Předpokládejme, že zahájili válku a nikdo nepřišel? Spojené státy se připravují na možnou válku s Čínou, ale čelí vážnému problému s náborem. Mládež národa nemůže splnit základní standardy.

Začátkem tohoto roku Rada pro silnou Ameriku oznámila, že 77 procent lidí ve věku 17 až 24 let není způsobilých pro službu. Asi 44 procent mladých Američanů nemůže sloužit z více důvodů. Více než 20 procent je prostě příliš tlustých.

Rada neměla žádné dobré nápady. Diskutovalo o výhodách potravinového programu SNAP a navrholo, aby tvůrci politik „podporovali zdravé stravování, zvýšený přístup k čerstvým a výživným potravinám a fyzickou aktivitu pro děti“. Země, jejíž občané jsou příliš hloupí na to, aby se užívali, aniž by za to vláda zaplatila a neříkala jim, co mají jíst, má problémy.

„Chudí jsou první, kdo bojují“ je líný slogan, který naznačuje, že sociální hierarchie jsou nelegitimní, protože elita nebude bojovat ve válkách, které začne. Historicky to není pravda. Velmi chudí a lumpenproletariát nedělají dobré vojáky.

Aristokracie nesla břemeno boje dlouho do 20. století. Vanity Fair v březnu 1916 uvedl, že během prvních 16 měsíců první světové války zemřelo více než 800 mužů s titulem, což byl řeznický účet vyšší než ve „Velkém povstání proti Karlu I. “[Celá] generace šlechty bude vyhlazena, než bude vyhlášen mír.“ Dokonce i Irish Times žasly nad ochotou nejvyšších vrstev aristokracie zemřít za krále a vlast. Ve válce zemřelo 24 vrstevníků a britská aristokracie se pravděpodobně nikdy nevzpamatovala. Důstojníci umírali rychleji než poddůstojníci. Ve Spojených státech chybí zodpovědná aristokracie. V roce 2006, jen několik let po 11. září, méně než 1 procento absolventů Ivy League vstoupilo do armády a asi 1 procento kongresmanů mělo dítě v uniformě. ABC uvedla, že mnoho Američanů z vyšší třídy nechtělo podporovat „nemorální“ válku v Iráku nebo Afghánistánu. V roce 2015 mělo jen 20 procent volených představitelů vojenské zkušenosti a průzkum Pew z roku 2021 zjistil, že podíl veteránů v americké společnosti klesá .

Americká armáda dnes silně spoléhá na střední třídu, zejména z jihu. Šedesát čtyři procent rekrutů pochází ze čtvrtí, kde domácnosti vydělávají mezi 41 692 a 87 850 dolary. Jen 17 procent pochází ze čtvrtí, které jsou na tom lépe. Zhruba ekvivalentní podíl pochází z chudších čtvrtí. Jih je nadměrně zastoupen a produkuje více než 40 procent všech rekrutů. Nová Anglie a západní pobřeží jsou nedostatečně zastoupeny. Jižní Karolína je nejvíce zastoupená; DC (pokud to počítáme) je to nejmenší.

Za všemi těmito dalšími problémy se skrývá rasa. Armáda je z 54 procent nehispánská bělocha a téměř 70 procent důstojníků jsou běloši. Podle Demographic Report z roku 2021 tvoří 68,9 procenta všech vojáků v aktivní službě běloši, včetně 67,5 procenta poddůstojníků. Tato čísla však nevyklučují Hispánce, z nichž mnozí jsou počítáni jako bílí. Ve vybrané rezervě je 73,1 procenta „bílých“. Asi 17 procent všech vojáků v aktivní službě jsou černoši, včetně 19 procent v řadách.

Čím více nebílých, tím šťastnější jsou naši vůdci. V tiskové zprávě o ponuré zprávě Rady pro silnou Ameriku byl náměstek ministra obrany pro personál a připravenost Gilbert Cisneros, Jr., optimistický. Zpráva ukázala závazek „zajistit, aby naše řady byly inkluzivní a odrážely zemi, které sloužíme“. Zástupkyně náměstka ministra obrany pro vojenskou komunitu a rodinnou politiku Patricia Montes Barronová dodala : „Informace ve zprávě v konečném důsledku zdůrazňují naši rozmanitost a podporují blahobyt vojenské komunity.

Armáda může jít na trhu dále dolů. Rozpočtový úřad Kongresu zvažuje způsoby, jak snížit náklady na zdravotní péči. Jednou z možností bylo „otestovat prostředky VA kompenzace invalidity pro veterány s vyššími příjmy“, což by ušetřilo odhadem 253 miliard dolarů za 10 let. Na roční bázi by to ušetřilo méně, než kolik už Spojené státy vynaložily na válku na Ukrajině: asi 32 miliard dolarů . Snížení příspěvků pro osoby se zdravotním postižením by také odstranilo motivaci pro střední třídu sloužit.

Tradice je asi důležitější. Armáda již neoslavuje vojenského ducha bílého jižanu, navzdory pokračujícímu nadměrnému zastoupení jižanů. Během rasové revoluce v roce 2020 se demokraté a zbabělí republikáni vzepřeli prezidentu Donaldu Trumpovi a požadovali, aby všechny základny pojmenované pro Konfederace dostaly nová jména. "Jsme strana Lincolna, strana emancipace, nejsme strana Jima Crowa," řekl poslanec Don Bacon (R-NE). "Měli bychom být na správné straně tohoto problému." Přišlo by devět jmen, včetně Roberta E. Lee, AP Hill a George Picketta.

Ministerstvo obrany je zcela jasné , že to bylo zavržení Jihu – a Donalda Trumpa – a součást hysterie George Floyda:

Některé armádní základny, zřízené během budování a během 1. světové války, byly pojmenovány pro důstojníky Konfederace ve snaze získat podporu od místních obyvatel na jihu. To, že muži, po nichž byly základny pojmenovány, se chopili zbraně proti vládě, kterou přísahali bránit, někteří považovali za znamení usmíření mezi Severem a Jihem. Byl to také vrchol zákonů Jima Crowa na jihu, takže se nebralo v úvahu pocity Afroameričanů, kteří museli sloužit na základnách pojmenovaných po mužích, kteří bojovali na obranu otroctví. To vše se změnilo v důsledku policejní vraždy George Floyda v roce 2020. Mnoho lidí protestovalo proti systémovému rasismu a poukazovalo na sochy a základny Konfederace jako součást tohoto systému. Kongres zřídil komisi v zákoně o povolení k národní obraně z fiskálního roku 2021. Tehdejší prezident Donald J. Trump legislativu vetoval kvůli přítomnosti komise a obrovská bipartijní většina v obou komorách Kongresu jeho veto přehlasovala.

Černý ministr obrany Lloyd Austin ocenil úsilí Komise pro pojmenování „odstranit z vojenských zařízení USA všechna jména, symboly, displeje, pomníky a příslušenství, které ctí nebo připomínají Konfederaci“, místo toho, aby vybrala jména, která „odrážejí čest, vlastenectví a historii.“ a bude „inspirovat generace členů služby k obraně naší demokracie a naší ústavy“. Ukázalo se, že jde o jména bezvýznamných nebělochů.

Jedinou výjimkou je Fort Bragg, pojmenovaná po generálu Braxtonovi Braggovi, ze které se stane Fort Liberty. Změna názvu bude stát více než šest milionů dolarů . Úředníci říkají, že toto nevýrazné jméno „vyjadřuje touhu všech, kteří slouží“. Fort Bragg také přejmenovává všechny ulice pojmenované po Konfederacích. Nepochybně to vyléčí problémy základny: 31 smrtelných předávkování drogami v letech 2017 až 2021, 41 sebevražd v letech 2020 a 2021 a 11 vojáků zavražděných nebo obviněných z vraždy od poloviny roku 2020 do září 2022.

Značka poblíž přední brány Fort Bragg, NC, domov 82nd Airborne.

Od té doby, co prezident Trump opustil úřad, se armáda snaží „extremisty“ očistit. Dne 5. února 2021 ministr Austin podepsal „stand-down“ příkaz pro všechny důstojníky, aby grilovali své zaměstnance kvůli „extrémistickým nebo disidentským ideologiím“. The New York Times povzbuzovaly snahy o „vykořenění krajně pravicového extremismu v řadách“, ačkoli v minulosti obvinily armádu ze „zlehčování bílého nacionalismu a pravicového aktivismu“. SPLC chce více zákazů u příspěvků na sociálních sítích a také „prověřování, vzdělávání a výcviku, aby se zabránilo náboru extremistů do armády, aby se naočkoval proti radikalizaci pro aktivní zaměstnance během jejich vojenské kariéry“. To bude znamenat kariéru pro aktivisty, kteří mají zájem na rozšiřování definice „extremismu“ donekonečna.

Armáda si uvědomuje, že neexistuje dobrá definice „extremismu“. Ve zprávě z května 2022 ministerstvo obrany doporučilo explicitnější definici a také více údajů z Úřadu pro rozmanitost, spravedlnost a začleňování. Avšak ještě předtím, než dechovka zjistí, co je extrémní a co ne, zahájila svou vlastní extremistickou indoktrinaci.

V červnu 2021 předseda sboru náčelníků Mark Milley zdůvodnil výuku teorie kritické rasy ve West Pointu : „Chci porozumět bělošskému hněvu,“ řekl. "A já jsem bílý." Řekl, že chce vědět, co „způsobilo tisíce lidí k napadení [Kapitolu] a pokusu zvrátit ústavu Spojených států amerických“. Generál Milley by očividně raději demonizoval bílé, než aby jim rozuměl. Asi o dva měsíce později předsedal pádu Kábulu. Neměl čest odstoupit.

V červnu 2020 náčelník štábu letectva Dave Goldfein řekl, že je pobouřen smrtí George Floyda a byl pohnut k odsouzení „rasových předsudků, systémové diskriminace a nevědomé zaujatosti“. "Jako vůdci a jako letci budeme vlastnit svou část a postavit se jí čelem," řekl . Plukovník Ben Jonsson napsal článek nazvaný „Drahý bílý plukovníku“, který skončil tím, že lidem řekl, aby si přečetli Bílou křehkost od Robina DiAngela. Tato kniha vysvětluje, že všichni běloši jsou rasisté bez ohledu na to, co dělají . Boj proti rasismu je nyní vojenskou prioritou, takže běloši jsou během své kariéry v defenzivě. Interní školicí materiály varují před mnoha hrozbami, včetně „extremismu patriotů“. „Tato ideologie tvrdí, že americká vláda zkorumpovala, překročila své ústavní hranice nebo již není schopna chránit lidi před cizími hrozbami,“ uvedlo. Všechny rasy se mohou nakazit „etnickou/rasovou nadřazeností“, ale „velká většina těchto skupin zastává názory bílé nadřazenosti“. Mezi symboly uvedené jako „extremistické“ patří logo Oath Keepers, žába Pepe, logo Three Percenter, logo Proud Boys a pozoruhodné je také slogan „Pojď a vezmi si to“ s puškou. Identity Europa byla extremistická skupina. Politika bílé identity je patologická, ale chválu dostávají černoši , ženy , Hispanci , Asiaté , homosexuálové a dokonce i transgenderové . V roce 1999 Triangle Institute for Security Studies zjistil , že příslušníci armády si mnohem častěji říkají republikáni, chtějí zákaz homosexuálů v armádě a podporují školní modlitby. Jeden profesor na National War College to nazval „děsivým“. Teď může být šťastný; tyto pohledy by vám mohly přinést absolutorium.

Včera před Kongresem vojenští vůdci vášnivě obhajovali probuzení. „Rozmanitost, rovnost a začlenění jsou zásadní pro soudržnost a důvěru jednotek,“ prohlásil náměstek ministra obrany pro personál a připravenost Gil Cisneros. Úředníci z armády, námořnictva a letectva učinili podobná tvrzení. Když republikáni kritizovali DEI, poslanec Steven Horsford (D-NV) idiotsky vysvětlil, že je to potřeba, protože veteráni byli ve vzpouře 6. ledna 2021.

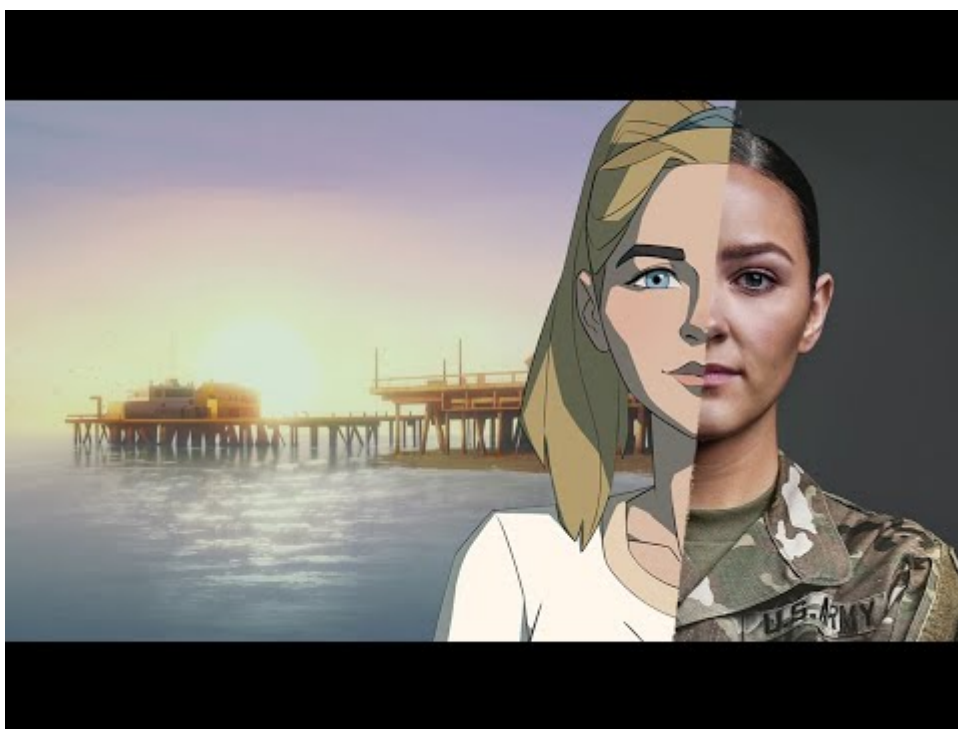

Padaly dotazy na Kelisu Wing, bývalou šéfku školského systému ministerstva obrany. Na Twitteru napsala : „Jsem tak vyčerpaná z těchto bílých folxů na těchto [profesionálních] sezeních, že tato dáma ve skutečnosti měla CAUdacity [kavkazská drzost] říkat, že i černí lidé mohou být rasisté. Slečna Wingová nebyla vyhozena; byla přesunuta do nové práce pouhé tři hodiny před začátkem slyšení. Na rozdíl od „extrémistů“ vyřazených z řad bude stále dostávat výplatu. „Mám pocit, že to souvisí s tím, že jsme si to my [republikáni] posvítili,“ řekla poslankyně Elise Štefániková. Určitě je mnohem víc takových jako ona, kteří jsou buď moudřejší ohledně sociálních sítí, nebo své tweety smazali. V každém případě se to, co řekla, neliší od toho, co *White Fragility*učí.

Armáda měla loni cíl nábory 60 000, ale o 15 000 ho nesplnila. Armáda chce více než 500 000 vojáků v aktivní službě, ale příští rok jich může mít méně než 450 000. Očekává se, že letectvo mine svůj cíl; námořnictvo minulo svůj cíl pro důstojníky. Pouze námořní pěchota vytvořila svou kvótu.

Mám podezření, že „probuzení“ nábory škodí, ale kolaps do drog, kriminality a obezity s tím může mít více společného. Senátor Jack Reed (D-RI) popřel , že by posedlost rozmanitostí poškozovala nábor. "Rozmanitost a začlenění posiluje naši armádu," řekl. "V každém ohledu je americká armáda smrtelnější a připravenější, než kdy byla." Je také rozmanitější a inkluzivnější než kdykoli předtím. To není náhoda." Jaké má pro to důkazy?

Šéf marketingu armády řekl, že skutečným problémem je, že služba není „relevantní“ pro většinu Američanů. Říkám si, proč ne.

Samuel Huntington v knize Voják a stát: Teorie a politika civilně-vojenských vztahů zkoumal vztah mezi armádou a společností, kterou brání. I když tyto dva nemohou být příliš odlišné, aniž by riskovali katastrofu, nemohou být rovnocenné. „Vojenské instituce, které odrážejí pouze sociální hodnoty, nemusí být schopny účinně plnit svou vojenskou funkci,“ napsal . Ozbrojené služby, jedna z mála institucí, o kterých si většina Američanů stále myslí, že jsou funkční a kompetentní , jsou vždy lákavým cílem pro politiky, kteří chtějí „dokázat“, že rasová integrace a levicové hodnoty fungují. Rizikem je, že se z vojáků stanou sociální pracovníci s puškami. Někdo by řekl, že to už máme.

Přirozeně, protože armáda dodržuje civilní autoritu, důstojníci nemohou Kongresu říct, že černoši nepodávají stejnou úroveň, že se koedukační jednotky rozpadají nebo že nemůžete mít zároveň rozmanitost a kompetence. Kromě toho, na rozdíl od běžné společnosti, mohou důstojníci stále prosazovat alespoň některé minimální standardy a používat sílu k uvalení disciplíny. Každý v uniformě je dost chytrý na to, aby prošel ASVAB, IQ testem toho druhu, který Nejvyšší soud zakázal ve věci Griggs v. Duke Power Company kvůli „různorodému dopadu“.

Než však armáda může použít sílu k tomu, aby se různé skupiny dohodly, musí se lidé zaregistrovat. Zde se mosaz potýká se zásadnějším problémem. Mottem armády je „Toto budeme bránit“. Co je to "toto"?

Vláda je oficiálně podezřívavá k bílým mužům, i když historicky jde o armádu. Jejich oběti udělaly ze Spojených států supervelmoc. Vítězství nad Mexičany a Indiány však do příběhu o útlaku bílých příliš nezapadají. Ani křesťanství není vítáno v armádě, která oslavuje homosexualitu a transgenderismus. Není ani mnoho bílých amerických hrdinů, které si armáda může nárokovat, aniž by někoho urazila. Ale pokud jsou tito hrdinové a ta historie špatná, proč by se měli bílí muži přidat?

Nebílí mají jiný problém. Pokud je Amerika definována rasismem a nadvládou bílých, proč by za to měli být ochotni zemřít? Místo toho, aby armáda říkala nebílým Američanům, aby byli loajální a stateční, dieta teorie kritické rasy jim říká, že ozbrojené síly – stejně jako všechny ostatní americké instituce – jsou otráveny rasismem. Navíc programy DEI dávají nebílým důvod hledat stížnosti, jak se dostat dopředu, tak eliminovat bílé soupeře.

Hon na „krajně pravicový extremismus“ je hloupý úkol. Vojáci musí být „extrémisté“. Zabíjení cizinců, protože jsou hrozbou pro národ, je prakticky definicí „pravicového extremismu“. Ochota zemřít také vyžaduje oběť, která mysticky oceňuje národ nebo ideál cti nad racionální vlastní zájem. Dokonce i v sebenenávidím Německu, možná nejideologicky kontrolovaném národu na Západě, je „pravicový extremismus“ problémem v armádě . Vždy bude. Pokud někdo může být Američan a služby militantně brání rozmanitost, proč by měl být někdo připraven zabíjet nebo zemřít? Můžete se naučit řemeslo v armádě, ale proč se kvůli tomu obětovat? Jsou bílí muži, kteří jsou dost staromódní na to, aby milovali Ameriku, protože je jejich, ale jsou staromódní, nebezpeční a nechtění. Pokud se přesto připojí, mohou čelit nečestnému propuštění, pokud budou příliš hlasití o vlastenectví nebo říkají věci, které by jakákoli jiná generace vojáků považovala za samozřejmost.

Konzervativcům, kteří se obávají, že to „oslabuje“ Ameriku, však uniká pointa. Americká armáda, podporovaná technologií, těšící se z rozsáhlé sítě aliancí a ovládající velkou mediální moc, je sotva slabá. Ruská armáda měla sice tvrdé náborové inzeráty, ale to proti špičkové technologii a mezinárodní finanční hegemonii nestačí. Válka na Ukrajině zůstává neurovnaná, ale myslím si, že Amerika může zůstat hegemonek na úkor samotné bílé Ameriky.

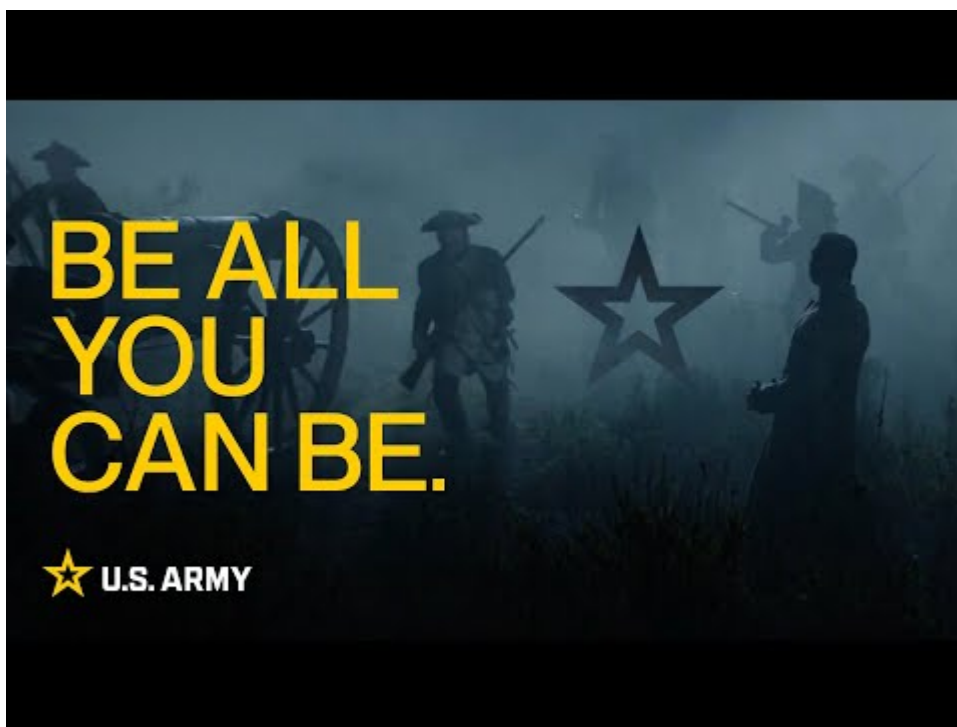

Americká armáda je protibílá. Proto předseda společných náčelníků přednáší Kongresu o bílém vzteku a čte Robina DiAngela. Vždy budou v řadách „krajně pravicoví extremisté“, ale nebudou mít moc. Místo toho je pravděpodobnější, že budou potravou pro děla.

Sam Francis v Leviathanu tvrdil, že zatímco většina elit v historii měla zájem o konzervativní hodnoty, které zachovávaly hierarchii a kontinuitu společnosti, moderní elita nikoli. Místo toho spoléhá na manipulaci a měkkou sílu, aby se udržela u moci. Spíše než se spoléhat na solidaritu a sílu sjednoceného národa, americká vládnoucí třída si zachovává svou pozici tím, že kultivuje skupiny křivd, které lze použít proti nepřítelům. Tyto skupiny jsou také institucionálním základem a ideologickým ospravedlněním pro udržení moci.

Amerika dělá totéž v zámoří. Ministerstvo zahraničí, nevládní organizace a aktivisté používají „barevné revoluce“ ke zničení oponentů. Totéž jsme viděli doma v roce 2020, kdy se dominantní instituce země rozhodně obrátily proti vlastní minulosti národa. Skutečnou otázkou pro nás není starat se o to, zda je Amerika dostatečně „tvrdá“ na to, aby bojovala s Čínou, Ruskem nebo Íránem. Jde o to, zda se dokážeme podívat na aktuální pořadí a říci „toto budeme bránit“. Pokud je odpověď ne, bílí Američané by neměli bojovat, pokud nechtějí nosit uniformu pro své vlastní účely. I kdyby ano, neměli by si dělat iluze o tom, za co bojují, ani předstírat, že jsou součástí stejné instituce, kterou kdysi sloužili američtí vojáci.

Nepodporuji pobuřování. Můžete dodržovat zákony, platit daně a být dobrým občanem, aniž byste dobrovolně zemřeli za lidi, kteří vámi pohrdají. Bílí Američané se musí ptát, koho tento režim představuje.

Možná se diví i mosaz. Armáda nedávno vytvořila reklamu, která – ačkoli má černého vypravěče – ukazovala bílé muže v pozitivním světle a lákala na minulost. Pokud jsou komentáře na YouTube nějakým náznakem, cílové publikum tuto frašku vidělo. Přesvědčte se sami, než komentáře smažou.

Watch Video At: <https://youtu.be/4ItEHJc33oQ>

Tyto komentáře – „Nikdy neumírám pro lidi, kteří mě nenávidí“, „Dokážou vést své vlastní války“, „Muži, kteří bojovali ve 2. světové válce, by se přidali k nacistům, kdyby mohli vidět, jak se jejich země stane“ – něco ukazují. nemovitý. Nedostatek náboru bude pokračovat, i když režim bude více bojovat na mezinárodní úrovni. I s penězi, mediální silou a technologií skutečná válka vezme muže na zem se zbraněmi. Naši vládcí jsou pravděpodobně dostatečně lstiví, aby se vyhnuli přímému konfliktu, ale pokud uklouznou, budou mít hrozný čas přesvědčovat bílé muže, aby bojovali a zemřeli za režim, který je nahrazuje. Možná bude ještě těžší říct nebílým, aby bojovali za „rasistickou“ zemi.

Any white American who dies for the Zionist Globo-homo Jewish empire is a fool. Had a conversation with this American family in Colorado. They were so proud of their son being in the military “defending America”. He was stationed in South Korea. When I tried to explain to them that being in South Korea had nothing to do with “defending” America I didn’t think I was going to get out of there alive.

Well, no offenses but the wars that your southern boys went and got killed in weren't even America's business. It was a Jew creation and you dolts went ahead and sacrificed your sons- lmao for their cause and worry.

Why worry at all about who is conscribing and who is fit enough when the very wars you fight for are useless, as far as your liberty is concerned? When a tooth becomes loose and you do nothing bacteria settle in the cavity and you get a pus swell on the gum- you don't remove the tooth now do you? You look at the problem at the root and give anti-bacterial medication to kill off the bacteria. Everything you people worry about and discuss is superficial bullshit when the root cause is known and nothing is done(on the contrary Republitards and Demonrats lick up Israeli balls every day and night). People have been saying this nation has been hijacked from within since the 70s but what happens? Nothing.

The southern white dolts get killed, they get a striped medal to show for it, and thats that. Meanwhile not one East Indian joins the US military(except for a few as doctors)-why? Because it's a stupid cause to give your life for-a landmass!! Hey, not my words. You guys worry about white replacement through unfiltered legal/illegal immigration and low birth rate, hell the military must account for a lot of dead whites(young breeding age) meanwhile the browns would rather enjoy the fruits of capitalism. Race mix is massive in major cities in middle America today.

You could blame the Jews all day till Sunday but your lack of brain and brawn is also responsible for the continual death of America as it once was. You keep hammering on the tooth, meanwhile the bacteria grows, spreads and pretty soon your entire jaw will have to be removed.

I am wondering if/when a nation like Russia creates a foreign legion if oppressed white Americans will start joining. I imagine the opportunity to fight back against BLM and antifa may be too good to pass up.

Best comment. You beat me by 10 minutes(you can check below for what I wrote). It pains me to see there are intelligent rational whites still out there-the best specimen of human beings on earth. You too will be devoured by the retarded masses!

Think of something man- a secession, an ethnostate. Hell, come over to my country India-I live in the North East with great lakes and ancient ruins. Come over and start a new society. You can shit on dot Indians all day(I do it-most are low-IQ subhumans) but they still haven't been corrupted from within and probably won't because self-preservation and uber-nationalism is very high. A new Brahmanical society can form(there was nothing wrong with the ancient caste system- you people are seeing now how important self-preservation of the higher race is).

I loved America and the west. An authority on their history, culture, literature, and cinema. I so badly wanted to live in Los Angeles, having watched movies from the 60s-90s. But the movies, the Oscars are all corrupt, not woke-corrupt and decaying.

Now I envisioned an idea of starting a new film industry in Montana/Nebraska, like the good ole days(Yellowstone the show is an inspiration, huge ratings, old values)....but day by day I feel all hope is lost and that the entire nation is risque. Montana, Iowa, Nebraska-everything will be swept away.

One option was to “means-test VA’s Disability Compensation for Veterans With Higher Income,” which would save an estimated $253 billion over 10 years.

Note this test would apply to those making over $140,000 a year. I’d prefer Congress look into the almost one million veterans rated 100% disabled who work full-time, many for the federal government.

Limiting SNAP (food stamp) benefits to healthy food is supported by 99% of Americans, which is done in the WIC program for young children. But Coke, Pepsi, and Frito-Lay spend millions to lobby against this idea since they’d lose 10% of sales. They fund social justice groups that call the idea “racist”. One can buy sugary soft drinks, donuts, ice cream, and chips with food stamps.

The U.S. will just do what every dying empire does: hire mercenaries to fight the wars for them, and slowly increase their reliance on the mercenaries. We already saw this with Blackrock in Iraq, but also local mercs as well as non-American globe trotting ones as well (think Africa).

Then either the U.S. will be conquered by a foreign power of loyal citizen soldiers (mercenaries don't fight to the last man, and will be bribed to switch sides) or else the mercs will realize they can just take over the U.S. themselves (see Western Roman Empire and the Visigoths).

Enjoy the decline, boys!

Those of us who served in the military are all telling our children to avoid it. It's been bad for a very long time, even back in the 80s they were promoting based on race and always looking for an excuse to punish White soldiers. It was possible to get decent training, though, while getting paid and having a bit of adventure. After the twenty year adventure in Afghanistan, I think that's worn off. No White American should join now, it's not our country anymore. Go to community college or trade school and get a marketable skill. Find another way to learn how to shoot and live in the bush.

I'm not sure the American technological "edge" is all it's cut out to be. As much as I hate to admit it, it couldn't pull off a victory in Afghanistan or Iraq. And the real tech jobs are all filled with Whites, a handful of Asians and some Hispanics. But mostly Pale. And you aren't even getting top shelf Whites. It takes brains to operate some of the higher tech equipment and without White recruits, they won't have enough of them. Navy vets I know are telling me there are real problems there, the young men I knew who went in and didn't reenlist say buggery is rampant and job performance falling quickly. America is going to have some real problems in the near future.

“Lobby” is irrelevant at this point. It amounts to buying ads in a puppet show.

The likes of Washington Compost and Salo^n can bully Exxxon or Facehug. So they could just as well bully MuckDonuts or producers of disgusting colored water. Why not? And all the trigglypuffs would support such a campaign with all their little fat-dripping hearts, simply because they would love to blame some witches for their idiotic problems.

If these are not bullied, it’s because those who run this song and dance do not want to bully them.

No, it’s the corrupt, Jew-owned Supreme Court that allowed politicians to receive private donations in any amount to win their seats. I don't really understand the purpose of these types of articles. Are we supposed to be lamenting the decline of the ZOG military here?

The USA is our enemy. Its military is our enemy. Members of the US military, subhuman animals unworthy of life, are also our enemy. The decline of this institution is something to be celebrated. What is the problem here? People who claim to be pro-white should want even more worthless females, insane trannies, and incompetent brown people in the highest ranks of the US military. And they should all be encouraged to overdose on drugs, murder each other, and commit suicide. These are all good things.

Our rulers are probably crafty enough to avoid a direct conflict, but if they slip up, they will have a terrible time convincing white men to fight and die for a regime that is replacing them. It may have an even harder time telling non-whites to fight for a "racist" country.

Super. A weakening of US neo-imperialism.

Btw, if they want real leftism in the military, get rid of all ranks. Make it equal.

Make no mistake. The next major war will require a Draft.

If more Americans would just wake up to the Jewish Threat and how they orchestrate the vast majority of wars for profit —No one would enlist.

If more Americans researched and understood what happened to the last 1000 or so Vietnam POW; completely abandoned by their country and left to die. Worse their country then went on a campaign of Cover Up to destroy most and seal all remaining records. And lie to and intimidate family members begging for help.

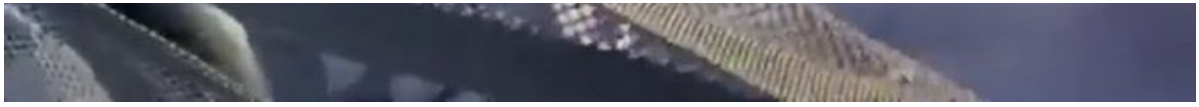

This is what your country really thinks of its Military Men. They secretly hate and scoff at you knuckle- dragging idiots.

How dare you inconvenience “The Big Guy” with your stupid coffin ceremony:

Yet we will move heaven and earth to get, Britney Griner; a pot smoking transgender basketball player released from a Russian prison. Even go as far as exchanging her/it for a notorious Arms Dealer.

Yes indeed, watch and see, the next major war will require a massive Military Draft. You will see a crackdown like never before. Congress will pass Hate Speech Law in the middle of the night. Any dissenters will be immediately silenced and arrested. All MSM will dutifully march in lock step.

Massive Propaganda will precede a Mandatory Service Draft. Traitors will be punished.

You Pinko Commies better get with the damn program!!

Carlton, you make an important point in saying, “One can buy sugary soft drinks, donuts, ice cream, and chips with food stamps.”

But an even more important point is the fact that vitamins are excluded from purchase with food stamps. And a friend told me that the food stamp allowance for himself and his wife just got reduced by one-third. ONE-THIRD!!! That is huge cut even in absence of this ever rising inflation!

So, what is the message that the gov is sending?

It is:

We don't want you “useless eaters” to be healthy. Go eat crap and die so you won't live long enough to draw on your social security account (which is alleged to be bankrupt in nine years). But, of course, there are unlimited funds for UKR and this will be so “for as long as it takes.”.

This is an interesting topic, and has aspects not mentioned so far by commenters and or by Hudson.

DOD has had serious trouble with officer quality (with the possible exception of USMC) ever since the Vietnam War. It was the NCO corps that pulled the US military back from the near anarchy of the post-Vietnam “hollow military” era into a combat effective force that invaded Iraq and then more or less disintegrated under early-Woke, primarily feminist, policies imposed on Iraq and the US Army after the conquest.

Today’s officers are largely (not entirely) ineffective. NCOs cannot entirely compensate for that, and in any case white NCOs are subject to the same career ceiling as prevail in non-DOD organizations. Flag rank officers tend to be half bright fools like General Milley, and to be chosen for for being fools.

OK, so other commenters and the author, G. Hood (<https://www.unz.com/ghood/an-army-of-none>) point out that this is terrible, unfair, racially discriminatory, and quite a variety of unpleasant names.

Like the person who, on finding out that there are insect parts in breakfast cereals, tried to assemble his own complete insect, I’d like to point out something else:

A non-White army is an ineffective army. Sure, the US has been substituting materiel (shells, bombs, armor, aircraft) for manpower since sometime during WW II. That strategy has its limits. It can only succeed if intelligently applied. If the officers are stupid fools (sorry to be so blunt), many working against the “racist” military, the force will be ineffective. In fact, if so much as the diplomatic corps insists on unworkable policies (such as feminism in Islamic societies), the military force will be ineffective.

The current policy insists on stupid fools in all areas of the military, with exceptionally unable people in the positions of higher authority in both NCO and Officer ranks. This is also more or less the policy enforced in US corporations (consider the ESG/Risk Management officer in Silicon Valley Bank.

<https://www.unz.com/jderbyshire/as-a-former-credit-suisse-risk-management-shlub-i-ask-is-dei-bringing-down-the-banking-system/>).

The Woke plan is to recruit US officers and NCOs exclusively from groups with an average IQ 10 to 15 points below that of the White population. Whites are to be kept from influential positions. Since the Black coalition is now dominant (and has classified Jewish people as White), it is likely that Blacks prevail over Hispanics as they have in the political realm.

So, all this is terrible, the US military won't be effective, etc. Some say this is good, that an effective military wielded by the woke is a danger to humanity in general. Others say that it is bad, that China will prevail internationally (unlikely because of Chinese demographics, lack of raw materials, and lack of historic allies).

I point out that a dumb as stumps, undisciplined and atrocity committing, White/Hispanic population hating DoD, is just about right for policing a totalitarian US run by its current elites (Black, with Jewish “servants of the King” in those spots that absolutely require somebody smart but amoral such as tax collection, and old half senile Whites where a White dummy is needed). The US Left has been pushing for a dumb as they come upper class since at least the 1950s (see White, _The Organization Man_, first published 1956).

So, those saying that low IQ military is a good thing are in part correct, but it is not a good thing for them. It would be an active menace for them.

If you can't visualize this, you can read a fictionalized version of this system in Schlickter's Turnbull series.

The effective way to reason the „U.S. administration“ is to hit their troops (and hit them real hard); ...is also the current enlightenment of some influential Russian strategists: hit American troops in a meaningful size. Devour 155.000 of U.S. Army scum spread out in over 119 outlets in the remnants of Germany (in size now less than Montana).

I am looking forward to the total destruction of the JewS Army in Europe and in Germany in particular. May each and every single American be turned into fertilizer, so that their cuckold lives have at least some purpose, but on the other hand US Army scum can not be put in the ground because the soil contamination would be unbearable.

This is what the whole world wants to see:

Jewmerica – Jew & hyena (e.g. Evangelicals, US Army) – is today neither the world’s leading economic power nor the world’s leading military power. It wants to destroy others, and German & Russian Europe in particular, before it retracts. It has a deep deep inferiority complex about Europe if not about all cultural peoples on this plaine. It is greed; the army of greed of greedy creeds; just creeps no matter what skin colour. Interestingly enough many U.S. army generals are Jews.

This is a much bigger problem. The military is only one part of it. The old saying: “The juice was just not worth the squeeze” comes to mind when talking about our society now. Our society does not function for people that work and study hard. You are punished by doing good things. Why start a business only to be sued by some female employee over sexual harassment that you never did? Why start a family just to be financially raped by the government. How about the feeling you get when you realize that your own lawyer was fighting against your interests and now you are the bad guy? And please do not mention the corruption in western society now. The joke is on you.

The best strategy now is to do as little as possible with western society. Enjoy yourself, the world is big. Learn a new language and move the hell out of this western sinking ship. Cherry pick the good stuff from the West and if you want to give, do so and be generous with your wealth and your time to non-western societies. But keep in mind, “no good deed goes unpunished.” Sorry, unfortunately that is just how it is.

In general, the AmRen authors increasingly prevalent here at TUR steer clear of criticizing American imperialism and Big War. This article begins

Suppose they gave a war and nobody came? The United States is gearing up for a possible war with China, but it faces a serious recruitment problem.

but avoids any further judgment. The passage about the decline of elite participation in Uncle Sam's armed forces, followed by a picture of Georgetown students protesting, presented an opportunity — if not an obligation — to note the Establishment's recent 20th anniversary celebration of its destruction of Iraq. Instead, the theme is

The American military is anti-white.

So Mr. Hood:

1. If soldiers were instead lauded for being white, should they proudly deploy for Uncle Sam?
2. Should black people be doing so now?

For reasons that I only partially understand, strangers sometimes tell me their most traumatic experiences. Once when I was cooking after dark in a national forest campground, another camper wandered over and said hello. Within a couple of minutes, he was recounting the loss of his son as a fully functional person. His son was an electronic warfare specialist who was at Fort Bragg on detached duty for a couple of days. He was sleeping in a building set aside for quartering such visitors. Late into the night, three drunk paratroopers entered his quarters and spent half an hour beating him nearly to death. The youngster didn't die, but he never regained full cognition.

Many young white men reject military service because it is psychologically hostile to them. At least as good a reason is simply not being willing to be at the mercy of a command structure that can destroy you in so many ways.

When I made my above comment I googled uninhabited lands on earth. Unfortunately all are either tiny islands or places like Greenland....except the Russian tundra. The entire place was marked in color and though it did seem inhospitable overall, the lower regions could potentially harbor good irrigable land. I feel Russia is the last resort but who will explain this truth to Putin? That millions of whites from all over the world are wanting to come

All the rational white population can make their way to Russia and start afresh. The landmass is huge and the white spirit is good enough they can start from scratch and build a functioning system in time. All their past magnificent structures will go to the Jews and their non white subordinates but with time they will start fighting amongst themselves(diversity never works) and destroy everything....all the bridges and the skyscrapers and the railroads and the submarines. It is bound to happen. You're seeing it in the movies, for the Oscars they've invited the whole world....Indians, Asians and this year there were reports of infighting because of "different values". This will happen in every facet of society. The parasite(jew) can suck up and chew out but it needs another host or else it too perishes.

In a weird kinda way all this is good for whites. They have to secede and relocate. Start afresh. A new beginning.

“That the men for whom the bases were named had taken up arms against the government they had sworn to defend...”

A deliberate and conscious lie. Officers in the US Army had sworn oaths to defend the USA; but the moment the Confederate States of America declared its independence, those oaths were nullified as the Southern officers were no longer US citizens.

Otherwise, it must be admitted that all the ex-British officers who fought for the Revolutionary army were committing treason too.

Either secession on the terms enshrined in the Declaration of Independence is possible, or it is not. One rule for everyone.

The US government’s view, that the right to secede depends purely on the military power to enforce it, is amoral and renders all laws and treaties irrelevant and meaningless.

This article appears to focus on the topic of recruitment shortages. However, it nowhere discusses either of the two most salient causes therefor.

One is (what I shall call) the Awakening Factor. Events in the last few years have “awakened” people to the real agenda of our own government and its use of false flag and color revolution events to carry out its imperialistic goals.

The other one is (what I shall call) the Maxine Factor. Service enlistees were faced with the intolerable dilemma of either acquiescing to the Maxine Mandate or receive a dishonorable discharge from Service.

The armed services were not alone in imposing the Maxine Ultimatum on their people. Airlines did it with their pilots and other staffers. What follows are some quotes from Stew Peters show and globalresearch.com.

“Southwest Airlines 6013 LAS-CMH Departing Las Vegas Diverted as Pilot Collapsed Shortly After Takeoff Morning of March 22, 2023 – Fifth Pilot Collapse in Past Three Weeks!”

“United Airlines Flight 2007 GUA-ORD diverted due to “incapacitated pilot” who had chest pains.”

“Emirates Flight EK205 MXP-JFK diverted due to pilot illness hour and a half after take-off.”

“British Airways pilot collapsed in Cairo hotel and died, was scheduled to fly Airbus A321 from Cairo to London.”

“Virgin Australia VA-717 flight Adelaide to Perth was forced to make an emergency landing after First Officer suffered heart attack 30 min after departure.”

“Three pilots of the US airline Delta Airlines also died in June 2021 after a vaccination, according to health economist Dr. Jane Ruby.”

“In addition, another pilot of a cargo plane collapsed on the runway when landing in Canada. The paramedics had to take him away on a stretcher.”

“A pilot of the US airline “JetBlue Airways” even went public and unpacked that up to five pilots of the airline had died between February and May of this year.”

“A vaccinated pilot for the US airline Delta Air Lines died during a flight. The pilot suddenly said strange things and then died, the co-pilot said.”

“The number of [pilot] incidents is increasing. On August 27, pilot Nawshad Quaiyum of Biman Bangladesh Airlines fell ill during a flight from Masqat in Oman to Dhaka. The aircraft had to make an emergency landing. He suffered a stroke, fell into a coma and died in the hospital.”

“A Seattle pilot was found dead at home. He was diagnosed with an embolism.”

“Two flight attendants from Atlanta were found dead a few days after the second vaccination.”

“A steward from Salt Lake City died after a second Janssen vaccination.”

“A pilot reported that the airline paid the United Airlines pilots to be vaccinated with $2,000, the same with Delta Airlines. The “carrot or stick” strategy was used. Failure to vaccinate would result in discharge.”

A country whose citizens are too stupid to feed themselves without the government both paying for it and telling them what to eat has problems.

Let's just ignore the issue of the government/corporate complex making it harder than hard to source your own food as well as making it too expensive to enjoy a healthy lifestyle if you are in lower 60 percent of the population.

Combine that with the flooding of stores with processed, fatty, oily and high in sugar, foods that are pimped to those working between two to three jobs just to survive and you get a nation of fat people.

But go on, tell me how a family working 80 hours a week just to pay rent simply needs to manage their calorie intake, cook healthy foods and hit the gym.

Good read. It is always good read reading about American problems. From what is written it means USA basically has the pool of eligible fit servicemen fit for the country of 60-70 million and it is planning to fight China. I am sure China would have this sort of issue too but mostly due to Chinese traditional aversion towards military service and sacrifice needed. Anyway it would be more than enough. Looks like USA is trying to bite of more than she can chew in this case. The only way USA can fight China is by hunting Chinese on high seas because getting into land war with such military looks too crazy even for crazy yanks. Thankfully Xi has Vladimir full attention and Power of Siberia and other resources readily sold by Russia. This cannot be blocked. Anyway, not dear yanks, keep eating more sugar and invent more sexes and get deeper into dept. The sooner the whole thing blows apart the better for the rest of the world.

But it is even worse than that, and it is the working class tax payer that is always shafted with no lube.

Contractors do all the work in combat zones. The enlisted blacks and browns lay around, binge watch, eat junk and sleep. From passing out the towels at the gym to moving pallets of water to inventory of weapons- it is all contractors.

They are paid very well. However, as if America can not get any more pro black, the hiring has been taken over by Free Mason blacks. There are a few whites. Those blacks get their Boos in and they run it down to the HR people. Not the top guys. Those are white POS who don't care about anything but those billions of dollars in sole source contracts they receive.

So, you have this dystopian bizarre hellscape where a few white contractors, old timers, do all the work to the point of exhaustion while black enlisted and contractors have sex, make drama, eat and steal from the US Government.

There WILL be a DRAFT.

If you don't report for duty, your bank account will be turned off. Stores will stop giving change back on purchases. You will run out of money, get hungry, and then report for duty. If the Government gets cash removed and a digital currency implemented, this will happen faster.

What are you gonna do about it? Protest? Antifa will be sent as well as feds to beat you/frame you for arrests, etc. Once arrested and sentenced, they will still MAKE you serve.

The United States lacks a responsible aristocracy. In 2006, just a few years after 9/11, fewer than 1 percent of Ivy League graduates joined the military and about 1 percent of Congressmen had a child in uniform. ABC reported that many upper-class Americans didn't want to support an "immoral" war in Iraq or Afghanistan. In 2015, just 20 percent of elected officials had military experience and a 2021 Pew poll found the proportion of veterans in American society was declining.

As an ex-con, I can 100% say that going to jail/prison is preferable to being drafted.

If you're ever drafted, just know that you'll probably be fine in prison but you'll get freaking killed in a war. Your odds are much better in jail/prison, especially federal prison (it's pretty cushy).

I say that as a thin, pretty man. I was fine. Just make friends, read books, work out, avoid "diverse" inmates. It's chill enough. Sometimes the food sucks and it's noisy, but that's about as bad as it gets.

Sam Francis argued in Leviathan that while most elites in history had an interest in conservative values that preserved hierarchy and the continuity of society, the modern elite does not. Instead, it relies on manipulation and soft power to stay in power. Rather than relying on the solidarity and strength of a united nation, the American ruling class retains its position by cultivating grievance groups to use against enemies. These groups also are the institutional basis and ideological justification for retaining power.

America does the same thing overseas. The State Department, NGOs, and activists use “color revolutions” to destroy opponents. We saw the same thing domestically in 2020, as the country’s dominant institutions turned decisively against the nation’s own past.

Thanks

Looking just now for “vaccine” in Mr. Hood's articles netted some typical AmRen racebait

Blacks are simply less likely to get vaccinated. The overall racial pattern is the one you see for SAT and IQ scores. COVID-19 Death Rates: Whites Get the Blame; September 26, 2021 that likely motivated malleable whites to roll up their sleeves and prove to themselves that they're smart. Steve Sailer and Antony Karlin played the same role. Distract, Divide & Conquer.

Maybe I missed it. But when and what (e.g., “second Pfizer booster”) was the author's last COVID shot?

Sixty-four percent of recruits come from neighborhoods where households make between $41,692 and $87,850. Just 17 percent come from neighborhoods that are better off than that.

Surely a recruit’s IQ would be a much more meaningful measure than the socio-economic status of the recruit’s “neighborhood”?

jews and white women seem to benefit just fine from this culture. Maybe they should be at the front lines? Every white women I ever met in school was the toughest bitch going, and smarter than any man; that she needed affirmative action to get every job she ever held was trivial. No, it's the corrupt, Jew-owned Supreme Court that allowed politicians to receive private donations in any amount to win their seats. If there were official election financing, equal for all candidates, all other donations forbidden, America would not be owned by the Jews and the world would be a much better place.

I agree with your assessment of the SCOTUS. I don't know that Jews so much own it, but rather the rapacious megalomaniacs of all ethnic or racial groups...they are not all Jews.

Here is what I believe you are referring to: The SCOTUS has passed down egregious decisions that abridge the First Amendment and show contempt for the concept of representative democracy. Buckley v. Valeo, 424 U.S. 1976 and exacerbated by continuing stupid SCOTUS decisions First National Bank of Boston v. Bellotti, Citizens United v. Federal Election Commission, and McCutcheon v. Federal Election Commission.

These decisions have codified that money is free speech, giving entities of wealth and power total influence in elections.

No Jews were sitting on the court at the time of these decisions. I have posted this here many times.

I could see single white males emigrating, but not white women. Look, white women have a good thing going in America: they get espressos and lattes, a desirable social credit score for giving their sons the clot shot, affirmative action in the hiring process, and are over-represented on our college campuses (well, at least relative to white males), and get to blame their ex-boyfriends when things don't work out. And white women can use the levers of the state against their baby daddies or exes when they're in a bitchy mood. Sure they're being cancelled by trannies, but the tranny movement is running out of steam as we speak. If white men leave for something better, white women will just breed with jews, simians, and hinjews. White women have the nation they voted for and burned their bras for. Since they didn't build it, it does not matter to them if the United States survives in a coherent form. Trusting jews was the biggest mistake the white man ever made. But the second biggest mistake the white man made was thinking his women were worth a tinker's damn.

The military is bound by antiquated rules of decorum no longer relevant in the modern age. Male-identifying service members should be allowed to grow their hair long just like female troops. With women now serving in all military jobs there is no logical reason why men should be required to keep their hair cropped short. Just add some rules for tying it up in a neat, tight bun like the ladies do and the Army will see a surge of new volunteers.

I was in the brown-shoe Army myself. Seems the biggest struggle for today's new recruits must be the struggle to avoid bursting out laughing when a tightly-coiffed female drill sergeant screams at them. Maybe it prepares them for a corporate career.

Thank you for writing this. It is indeed a sad state of affairs. Such gorgeous locations, such beautiful infrastructure created by your ancestors....all going to dust.

Regarding the no jobs available thing....I'll say something. An entrepreneur creates jobs. An honest entrepreneur ensures his workers are paid well and honestly. That creates a healthy system, the bedrock on which any society functions.

I have many film production heroes...Clint Eastwood is one. Very economical and straightforward. His Malpaso entertainment is a blueprint on how to run an honest and successful company. I have read every book on the man. There was a book of interviews with him released in the 70s, conducted through a telephone from new york by a journalist. During the time Clint was making High Plains Drifter, and he thought of creating a new movie industry in Montana or Nebraska. It was very inspiring.

Nebraska, you would know better, is facing the same problems as Montana added with a horrible drug problem. It wasn't this bad back then but it was there. Clint said, even if he could start from a building in Lincoln, the capital he would make it work..... the people would come. Film is a very creative medium and an entire industry from writers to food caterers to carpenters can spring up around it, in other words a good entrepreneur can kickstart a town, a city and even a movement.

It inspired me so much and i know it's true.....those same drugged, lost, aimless men would be given a lifeline. They'll have mornings to look forward to. I want to do that! As for the content? You know damn well how a good movie or documentary can effect a junta. Just look at Leni Riefenstahl's documentaries. If done well people will respond. Everyone is unhappy deep down at the state of things.

Yellowstone is in the news all over the world. And why not? In this day and age of instant streaming where any show would be happy to get 2 million viewers an episode Yellowstone is averaging 10 million(!!!) in its fourth season. That's massive numbers. It's a revolution. Even the coastal stuck up journalists who always begrudge flyover states are writing articles on how Yellowstone is the biggest show of the nation. An article in Esquire compared the huge international hit succession to yellowstone. Succession is the biggest most popular coastal show, appealing to an international market, but only averages 2 million per show at best. They are jealous. You can make all the memes and write all the awards and give all the golden globes, but the ratings bring the dough. Simple as that.

This is the power of middle America! This is my point. Middle America alone can create a GDP higher than 90 percent of all nations on planet earth but provided they are all guided towards a common goal. It's not hard....just make good shows and films without an agenda, with good relatable plots and actors who do their job and go home.

Hollywood and Oscars are dead ...just look at last week's show. Full of Indians and Asians, talking about diversity and sentimental tosh. Compare it to the Oscars from even as recent as 1995 or 1990. The white mans make up is stoic and reserved, it is anti all this sentimental and egostic crap. And mark my words...now in the beginning they're all hanky panky with each other but soon enough the black will unleash on the Indians and the Indians on the Asians and so on....because by their nature these people are sentimental and lacking in self belief. It is bound to happen.

This is what I mean by creating a new system in middle America, with those values. Create their own awards full of grace and panache. Yellowstone actors have relocated to Montana. I can look at many of them and see that they're at home here. How much can a proud patriotic old school white man hide? Others need to come. Olden movies were made by white men...star wars, close encounters etc....many of them left the industry to go brew beer. They need to get back to their groove. Create your own ecosystem in Montana or Nebraska or any middle American state. Give incentives. Start a new award show. And just make good films and shows. And then you will see that superior nations like Japan and South Korea will respond to the content. Good content will rise above all else.

Hell, even the non whites, deep down know that the stoicism and prestige of the olden days was better.

I wrote a lot. Jeez.

The father was a low-key guy. His son was a nerd, not likely to be picking fights. There are plenty of cowards in the world who want to make themselves feel big. When I was 14, four black-jacketed wannabe 18-yearold thugs surprised me in a small foyer of an apartment building where I delivered newspapers. One said, "Take him, shorty." The smallest of the group, several inches shorter than I was, hit me with a right cross to my eye socket. My lights went out, and they left. I saw the whole episode as compensation on their part. But having been awakened to the potential of bullies, the next day I sent for a mail order Corsican folding knife with a 6-inch blade.

It was possible to get decent training, though, while getting paid and having a bit of adventure.

Decent training in what? Nothing of value in the civilian market. That adventure cost the lives of over 58,000 youth in Vietnam.

Find another way to learn how to shoot and live in the bush.

I did that over sixty years ago by joining the NRA and learning to shoot and hunt game. My father also taught me how to shoot and gun safety. You don't learn how to hunt game in the military.

Because its “a stupid cause” to give your life for-a landmass!!
<=always its a mass (land, sea, or air) that contains a prize:
someone else's oil and gas, or someone else's gold, or someone else's highly productive farm land, or someone else's technology, or someone else's profitable business or as was the case with Iraq because Saddam Hussein was issuing currency that did not conform to the bankers policies.

Military uses its man-power and weapons to save or grab "a prize" or to save or destroy "someone else's "prize". This strategy they do in order to enable the oligarch and their global corporations to obtain what they want or need<=a competition free, easy to exploit world, with enjoyment exclusive to the oligarch.

Modern Wars are "competitions between oligarchs . It involves strategies that force a settlement between competing oligarch's and their corporate right arms. The benefit of War is two pronged: one prong seeks to enrich the wealth and power of the rich and the other prong seeks to subordinate the masses to execute the strategies the oligarchs or their corporations wish.

Another absolutely great article from Hood, one of my very favorites.

My great Grandfather fought in the Civil War. My Grandfather Charles was mustard gassed and gut shot at Belleau Wood, my father was at Pearl Harbor on Dec. 7th 1941 and went on to fight at Savo Island, Coral Sea and Midway. I joined in 1969 and was out by 1973.

I have grandchildren coming to military age now and I have told them if they join the Military they are traitors to the nation. They are, under NO circumstances going into the military to be humiliated, indoctrinated and made to bend the knee to mediocrities who have Peter Principaled themselves into high rank by way of the color of their skin and political affiliations.

I loved the comments on FascistTube.

However, conservatives who worry that this “weakens” America are missing the point. Bolstered by technology, enjoying a vast network of alliances, and controlling great media power, the American military is hardly weak. The Russian army may have had tough-as-nails recruitment ads, but that is not enough against superior technology and international financial hegemony. The war in Ukraine remains unsettled, but my point is that America may remain the hegemon at the expense of white America itself.

This is inaccurate and not supported by military history, the mechanics, causes, and workings of military conflict. Many writers such as Hood are competent in their specialties, which are defined by abstraction, i.e., the writings of others, extracted data from non-personal sources, and a paucity of technical, scientific framework from direct experience in the “feedback Real World Realm”.

I have seen this frequently. The result of deductive thinking projected on the specified set of inductive examples and instances. He is judging the body of water by the surface and shoreline characteristics. Perhaps cultivating some friends from the military side, or absorbing the warrior pronouncements would levitate his lack of knowledge in this area.

Engineering, STEM disciplines require focus, time, and commitment. There are not many generalized, easily obtained conclusions or opinions easily available. I note one John Mearsheimer, George Kennan, as exceptions probably due to more direct contact with the actual players that operate the machinery.

Years ago, I was an engineering cadet from marine engineering technical college assigned to a ship that was chartered to carry military supplies to the “Allied” forces in Vietnam. 1973. Going up the Saigon River, I saw mile after mile of defoliated forest, desolate and ghastly. Saigon itself was overwhelming to me-the mix of native culture, left over French influence. There was fear and uncertainty in the air, and a lack of commitment and passion for independence of South Vietnam.

Months later, the American defenses were rearrange in a manner that was pure abstract fantasy. A group of American generals-as stupid, lacking in integrity, and useless as General Westmoreland-proposed concentrating the S. Vietnam and Allied forces into “enclaves”, much like castles in ancient times. This accelerated the decline in the abilities and moral of the South.

But back in Washington, President Gerald Ford was assured by his “National Security Team” that the war was proceeding well, evidence was consonant with this position, and the direction was favorable. [See JSA/NATO position and prognostications on Ukraine].

So, a bevy, a passel of career professionals were a chorus of optimism and consistent thematic content. But, me, a mere 20 something Behavioral and Natural Science college dropout and current student of engineering, had the exact opposite opinion. We later sailed to Da Nang to unload the rest of our cargo, passing several reactivated IOWA class heavy battleships shelling some place over the coastal mountains. The Geist was similar; pessimism and fear and uncertainty.

This little byline illustrates the value of direct observations and being as close to people and sources who “got their hands dirty” and waded through the muck. And that, ladies and gentlemen, is exactly what is happening in Ukraine, by the same sort of people, churning out the same nonsense that is predetermined and selected for alternative reasons and motivations other than what is actual and concrete. None of the Executive Branch of the American Govt. is naive. They are proselytizing because they have been bribed and blackmailed.

I might add that my view of things was reinforced by the “Old Hands”, the other engineers that sailed supply ships across the Pacific and Atlantic during WWII and the Korean War. When you are in a profession when you have to be right 100% of the time, that tends to sharpen your critical thinking and acuity.

When a tooth becomes loose and you do nothing bacteria settle in the cavity and you get a pus swell on the gum-you don't remove the tooth now do you? You look at the problem at the root and give anti-bacterial medication to kill off the bacteria.

With teeth, it doesn't work that way. In my one case, and I keep my teeth clean, once the trouble started, don't know the exact term in English, I changed dentists. From a local one who had shown himself bad with an earlier problem, to a prof. at a university hospital. The latter never applied antibiotics.

The tooth stayed in place for abt. five years, but went loose and fell out in the end.

Maybe dentists in Japan are not as good as in U.S.A., but I think not. It's just inevitable that, once the trouble has started, the tooth will fall out at some time.

You are, of course, correct on those who allow a problem to reach pus-exuding level and then infect the jawbone.

So many Americans have all of their teeth pulled out and replaced, or all 'capped', that is such a strange custom.

As for your analogy with cultural poison though, I'm in full agreement.

Then we should die in our front yards, on our feet.

“And how we burned in the camps later, thinking: What would things have been like if every Security operative, when he went out at night to make an arrest, had been uncertain whether he would return alive and had to say good-bye to his family? Or if, during periods of mass arrests, as for example in Leningrad, when they arrested a quarter of the entire city, people had not simply sat there in their lairs, paling with terror at every bang of the downstairs door and at every step on the staircase, but had understood they had nothing left to lose and had boldly set up in the downstairs hall an ambush of half a dozen people with axes, hammers, pokers, or whatever else was at hand?... The Organs would very quickly have suffered a shortage of officers and transport and, notwithstanding all of Stalin’s thirst, the cursed machine would have ground to a halt! If...if...We didn’t love freedom enough. And even more – we had no awareness of the real situation.... We purely and simply deserved everything that happened afterward.”

Illustration of the (American) democracy on the march in Ukraine: <https://www.moonofalabama.org/2023/03/ukraine-open-thread-2023-69/comments/page/2/#comments>

Has ICC filed charges against Ukraine for its attacks, looting, and “confiscating” of the Eastern Orthodox churches? Ukraine is under ICC jurisdiction and has clearly committed those crimes against a religion that is defined by ICC. ... Why have ICC and its member states not pursued these crimes of Ukrainian that clearly violate ICC “laws?”

Answer: Ukraine is run by a Zionist-Nazi regime controlled by Straussians (neo-talmudists) at the US State Department.

Also, time for Belgrade, Iraq, Afghanistan, Syria, and Libya to demand from the US the decontamination of their lands from American junk, including the decontamination of the highly harmful depleted uranium. Currently, the demented British “baroness” Annabel Goldie (the reincarnation of the genocidal Madeleine Albright) issued an order to send armor with depleted uranium to Ukraine.

People of Renfrewshire should tar and feather the genocidal idiot: https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Annabel_Goldie

She is an Elder in the Church of Scotland, and sits on the West of Scotland Advisory Board of the Salvation Army. She is a Deputy Lieutenant of the County of Renfrewshire.

Annabel Goldie should first try the depleted uranium by sprinkling it over her oatmeal in the morning. Church of Scotland, behave righteously and anathemize and excommunicate the vicious warmonger.

Black governments get into the habit of treating their soldiers like slaves. In context, 'loyal' means the native soldiers are used to the idea they owe the government whatever the government sees fit to demand, and in return the government doesn't owe them shit.

Mercenaries sign real contracts. The government thoughtlessly breaks the contract, mercenaries go, "Uhh, bruh," and then somehow it's mercenaries that get a reputation for being dishonourable.

Though there's also a selection effect: if you're familiar with government demands on its military, if you have the industry knowledge, then you don't sign up with a Late Empire government in the first place without a wide dishonourable streak. You have to assume they're going to shaft you and have a plan to cut and run, and at worst they do it one at a time instead of all mercenary companies at once. An [it takes two to tango] selection effect.

The purpose of the American voter is to be squeezed dry by corporations, so that the corporations can afford Communist bribes.

These are very expensive procedures and thus Americans show off to each other by how much they’ve contributed to their dentists’ college fund (=voluntary excise tax).

Many of us city boys only learned how to shoot zip guns and hunt women, joining the Army taught me a lot about weapons, camping and my job was working on electro-mechanical machinery which benefited me greatly. Guys I worked with learned communications equipment, we had electricians and some worked on computers. Guys in the motor pool could, if they wanted, become pretty decent auto mechanics. And I got to travel the world, meet new people and kill them. It was a lot of fun for an 18 year old kid. The country boys I served with taught me to hunt and go four wheeling and dealing with all the blacks trying very hard to do nothing confirmed what already I knew about them in NY. So it wasn't a complete waste of time. At least then. Like I wrote in my first line, times have changed and I tell anyone who asks me not to enlist.

I know many men who served in Vietnam, returned and lived great lives. Some of them, like most old timers, reminisce fondly about their time in the swamp. Young men have wanted to go to war since we first emerged from the cold Caucasus mountains. War is part of our DNA. The US just isn't our country anymore.

My father was a Marine who fought in the Pacific during WW2. He volunteered on December 8, 1941.

A few years before he died at age 97, he told me that if he knew then what the US would become, not only would he have refused to enlist, but he would have gone to jail rather than fight. This is from a man who was deeply patriotic and loved the Marines.

I was with Hood until I saw this near the end of the piece:

“I’m not encouraging sedition.”

Why do the authors here at UR regularly make such groveling, ass-covering statements? How the hell is it “sedition” to resist a criminal, foreign entity that has usurped the lawful, legitimate government and trampled the Constitution and the rights of the people? Hood had better re-examine his definition of “sedition,” or start writing for rags like AmCon or National Review where such groveling and weasel words are expected as tribute to the (((masters))).

A cut in SNAP benefits was long overdue, even in the midst of rising inflation. Due to Covidscam, once an individual or family qualified for an allotment, benefits were put on autopilot. Means testing for current recipients was eliminated, even when a rise in income put a client family over the limit. Overpayments were no longer processed.

Also, IMHO, it's not possible to confine SNAP benefits to so-called healthy foods. Determining which foods qualify as healthy and which do not would require too many value judgments from too many corrupt government bureau-craps, probably swayed by under-the-table payoffs. The supermarkets would be subject to riots when women went to the checkout counters, intending to pay with SNAP, only to find out that half of their shopping cart had to be removed. Good luck finding low wage clerks willing to put up with the abuse. Theft, already a problem in minority areas, would skyrocket. Supermarkets, which rely on higher profit "junk" foods to break even, would go out of business.

I wonder when the dullards are going to start connecting the dots here: a Jew dictator is leading the persecution of the Christian majority. You have the right idea but the wrong tools and Operating Manual.

My opinion is that only separation, secession, and founding a new homeland-no, not the Pacific Northwest fantasy of Nordic and Germanic Romanticism.

The autonomous secession movement is gaining momentum, and fast. It is becoming part of everyday conversation. When “critical mass” arrives, there must be a framework in place that is subscribed and supported as a hub among a constellation of ideas. This is actually a set that is multifold

Since I have been a adult-the onset was a long time ago-one group has been agitating continuously for a carved out autonomous “homeland”. These are the Hispanderics, whose original grievance was that the Southwest US was taken from them by the Christian Conquistadors. This is true; Texas was formerly a part of Mexico. Generally, Hispanderics and “Latinos” of the mulatto and mestizo kind want what they consider their ancestral indigenous lands.

Following that roadshow are the American Negroes, Inc. Their list of grievances, woes, failures, social and psycho pathologies are claimed to be generated by the White Man starting by their forced removal from Mother Africa. It matters not that no society on earth that has/is controlled and governed by Blacks rises above the basic “pre-economic take-off” (Rostov) level, similar to an airplane that taxis but cannot get airborne.

The White Partition would be the most fertile agricultural lands in America, inclusive Alaska. Negroes and Hispanics will choose ancient ancestral lands; Blacks are attracted to the hive of urban jive and the present munificence of social welfare programs.

Very few people have thought this through on a material, logical, and resource basis. Most are driven by past glories, abstract concepts, and smoke (but no fire). Given that all three ethnic groups get their new homelands and are satisfied that they can finally thrive without the burden of the White Man imposing “systemic” (used to be a nice word) throttling of their development, Whites can act in an appropriate manner.

First, would be the establishment as a special relationship with the Russian Federation as a “special” district, and protectoral entity. Second, a culling of the herd must systematically ensue. Third, breeding patterns-both quality and quantity must proceed-under new auspices. What would those be like? Heat and serve: what Russian society prioritizes, allows and disallows. Re-orientation of values, norms, in all aspects of public and private life. The past of Western Civilization is of limited usefulness and utility. This new republic must be a fusion of the East and West.

Feel free to add or supplement the above.

There is an old saying about wars: Rich men start them; poor men fight them. College deferments were used during the Vietnam War because the affluent did not want their sons drafted and sent to Vietnam. What we have now is a poverty draft in which the young who cannot find good jobs join the military.

Everyone with draft-age or younger sons/grandsons should be making efforts to give them a ready fallback option for leaving the US rather than be drafted.

Help them go to college or work abroad.

Help them gain the language skills they'll need.

Help them obtain temporary, then permanent resident status in one or two other countries — make them countries that do not appear likely to join the US in its upcoming suicidal war against China.

These preparations for a life abroad take time and money. We've started. Our boys will not be forced to murder or be killed for this regime, for banks, for energy corporations, for Israel, for people with ethnic and religious grudges against various peoples and countries around the world, whatever the fuck it is the US brutalizes the world for.

The hostile Left is not possessed of intellectual or political honesty, rational or constructive purpose, or a new, New Deal, proposal before the American people. We're simply to submit, no matter the injury or destruction. The awesome Left, prevented a US military led coup, through the MSM, and the US Army's own high command. The Left foists policy, executives, and organizational compliance via violence, the threat of violence, and/or cancellation.

The latest revelations provided by the new FOX broadcast of 1/6 videos, by Tucker Carlson prove the 2020 Elections and the 1/6 Electoral Vote process were rigged. Not a peep from our Congress. The one, patriotic, fundamental, institution that could step in and impose law, order, and organization on the elitist global government, the US Army, has been rendered useless to the Constitutionally ordered, United States nation-state. The American people will never live down the 2020 Election and their abandonment of the 1/6 prisoners. Will the US Army ever live this Left nonsense-offensive on their officer corps and soldiers down, or will they respond; will they ever wake up to the actual national security crisis?
