the federal govt of the USA, why is MMT not doing what you believe it would do?

Correct, but it should be noted that this did not need to be the case. If wise managers had run the USA empire post Soviet Union collapse, today the USA would be the uncontested world hegemon and the leader of science, technology, industry and commerce in a unipolar world, and would remain at that position for decades. Unfortunately, Americans screwed things up by electing vain, petty, subpar, mediocre leaders that were easily corrupted by destructive internal forces and stupid economists with their silly theories.

“Just as the US broke its agreement with Russia not to expand NATO and has withdrawn from the agreements made during the Cold War that served to reduce tensions, Washington is now moving toward repudiating the one-China policy as it no longer serves Washington’s interest.”

I guess it continues. There was no agreement with the USSR. And nothing of the kind was extended to Russia. There appear to have been personal assurances maybe — but they have no weight to policy , no could individuals speak unilaterally on behalf of the UN. Suppose you claim there was a gentleman’s agreement. Well, in that case spell out the authorities empowered to make such an agreement. You gentleman are supposed to be among the best and the brightest — lay out the specifics here note the policy — something that profound limits on who can join NATO — one would expect a hard copy somewhere. Pres Putin said it was in the OSCE, it was not.

Well, you have a real problem in this analysis. China’s growth has been at the expense of employment and infrastructure opportunities here in the US. That nearly 1 million business have moved (invested in) to China to avoid US labor costs.

Solution integrate with the belt road project to improve infrastructure at home . . . in otherwords invest more into China so they can hire US citizens here at home. Of course that would simply boost china’s economic standing at our expense and expand China’s influence here in the US, which does not include our former values. But more importantly, we have a congress that already caters to economic interests at the expense of the US citizen. handing more money to foreign enterprise who will in turn have greater influence against a current congress that already operates in a conflict of interest revolving door — is counter productive to the goal. China is already buying up US properties as part of her belt and road project. Here's some good news:

<https://nationalinterest.org/blog/the-buzz/the-us-militarys-greatest-weakness-china-builds-huge-chunk-25966> not really good news at all.

If a bought out Congress currently allows and encourages illegal immigrants hires, even in defense contracting, i see no reason why China would not hire illegals as well. That is all the US needs a foreign owner hiring ,more foreigners. Texas is already embracing these commnuities, do state a reason why China would not do the same.

At the moment the economic relations has the US in a position advantage. As a the largest investor in China , China has a lot to loose should the US policies curtail businesses from doing business in China.

Before taking any steps regarding investments in China further

The US should cease: defense products development in China cease permitting china or anyone else for that matter owning any US property or business

slow through policy any ambitions to further chinese investments by US companies evaluate the long term impact of the belt road global to US security

well considerations for those that are actually interested in the US

While i think the elections had serious issues, those issues occurred under the auspices of state sanctioned decisions. Any chance at evaluating the process was squandered by the jan 6 incursion into the capital. While not a riot and not directly the fault of the executive, those that breached the halls of congress by force and clearly, even the lead in and around was an attempt by police to control the breach.

While China may desire to save face over Taiwan, i am hard pressed to think she would squander her larger ambitions over Taiwan from which she currently reaps benefits. And while Taiwan is of some concern, the dynamic their regarding sovereignty is very different than what is going down in Ukraine.

The American Empire: A Private Enterprise . After centuries of care and maintenance the exhausted British elected to turn over the keys of Empire to the US. We had been, for decades, carefully planning for that day to come.

The Brits had woven their presence into most of the world and the average English citizen felt a part of it all. As a multi generational reality it was quite normal for a citizen to spend a portion of life abroad doing the Empire's work. This incountry presence over generations had gifted English language and Western ethos worldwide. Upon receiving the keys, as had long been anticipated, America's approach to Empire was quite different.

Our Empire was to be a private enterprise and ownership would remain in select hands in perpetuity. In fact the words American Empire were to never appear in any official communique. Ownership was to be allocated carefully with one firm caveat. No elected official was ever to be admitted; too transitory, thus unreliable. Of course, this would apply to the highest offices in the land. Presidents would come and go not fully aware they were considered to be figureheads by the rulers. The British had established and maintained a presence in many countries for centuries. The US would attempt the same but American civilians in-country would not be a dominant feature. Our major presence would be the military.

It was agreed that a form of governance was the first order of business. Since we would not have a State to control, determine and direct proceeding, we would put in place a Deep State, answerable only to the masters. We had not disarmed as most nations had after World War II. The war machine was left in place and would be added to for decades. Therefore the military would be welcomed well up into the power circle. The largest business enterprises supplying the military were enjoined as well. Large investment banks were invited gleefully. Especially welcomed was the Federal Reserve Bank which had been created to assure a supply of money for the Empire, always.

To prevent any inertia remaining that might slow down the dollar flow, gold as value was removed so the dollar could live beyond its means at the will of the elite.. Now, five decades later, the worldwide ensorcellment of the dollar, and money does enchant us so, has allowed creation of unlimited fiat currency and the resultant monstrous debt that is to be guaranteed, of course, by our descendants. The keystone to this most ambitious undertaking has been without doubt, the major media. The early stage was confined to print media; radio tagged along soon after. Television and film were problematic but eager helpers from viewer protection agencies kept close watch; to keep the conversation on a proscribed track.

The internet should/could have been a problem for the elite, but interest in factual accuracy had long since been excised from the public psyche about our hegemon, that secret power cabal. All aspects of control are solidly in place to permanently maintain an American Empire which does not officially even exist. So... The game continues.

Accommodation might “benefit all and remove the danger of nuclear war”. But the need for power and dominance is very alluring, primeval even. For power allows people do anything – giving control and security. Unfortunately power is an illusion: no one holds it forever. They think they can. That is why every empire in history has eventually faced the war it was trying to avoid – its own destruction.

These Neocons are real simpletons.

First they couldn't see that Russia would team up with China&co as a consequence of their provocations and be able to live far better with the sanctions than assumed, and that the weaponization of the $ would inevitably lead to de-dollarizationas and thereby to the very opposite of their intended hegemony, namely multi-polarity.

And now, they cannot even see that US businesses and citizens will be the hardest hit from their actions against China.

And these anti-China actions are objectively completely unnecessary.

To justify them, they invented the idiotic imperialist narrative, which is just as wrong as in Russia's case and flies in the face of the US military bases encircling China: How dare they putting their border next to these bases?!!!

No, I fear and am convinced, that the sole real reason for them egging on this conflict and risking WW3 now (besides MIC $s of course) is most banal and unfirtunately oh so American:

We always have to be No1!

In particular economically and here in particular on the basis of the still main metric to measure that: total $ GDP ranking position.

So they decided to fight the mathematical certainty that first China and then eventually even India will displace the US from that No1 position.

It is of course objectively totally irrelevant who holds that spot and it would actually be great for the people of the world if the cake would be allowed to grow everywhere regardless of those ranking shifts, but they simply can't bring themselves to let that happen.

The banality of evil Vol. 2.

Language, vocabulary, precise terminology, is the lower layer of discussion/opinion/data-analysis. Nobody seems to want to go there, in itself an IQ, formal knowledge, competency test.

We man-meat fail that test, if not most of the middle-class would not scavenge on the scraps of the power-full, they simply would be redundant, uninteresting, and as they are, way too expensive. Herding cannot be done when whatever signaling is put aside, hubris would implode. Eery silence, the bedrock of a “real” opinion, explanation, system, data-analysis again being open for business.

...we, the man-meat are a sorry bunch. Not necessarily incompetence at the top, but willing to confuse, albeit miring the short/opportunistic horizon. The driver is loyalty and greed to the “working model”. Criminals are defined as [organized crime lopped in] taking shortcuts, disregard social responsibility and versing into personal/group wealth at the expense of all others. Hence the Jewish Mindset. P.C.R is a Jew? Bad credentials, to say the least, a man of convention, a “career”. Then turning around, but still ...looking over his shoulder, hence Sachs, Hudson, and so many others. The irony of Washington’s approach, however, is the fact that tens of thousands of US corporations have fled the US over the last 3 decades to take advantage of China’s low-paid work force. In fact—according to Registration China—there are now more than 1 million foreign-owned companies registered on Mainland China, many of which are owned by Americans. These corporations are largely responsible for China’s meteoric economic rise over the same period of time. So my question to you is this: Why is China being blamed and targeted for the explosive growth for which US corporations are mainly responsible? Or do you disagree with my analysis?

NOBODY REALLY WANTS TO REMEMBER THAT THE AMERICAN PEOPLE AND THE U.S. ECONOMY WERE BETRAYED BY SAM WALTON AND WALMART STARTING BACK IN THE MID 1980s-

Excerpted-

Following the brutal suppression of Chinese students in Tiananmen Square in 1989 by the Chinese Communist leadership, Walton feared a consumer backlash if Wal-Mart were seen as operating in China. He was also disturbed by charges of human rights abuses in his Asian suppliers’ factories.

To continue growing in Asia, Wal-Mart needed a buffer — a middleman or a buying agency that would purchase Asian products without showing Wal-Mart’s hand. According to the retired Hong Kong senior executive, Walton told Bill Fields, Wal-Mart’s head buyer, that he wanted to “get out” of direct involvement in Asia. “The decision was to go to an exclusive buying agency,” the buyer said. “The main reason for going into [the deal] was not to be exposed as going into Communist China.”

Walton needed a trusted friend to act as his Asian middleman. He turned to a close friend and tennis partner, George Billingsley, to serve as the titular head of the operation. No matter that Billingsley, a former real estate salesman, knew next to nothing about retail or procurement. To actually run the operation, Walton found Charles Wong, a seasoned Wal-Mart vendor who knew the U.S. retail business well and was at ease operating in Asia. Billingsley would be a figurehead. Wong would run the day-to-day business of procurement out of Hong Kong.

Within two years, Billingsley and Wong had set up Pacific Resources Export Limited (PREL) as an exclusive buying agent for Wal-Mart. Wal-Mart sold its own Asian buying offices to PREL. The links were so close between PREL and Wal-Mart that “most of the people at Wal-Mart, referred to them as us,” said Jay Moates, the PREL accountant. “We hired all the old people from [Wal-Mart’s Asian buying] operation.”

<https://www.pbs.org/wgbh/pages/frontline/shows/walmart/secs/rets/wmchina.html>

What has become insane are those who believe that Sam Walton and Walmart had nothing to do with communist China back in the 1980s.

But you have MMT right now according to wise and knowledgeable TUR commentators eah and skrik, commentators that have no doubt whatsoever about the absolute truth of MMT.

They are saying that the federal govt can produce all the dollars it needs, that the federal govt is not funded by the taxpayer ...

Levtraro, that's an important point you raised. It seems PCR has been mixing with that economic charlatan, the Marxist/Maoist Michael Hudson, who believes that MMT will be our salvation.

Of course 'MMT' is just a new fangled name for an experiment that has been tried and failed disastrously every time in human history. ie: endless money printing.

It always ends badly – runaway inflation and impoverishment of the poor and middle classes.

In the interview PCR speaks of:

‘ the creation of money by governments to finance infrastructure projects that lead to greater productivity or reduce costs to business is non-inflationary’

Now, what PCR said above would be true IF said government initiated infrastructure projects led to greater productivity and significantly reduced costs to business.

But .... THEY SELDOM DO.

You see, the government bureaucrats/politicians entrusted with picking winners or losers, are themselves LOSERS.

That's why they're working in government in the first place – because they were FAILURES IN THE PRIVATE SECTOR.

Almost invariably said government bureaucrats/politicians pick LOSERS.

They invest in Green Energy boondoggles that the private sector would not touch with a barge pole.

They invest in grandiose High Speed Rail (like the fools in California are attempting), or all manner of other hare brained projects, WITHOUT FIRST DOING A COST/BENEFIT ANALYSIS.

Yes, High Speed Rail can be made viable in countries with a high population density like Japan or China, where said venture can run profitably.

But in countries like the U.S (and even more so in Australia where I'm from), where there just aren't sufficient numbers of passengers travelling over a given distance to make it viable, these ventures will inevitably haemorrhage red ink.

They'll be yet another government initiated sink hole that squanders precious taxpayers money.

Bottom Line: Just about any major product that the Government gets involved with will crash and burn, losing countless billions of finite resources.

Since it won't reduce costs for businesses and almost certainly lead to LOWER PRODUCTIVITY, funding by way of MMT will for sure be highly inflationary.

If China were to dump its holdings of US debt on the bond market, the Federal Reserve would have to print money with which to redeem the bonds so that the price doesn't collapse.

More likely that the US would move in anticipation and confiscate Chinese dollar denominated reserves, the same as they did with Russia's. China is caught.

The President of the United States was harassed by his own Department of Justice (sic) as a Russian agent simply because he wanted to “normalize relations with Russia.” I was branded a Putin Agent/Dupe by a website given prominence by the Washington Post, funded by we don't know who, because I provided a truthful, correct account of the neoconservatives' responsibility for the conflict in Ukraine.

There's a great deal of hubris in these events. It's necessary to admit that since the end of WW2 organized Jewry has been extraordinarily successful in taking control of the power centres of the Anglo world (UK, US, Canada, Australia, NZ) and much of the EU.

This now seems to account for arrogant mistakes like Ukraine and the destruction of Nordstream and provoking conflict with China. For more than two generations they haven't encountered any opposition that they haven't been able to subvert or destroy, so it looks like they're basically drunk on Imperial power.

Rather like the earlier British Empire 1914 marching into WW1 trench warfare to kick Boche arse. That didn't work out too well and was the beginning of the end for that Empire.

It wasn't so much that US corporations left on their own seeking higher profits from lower labor costs as it was that they were pushed by Wall Street, which threatened to finance takeovers in order to take advantage of the lower cost opportunity

This is a key quote. It has been the actions of finance capitalism that has led the US to this position, finance capitalism that has been the driving force behind US military aggression. It is what's undermined the US.

Perhaps a more forward looking question is this...

Since China didn't COVID themselves and it is accepted that the U.S. did a series of low level biowarfare attacks on the Chinese economy... what is China's eventual response going to be?

A) Continue to dump U.S. treasuries and then refuse the USD in trade at some point like Russia did

B) Retaliatory biowarfare attack on customers that owe them at least a trillion USD equivalent

C) Team up with Russia, Iran and India (SCO) and BRICS etc economically and slowly choke western banks

D) Invade Taiwan and stop Chinese immigration to Arizona

“But where are any American or Western leaders of vision?” An excellent question because, as it is written, “Where there is no vision, the people perish.”

The materialist conceit, which dominates all the socio-economic ideologies at-large today, no exceptions, is not a “vision.” It is rather, as a matter of Natural Fact, a deadly delusion. The obsessive pursuit of material gains, of acquiring the maximum of cold comforts and crippling conveniences, the overwhelming objective of all “economic” and “political” activity among the “civilized” peoples, tries vainly to ignore another Natural Fact. The merely material aspects of this Living Universe where we are All brought to Being, are almost nothing at-all of All There Is.

So the “civilized” peoples are caught-up entirely in wasting their precious attention on trivia and superficiality. They remain oblivious to such essential things as Organic Functional Integrity, and the consequences of its lack in their behavior and their philosophy.

Knowledge and understanding of essential things comes by doing the Ceremony for Seeking Vision. The Native Nations of Turtle Island everywhere practiced this, as do us surviving Free Wild Peoples here in Indian Country still. “America,” its “leaders” and muddled masses alike, tried vainly to violently wipe-out The People and their Ceremonies.

So, “...in America and the West...” there is no vision. Nor is there any among the other materialist “civilized” peoples racing deaf, dumb, and blind toward the destruction that always awaits those who are willfully ignorant, even proudly disdainful, of the TAO, The Way of Essential Things.

Maybe “Americans” will find some of that cold comfort in all of the company they’ll have in their own terminal misery. Maybe they’ll go on languishing in blissful ignorance a little while longer. Like Custer and his men at the Greasy Grass fight, though, being oblivious to Natural Facts is not going to end well for them....and likely much sooner than later.

You do understand that the US is the first true global empire of it's kind? Everything the US does is to benefit the US, not China. Moving low end manufacturing to China does not benefit China, it benefits the US. More exodus of US dollar, which enforces US global hegemony.

The US did not build up China. China build up China on it's own by embracing science and industries. If all China did was doing low end manufacturing (clothes, shoes, toys, etc.) no one would have an issue and China would still be a poor, destitute country doing menial, low end laborious jobs.

But China embraced the hard science. They educated their students, of which millions were educated in the West (in the fields of science and engineering). Give me an army of BS's students in the hard science (5 million students), and out of 5 million students, 500,000 will go on to to get their MS's and out of 500,000 MS's, you will have 5000 – 10,000 PHD's. It's these MS's and PHD's that can create and innovate and advance in value chain and create more advanced products (like JD, TikTok, Huawei, international space station, etc.). That's how the Europeans did it (the Scientific Revolution followed by the Industrial Revolution). That's how the US did it. That's how Japan and South Korea did it. That's what China is doing right now, but at a much greater scale due to a much larger population. That's the path that India and Africa and South America would need to follow as well.

It's called the battle of the brains. Two words and two words say it all. Science and Industries. That's it.

That's why China has grown by leaps and bounds and now is a threat to US, not only in the hard- science but also in the field of financial. China wants to dump the US dollar from global trade and use local currencies instead. They have a payment system in place already and needs greater adaptation of other countries / merchants. That's what the US fears the most, losing US dollar hegemony which the US military backs up through brute force. The exodus of US dollar through out the entire world is what gives US global hegemony and allows US unlimited money printing and deficit spending. This may be coming to an end in the coming decades.

I suggest you read up on how capitalism / money creation works.

- 1) The Money Masters
- 2) The Creature from Jekyll Island
- 3) Super Imperialism – The Economic Strategy of American Empire
- 4) Confessions of an Economic Hitman

Inflation / high cost of living is reflected in money printing after 1971 when Nixon took the US dollar off the GOLD STANDARD, which means the US dollar is now free floating. This allowed the US government / treasury to spend money way beyond what they take in taxes by simply borrowing money from the US Federal Reserve (Private Bank owned by the bank cartels) or borrowing money from foreign surplus countries through foreign countries purchasing US treasury, etc. That's why the past 50 years, inflation has risen way faster than actual wages due to unlimited money printing backed by nothing (it's actually backed by the US military). That's why the US government debt keeps growing (at 31+ trillion) and increasing every year due to deficit spending. New money is created and exported / sold to the entire world through deficit spending, but it also increases the money supply in the US which results in higher inflation, etc. You do realize that it costs the central banks practically less than 20 cents to create a brand new one hundred dollar bill by which they can lend out money through fractional reserve lending (home loan, car loan, business loan, etc.) or spend money abroad to purchase physical goods (imports from countries like Germany, China, South Korea, Japan – all trade surplus countries) or lend money to trade deficit countries (Argentina, Greece, Turkey, etc. – all trade deficit countries) through the world bank.

The Chinese financial system is largely socialized and is used to finance the real economy instead of speculation in financial assets. American banks want to bring the gambling casino to China and can't.

In the United States, so much wealth and power are concentrated in only a few hands, which is a major problem. One of the first things that need to happen in the revival of the US is that a limit is placed on the amount of wealth allowed to individuals.

That is spot on. I have relatives in Taiwan, Hong Kong, China and a few Southeast Asian countries. 35 years ago and before that, Mainland Chinese were looked down upon by ethnic Chinese from other places. No one wanted to have anything to do with them. But at the same time, blood is thicker than water. It was the Southeast Asian Chinese, Taiwanese and Hong Kong who invested in China in the 80s and 90s and helped make what China is today. The US and Europe didn't invest anything. It was hoping China would go the way of Russia in the 80s. Economically in taters.

Sorry, but what is actually tiresome is the same old excuses for our own behavior that I have been hearing for decades and the trouble is, it's not just what we are attempting to do to Russia. It's a long list. We've destroyed countries in the M.E. under false pretenses as well. We've also got US troops squatting on land in Syria. We're squandering the freedom and prosperity of our children and grandchildren the way these criminals in DC throw our hard earned money around and at the same time these same criminals work overtime to take our own rights away from us. It's not Russia doing those things. I could go back also to what we did to Serbia. The list is quite long. It has to stop. The US needs to take care of it's own country and stop running around the world like it owns the place bullying everyone and anyone who won't fall in line with their agenda. I don't even have to like Vladimir Putin. What I think of him personally matters next to nothing when it comes to these issues. America is a sick nation. Morbidly ill in fact, and that isn't going to be rectified by further military adventurism.

The leading proponents of the benefits of offshoring US manufacturing jobs were FULLY aware that offshoring would gut the US Economy. They just disguised their greed as being good for the Economy. The proponents of NAFTA said the same lies the offshoring advocates did. And, also, the NAFTA proponents, like Bill Clinton and Al Gore knew they were gutting the American Economy AT THE TIME. It is clear that Wall Street and the mega Corporations—plus Billionaires like Bill Gates—that they control the Government, Public Interest be Damned.

Dr. Roberts points out the obvious: the USA is dependent on China due to the greed and stupidity of our economic oligarchs. He has also pointed out the way to abolish this dependency: a sliding scale corporate tax that would decrease as a corporation's production returned to the USA. It would put the financial burden of repatriating production on corporations, whereas tariffs would primarily burden consumers. Note to our overlords: provoking nuclear-armed Russia over Ukraine is stupid. Provoking a nuclear-armed country (on whom we are economically dependent) over Taiwan is beyond stupid.

India will forever be found sitting on a fence. Europe will again return to petty rivalries and border disputes. Japan has been well trained as a lapdog but biting the master in the crotch cannot be ruled out. China was the World's leading economic power and will again regain this spot.

The second scenario (unlikely) is that the world will be a radioactive ruin and the Homeland which escaped war while waging it all around the world it will get an extreme taste of it.

I can easily agree with most of what you said about the woes besieging the USA and its clueless inhabitants. But this one sounds like a letter to Santa Claus.

I could also come up with a list of crimes committed by the Soviet Union and its proud successor RF. To anyone listening, this “pride” should sound suspicious, and when you start digging deeper, it turns out to be the same Cold War mantra: we’re under siege, we need to arm ourselves to the teeth. What is even more worrying is the fact that even experienced Russian journalists admit that society is becoming more and more “AMORAL”, i.e. it can be turned into ANYTHING, and in fact has been whipped into a frenzy of brother against brother war. Bringing all the wrong things committed by US and Russia before 2014 into the discussion will not prevent nuclear war, just let’s stick to Ukraine. Nom du jour: Putin must be stopped, thrown out of Ukraine, and tried for crimes against humanity.

In response to Mike Whitney’s question, PCR wisely responded: “First of all, it makes no difference whatsoever what I would support, or you would support, or the American people would support. We neither control nor influence the decisions. This is why in the end it comes to enserfment or revolution.”

Thanks so much, Dr. Roberts, and am in total agreement.

Dear Chuck,

I agree to a point, but I recognise a third possibility also: (beyond revolution or ensurfment): Evolution – into a higher vibrational state of existance, is also a strong possibility.

People by the millions, around the globe are moving their energy in much more positive, life-affirming, directions, many have been doing so for a very long time, – some dating back to even before the 9.11 coup!

Many have been preparing spiritually, mentally, psychologically, energetically, physically... to be free of “society”, or civilisation if you prefer, for decades (and maybe even lifetimes for all we know).

So things may not turn out quite as you predict...

– Maybe the “Neo-Pagans*” will come to the fore,. Albeit a very different “fore” than most can currently imagine. Maybe as the “jabbed” drop down sick and dead (due to the spike protein being produced within their own cells, amongst other toxins), – meaning millions who were willingly compiant with the Covid Biosecurity State will pass into history. (These include many of our loved-ones: may their passing be peaceful and painless.)

In the meantime the states' stormtroopers will be kept busy by rioters rioting; subversives subverting and paras militarising. – A fight which can only result in civilisational collapse.

Rioters, hackers, paras and the like, will be busy burning down the house. Many from the inside. Our Brothers. – They do us (our species) a huge service, in more than one way. There will be many martyrs amongst them.

In the meantime, men and women and children, establish a new epoch.

My prediction: Civilisation. is finished, but “Mankind” in the guise of Neo-Pagans* (or something) will continue as a Free and Sentient Species – rid of all the trappings of “society”- living in symbiosis with our natural environment. Growing stronger, as Rome burns... Again.

Fond regards,
Kali.

If the Diaspora start getting driven out of Host Countries, they’ll

Folkvangr look, I cannot say with any certainty what Putin or Russia is or is not doing within their own country but Ukraine is right on their border. They have been asking for security guarantees from the West for years now when it comes to Ukraine and were essentially given the backhand. After all, only America gets to decide what goes on in other nations no matter what anyone's concerns are. When you say Putin has to be stopped, I wonder what you think/thought of our own activity when it came to all these other countries we have either bombed, invaded or supplied weapons to do damage to that are 10,000 miles from our borders? How is that protecting our own national security? I think the answer is pretty obvious. Not trying to go off on you here. I've seen other comments you've made that I fully agree with. I simply cannot fathom how at this point, and with all things considered, anyone can still be on board with the whole 'Russia must be stopped' mantra. If nothing else, we've made a grave mistake in going about this the way we have and if stopping Russia was the goal, they not only haven't done it, they seem to be strengthening Russia. Look at the sanctions fiasco. Look at who was really harmed when it comes to Nordstream. As an aside, I have my own opinions about WW2 in particular when it comes to the Russians(Soviets) but that's a whole separate issue. The Russia of today wants to do business and improve their own lot. The US doesn't want that so they've used Ukraine as a proxy to bring Russia down. As far as crimes against humanity, the US has a lot of nerve wagging it's finger at anyone. The other issue here for me is this. They're going to keep pushing and at some point I could see them reinstating a draft. if they think they're going to take my sons and suit them up to die for this meddlesome agenda, they're in for a rude awakening. America itself is a disaster. Our own problems need to be resolved and the forever-war bulls*** needs to come to an end. I'd rather it ended with a quiet whimper than for them to keep pushing and something even more grievous than what we've already seen, takes place.

Even with the Jews controlling every asset in the world, the risk of a holocaust is even greater : especially with the Jews being in every position of power. Just look at what happened in USSR under Stalin : most of those who bore the brunt of Stalin's Jewish henchmen's purges turned out to be early Jewish revolutionists and too sincere believers in Marxism, far more than Christian Orthodox. The Orthodox Church, together with the mass of virtue signallers that had still revered the institution up to its fag end for its symbolic value of past Russian greatness, turned out to be so corrupt that they made the best and surest lower rank bureaucrats : treachery was the virtue sought for first and betraying your former religion while still donning its robes was the best guarantee. Lenin himself insisted on exploiting those unbelieving religious bureaucrats and on persecuting only the sincere believers, the real mystics who counted for less than 1%. Most of those real believers, the Old Believers as they were called, had already seceded from the Established Orthodox Church since Ivan the Terrible and Peter the Great anyway and were no longer part of the Orthodox mainstream since centuries before, since before modern Russian had developed as a separate language from Ukrainian slavonic. Solzhenitsyn is pure crap : he catered only for the American corporate market. A holocaust of Jews is perfectly possible in the US under Jewish supervision. In particular they might decide that since they are in power and the third temple is built that all experts in goyish sciences such as physics and medicine are suckers, then losers, then traitors. Jews might also be overwhelmed and out-Jewed by Evangelicals who won't tolerate any whiff of humanism among any Jews.

What Russians do not like about Ukrainians are their good qualities. The people who don’t like them, or whose comfort is disturbed by them, agitate against them the most. The “Russians”, a mixture of more than 170 ethnic groups, hate not only Ukrainians, but also themselves, which is proven by their turbulent history.

“You do understand that the US is the first true global empire of its kind? Everything the US does is to benefit the US, not China. Moving low end manufacturing to China does not benefit China, it benefits the US. More exodus of US dollar, which enforces US global hegemony.

The US did not build up China. China build up China on its own by embracing science and industries. If all China did was doing low end manufacturing (clothes, shoes, toys, etc.) no one would have an issue and China would still be a poor, destitute country doing menial, low end laborious jobs. . . .

It's called the battle of the brains. Two words and two words say it all. Science and Industries. That's it.

That's why China has grown by leaps and bounds and now is a threat to US, not only in the hard- science but also in the field of financial. China wants to dump the US dollar from global trade and use local currencies instead. They have a payment system in place already and needs greater adaptation of other countries / merchants. That's what the US fears the most, losing US dollar hegemony which the US military backs up through brute force. The exodus of US dollar through out the entire world is what gives US global hegemony and allows US unlimited money printing and deficit spending. This may be coming to an end in the coming decades”

Actually no. It is not.

France, Great Britain, even China, The mongols, Belgium . . . all were empires that actually operated as owners of other countries and entire regions. Rome stretched as far north as Germany and south as North Africa.

Great Britain remains a curious empire for her size with colonies that stretched across asia, and africa, even Hitler marveled at their size. The US is not even an empire as one would define empire. In terms of empire building, we simply have not imposed our will in that manner. The mere presence of the US in ant location is cause for decrying empire. When you say “empire of its kind”

I assume you are trying to make room for understanding that the US influence has not been through colonial dictate but rather economic influence. And even that is not the case, other powers have used financial, and material strategies to gain favor and influence policy by trade. And the US having been the sole survivor of regional and global wars has managed to be on the top of the global pyramid. Our position today is the direct result of avoiding the troubles of empire. We learned valuable lesson in Iraq and Afghanistan, empire requires more control than we as a nation are willing to expend or need to. We decimated the one power group that would have been a benefit to us during the Iraq and the occupation turned a military victory into a defeat. The same applies to Afghanistan — military victory colonial occupation failure — because our ideals get in the way and we don't act with the force of what a traditional empire applies. The PANAC lays out quite clearly the goal, essentially bring the globe into a democratic capitalist system and that ensure US longevity. But it requires an old school idea of empire to work.

The empire that is developing is not one of the US but one of capital democracy, where CEO's such Mr. Diminution at JP Morgan are managing assesses on a global scale. That is why corporations of the west are increasing their relations and control over governments. The EU was supposed to have been an economic organization unifying and stabilizing the currency of Europe to be more effective. Now they realize that maybe they need a military or major security apparatus to back up their mandates.

If the neocons were in charge — Russia would have been challenged the day she even suggested making war in Ukraine. The real hold is not the US, it's the economic forces in Europe. The US is powerful, but most making the claims about this supposed ZOG are off the mark. The US can certainly pull some strings and have enormous influence, But controlling events . . . entotal. Mrs Kagan and company found out in very short order that influence only goes so far. Our support for change does not guarantee that nations will do our bidding. The Shia in Iraq are very happy to have the US do their dirty work and when the job was done — politely and impolitely told the us to go fly a kite. Ukrainians are not talking about Russia leaving Ukraine as far as Donetsk and luhansk, they want Russia out of Ukrainian Crimea.

I am not sure you comprehend what about China's growth. When Pres Nixon visited china, he did so in large part as a strategy to get China to refrain their support for Vietnam. In return, he extended the opening the door to China's most pressing need, feeding nearly a billion people and bringing China into the 20th 21st century, opening her doors to the possibility on being a vast global empire once again. Our investment in China worked to China's advantage. Sure the US got cheaper goods, cheaper in more ways than one. But the capital that flowed into china as can happen with wealth often does seeped into the greater population maybe in trickles, but enough to create an internal struggle by those that have it to have more of a say in what to do with it. And systems that are closed, soon, experience convulsions internally.

When the communists decried western and US decadence, they were not talking about our morals, they were talking about our wealth . . and that in the end is what really upended communism in Eastern Europe. Sure military power to back it — but as it turned out the US did not need to own a single country, all she needed were like minded allies and coca cola, pepsi and macdonalds . . etc. Our moral standing . . . both China and Russia have used our hypocrisies against quite well, linked to greed and material pursuits. Slavery used to make the country wealthy, and then victimizing the descendants of the same process by denying them access — so clear by our color polity. There's a reason why Russia, but especially China has such a strong foothold on the Africa that remains one of the richest continents on the globe in minerals.

The factions fighting in the ME were not controlled by the US as the CIA will tell you, the factions often led the US advisors around by agreeing with the advisors to get cash and then proceeding to do exactly what they wanted.

Absolutely, the Chinese with a deep history of embracing learning, absolutely jumped at the chance to educate their citizens by sending them to the west for an education. But the investment to start those industries came from western capital and companies already established. And they served as the foundation for what came next.

I am not sure where you get your information, but china is not merely manufacturing low end products. But let;s deal with your central point. That china did it by educating their population in hard science.

1. China's hard sciences got hard by the influx of western educators to what once was a closed system to the decedent west.
2. Excuse me, but china has always had millions, its odd that they suddenly made use of educating them — then why the explosion only near the end of the century. I though the educational exchange programs were great, happy to have chinese debate teams visit where i taught — delighted. But none of that would have been possible with a change in policy initiated by Pres Nixon. The information and technological exchanges that occurred by opening that door — you bet, millions of chinese arrived in the west to get that technical and informational capital.

3. You think Electric Boat and Raytheon are low end industries. Chinese smarts, you bet, they get western defense contractors to hire them to manufacture the nations security apparatus . . . ooooooohsss.

You do well to recognize the power of China as a result of western investment — carelessly administered at the nation's expense. My admiration for China does not include handing them the knife by which to slit my own throat at least not knowingly.

a selfish admission. I am a conservative, i worked long and hard, worked while others played, carried their loads sacrificed just as millions of others to the benefit of others did so gladly, and got sourdough bread — and frankly, before the Us ends, I want the fruits of my labor before the country fades . . .

Thanks, but have you ever read the Jesuit priest, Teilhard DeChardin’s masterpiece, “The Omega Point”?

No I haven’t, Mr Chuck, but I will be fascinated to do so. I’ll search archive.org for it right now! Thanks for bringing it to my attention.

[PCR: The neoconservatives' hostility toward Russia and China is definitely not in America's interest.]

Shame on PCR, the racist. Iran is 44 years under sanctions, war, terrorism and propaganda of the fucking Neocons with cooperation of Russia and China, yet the racists do not mention Iran's name who has defeated the Neocons "New world order" project.

Putin was begging the neocons and US for years to be part of NATO and be accepted as a petty servant, but they refused. Iran resisted all these years. Neither Putin Nor China fought the Neocon's project, Putin and China joined Iran when they were rejected by the Mafia. We never allow the racists forget the Iranian's role in the NEW WORLD ORDER that US is greatly weaken. This new situation would have not happened if General Soleimani had not been entered the game. Great General Soleimani made the utmost sacrifice for the new development in the world order and everyone including the racists must recognize his contribution.

Both Putin and China cooperated with the Neocons and voted for sanctions against Iran, to collect few bones as concessions. We never forget.

Love to you also, kali, but Teilhard considered mankind's atomic particles, held together by gravity, and subsequently, he made a rather scientific case for all human interconnection.

Btw, after the publication and circulation of The Omega Point, the Jesuits banned Teilhard from serving the Roman Catholic Mass.

Thanks, but have you ever read the Jesuit priest, Teilhard DeChardin's masterpiece, "The Omega Point"?

There you will read how Teilhard makes a Christian case that the consciousness of the global mankind, since the beginning of time is evolving to the Omega Point where all will realize the reality of what human life is about.

From Wikipedia: [Teilhard] also maintained that one-cell organisms develop into metazoans or animals, but some of the members of this classification develop organisms with complex nervous systems. This group has the capability to acquire intelligence. When Homo sapiens inhabited Earth through evolution, a noosphere, the cognitive layer of existence, was created. As evolution continues, the noosphere gains coherence. Teilhard explained that this noosphere can be moved toward or constructed to be the Omega Point or the final evolutionary stage with the help of science.[10] Teilhard refers to this process as "planetization". Eventually, the noosphere gains total dominance over the biosphere and reaches a point of complete independence from tangential energy forming a metaphysical being, coined the Omega Point.[11]

Top Marxist-Zionists lack a nervous system. They are reptilian. They don't evolve; they just are.

Dupes assume all humans have a nervous system, or are born with a nervous system. And maybe they are. But the Talmudist ((Jews)) and the Marxist-Zionists systematically remove it. This is what Marxism is about; this is what Zionism is about; this is what Judas Capitalism is about. That's what the "Jewish Century" was/is about.

They're creating Zoglodyte subhumans deliberately and systematically. That's what makes them objectively evil/satanic vis-a-vis human beings with a developed and intact nervous system, and that is ultimately what is going to beget their collapse.

Oh well. The reptile has its place in the pecking order, but not at the top. It's somewhere way, way down in the cracks and crevices and under the piles.

Nice try, but no, that's not what I meant. The brain overload was caused by staying with emotionally abusive partners for a long time. The longer you stay, the worse it gets, the more damage it does to your brain. And this UR "Pravda" has all the signs of a highly abusive environment, which increases feelings of confusion, cognitive dissonance, and abuse amnesia, if those terms mean anything to you. lol

While PCR has done much exceptional work, there is something in his articles over the past year that is puzzling. He writes about how the Zionist Isramerican government is persecuting white Americans with the Federal Bureau of Israhell, the Central Iraeli Bureau and other departments. He describes how Edjucation is being perverted to brainwash white children into being ashamed of if not outright hating their own race. He writes about how the Ju World Disorder is opening wide the borders to all white nations in order to flood the West with a never ending anti white invasion army. How Zionist controlled big pharma assisted by the military has produced a bioweapon to exterminate white children, adults and especially the elderly while administering placebos to their chosen ones. Note that the majority of Africans did not take the Zionist bioweapon. In addition global Zionist Corporations are being forced to enforce anti white hiring and firing policies. Therefore my question is why does PCR constantly refer to these perpetrators as NAZIES instead of what they truly are and that is genocidal Zionist Bolshevic Communists.

PCR like his 'ideal' Putin are servant of Israel and Jewish mafia. Russia like the criminal west voted for the establishment of Israel in the hearth of Arab land and the middle east in order to rob the people of the region. Putin was begging the west for a LONG time to be accepted as a junior partner, but they refused because they don't accept anything less than full destruction. The Russian politicians in the Duma were angry screaming to Putin that LEARN FROM IRAN, when he still was dancing with the 'starts' meaning criminal George Bush and criminal Tony Blair hoping to be accepted as their junior partner. We know and witness that Israel is bombing Syria on a daily basis with permission of PUTIN. Russia like US – UK – France is friend of the apartheid entity. Don't trust those racists who help the zionist mass murderers.

You may be right. Trump may be a big distraction ploy to lead a lot of anti-establishment energy away from the true Deep State, discredit it, and ultimately derail it. This is the big question with Trump.

On the other hand, a key strategy of the Deep State is to keep certain topics off the table, out of the public awareness. And Trump has repeatedly made statements that poke a hole in that censorship.

For example, at the beginning of his 2016 campaign he said he would treat the Palestinians objectively and fairly. This raised such a storm of Establishment criticism from all sides that he immediately did the fastest backflip in political history. (And despite the corporate media's anti-Trump agenda, no one mentioned this spectacular backflip; total silence.)

In a similar vein, while president he said the only reason American troops were in the Middle East was for Israel. He then added that we should never have gotten in there, and that we should get out as soon as possible. These comments were also completely ignored by the Zionist-controlled "American" press. He also said 9/11 had never been fully resolved, and the JFK records should be released. All of these topics and statements are serious threats to the Deep State, because if carried out they would unmask the Zionist mafia that has a chokehold on America's Establishment.

If the Zionist mafia is unmasked, and especially if their role in 9/11 is revealed, they and their pet project of Israel will be burnt toast.

So despite Trump's kissing up to Adelson (and taking millions of Adelson's money), and his kissing up to Netanyahu, the Zionist mafia does not trust him. And with good reason, in my estimation. My estimate is that the magnitude of their onslaught against him is too huge, and draws too much attention to be pretense.

I mean, I think the cat is out of the bag as far as Israel's involvement in 9/11 is concerned. The fact this site now attracts full-time hasbara trolls also shows the level of concern among the zionazis. Also, Adelson died right around Jan 6. Sure Trump promised all kinds of great things to the American people but all he delivered was soured relations with China. The only real purpose of Donald Trump is to whip up the USA against China.
